The were no terrors to the invincibles of yester day, and the 496 people who paid to see th game have not seen a better contest this year is far as the home heroes were concerned.

The grounds were in very had condition and rain threatened at almost every minute of the game. At times the Boston aggregation seemed to be careless, but whether or not they were indifferent in the field they could not size up Mr. Staley. Henry was in victorious attire, and he pitched probably one of the best games he has pitched this season. He compelled such historic sluggers as Dan Brouthers and Richardson to take a back seat. But Staley was supported in excellent style. He gave no bases on balls and his fielders made no errors. The only mistake was a passed ball by Tommy The only mistake was a passed ball by Tommy Quiun. Hanlon was somewhat indisposed and did not play. Fields, therefore, went to center field and Quinn reappeared behind the bat.

The runs of the home players were made in the second and seventh inning. The first couple of tallies were the result of Quinn's base on balls, Corcoran's sacrifice and Kuehne's two-bagger to right. A fumble of Quinn, Boston's second baseman, and Staley's sacrifice sent Kuehne home. In the seventh inning, after Fields was out, Visner rapped a single to center and Beckley through our tadouble in the same direction. Carroll made a socrifice but, but Kilroy threw the ball wild to Brouthers and Carroll was safe at first, Visner scoring. ers and Carroll was safe at first, Visnerscoring. Beckley went to third. Quinn sent a grounder to Kilroy. The latter threw the ball to the plate and Swett muffed it, Beckley scoring. Corcoran singled to center and Carroll was sabled at the plate. Kuchne went out at first

SIGNS OF PEACE.

A Conference Likely Between Representatives of Rival Baseball Leagues. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.;

a strong feeling existing among the leaders in the National and Players' Leagues and Ameri-can Association that the present disastrons conflict should cease and the many strong conflict should ceas conflict should cease, and the indications are that a conference will be held soon between representatives of the National and Players' Leagues, and probably of the American Association, to devise some means whereby a settlement can be perfected. The question of an actual conference only leaked out to-day, and there are various reasons to believe that such an event will take place. that such an event will take place. What part the American Association will take in the settlement, if there is any, is simply a matter of conjecture, but one thing is certain, Allen W. Thurman, Jr., a member of the Board of Arbitration, and one of the largest stockholders of the Columbus club, has been in the city for some time, and has had a conference with President Day, of the New York National League club; Vice President Talcott, of the New York Players' League club, and other luminaries of baseball. Mr. Thurman admits that the present season has been very disastrous for baseball, and be thinks that another year of the same kind would about kill the interest in the sport entirely. His object, he says, in coming to New York was chiefly to consuit with the officials of the two rival clubs in the city to see if some

The continuance of this fight," said he, and ruin to those financially interested in year, while those of the League would be sev-"means ruin to those financially interested in the clubs. We have considerable at stake in Columbus, and we don't want to lose it."

Any person who is intimately acquainted with President Day and has had any communi-cation with him regarding the struggle knows how loval he has been to the National League.

CHESS PLAYERS will find an interesting celume on the TWELFTH PAGE of this issue. It will appear every Saturday here-and even now he is unwilling to surrender a single point that would have a tendency to impair the record of that organization. Still with the utmost business sagacity, he is willing to effect a settlement if one can be consistently arranged. President Day was in a very communicative mood to-day when a Disparch reporter met him at his place of business in Maiden lane. In answer to a question about a conference. Mr. Day said that there would nobably be one, and that he was in favor of such an arrangement. When the conference would take place he could not state. He thought that if a settlement was effected there would be two governing bodies in baseball—the National League and American Association. Mr. Day said that he had had a talk with A. G. Thurman, Jr., regarding the matter, and that the lettle was vary which in earner; boot two air, Day said that he had had a talk with A. G. Thurmau, Jr., regarding the matter, and that the latter was very much in earnest about producing harmony. Mr. Day said he did not care a snap about the Cincinnati deal. He would not have given $100 to have kept the club in the League.

Smith carried of the honors in the fielding, with Collins a close second.

The Pittsburgs were outplayed at every point of the game. Berger, the visitors' catcher, missed over half his chances, having six errors against him. Day, the visitors' twirler, was very badly supported, and this, added to the

His statement showed that he had a good balance on the right side. had a good balance on the right side. Other statements showed that since June 13, this year, the club's debt has been reduced to the extent of $10,000. This has been done by money that the club has made, and by assessments paid by the directors. The directors resolved to pay off all the club's debt by the first of next April, and to have $10,000 cash to start the season with. It is understood that this will be done by the stockholders contributing so much per month between now and April.

During a conversation on the matter last evening Director O'Nell said: "It is quite true; we have had a meeting and we have resolved to continue in the ring. We have cleared money, and very few people in the baseball business can say that much. We have run our team to Secretary Brunnell on Hand With the Money, $20,000, to be Cash Down.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CINCINNATI, October 3.-There may be a hitch in the transfer of the Cincinnati club to the Players' League. Secretary Frank H. Brunnell is here with the money, and E. B. Tal-cott, of New York, has also arrived. Al Johncott, of New York, has also arrived. Al Johnson and Joon M. Ward get here in the morning, when the conference with President Stern will be held. There is a disposition on the part of several Cincinnati players to hold back and the old spirit to "-queeze" somebody. one or the other, is evident. It is hardly probable, however, that the deal will fail now. Secretary Brunnell was asked to-night if the terms of the sale were $85,000 as reported, of which $30,000 down. He answered no, but he added: "That figure is so near the true, so little out of the way, that a correction is not worth the while. Furthermore, the price paid will be virtually cash, inasmuch as the paper given will be negotiable and equivalent to cash." year, while those of the League would be several times that sum.

Since interviewing Secretary Brunnell, the reporter has ascertained from trustworthy sources that the price to be paid is $38,000, of which $20,000 will be cash down.

Two players remain to be signed by the Cincinnati club, and they will sign in the morning before the transfer.

The last two championship ball games of the season in this city will be played at Exposition Park this afternoon. The home Players' League players will tackle the Boston champions. Only one price of admission will be charged for the two games. Gumbert and Daily will be the pitchers for the visitors, and Maul and Tener will be in the box for the home players. The first game will start at 2 o'clock.

ONE RACE TO-DAY.

A Muddy Track Compels the Homewood Officials to Give it Up When the officials of Homewood Park went out to the track yesterday morning they found the course to be a perfect sea of mad. It was so much worse than they expected that all hopes of starting the races were abandond there and then, and it became a question whether they would be able to get the track in the forenoon there might have been a fair show, but the old sport was securely under cover, and as he did not lift the blanket until well along in the afternoon the case became hopeless, and it was decided to declare everyhopeless, and it was decided to declare everything off except the unfinished 240 trot, which will be completed this afternoon. As but one heat has been trotted the prostects are that the race will prove quite interesting as there are two or three likely animals in the list of six starters, which includes, Miss Agnes, Lucy W. Lamarline, Ine, Ashby and J. G. W.

There is now a strong probability that the Hal Pointer-Dallas match race will take place after all. Ed Geers, who has the Pointer horse, is anxious for it, as are the Dallas people. A telegram was seut to Mr. Hamilin last night, asking if he would agree to have the race take place on Monday. In case his answer is favorable two extra events will be added to the card, and a great afternoon's sport will be offered. One of the races will likely include three or four stallions now at the track, all eligible to the 229 class, and all ambitious to secure a record. There are a number tious to secure a record. There are a number of good horses at the track, and two good races could easily be made up. The matter will be definitely settled to-day.

EXCITEMENT AT NEWARK.

A Collision on the Track Results in Injuries to Several Persons. NEWARK, October & .- The forty-third annual fair of Licking county closed to-day with an attendance of 10,000 people, making it one of the most successful ever held. There were four races, but only two finished. During the second start of the 2:40 trot, the wildest excitement prevailed, and it was a miracle almost that many persons were not injured. The driver of Alma struck the sulky of Charles Olmstead, who was driving Dick Britzen. Olm-stead had a wheel broken and was thrown and stead had a wheel broken and was thrown and run over, his shoulder being injured. The horse dashed madly along close to the fence, knocking people in every direction. There was but one man injured, Mr. Legg having had his head hurt. The animal finally turned a somersault and was caught.

There were eight starters in this race, three heats being trotted, with two straights for Al B, when it was postsponed until Saturday, on account of darkness.

FARMERS ROBBED OF PRODUCE.

Thieves Cart Away the Hard Earned Fruits of Toll. PERCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. Youngstown, October 3.—Thieves last night secured a team and, driving east of the city, visited the cellars of nearly a dozen farmers, taking all the country produce they could find.

After securing a load they drove east across the Pennsylvania line, where they doubtless found a "fence" for their swag. The farmers have a rope ready for the next visitors.

The Faults and Merits of Drs. Riley and Mansell Being Analyzed.

PROBABLE RESULT IN BOTH CASES Washington Bankers Swindled of Various

Amounts by Forged Checks. NEWSY ITEMS FROM THREE STATES

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. GREENSBURG, October 3.-All interest to-day centered on the trial of Dr. Mansell and investigation of Dr. Riley. Great se-

In the case of Dr. J. T. Riley the committee had reached a conclusion this evening, and will make its report to the conference in the morning. The members pledged themselves to secreey until that time, but it can be positively stated that the verdict will be that the evidence does not warrant condemnation, but calls for further investigation. The committee will pass Dr. Riley's character so he may be returned to his present charge, Braddock, as his congregation has petitioned for him, but it will carry with it a recommendation that his presid-carry with it a recommendation that his presiding elder institute a formal investigation of the charges at once. This may be considered a very close call.

The investigation in the case of Dr. R. B. Mansell, of McKeesport, will be concluded tomorrow and counsel will be heard. This will give the jury an opportunity to deliberate until Monday. It was thought for a time the case would delay the adjournment of the conference, but to-night the end is in sight. Had the sun unveiled his countenance during CHARGES REINTRODUCED

> At this morning's session an important move was made in this case. Bishop Andrews had decided that the charge of defamation of character was invalid unless signed by the per-sons defamed. Accordingly this charge was re-character was invalid unless signed by the persons defamed. Accordingly this charge was reintroduced. The minute of the Conference is as follows:

"Case of R. B. Mansell before the Select Number. Bishop Andrews having ruled that the charge to and the specifications thereunder were invalid unless signed by the persons defamed, these charges not having been so signed, they were ruled out. Whereupon, having been signed by the defamed persons, by vote, on motion of T. N. Boyle, their reading was ordered in open Conference, and subsequently, on motion of T. N. Eaton, they were referred to the Select Number."

The specifications charge Dr. Mansell with injuring the characters of signers by stories told about their forcing him to sign a paper, etc., and were signed by C. W. Smith, T. N. Boyle, H. C. Beacom, J. F. Core, N. G. Miller, Mechem and Holmes.

The inearing in the case opened in the U. P. Church at 9 o'clock this morning and lasted until 10:30 this evening. The evidence produced at the former trial at McKeesport in January was all re-introduced and sworn to by the witnesses and much additional evidence has been given in. Among the witnesses examined were H. F. Coulson, Albert Coulson, Dr. Beacom, Dr. Boyle, Rev. Boyd, Rev. C. W. Smith and Rev. J. B. Risk.

At this stage of the proceedings, it can only be said that the evidence is very damaging against Dr. Mansell, though his good qualities are being weighed against his errors very carefully. Some bitterness has been engendered in the trial, and friends of Dr. Mansell assert that the evidence of the McKeesport trial, which is being published by an evening paper here in installments, is inspired by the prosecution at advertising rates. The prosecutors indignantly deny this, and say there is no spirit of persecution in their actian. It is more than likely the verdict will be against Dr. Mansell.

TO-DAY'S BUSINESS. The devotional exercises at the opening of the conference were conducted by Rev. B. R. Wilburn, of the Southside, Pittsburg. After the routine business had been reached, Bishop Mallalieu took occasion to score the Bishop Mallalieu took occasion to score the newspapers, particularly the Pittsburg papers, for misrepresenting his position on the five-year term. He said he had advocated a longer term for 10 years before the General Conference had raised the limit to five year and he opposed making any changes before the full limit of time was reached, except for good and sufficient cause, As the good Bishop is a not candidate for any political office, he may forgive the wicked secular press after the conference is over.

A resolution was adopted requesting Dr. S. H. Neshit to publish the history of Methodism. Another resolution was adopted thanking Captain J. B. Ford for the gift of a fine church and parsonage at Ford City.

Dr. Hartzell made a brief address to the conference on behalt of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society, of which he is corresponding secretary. Dr. J. F. Berry, editor of the Epworth Herald, also spoke of the Epworth League, which now has a membership of 225,000. Dr. James Morrow, Secretary of the Peunsylvania Bible Society, addressed the conference in the interest of that society.

The following persons on trial, having passed satisfactory examinations, were continued: G. E. Cable, W. H. Rodebaugh and J. A. Youn-kius. The following were passed to deacons of the second class: W. H. Camp, J. W. Garland, D. H. McKee, W. Medley, F. Prosser and W. T. Robinson. In the case of T. J. Shaffer it was announced that he had surrendered his parchiment and he was allowed to withdraw from the ministry.

His remains are buried near Scio, O., and the owner of the ground has agreed to deed the lot to the church. The East Ohio Conference is collecting a fund to mark the grave of this pioneer with a plain monument and the Pittsburg Conference is asked to join in the work. Dr. C. W. Smith, Dr. R. T. Miller and Rev. William Lynch were appointed a committee to co-operate with a committee of the East Ohio Conference in this matter.

Dr. T. P. Marsh spoke in the interest of Mt. Union College, and Dr. James Strong pleaded the case of the successful Drew Theological Seminary, of whose faculty he is a member.

Students of the Wooster University Shake Up the Town. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WOOSTER, October 2-Early this morning the citizens of this place were awakened by the sound of cannon below the town. When the the citizens of this place were awakened by the sound of cannon below the town. When the faculty and stpdents of the university assembled for lessons they found the walks, lamp posts, military warons and equipments covered with red paint. Upon investigation it was found that the juniors had planned to paint the cannons and other military equipments. The sophs, hearing of the scheme, determined to frustrate their design. When the juniors appeared with the paint they found 40 of the sophs on guard. A rush followed, in which several of the sophomores were covered with red paint and the others with glory.

The juniors retired from the scene of the battle in disorder, while the sophs hauled the cannon downtown and left them in the care of the police. The juniors by some means secured possession, and, retiring to the fair grounds, accomplished their designs. Then they went in a body to the buildings and covered everything paintable with "32." The reason of the trouble is supposed to be the removing of the military department from this place by the Government. The cannon will be shipped the latter part of the week. An investigation is expected by both the faculty and military department, as the cannons are said to be badly damaged.

FOUNDED IN THE LAST CENTURY. Celebration of the One Hundreth Year of an Old Church.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.) MANSFIELD VALLEY, October 2.—The centennial of Robinson Run United Presbyterian Church will be celebrated at Noblestown next Wednesday. The old church is in the Monongahela Presbytery, and was organized in 1790. Rev. John Riddell was pastor until 1829, when at his death Moses Kerr succeeded him for two years. Willis Burnett served three years, and then James Grier was installed. Mr. Grier re-mained at the head of the church until 1879, when he retired and Rev. J. W. English was installed.

The services next Wednesnay will be very in-teresting and will be participated in by Judge Thomas Ewing, and Rev. W. J. Reed, D. D., of Pittsburg.

On the 19th of last July Mr. Nuse, in company with Harry Howland, embarked in a small boat on the Allegheny river and went down the Ohio. the Allegheny river and went down the Ohio. He was heard from regularly up until 18 days ago. The last heard of him was a telegram to his secretary, Mr. Perkins, dated Galveston, and informing Mr. Perkins that it was his intention to leave the city that day on horseback, and journey with his uncle into a wild country, where he owned some lands; also that his friends here could expect him home in eight days. The eight days came and went, and nothing can be learned of the missing man. While some are venturing the opinion that the young man has met with foul play, others, more hopeful, think he has been delayed in his country ride, and will finally turn up all right. It is known, however, that the lands he owned were in a very wild portion of the country. Mr. Perkins says that Mr. Nuse's business matters are all right, and that he can draw a check today for $10,000 cash.

Professed Student Forges Checks and Then Takes Leave of Little Washington.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH . WASHINGTON, PA., October 3 -- A sensation banking circles has been talked of here, and to-day it was ascertained that it was on account of a neat game of forgery which had been played on several banks and prominent business men. Several days ago a slick un-known man appeared at the First National Bank with a check for $85, drawn by J. A. Tuttle. The check was on the Farmers' Nationa Rank of Lancaster, and the man said he was a new student, and had no one to identify him. The money was given to him. He then went to the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, where he received the money on a $60 check. At the Citizens' National Bank he was refused pay-ment on a check for $90, but soon returned with the indorsement of President J. D. Moffatt, of the college.

By this time the man had secured $235, but as it was late and other banks were closed, he made another check for $30, and wrote a note to J. W. Mitchell, purporting to come from Postmaster Underwood, asking Mitchell to cash the check, which was done. The Lancaster Bank refused to cash the checks, of course. Major Samuel Haslett, who is a private banker, is also supposed to have been taken in for a small amount. There are several other business men who have lost by the slick "student," who has disappeared without finishing his course at college.

TRAIN WRECKERS BAFFLED.

Villains Piace Rocks on the Track in a Cut, But Their Work is Discovered. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. Inwin, October 3.-An attempt was made this morning to wreck the Pennsylvania Gas Coal Company's passenger train in McGrew's cut by placing two large rocks on the track. The train was composed of two coaches and one baggage car. It was making its first trip one baggage car. It was making its first trip down, and had on board a few excursionists, who were going to the Sewickley fair.

The approach to the cut is hidden by a curve in the track, but as the engine was not running very fast at the time, the engineer was able to stop the train. This is the second time obstructions have been placed on the track at that place.
