and local trading also was targe. More or less excitement accompanied the advance to-day from the early evening figures, which were $\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ lower than yesterday's closing. After some slight fluctuations the market started up and prices were advanced $100 kgc, eased off at $100 kgc, and closed at about $100 kgc, and closed at about $100 kgc, and closed at about $100 kgc to a little uneasiness on the part of some of the holders who were anyther to soll. SHEEP WEAKER AND SWINE STEADY

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, October 8, 1890. The run of cattle at East Liberty this week was the largest of the season. There were above 160 loads on the market Monday morning, and since that time 20 more loads have been received, making 30 loads more than have been received any one week for mouths past. As usual a large proportion of receipts were common and low grade beeves. In the 180 loads there were not probably a dozen loads of the smooth, light cornfed stock weighing 1,000 to 1,200 pounds, such as our market has been calling loudly for in vain all this season. This grade of cattle were strong at last week's prices, and many more than were offered would have found ready buyers. There are a few loads ready buyers. There are a few loads of Southern Ohio beeves on the market which are good, but not strictly prime, weighing from 1,400 to 1,500 pounds, for which there was no demadd at satisfactory prices, and they were sent on East in first hands. The beest offer for these good heavy beeves was $4.50, and no doubt they would have brought $4.00, but the latter price was not satisfactory to the shappers. Common and low grade cattle were active at legible, lower prices than last week. The saving clause of this week's cattle market was the presence of a larger number of buyers than have been on hand for months past. All the buyers who ever visit the East Liberty yards were on hand and ready to invest. The heavy run gave them the opportunity to deany run gave them the opportunity to de-and concessions, but with the exception of 16 12 loads of good heavy beeves nearly all lered were sold.

offered were sold.

Stockers were dull and slow. Good Ohlo feeders were in good demand. Fresh cows and springers were active at a range of $30 to $40 a head, and common stock were dull at $15 to $25 a head. Good yeal calves were scarce and active at 5c to $4c, while heavy grassers were slow at a range of 25c to 3c per B. Sheep, Lambs and Swine.

The number of sheep on the market this week was about 20 loads, and in the week was about 20 loads, and in the supplies there was very little prime stock. All commission men are agreed that quality of offerings of late has been very low. A bunch or two of tops were sold at $5 25 to $5 35, but the general range of markets was $3 50 to $4 75. Lambs were dull and lower, with 4c to 6c per B as the range. Markets were reported from 15c to 20c lower than last week, with fancy stock as the exception which were hardly quatable on account of than last week, with fancy stock as the excep-tion, which were hardly quotable on account of their scarcity. Selected hogs were strong 5c higher on Monday than at the close of last week. There have been no new features since Monday. Philadelphias were quoted this morning at $3.80 to $4.90. Receips at Chicago this morning were very large, and $4.60 was the tob price.

CHICAGO—Wheat was active to-day and the market unsettled. Outside demand was good and local trading also was large. More or less REVOLUTIONIZED THE SUBURBS.

Stock Trading Slowly Picking Up, but 0il

Completely Knocked Out. THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

uneasiness on the part of some of the holders who were anxious to sell. The speculative offerings were quite large, and for a time the offerings were quite large, and for a time the offerings were quite large, and for a time the offering which the acted a little too heavy. But a lot of bull news commenced to come in, inder which the market began to strengthen and to which the advance from opening figures was attributed. Corn—There was a fair trade, the bulk of which was local within a %c range. There was not much to note to the market, prices being influenced, as of late, by the operations of a heavy local speculator. First trades were at $\frac{\pi}{2} \frac{\pi}{2} \frac{\pi}{2 A few nervous people have recently expressed the opinion that street railway building in Pittsburg is being overdone, and that it is an injury rather than a benefit to many localities in the East End. In answer to this, it is sufficient to say that but for the street railways there would be no East End except the old part along the Pennsylvania Railroad. Most of the districts opened within the past few years and rapidly growing in population and wealth would still be howling wildernesses but for the introduction of street railways. They have done more to expedite the growth of Pittsburg and to give working people a chance covered on good buying and advanced 300, eased off some, ruled steady and closed with a 300 kg/gc loss.

Oats—The market opened with an urgent demand from the shorts in May. First-sales were at 300 decine, but prices quickly advanced 300, and for a time trading was quite active. A large boider sold treely and filled buyers up and continued his offerings until the close. Prices receded 300, but reacted 300 and finally closed at the same as yesterday's sales.

Mess pork—Less was doing. Opening sales were made at 150 decline, and prices ruled 7500 loc higher, with frequent fluctuations, and insally closed at needium figures.

Lard—Trading was moderate. Opening sales were made at 250 decline, but the greater portion of the decline was recovered. The market closed quiet at inside figures.

Short-rib sides—A moderate trade was reported. Opening sales were made at 50 decline, and a further reduction of 250 was submitted to. During the latter part of the session prices rallied slightly and closed at medium figures.

The leading futures ranged as follows: o establish homes than anything or everything There is no cause for alarm that they will precipitate a cataclysm of some sort. Without them the material development of the city would be slow and uncertain. There would city would be slow and uncertain. There would be fewer buildings, fewer people, fewer sales of real estate and less property all round. Let them come. The more the better. They are a benefit to all classes and conditions of people. They help to fill the churches and the schools. They bring trade to the stores, and orders to the workshops. But it is not necessary to point out all of their advantages. It is nothing to the public whether they pay dividends or not. If the stockholders are satisfied everybody else ought to be.

Decadence of Speculation.

Financial conditions have eased up consider ably, but without imparting fresh impetus to speculation. The explanation must be looked for in the activity of the regular lines of trade, which affords large opportunities for the profit-able use of capital, and in heavy investments were among the chief supporters of the stock market. The withdrawal of this element from market. The withdrawal of this segment from the Exchange is manifest in the testricted volume of business, and in the difficulty of arousing excitement except upon extraordinary occasions. Consequently values respond less readily to actual conditions than to the temper of the moment, which may have no better foundation than the filling of a few orders.

Whether this diversion of interest from the purely speculative commodities is destined to purely speculative commodities is destined to be permanent or not, it is sufficient to account for the existing depression.

HOME SECURITIES.

Moderate Trading, With Nothing Strange in the Way of Features. There was a steady and fairly active stock market yesterday. Bidders were rather more urgent than is their wont, and refused to make concessions in almost every instance. Sales were 220 shares.

Electric, Switch and Signal and the tractions were dull and weak all day. Philadelphia Gas was stronger at the opening, but yielded a fraction in the afternoon. Oil started on another upward movement. Luster improved its standing, closing at the top of the day. Wheeling and Chartiers Gas failed to respond to the dividend in the one case and the talk of one in the other.

Oil on a Higher Level, but Nobody Willing to Sell.

There is no great quantity of long oil in this market, but holders seem to have concerted to withhold what there is for higher prices, with withhold what there is for higher prices, with a reasonable certainty of getting it. There were no sales yesterday, although the com-modity was bid up to 81½c. Small offers at the close were at 81½c. There was considerable trading at outside exchanges. Lima was of-ferred at 22½c and 22c. In New York 20c was bid.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Decidedly Weak Market - Unusual De clines—The Drop Attributed to Liquidation - Rumors of a Strike Knocks Erie Down.

New York, October 8.—The stock market o-day was again decidedly weak, although there was only a moderate business transacted and the declines for the day are on the average larger than on any day for a long time. The opening was firm at fractional advances over last night's figures, following a higher market in London, but the feeling among the traders was very much mixed as to the probable course was very much mixed as to the probable course of the market, and some London selling being detected in the Louisville & Nashville and Erie, there was immediately a renewal of the pressure of short sales, and prices shaded off throughout the forenoon. Some of the raders who had been working for a rally threw over their stocks and while there was still a moderate demand it was insufficient to meet the offerings.

Toward noon there was a rumor that the Erie Company would not settle with its em-

Erie Company would not settle with its em-ployes, and that a strike was imminent, and, ployes, and that a strike was imminent, and, accompanied as the report was by a vigorous hammering of the stock, it started a downward movement which soon extended to the entire active list. Western Union declined in spite of the excellent statement put out, and North American was sold off on reports that some large interest was compelled to liquidate, which brought the Northern Pacifics down with it. There was an unusual number of seliers 60 day options put out, and even New York Central was depressed materially in that manner. The reports of the failures brought out a large number of stop orders, and the assertion attributed to General Thomas that the dividend on the East Tennessee would probably be reduced from 5 to 4 per cent, brough Richmond and West Point preferred down from 7894 to 70.

The markets showed no recuperative power whatever, and, while there was a great deal of

The markets showed no recuperative power whatever, and, while there was a great deal of taking of profits on the bear side in the late dealings, only a feeble rally occurred, and the marked weakness of Western Union and Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred under the pressure brought the whole, list down again in the final dealings. The market finally closed fairly active and decidedly weak, at about the lowest prices of the day, and leaving many stocks at the lowest points reached in mouths. The final declines of interest were Richmond and West Point preferred $4, Wheeling and Lake Eric preferred 25, the common 25, St. Paul 25, North American 24, Rock Island 25, Atchison 2 Burlington and Quincy, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific 13, each, Northern Pacific preferred 15, Big Four, Lackswanna, Louisville and Nashville and Western Ucion each 15, Northwestern 15, Pacific Mail and Wabash preferred each 1 per cent, and other generally large fractions.

Railroad bonds were quiet, but showed a little more animation than usual of late, the total sales reaching $1,178,500, and while the general tone of the market was heavy, there was nothing of the weakness shown in the share list. The Atchison and Reading incomes were again made a part of the manipulation for lower prices, and the former furnished $270,000 to the total, followed by the Texas Pacific incomes with $20,000, though in the latter there was only a slight movement. Declines are in a majority to-night, however, and while International firsts rose 25 to 1154, Reading thirds lost 25, to 33; Richmond and West Point fives, 25, to 639; St. Joseph and Grand Island firsts, 2 to 63, and Feoria and Eastern firsts, 2 to 79. Government bonds have been entirely neglected.

The Post says: The further decline of stocks to-day in the face of circumstances which might naturally be expected to make higher prices, can be attributed to nothing but liquidation, which of itself compels further liquidation, which of laself compels further liquidation, which of laself compels further liquidation, which of laself compels further ing the stocks.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

Dam No. 5 to be Located Opposite Beaver Station on the Ohio.

Colonel Merrill and Captain Martin returned from Beaver yesterday, and held a consultation with the rivermen to determine the location of dam No. 5, as the new Ohio structure will be called. Colonel Merrill stated that he and Captain Martin had agreed that the best place for the dam was exactly opposite Beaver sta-tion. As this is the most desirable spot where-on the dam could be built, the rivermen as-sented to the recommendation of Colonel Mer-rill, that the dam be erected there. Colonel Merrill stated that it-would be some time before work would be commenced on the dam. It will be necessary to condemn the dam. It will be necessary to condemn the property and secure a clear title before the start is made. The new dam is to be con-structed similar to Davis Island dam, but it will start is made. The new dam is to be constructed similar to Davis Island dam, but it will not cost near so much. Experience in building movable dams has reduced the cost very much. The building of Davis Island dam was entirely an experiment, it being the first movable structure ever erected.

Colonel Merrill is credited with making the statement that in order to have slack water between Davis Island and No. 5 dam, there will have to be three more dams erected. River men say that while they favor this decidedly, they think that it is not necessary, and if any money is going to be expended in building more dams, which is not at all probable for a few years, they think it could be used to much better advantage than in slacking the Ohio between Beaver and Davis Island. They were generally of the opinion that two dams will be quite sufficient, but if the Government will build them and give them all the other needed improvements asked, they say that it will meet with no opposition from them. Colonel Merrill thinks that the Beaver dam will only slack the water as far up as Economy, and that three dams will be necessary between that point and Bellview.

Driftwood. THE Monongahela was 8.3 at noon yesterday and THE H. K. Bedford had a good trip both ways in the Parkersburg trade. COLONEL ROBERTS, of the Pennsylvania Ship

Canal Commission, stated yesterday that the four dams between Davis Island and the Beaver river were absolutely necessary, when told that some river men did not see the necessity of so many.
