FEATURES OF TRADE.

Rain and Mild Weather Depressing to Frightened and Rush to Cover-Gardeners' Stuff.

VEGETABLES HAVE HAD A TUMBLE.

A Pittsburger's Views on Business With South America.

SIGNS OF OUR CITY'S PROSPERITY

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, October 7, 1890. All garden products are a drug on the market the past day or two. Tomatoes dropped on Monday to 50e per bushel, and were very slow at that. Green tomatoes are selling at 35c per bushel, or three bushels reported. for $1 00. Radishes and turnips are very slow. Even roasting ears, which are not more than two-thirds an average crop in this section, have joined in the downward movement, and were selling yesterday in the Diamond market at $1 00 per bushel basket. Egg plants are dull at $1 50 per bushel, against $2 50 at this time a year ago. Cucumbers are the only exception to this nownward movement of garden stuff. Markets are firm at $2 00 a bushel. Said a Neville Island gardener yesterday: "We had better crops last season than this, and generally better prices. The weather of late has spoiled many of the gardener's calculations. There has been no frost to injure products and the growing season has passed beyond its usual limits. Late rains and mild weather have very much improved growth in garden and field and we find it impossible to get rid of our stuff without of the gardener's calculations. There has been mpossible to get rid of our stuff without liberal concessions to the buyer. As the maret has been this week it is hardly worth our trouble to bring turnips and radishes to market as we get litt' or nothing for them. This has not been a profitable season to the market gar-dener in this section, when compared with last year or the average season Wheat and Flour. According to the Northwestern Miller, late inspections of wheat show a low quality as empared with last year. In the early part of last week prices of wheat were on the decline. With the opening of a new month, an upware novement was inaugurated, which was in the main speculative. The effect of lower wheat a ex ago begins to count in lower priced spring out flour. Pittsburg flour jobbers are car-ic heavy stocks, and are as a consequence heavy stocks, and are as a consequence recent depression, not in a comfortable of mind. One reason for present quiet-tound in the low prices which prevail in frame of mmd. One reason for present quietbes, is found in the low prices which prevail in Excope. Wheat and flour are relatively lower there than here. The feeling, however, with littsburg jobburs of flour is that the present quietness is but temporary, and that prices must inevitably advance before long. In this inith jobbers here have laid in heavy stocks, and are confidently looking forward to an upward in vement. The late unfavorable feature is the European situation. South American Trade.

A Pittsburger who has traveled extensively in South America gives as a reason why that suntry's trade is so largely controlled by Great fritain in preference to the United States, the beappess of money in Great Britain. Said he: cheapness of money to Great Britain. Said he: I "The South Americans are very slow pay. They want at least a year's time on the goods they import. In England merchants are very glad to give the long time in order to keep the South American trade. In the United States every producer and manufacturer wants his money quick. Prompt nayment is becoming more and more a feature of our trade. If a Pittsbyrg merchant orders wordsee of any kind from the Pork Active and Steady. CHICAGO-Wheat-Upward again was the course of prices and a higher range was estab-lished all round. Trading was active, comprising outside as well as local business. The opening was 168% higher than yesterday's closing, and this advance was followed by a decline, a reaction of 34836 occurring after slight fluctuations, then prices started on their upward course, advancing 11/2/11/2, with December in the lead, eased off some and closed at about 1@136c higher than yesterday. At times there was considerable excitement and the feeling developed on the part of shorts was quite nervous and they covered freely. Local speculative operations, no doubt, had a good deal to do with to-day's course of the market. The influences were of a favorable character again, especially the rumors regarding export business, more inquiry and better prices being Corn-There was a good general trade, the market ruling rather unsettled, fluctuations being frequent within Melc range. The feelbeing frequent within % le range. The feeling, on the whole, was firmer, the undertone at times being strong, and the market closed with a gain of 1/6/4c. The influence on values were, to a great degree, local.

Oats were fairly active and stronger, and a higher range of prices was again recorded. The advance in wheat and corn had a strengthning of the day. The greatly most of the day.

The advance in wheat and corn had a strengthening effect most of the day. The opening in May was at 1/2c advance, but soon weakened and receded 1/2c, became firmer and advanced 1/2c, but declined 1/2c and closed steady.

Mess Pork—Quite an active trade was reported. Opening sales were at 567% decline, and a further reduction of 21/2c was submitted to. Later prices rallied 25/25c. Toward the close prices receded 12/2015c, and closed steady.

NO STEPS BACKWARD.

The Visible Symbols of Pittsburg's Remarkable Prosperity.

EVERYTHING ON A SOUND BASIS. A Better Movement in Local Stocks, but Oil

Entirely Neglected.

THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

Notwithstanding the great, and to some extent inexcusable, drawback of bad roads, improvements in the outskirts are making rapid progress. Houses are being erected and grounds put in apple-pie order in every district at a rate of speed which a few years ago would have been regarded as marvelous Personal observation will bear out the truth of his assertion.

The amount of building in the suburbs i ven greater than in the city proper. Piles of lumber, brick and other material which enters into the composition of houses are leading features of thescape. Syndicates and individuals are operating in all directions. So great is the rush to complete contracts before cold weather sets in that almost any kind of a workman is in demand at the highest pay-and this, too, without meeting the demand. Houses are in many instances sold before completion. All are sold or leased as soon as ready for occupaney. What does all this rush and bustle signify? There is sense as well as wit in the saying that nothing succeeds like success. Prosperity, such as Pittsburg is enjoying by reason of her many advantages over other centers of trade, must have an escape valve for the rapidly accumulating wealth of her citizens of all classes and occupations. To lock it up would be as criminal as it was in the case of the unfaithful servant who buried his talents. Hence manufacturers, merchants, artisans and even day laborers, having confidence in the future of the city, and desiring to make it their permanent home, invest a portion, or all, of their surplus funds in lands or houses, either in the city or suburbs. This is not the way booms are con suburbs. This is not the way booms are con ducted. It is not speculation, which is of microscopic dimensions in this community. It is simply legitimate investment for a legitimate purpose—to establish homes and so be able to look fortane in the face, whether it be propirious or adverse. Every lot that is purchased for improvement and every house that is built is equivalent to a bond of insurance against financial disaster.

The many and various improvements in progress in all parts of the city and outskirts are the visible symbols of substantial prosperity. Viewed from any point of vantage the business situation is encouraging. There is cverything to inspire hope and courage and nothing to alarm. Pittsburg is all right—and so are ber people, especially those who are buying or building homes, and thus laying the foundation for future comfort or independence.

LOCAL SECURITIES. Business of Fair Proportions and More

Fluctuations in Values. The local stock market yesterday was characterized by a fair degree of activity and better acterized by a fair degree of activity and better values for some of the leaders. Sales were 323 shares, composed of Hazelwood Oil, Second Avenue Railroad, Philadelphia Gas, Luster, Switch and Signal, Pleasant Valley Railway and Allegheny Valley Railroad, showing a better distribution of business than usual.

Luster and Philadelphia Gas developed most strength. There was free bidding for bank shares at full prices. Electric was weak at the opening, but firmed up at the last call. Very little attention was paid to the Tractions. Pleasant Valley was steady at the close. Bridgewater tras was offered down to 49. Switch and Signal broke at the last call to 14% bid.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Only Small Fluctuations on 'Change Yester day--Railroad Bonds Dull--Abundance of Security Bills Depresses the Rates of Exchange. NEW YORK, October 7 .- The stock market to-day was in marked contrast to that of yes-terday, rather dull, especially in the afternoon, while in place of the wide fluctuations and sharp movements of yesterday there were comparatively small openings in quotations throughout the day, and little decided ten-dency of prices at any time. The feeling on the street was undoubtedly easier, and many regarded the situation as likely to improve from this time out, and buyers were encouraged by some support from London in the early trading. The general opinion was that any forced liquidation was pretty nearly completed and that stocks had undoubtedly gone into stronger hands, and evidences of buying by in-siders in several of the larger properties were seen. A strong opening was had, and the demand from London, with that from the shorts, was sufficient to make further slight gains in the early trading

The advance, however, was the occasion of some selling when the demand slacked away, and toward noon the bears gathered courage enough to renew the pressure, and prices were carried down to below the opening figures in almost everything traded in, while Burlington, Quincy, Rock Islan I, Atchison, Tennessee Coal and some others displayed marked weakness under some others displayed marked weakness under the assault, and Sugar Refineries brought up the rear with a drop of 2 per cent from the best figures of the forenoon. Good buying again appeared at the concession, and late in the day, figures of the forenoon. Good buying again appeared at the concession, and late in the day, a material recovery from the lowest prices was scored, the market leaving off quiet, but firm generally at insignificant changes from the opening figures. The final changes for the day are in but few cases for small fractions only, and advances are in a majority while Union Pacific shows a gain of 1½, and Southern Pacific a los of 1 per cent.

Railroad bonds were again dult, notwithstanding considerable animation in the Reading 4s, the Texas Pacific incomes and some other, and the total day's business reached only $767,000. The tone of the market was still mixed, but was rather firm in the forenoon with weakening later in the day. The final changes are, as usual, very irregular, and among the few marked changes San Francisco class C lost 2 to 118.

Government bonds have been dull and steady. State bonds have been dull and without feature. In the afternoon the Exchange market was weak, partly owing to the free offerings of bills drawn against the purchase of stocks for foreign account. This is the first time for several months when there have been enough se curity bills in the exchange market to have an undoubted effect in depressing the rates for exchange, and also the first time in at least two months when London has been a conspicuous buyer of stocks. The lower rates for exchange, together with the casior rates for money in London, contributed to make money easier here, and in the afternoon call loans were down to 4 per cent.

to 4 per cent.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

in the Beaver.

Colonel William E. Merrill, accompanied by Captain William Martin, chief engineer of posed dam near that point, for which $250,000 was appropriated by Congress, shortly before the river and harbor bill was presented to the Conference Committee. Work on the new structure will be commenced at once. It will be modern in construction and will be of great service to the river trade. The appropriation for the dam was only secured after many vain attempts on the part of river and coal operators. The river at this point has been a drawback to the business on account of the shallow water between Davis Island and the Beaver. Innumerable coal fleets have been detained at this place for weeks at a time, which cost the coal shippers barrels of money. It is much worse after a rise, when boats are returning with empty tows. Upon reaching
