TELEGRAMS FROM NEARBY LOCALITIES

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, PA., October 9 .- Court convened promptly this morning with a large crowd of spectators, one-half of whom were ladies, there also being many ministers, students, and professional men among the audience. William West was given a seat beside his counsel, and remained in a dejected mood all day. Interest in the case has increased very materially since yesterday, owing to the very important character of the testimony introduced. Public opinion here is strongly against West, and it is conceded that his conviction is certain.

The evidenze first brought out by the Commonwealth in closing up the case was similar to that of yesterday, with reference to West's course on May 13 and 14. An effort was made to disprove the theory that he got money in Monongahela City at the People's Bank on Tuesday evening. It was shown that West got the money from a Mr. Lawrence some weeks previous to the murder. Considerable time was spount in hearing the testimony of witnesses who had talked with West after he was confined in jail here. By them it was proved that he not only took a long and roundabout course to Monongahela City the night of the murder, but also that he told several different parties of it. monwealth in closing up the case was similar

AN IMPORTANT WITNESS.

Mart Richardson testified that West had thrown his old clothes away, because he expected to get in trouble, as he said, but nothing like this, and Anne Brundage did not want to be caught with them in her trunk. The most important witness of the prosecution, Charles Nickoison, occupied a good portion of the morning and the afternoon session. He had known West for many years, and had a conersation with him in the jail shortly after his reest. West told him the route he had taken cross the country and that he had not seen many persons. He admitted that he had made has in Greenlee's outs field and elsewhere.

Intimated that he knew who killed the such family, and said that there was a good of money cot by their death. He also that he did not commit the murder him-

After the examination of Nickolson, late in After the examination of Nickolson, late in the afternoon, the Commonwealth examined Henry J. Ford, of Pittsburg, into whose hands had falled a letter purporting to come from an eye witness of the murder, stating that West had nothing to do with the crime. The letter was read in court. Here the prosecution rested and the defense was opened by Mr. Vankirk. He summed up the evidence of the Commonwealth, and said that he would prove by a number of witnesses that West's character was beyond reproach: also, that he got the money from a bank in Monongahela City.

some time previous to the murder. Quite a number of witnesses were examined who testified to the good character of West and as to his bonesty. Amid great excitement among the spectators, West was put upon the stand and was put through a series of questions. The defendant testified as follows, after being shown the letter and the forged note: "I did not write either of the letters or the order, and did not get the money from Charles Hoover in Allecheny City. I am not guilty of the crime for which I stand indicted, and I do not know who committed the crime. I met hturk Ray in Monongahela City, but I did not teil him that I had come to town on the evening train."

After this testimony the defense requested After this testimony the defense requested the Court to wait until Friday morning, as they had one more witness whom they wished to examine. This was granted. West has been quite nervous since 3 o'clock, when he saw his case was nearing its close.

GLASSWORKERS DISSATISFIED. President Smith Investigating the Standard

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR. WHEELING, October 9.-W. J. Smith, of Pittsburg, President of the Flint Glass workers' Union, was here last evening looking into the status of the strike at the Standard Glass Works. The strike had been ordered h the local union because the men thought the company had been making more of one kind of ware than the scale called for, and because the wages paid for such work did not correspond wages haid for such work did not correspond with the wages paid for that work elsewhere.

The company claims that they are paying the wages agreed on, and in consequence of the strike have taken the glass out of the pots, and unless there is a settlement soon the furnaces will be allowed to cool.

of Another Attempt to Stop Sunday Selling in Porkopolis.

CINCINNATI, October 9,-Another at tempt to convict for the violation of the law forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors on Sunday tailed to-day by the disagreement of the jury in the Police Court in the case against M. Richler. The testimony against Richler was by police officers, who said they were in his place on Sunday; that it was open for business; that about 60 others were there, and that Richler gave witnesses beer. The jury was out all night. Nine were for acquittal and three for conviction.

Those voting to acquit gave various reasons for their action. Several said they did not regard the unsupported testimony of paid officers sufficient to warrant conviction. One said he believed it was wrong to send a man to the workhouse for such an offense. Richler has been arrested 26 times for this offense, but this is the first time he has been brought to trial.

The Members of the Cincinnati B. P. I Are in a Ticklish Position CINCINNATI, October 9.-There is a mos active interest felt by the public-spirited citizens here concerning the coming meeting of the Ohio Legislature, called by Governor Campbell to oust the present Board of Public Improvements. Quantities of the Queer. LOUISVILLE, October 9 .- John Schmidt, counterfeiter, has confessed to Detective Bauer that he had been guilty of counter feiting $2 certificates, and had succeeded in working them off in large numbers, in all, $4,000 worth. Schmidt, according to his confession, was assisted in "shoving the queer" in this city by Miles Ogle, the king of counterfeiters.

Schmidt stated to the detective that a large quantity of money had been buried on Towhead Island, along the banks of Bear Grass creek. This morning Bauer took Schmidt to the spot to endeavor to locate and unearth the money. A number of plates were found by Bauer yesterday at Madison. The evidence should be sufficient to keep Ogle in confinement the balance of Child's Sufferings Relieved.

The following is from a well-known Lowell merchant, and is, like all our testimonials, perfectly truthful and reliable. Salt rheum is a well-known disease of the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier.

"When my little boy was only a few months old, eczema, or salt rheum, appeared on his face, head and neck. It also came out on his body, but not so severe as on and about his head. Blotches and pimples would come out thickly, break and discharge a thin watery fluid, and then scales would form.

IT ITCHED INTENSELY, and caused the poor little fellow a great deal of suffering for nearly five years. In that time we consulted several of the leading physicians, but he did not seem to get any better. Then, about a year ago, we decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and as the result of a fair trial he is now entirely well, his skin being amooth and fair as can be. We also used Hood's Olive Onthern tand found it excellent as an outward application. To Hood's Sarsaparilla and Ointment we attribute wholly the improved condition of our boy." M. F.
