ing gradually worse. He was best known in Germany, where he studied at both Dusseldorf and Munich, as be did also at Paris and Rome. He was an idealist in his pictures entirely and his talent secured for him customers among the very highest ranks. His painting, "First Love," was bought by the Berlin National Gal-lery and "The Power of Love" found a pur-chaser in the Empress Frederick. Among his other notable works were "L'Amour Teaching the Nightingale to Sing," "Mother and Chil-dren." "Diana and Eudymion," The Flight Into Egypt," which latter may perhaps be re-garded as his principal work. He will be buried at Lucerne. "My offer of $25,000 was made in good faith and after due deliberation. Sullivan's opinion of me personally does not enter into the matter at all and is of no possible consequence. My object was solely to keep the championship in America and I believe Sullivan could do that.

America and I believe Sullivan could do that. As he has refused, why that ends it and there is nothing further to be done about it. Slavin and his backer claimed the championship belt on Saturday last, as they desire to exhibit it here in London. I thought if Sullivan fought Slavin the belt would stay where it is. Regard-ing the Sullivan-Kilrain fight I did not have one cent on the result and every one who knows me knows perfectly well that I never bet." At Dublin to-day Justice Holmes refused a writ of prohibition to suspend the trial of Dillon and others at Tipperary, the ground for the application being that Justice Shanton, one of the resident magistrates who will try the case is biased in his judgment in this particular in stance.
