A ROUSING MEETING

Of Independent Oil Producers Held at Little Washington.

WAR ON THE STANDARD DECLARED

Efforts to Promote the Progress of the State Line Railroad.

TERRIBLE AFFRAY AT SCOTTDALE

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, PA., September 30 .- The producers met to-night for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to confer with the committee in other parts of the southwest field in relation to the formation of an independent pipe line antagonistic to the Standard. The meeting was enthusiastic and well attended. A number of new faces, prominent in the oil field development, were noticed and rousing speeches urging the speedy organization were made by A. M. Toud, Esq., Chairman's of the Committee, who made a report which was well received and heartily indersed. He said that the committee had agreed with the Butler convention of producers in regard to the plan of laving lines from Butler and Washington counties to a refinery to be built on the Ohio river, the organization to be, he stated, a joint stock company without a charter.

At the ciese of Mr. Todd's report a subscription amounting to £25,000 was raised in about five minutes. The meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

OLD RAILROAD PROJECT REVIVED.

Conference of Pittsburg Railroad and Bus ness Men at Wheeling.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. WHEELING, September 30 .- There are now in the city Il gentlemen interested in the State Line Railroad, with a view of consulting with prominent business men in regard to further-ing the Wheeling end of the line. The gentlemen in the party are: Charles Meyran, Presi-dent of the Pittsburg, Canonsburg and State Line Railroad, who is also President of the Canonsburg Iron and Steel Company, and President of the Germania Savings Bank, of President of the Germaula Savings Bank, of Pittsburg; H. H. Nieman, President of the Fifth Avenue Bank, of Pittsburg; Dr. Joseph Able, a leading glass manufacturer of Pittsburg; E. L. Wood, Jr., of the Monongahela Navigation Company; Dr. John Donaldson, of Canonsburg: J. F. Burke, Superintendent of the Canonsburg Iron and Steel Works; L. R. McCully, Chief Engineer of the Pittsburg, Canonsburg and State Line Railroad; S. George, of Wellsburg, President of the Wheeling, Wellsburg and State Line Railroad, and A. B. Pauli, Secretary of the roads first projected by the two roads, the Wheeling, Wellsburg and State Line Railroad.

The two have now consolidated, and the Pittsburg, Canonsburg and State Line Railroad assumes all of the obligations of the old company, and the necessary recording will be done pany, and the necessary recording will be done

pany, and the necessary recording will be done in a few days.

President Meyran says the new company has secured an entrance into Pittsburg, which, while very costly, and including a tunnel, is one of the very best entering that city. It has also a line to the Connelisville coke field.

The capitalisis noted above had a conference with the members of the Chamber of Commerce to day, with reserted to the and the with the members of the Chamber of Com-merce to-day, with regard to the aid that would be offered the venture from this and other West Virginia places along the line. Secretary Paull stated that the financial pros-pects of the new company were excellent. Over $220,000 had been raised in Pittsburg, $50,000 in Wellsburg, $15,000 in Canonsburg, and $10,000 at other points. Of the two routes, one of which will be chosen on account of the financial aid offered, one will be sixty and the other sixte-two miles between Wheeling and Pittsburg.

BRUISED AND DISEMBOWELED.

Murderous Cutting Affray Which May Result in Murder.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR! SCOTTDALE, September 30 .- A cutting affray occured here to-night, which will likely result in murder. William Reymond, of Painters, attacked a man named Jacobs, at Lyon's brickcard, a short distance from this place. Jacobs was slightly intexicated, and drawing a razor, disemboweled Reymond. The friends of the latter then hit Jacobs on the head with a brick. Inflicting an ugly wound.

Reymond is in a critical condition and very little hope of his recovery is entertained. Jacobs is in jail.
