HOW TO MIX MORTAR.

BRICK IMPERVIOUS TO WATER.

The Brokers Still Unable to Raise Wind Enough to Fly Their Goods.

THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

Everything appertaining to house-building, whether relating to work or material, is of prime importance in Pittshurg, where it is one of the leading industries. All builders know the difficulty of obtaining good mortar, upon the strength and durability of which everything depends. In answer to numerous inquiries for directions as to the best way to combine and mix mortar, Prof. Ira O. Baker, of Illinois, has contributed to the Society of Engineers of that State an exhaustive study of the subject, from which the following is taken: Mortar may be made practically non-absorbent by the addition of alum and potash soap. One per cent, by weight, of powdered alum, is added to the dry cement and sand, and thoroughly mixed, and about 1 per cent of any potash soap (ordinary soft soap made from wood ashes is very good) is dissolved in the water used to mix the mortar. The alum and soap combine and form compounds of alumina and the fatty acids, which are insoluble in water. These compounds are not acted upon by the carbonic acid of the air, and add considerably to the early strength of the morta With lime mortar the alum and soap have a slight disadvantage, in that the compound which render the mortar impervious to water also prevent the air from coming in contact with the lime, and consequently prevent the setting of the mortar. On the other hand, the alum and seap compounds add considerably to both the early and ultimate strength of the

This mixture could be advantageously used in the mortar of outside walls, for masonry it wet places, for pointing mortar, for the plaster-ing of cellar and basement walls, for lining cisterns, etc. The efficiency of the alum and walls of the Croton reservoir, in Central Park, New York City, were rendered impervious by simply washing them four times alternately with the alum and the soap solutions. Before being coated the walls allowed the water to pass freely. Four coatings-two pairs-made common brick absolutely impervious under a

The use of the alum and soap as above would in all cases greatly diminish, and in most cases entirely prevent, efflorescence or "whitewash," which so frequently disfigures brick walls.

Again Pittsburg came in ahead of San Francisco in the Clearing House returns for the week. This is becoming so frequent as to force the conclusion that Pittsburg is running away from the gem of the Pacific coast. Stronger evidence of business progress could not be found. Baltimore is out of the race altogether. Quarterly settlements will soon increase the supply of ready funds. This, with the return of money from the West, after moving the crops, should insure an easy market the remainder of the year.

Active Movement in Lackawanna Stocks-Bears Have the Upper Hand on Union Pa-

NEW York, September 20.—The stock market to-day was moderately active during the forenoon and quiet for the remainder of the day, the principal feature of the transactions being the queeze of the shorts in Lacka wanna, which gave tone to the whole market, although the movements in the rest of the list were generally slight. The effects of the bank statement were also felt in a more pronounced bullish feeling on the street, and the aggressive front which the bears have lately shown was conspicuous by its absence to-day, although there was still a great deal of talk of liquidation of long stocks indulged in, and the disposition was rather to liquidate on the other side of the account. The movement in Lackawanna was the only one of note outside of the rise in Sugar Refineries, while marked weakness was shown in Chicago Gas, in which the manipulation for a decline seems not yet over.

Atchison, St. Paul and Union Pacific, which have been rattled off so vigorously of late, were all active, but displayed no pronounced strength, and Union Pacific was still inclined to drop under the unfavorable prospects of the funding bill. The movement is made a state of the disposition of a decline seems not yet over.

Atchison, St. Paul and Union Pacific, which have been rattled off so vigorously of late, were all active, but displayed no pronounced strength, and Union Pacific was still inclined to drop under the unfavorable prospects of the funding bill. The movement is accounted to the proposition of the control of the pacific was still inclined to drop under the unfavorable prospects of the funding bill. The movement is accounted to the proposition of the NEW YORK, September 29.-The stock market under the unfavorable prospects of the funding bill. The movement in sugar, which was second only to that in Lackawanna, was as inexplicable, as all of the late fluctuations in the stock have been, and for the time Keing it has lost its influence upon the stocks in the railroad list.

North American, and the former yielded readily. Silver was again weak, even in the face of the diminution of the stock of over 1,000,000 ounces during the last ten days. The market followed the decline in those stocks slowly, but the raid was not sufficient to wipe out all the early gains, and the close, while quiet and weak, was generally made at small fractional gains on the opening figures. The market, on the whole, showed more strength to-day than usual of late. The final changes are generally, small advances, and Sugar is up 1% and Lackawanna 1%, while Reading lost 1% and Union Pacific 1 per cent.
Railroad bonds were quiet but there was a few active spots, and out of a total business of $1,020,000, Atchison incomes furnished $176,000
and Texas Pacint seconds $18,000. The market was fairly steady, however, throughout the Government bonds have been dull and acteary. State bonds have been dull and without feature.

The Post says: The higher rates of interest for money on call in London than here, make a tendency to move the loanable capital that way, but there is also a scarcity of commercial or any other kind of bills in the market, and both circumstances combined to make an advance in the rates for exchange.

The statement of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis (Big Four) for the month of August, show surplus earnings over charges equal to 1 4-10 per cent on the preferred stock, and for the two months to August 21 a surplus equal to 2 48-100 per cent on the preferred of the form of the first of the same two months proportion of the dividend on the preferred calls for SS, 382, leaving for the same two months $165,252 for the common, or equal to 78-10 per cent on the $23,575,000 of common stock. The two months of July and August are among the poorest of the year for this company, the best being the next five months from September to January inclusive; but as the net carnings of these two poor months are in the proportion of 4% per cent per annum on the common stock it appears altogether reasonable that for the whole year they will be equal to about 6 per cent on common stock.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, MONDAY, September 29, 1890. Country Produce-Jobbing Prices The customary Monday's quietness is re-ported by commission merchants. There are still a goodly quantity of grapes on the market and the situation favors the buyer. Chestnuts are coming in freely and general drift is toward lower prices. The chestnut crop is reported above the average yield this season. Since the formation of the Oleo Trust prices to the dealer have been advanced about 4c per pound. The consumer, who was to be protected by the law against oleo, is protected with a vengeance, since he is paying better prices for something entirely different from dairy products. There are rumors that wholesale dealers of this city are erasing Government stamps from pachage are evasing Government stamps from pachages of oleo and selling the article for genuine butter at prices double its actual value. The law against oleo in its operations is a huge farer, as far as this city is concerned, and its evil effects are most felt by the consumer, whom it was designed to protect.
