SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

HARRISBURG, October 7 .- James Blick, Inspector of Coal Mines for the Seventh bituminous district, comprising Allegheny, Washington and Westmoreland counties, gives the following reasons for the reduction of production the past year, amounting to 154,205 tons, in his report to the Department of Internal Affairs:

"This reduction of output is due partly to lack of shipping facilities for the lake trade during the summer months. The extreme mild winter has also caused a falling off in the home consumption, but the principal cause is, I believe, due to the scarcity of miners. During the shipping season many of the mines were greatly hampered on this account. It is a notable fact that very many of our best miners have left the mines and are seeking to better their financial condition by engaging in the various branches of outside labor, and it is not to be wondered at when we consider the struggle they have had in the late years in tryabove want. If we take the trouble to compute the number of tons of lump coal produced for the past three years, and the average price per ton paid for mining, and divide the total amount by the number of miners employed, we will see at once that the average amount for each person is so small that it will require the consewife to be well versed in the rules of practical economy in order to make both ends meet. Of course at some of our mines, which run jectry steadily throughout the year, the financial condition of the miners is far above the average, but a large number of mines depend principally upon the summer run, and the present rate paid for mining will not admit of much being saved for fulle time. "

DANGERS THAT THREATEN. After speaking of the tendency in a few mines to neglect precautions for the health and safety of the miners, Mr. Blick points out another danger-that arising from natural gas lines being laid over mines. Trouble and litigation will continue unless the Legislature compels gas companies to place the pipes on top of the ground in crossing mining property, the says, in reference to another danger in de-veloping the coal mines in the future:

"As is well known, many of the gas wells are drilled through the rittsburg coalbed, and all of them in this region are drilled through the lower coal measures. The law directs that all abandoned wells must be plugged at certain points and in a perian manner and the superpoints and in a certain manner, and the upper section of the wells will be filled up with sedi-ment in the course of time but the plugging may be imperfectly done or the plugs may in time become uscless from decay and gas may, and undendriedly will be held at his present and undoubtedly will, be held at high pressure below the upper filling of sediment and the fact of a miner's pick penetrating one of these id gas wells under such conditions would be ttended with serious consequences."

Fred C. Keighley, Inspector of the Fifth ituminous district, in which the ill-fated Dunhttuminous district, in which the ill-fated Dun-lar mine is located, says in his report (which has prepared before the terrible casualty): "In making my inspections I find there is a disposi-tion among the more extensive miners to live up to the law, and many of them openic ex-press a desire to remedy deficiencies. All the large mines are now equipped with good machinery, and many have nowerful fans, and think I can conscientionsly say that with the the field. The first of these wells due is the large mines are now equipped with good machinery, and many have powerful fans, and I think I can conscientiously say that, with the exceptions of some of the smaller operations, these mines are as a rule, in a very creditable condition. One great source of danger lies directly with the miner himself, viz. the neglect to set up posts just as fast as his working place advances. Mine bosses in all parts of the distract complain that their neen oversestimate the safety of their working places, and that often that where they tell a man to set up posts the reply is that they are able to judge of their own safety and take care of themselves. In cases of that kind the mine loss should show his authority and either see the posts put up or remove the man."

ECONOMY IN WORKING MINES. ECONOMY IN WORKING MINES.

William Jenkius of the Second bituminous district, says: "The day for wasting coal has more economical methods must be employed.

It is becoming patent every day that such changes are needful. The law is indefinite in some places and ambrooms in others, and because of its obscurity it is almost impossible to get a conviction, even when we think the law

This is an important part of the act, but the requirement for side-bore heles is remarked of little effect by the words when necessary thus thrown in. These words should be stricken out and the whole would be improved. "I think a commission should be appointed he law and submit the revised law to the next session of the Legislature for adop-

THE FIELD SITUATION. THE FEATURES THAT GIVE COMFORT TO Mary A. McMackin BULLS AND BEARS.

The Chartiers Pool Undergoing a Test-Ar buckle's Well Doing Nobly-Latest Reports From the Butler County Gusher-Notes of Operations in Various Terri-

The field situation, with the exception of a part of Butler county, presents encouraging features to both the producers and the full element of the speculative trade. West Virginia, like Lima, has for some time been regarded as a bearish feature, but developments of the past year have not borne out this view of the situation. Mount Morris, Mannington, Belmont and Eureka have not cut a conspicuous figure in rolling up production which, all told, would but little more than equal the output of Wildwood, West Virginia may be summed up as a field of great possibilities and limited probabilities; or in other words it is fittingly represented by a great desert with an occasional oasis. Chartiers, Westview and Jack's Run have all seen their best days, while the 100-foot territory has apparently reached its zenith and is now on the Wildwood is banging in the balance, and only a few more days is required to tell which way the beam will turn. If the test wells now nearing the sand are failures the extension of any considerable territory is out of the ques-Jefferson Oil Company's big well near Saxon-burg can only be determined by the drill, but if the past history of the pools in this section of Butler county be taken as a criterion its race, so to speak, will be quickly run.

An Interesting Time Ahead.

CHARTIERS-The next few days will mark the most interesting period of the Chartiers field since the opening up of the big wells on the Beck and Heiser farms. Two of the advance wells toward Chartiers should find the sand not later than Saturday, and if they are not paying investments it will place the seal of ation upon territory in this section of the field. The first of these wells due is the ducer. Arbuckle's No. 1 was treated to a second dose of glycerine yesterday and to the surprise of everybody interested in this part of the field responded at 30 barrels an hour, or 720 barrels a day. The Trimble Oil Company, on the Hurley lot, are nearly through the 100 toot and should reach the sand by the first of the week. The Fisher Oil Company are building a rig on the Mrs. Myers farm about one-quarter of a miles northeast of their Steinmiller well, and the Fisher Oil Company and Fred Lauinger are building another on the Guthrie Is-acre lot.

BUTLER-THE DISPATCH scout was shown a special to-day from Butler to one of the owners of the big well at Jefferson Center, which stated that the well was doing 150 barrels an hour this afternoon, It is reported to-night that a 200-barrel well has been struck in the Murraysville gas field, but THE DISPATCH reporter is unable to confirm the rumor.

Wells Expected In.

WILDWOOD-There is no particular change at Wildwood. To-morrow and next day will witness the advent of the Harley well, northwest of Wildwood station, and the Forest Oil Company and Griffith's Ringheiser No. 1. Griffith and the Forest Oil Company's No. 5. Whitesell, is through the sand and dry. H. McCLINTOCK.

WENT INTO EFFECT

Monday, October 6

By the operations of this law, the prices of many lines of goods, both foreign and domestic, ARE SURE TO ADVANCE. Now, we are not speculators ourselves, neither are we alarmists, and we do not ask or expect that our customers will speculate in such lines of goods as we carry; nor purchase such quantities as they may not require for immediate use. THE POLICY that we have adopted is and will continue to be as follows: In anticipation of the passage of the New Tariff Bill, during the summer and early fall, we have placed orders for a somewhat larger stock of goods than was our usual custom; of course, these goods were all bought at the OLD PRICES, all of which we shall continue to sell at the OLD PRICES, not making any advance whatever in the prices of anything that we now have in our house or that is yet to come in on old orders, but it is simply business and to be expected, that when we have disposed of our present stock and have to replenish at the AD-VANCED COST, that the retail prices will most assuredly have TO BE AD-VANCED in accordance therewith, so that we would advise our customers to at once make purchases of such articles in our line as they will want for immediate, and use in the near future. These statements are facts and are worthy of your consideration, and it is needless for us to say that it would be to your interest, if you are in want of anything to profit thereby. By keeping this thought and prices may be seen in our $2 50 and our "Famous" $3 shoes. before you, "ALL GOODS AT THE OLD PRICES until they are sold," "NEW GOODS purchased at the ADVANCED PRICES, of necessity will cause AD-VANCED RATES to the consumer," you will thus be led to take our advice.

Boggs & Buhl, Allegheny.

It floats over the largest and most magnificent stock of fall merchandise ever brought to the city of Pittsburg. IT FLOATS over a line of Fall Overcoats which is the acme of perfection, looked at from any point of view you will. What we have not got isn't worth looking for. In quantity, thousands. In quality, everything that's at all reliable. In styles, the latest only. In linings, the good old-fashioned farmer's satin, the serviceable serge, the silk and the satin lined throughout. Foreign fabrics and domestic fabrics, the best of each. We have the Long Roll, the English Box, the London Top, and coats of genuine American cut, which take no back seat in style. From $3 to $25 is a long distance in price, and all along the line we'll show you genuine values and stylish garments. IT FLOATS over a line of Men's Suits in which which no man can fail to be suited. It's an assortment from which we'll guarantee to please both the head and the pocketbook. We ask your especial attention to the medium priced lines, suits that we are selling at $10, $12 and $15. Don't go by price. 'Twill be a revelation to many when they see the amount of genuine style and good material crowded into one of our medium price

IT FLOATS over the finest stock of Boys' and Children's Clothing we ever offered. In size, it would take four or five good size stores to hold the enormous quantity we've collected for your choice. The designs are beautiful. Choice novelties by the score. Or if you're looking for plain, serviceable goods, at a low price, we can suit you. We say this with confidence, for the stock contains everything at every price. TFLOATS over a mammoth stock of Hats, in which you'll find any maker's block that's your favorite at considerable less than hatters' prices. Latest styles of Dunlap, Millar and Youman are here at $1 24. We sell better hats, of course, up to $3 24. This is the best hat made. They are sold for $5 in many localities. IT FLOATS over a Shoe Department whose rate. Would you know why? Our determination never to self any but a reliable article is oft asserted, and we practice what we preach. This gives the public confidence, and on a busy day they literally flock to us for shoes. We make prices and values that make trade. IT FLOATS over a Gents' Furnishing Department complete in every detail, and without a rival in the State. We devote a very large space to this department, carry an immense stock, and make prices which we know, from actual comparison, are not and cannot be met. Underwear, Neck-
