SHAPING THE CREED.

The Presbyterian Revision Committee Ready to Begin Work.

DISTINGUISHED DIVINES HERE.

The Members Stand Two to One in Favor of Making the Changes.

HOW FAR TO GO IS THE HARD PROBLEM

All the members of the committee appointed to revise the confession of faith of the Presbyterian Church will arrive this morning, and the meeting begins promptly at 10 o'clock. The action of the committee can hardly be surmised. At the last meeting of the Presbytery changes in the confession of faith were offered by almost every fession of faith were offered by almost every Synod, and these suggestions have been inbilities are that the proposed changes will be taken up by section and thoroughly discussed. Then it any member of the committee has any suggestions to make they will also be heard. The first business on the programme will, of course, be the election of officers. Rev. William C. Roberts, D. D., LL. D., of the Synod of Illinois, is temporary Chairman, and will probably be elected permanent Chairman, Rev. Matthew B. Riddle, D. D., of this city, is Secretary. The meeting to-day will be held in the Western Theological Seminary on Ridge avenue, but the add to the wealth and business of the city; other meetings may be held in the lecture room of one of the city churches.

The work of the committee may be finished in three days, and it may be carried over to another meeting. If it is not finished in that time, this meeting will be adjourned and another called for some time in the future at any place the committee may select. It has until next. May to finish its work, but at that time must report to the General Synod which meets at Detroit. General Synod, which meets at Detroit. The committee may decide to hold its report over to the General Synod before making it public, and go in a body to that meeting to submit the report.

URGENT DEMAND FOR MORE HOTELS. Some difficulty is being experienced in finding places of entertainment for the visiting clergy and elders. The botels are engaged for the iron and steel workers, with the exception of the Anderson, and that cannot accommodate all. Those who fail to find rooms at the Anderson will either be taken to the Allegheny Central or members taken to the Allegheny Central or members of the different Presbyterian congregations will be asked to entertain them. The crowded condition of the hotels makes it rather unpleasant for the noted divines who are to be here, and it wil also put the private families to a disadvantage to entertain them.

Should the committee decide to remain until next week they will probably be given a reception in the parlers of the First Church of Pittsburg. A meeting of the Presbyterian Union will be held Wednesday and arrangements will be made for the proposed reception. This will be more of a social affair than anything, but speeches will of course be made, and it is highly probable that members of the committee will let out some of their ideas on revision.

On next Sunday the pulpits of the churches of Pritisburg and Allegheny will doubtless be filled by the visiting divines. Rev. Dr. Patton, of Frinceton College, seems to be the prize, and there is considerable friendly rivalry among the churches to secure his Sunday sermon. Rev. Dr. Purvis, of the First Church, of Pritisburg, would greatly like to have Dr. Paten in line parlers but no will probably be dismm. Rev. Dr. Purvis, of the First Church, of Pittsburg, would greatly like to have Dr. Patton fill his pulpit; but he will probably be disappointed, as one of the East End churches seems to have a prior claim. Dr. William C. Roberts, of Illinois, is also in demand, as are indeed all the visiting ministers. However, there are enough to supply all the churches, and the Presbyterians of the two cities will all have the opportunity of hearing the gospel preached by a minister from abroad.

LAST NIGHT'S ARRIVALS HERE. Brooklyn, who registered at the Anderson, Junge Alfred Hand, of Scranton, is at the Monougabola House. Prof. Green, of the Princeton Theological Seminary, got in on the limited. He is a relative of Mrs. James B. Scott, and will be Mr. Scott's guest during his

He bears a striking resemblance to the late Simon Cameron, and speaks with the quiet dignity and soft tones which the Justices of the United States Supreme Court always acquire. He is in favor of revision, but declined to speak in advance. He stated that the committee was expected to formulate the changes that here here accepted in the acceptance. that have been suggested in the confession of faith, and then submit it to the General Asembly. He anticipates much discussion and REVISION HAS BEEN DECIDED UPON. Mr. Ernst said the question was no longer revision or no revision. That has been settled and it was now to be determined how far it shall go. He is liberal in his ideas, but not radical, and is anxious to keep within the bounds of truth.

bounds of truth.

Another member of the committee said:
'The members of the committee are two to one for r vising the creed, and all the pig from in Pennsylvania can't stop it. The general effect of revision will be to solidify and strengthen the church. I don't think it will occasion a solid neither than the church are solid and the church are twill divine the solit, and the chances are it will drive other spil, and the chances are it will drive other branches of the church farther away from us. The majority of Presbyterians in the country favor a change, and the will of the majority will be obeyed. We are making creeds for the present, and I shouldn't be surprised if future generations made more changes."

A CONFERENCE OF LEADERS.

Chaleman Andrews Thinks Allegheny County Will be in Line.

State Chairman W. H. Andrews was here yesterday. He held a conference with Chief Brown, W. D. Porter and other Republican leaders. What was the object Mr. Andrews would not tell, but it was learned that they taked about the fate of Delamater in Allegbeny county. Measures of some kind will be taken to stem the tide of Democratic entry to the conference of the conference State Chairman W. H. Andrews was her taken to stem the tide of Democratic enhusiasm. Before returning to Philadelphia last evening

Mr. Andrews said that Allegheny was all right, and he had failed to notice where the Democratic parry was gaining in strength. He added that his experience with the Democrats had been that they usually felt better before an election than after it.

Going to Fort Wayre.

ACCEPTS THE OFFER.

Continued from First Page. As you all know, we have a park of 400 acres. It lays across Four Mile run. On this side of the run are the 19 acres of this ordinance. There is no connection whatever between the two pieces. The run and a ravine divide them. You can't get to the park without a bridge, and the purpose of these 19 acres is to afford a location for the bridge and a site for the Cayacaia Library. Both are chiestionable. Carnegie Library. Both are objectionable.
This bridge is to be a grand stone arch, monumental in design, a copy of a famous bridge somewhere in keeping with the Carnegie Library, and it will cost a quarter of a million. The Chief of the Department of Public Works has the plans for this bridge and the estimates. If we put up the bridge at Mr. Bigelow's figures if will cost $225,000; the ground

"As far as buying ground for the Carnegie Library, the city should do nothing of the corporated into a book for the reference of the committee at this meeting. FREE BRIDGES FIRST.

"This park business has run wild. It is all park, park, and no streets. I am ready to vote $50,000 a year for parks and add the other $150,000 to the street appropriation. What we want is well-paved streets; they parks don't. Parks are nice, but they are only ornamental. There is too much park. It is time to cry a halt. My people in the Thirty-second ward are sick of it; they are almost in a state of rebellion. The South-side was promised free bridges; it ought to intelligent man can understand it. You are going too fast with your parks; and further than the people will support you."
Mr. McEldowney said his neighbors in the Thirteenth ward enjoyed parks, but they would prefer paved streets and water

Schenley Park while they were crying Mr. Magee urged that the opportunity at hand be seized. The ground was worth four times what it was offered for. Its purchase could not interfere with the improve ment of a single street in Pittsburg. As for the bridge, that would cost just what Councils voted to spend on it. The park was not needed for Mr. Bigham or Mr. MacGonigle. they had their country places. It was for the men who are suffering for a chance to get out where they can get a bit of fresh air. Mr. MacGonigle retorted that his country place was 24 leet wide and 1221/2 feet deep. No one was suffering for this park. His people want a park, but want it in home-just now. It didn't satisfy them to know that there was an elephant or a monkey in

BIGHAM DOESN'T WANT AN ELEPHANT. Mr. Bigham said the only argument for the ordinance was that the land is cheap. He didn't want an elephant because it is going at a sacrifice price. The elephant might not cost much, but the expense was only begun with the purchase. There was no need for these 19 acres. The 400 acres were enough for the people. "Let me tell you," he continued, "that it is not the poor who wil go out there. They don't need this $225,000 bridge. This scheme—and I have no sinister meaning when I use that word, project would be better—this project is to make a fine feature for an aristocratic neighborhood. It's for the aristocrate of the East End. The streets they used to drive on have been taken by the street car Among those who arrived last evening were

A vote was then taken on the motion to postpone, which was lost by a vote of 16 ayes to 20 noes, the affirmative votes being cast by Messrs. Angloch, Bigham, Brewster, Fox, Jarrett, Larkin, Metcalfe, Mc-Eldowney, MacGonigle, O'Connor, O'Don-nell, Stewart, Vogt, Wright and President

THE END OF THE BATTLE. The vote on the final passage of the ordinance was then taken, and resulted—ayes, 25; noes, 12, as follows:

20; poes, 12, as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Angloch, Brown, Crawford,
Donley, Delaney, Dunn, Elliott, Ferguson, Groetzinger, Hagmaier, Johnston, Kearns,
Lowry, Magee, Mason, McClure, McEldowney, McGuire, O'Connor, Pitcairn, Shannon, Taggert, Wallace, Wilson, White—25.

Noes—Messrs, Bigham, Brewster, Fox, Jarrett, Larkin, Metcaife, Mactionigle, O'Donnell, Stewart, Vogt, Wright and President Holliday—12.

President Holliday, before voting, gave his reasons. He said he was opposed to the purchase, not so much on account of the park, as on account of the placing of the Carnegie Library there. The library should be down town. He would never vote to buy a foot of ground for the Carnegie Library. If Mr. Carnegie wants this ground for the library let him buy it for that purpose and pay for it.

Mr. Bigham, from the Committee on Public Works recented ordinates

Public Works, presented ordinances for the Ward street, South Twenty-ninth street, Frazier street, Woolslayer alley; for grad-ing and paving Kent alley and Comrie alley; for paving Collins avenue, Duff and Rose streets; all of which were passed. Mr. O'Donnell, from the Committee on Surveys, presented ordinances establishing the grade of Fillmore street, Cabinet street; locating Fair Oaks street, Ivy street and Murtland street; all of which were passed.

Monday, October 6 FALL MILLINERY

By the operations of this law, the prices of many lines of goods, both foreign and domestic, ARE SURE TO ADVANCE. Now, we are not speculators ourselves, neither are we alarmists, and we do not ask or expect that our customers will speculate in such lines of goods as we carry; nor purchase such quantities as they may not require for immediate use. THE POLICY that we have adopted is and will continue to be as follows: In anticipation of the passage of the New Tariff Bill, durholsterers, as also experienced ing the summer and early fall, we have placed orders for a somewhat sell at the OLD PRICES, not making any advance whatever in the prices of anything that we now have in our house or that is, yet to come in on old orders, but it is simply business and to be expected, that when we have disposed of our present stock and have to replenish at the AD-VANCED COST, that the retail prices will most assuredly have TO BE AD-VANCED in accordance therewith, so that we would advise our customers to AT ONCE make purchases of such articles in our line as they will want for immediate, and use in the near future. These statements are facts and are worthy of your consideration, and it is needless for us to say that it would be to your interest, if you are in want of anything to profit thereby. They are sold for $5 in many localities. IT FLOATS over a Shoe Department whose trade is increasing at a wondrous Would you know why? Our determination never to sell any but a reliable article is oft asserted, and we practice what we preach. This gives the public confidence, and on a busy day they literally flock to us for shoes. We make prices and values that make trade. IT FLOATS over a Gents' Furnishing Department complete in every detail, and without a rival in the State. We devote a very large space to this department, carry an immense stock, and make prices which we know, from actual comparison, are not and cannot be met. Underwear, Neckwear, Hosiery and scores of lesser articles are here in endless variety. SPECIAL! SPECIAL! For a limited time we are giving, in our Men's Suit and Overcoat Department, a beautiful etching, elegantly framed, size 22x27 inch, with every sale of $10 and up. Decorate your parlors free. MARKET STREET. READ, ACT AND SAVE.
