THE PITTSBURG M. E. CONFERENCE.

The Hard Lot of Superannuated Preachers Feelingly and Ably Discussed.

REV. DR. DEMPSET'S RETIREMENT.

Condensed Accounts of Various Interesting Events in Nearby Towns. (FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] GREENSBURG, October 2.-The principal business at the session of the Pittsburg Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was the hearing of the reports from the pre siding elders of the various districts and the financial returns of the pastors. These were all of an encouraging nature. A number of the ministers whose pastoral charges were in the country made feeling reference to the condition of the country roads last winter, inasmuch as the mud prevented the holding of the usual protracted meetings. This is a new phase of the country road question. It is bad indeed when the work of the Lord is interfered with equally with the interests of Mammon by the impassable state of the highways, A LONG TERM OF SERVICE.

Presiding Elder Jones, of the Washington district, announced that Dr. Dempsey, of that district, wanted to go upon the retired list, he having been in the service for 57 years. When Dr. Dempsey's report was called he took occasion to speak to the brethren, making feeling reference to his retirement from regular service. He also stirred his bearers Dr. Boyle offered resolutions expressing the approval, confidence and esteem of the confer-ence for the retiring brother, which were ence for the retiring brother, which were adopted with hearty unanimity.

A little breeze was created by the appeal of Rev. Josiah Mansell for admission to the trial of his son, R. B. Mansell, the resolution of yesterday to have the i avestigation behind closed doors having been construed to exclude the father of the accused. A resolution was offered by Dr. Boyle that Brother Mansell be admitted, but as such a resolution would have to go upon the minutes it was finally decided that it was the sense of the conference that no such exclusion was intended by the resolution of yesterday, and that any reference to the matter in the minutes would be a blot on the record of the proceedings. It was unanimously agreed to change the construction of yesterday's resolution, as it was not intended by its author to exclude Brother Mansell. Reports were heard from the presiding elders

During the hearing of the reports Dr. L. Clarke, of the New York Christian Advocate, was introduced, and addressed the assembly in the interest of his publication. the interest of his publication.

Rev. Dr. Rittenhouse, of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, addressed the conference, giving a graphic description of the site, the plans, the alu and scope of the hospital enterprise, asking the Pittsburg Conference to endow a bed in the institution.

LIONS AND MONKEYS.

The session closed with an address by Dr. C. H. Pame, corresponding secretary of the Edu-cational Society. Dr. Pame pleaded earnestly for an educated ministry. He freely admitted that men of great natural talent would rise uncaucated above inferior men who were educated above inferior men who were educated, just as a lion fresh from the jungles of Africa was superior to the most educated insulacy sver seen. He admitted that if poor material only was given to the schools they could only turn out poorly-inished product, but he hoped good material would be put in. His report showed material would be put in. His ort showed material advancement of his

The feature of the day was the address of or. J. Benson Hamilton, of New York, at the eteraus' meeting. The exercises were opened at 5.P. M. with music and prayer, the White grothers adding to the interest by their singing. The church auditorium was crowded and

ing. The church auditorium was crowded and the audience included many ladies.

Dr. Hamilton opened his address by singing a ballad of his own composition, "A Song to the Minister," which was well received. He then compared the usinister of the church to the servant of the corporation. It would be not only base ingratizate on the part of the corporation, but fiely as well, to prefer the young man fresh from over the sea or the fledgeling just out of school to the old and tried man of affairs in the conduct of its business. In the highest calling of all such a course would be a crying shame, an infamous crime TIME CONTRACTS IN MARRIAGE

The ministerial ordinance was then compared to he marriage contract. In this connection to related the anecdote of the man and woman who applied for a marriage license "good for two years." There could be no such marriage contract and no such ministerial ordinance. The rejection of a life partner when worn out in the performance of matrimonial and household duties for a younger and fresher one, the speaker characterized as an outrageous violation of every right principle, and for a servant of the church to be cast off in his old age without means of support was nothing short of an infamous erime.

Yet he said the Protestant churches did this thing. The Methodist Church provided better for its superannuated ministers than any other demonipation, but was far behind the Roman Catholic Church in this particular. There were no superannuated priests left dependent on charity. nection to related the anecdote of the man

The speaker said his father, a Methodist minister, had a horse which became superancuated and he placed it in care of a farmer where it was fed, watered and cared for until it died. Once his father, while young, and a member of the Pittisburg Conference, had gone to fill an appointment in the mountains and win caught in a raging bitzard. The melted show froze again on his freezing form until he sat erect in the saddle, an inanimate icide. That horse had carried him to a cabin, strack his hoof against the door and rubbed his nose against the window until he aroused the inmates who came out, took his father in and thawed him out. But they could hardly hold him in bed while he thawed out, he wanted to go to the little congregation which he said was waiting for him to fill his appointment.

PAINTED WITH HOT HON. The speaker said his father, a Methodist PAINTED WITH HOT IRON. He referred feelingly to Dr. Dempsey, who had taken his mother into the dear old church, and then read a number of letters he had received, telling tales of poverty and suffering, the lot of superannuated ministers left with-out the means of subsistence. He said it would not do to meet this with the complain that "these are third rate men," as they were probably as good in their day as "us first rate men." In conclusion, he said there was a new "fad" in artistic circles. The artist, instead of using brush and pencil and paint, used a red-hot poker. In this matter he would like to do the same thing for the sake of permanency.

Dr. Hamilton then sang another of his compositions, "The Veterans," He was followed by several of the "veterans," who called down desauge on his head, and a resolution of thanks was adopted by the convention.

Chaplain McCabe spoke in the evening to the missionary sousties in his usual effective manner. He made some telling hits and was warmly received. The auditorium was packed to its trimust capacity and some were turned away, thence the content of the content of the capacity and some were turned away, that "these are third rate men," as they were received. The auditorium was packed to its import capacity and some were turned away, hough it was a miserable, rainy night. The various committees held executive sesons during the afternoon, behind closed doors of course. To-morrow forenoon will be devotable to the restriction and executive luminos of the to the routine and executive business of the conference and the afternoon and evening to

Some complaint was heard about the newspaper reports of yesterday's session. Well, it is no wonder if some inaccuracies do occur, for there are fewer facilities afforded the newgatherer than at any large assemblage I have easy attended.

A Runaway Marringe Under Rather Pecu-line Circumstances. It was reported from New Lisbon, O., yeste day that a runaway couple named Don Lawson and Emma Nightingale, of Pittsburg and Alle-Reports were heard from the presiding ciders and the pastors of their districts in the following order: Rev. T. N. Eaton and pastors of the Allegheny district, Rev. S. M. Bell and the Bairsville district, Rev. N. G. Miller and the McKeesport district, Rev. J. W. Gites and the Pittsburg district, Rev. J. F. Jones and the Washington district.

During the hearing of the reserve Territory of the r married in Youngstown. After this, according to Mrs. Nightingale, they lived together for some time in Cleveland, where Lawson finally some time in Cleveland, where Lawson finally deserted the daughter, who was brought home. After some months Lawson returned and promised to do better. He again deserted his wife, however, finding more pleasure in the smiles of a certain Kitty Dardine. Suit was brought against him, but afterward withdrawn, and he promised to return to his first love, but as there had been some doubt as to the validity of their marriage, his wife refused to live with him unless they were married again. And now all is well again, and "the band played," etc.

Blood Poison

From Impure Vaccination . Wonderfully Cured. Hood's Sarsaprilla is the natural enemy of all impurities in the blood. It expels all forms of poison and disease. Read this: "I am a pioneer in this county, baving been here 30 years. Four years ago my little son Ellery became blood-poisoned by impure virus in vaccination. His arm swelled terribly, causing great agony: physicians said the arm must be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier, new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to school in Chelsea, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsanarilla. decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was much gratified when it seemed to help him. He continued to grow better as we gave him the Sarsaparilla, and having used 8 bottles is now entirely cured. As Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished such wonderful results I rec-ommend it all I possibly can." J. M. SLEEPER, Upper Lake, Lake Co., Cal. The Ex-City Treasurer Of Lowell, Mass., says: "The above is from my brother, whose signature I recognized. I am also glad to testify to the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to say that C. I. Hood & Co. are considered one of the most reliable firms in New England." VAN B. SLEEPER, Ex-City Treasurer.

IS ANYTHING

More Probable

In view of our long experience in fine tailoring, than that we should have an insight of great advantage in preparing our stock of Ready-Made Clothing, and that we should be thoroughly posted as to correct styles of both goods and garments. It is not without reason, then, that our FALL SUITS for MEN are better values than you'll find elsewhere and handsomer styles than an advertisement can make you understand. You should examine them. Prices

$5 to $32. Superior values and styles are the "why" of our big business in FALL OVER-COATS. Prices $8 to $38.
