Mr. Ethelbert Nevin's Coming Lecture Course in This City.

RECITAL AT THE CLUB THEATER.

Orchestra Treat Under the Directorship of Edgar S. Kelley.

SMALL TALK FOR THE ARTS LOVERS

Mr. Ethelbert Nevin began, in his appearance last evening at Carnegie Hall, a two weeks' campaign in his native community of more than usual interest.

The series of three informal lectures, with piano illustration, on Wagner's "Der Ring des Nibelungen," which Mr. Nevin has so successfully given in fashionable circles in Boston and Chicago, as well as at his father's Edgeworth residence last summer, will be given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week, at 4 o'clock, in the recital room of the Carnegie Library.

Mr. Nevin has also consented to appear before the Art Society on Monday evening, October 20, the date of its first reception in the new quarters, the Academy of Science and Art building, on Fifth street.

All of these events will of course be of a quasi-social and private character. The general public may be more interested in the announcements for the recital to be given by Mr. Nevin at the Pittsburgh Club Theater, on Tuesday evening, October 21, for which tickets are on sale at all who care to purchase.

At this recital Mr. Nevin will play Brahms' "Hungarian" Variations, op. 20, Schumann's "Album for Anna," op. 8, Chopin's "Pavane," op. 28, and Grieg's "Chopin Mazurka," Liszt's "An Hebräer von Süsskind," and the "Liedes Traume," besides a recent Suite (Valzer Genre, Schumann), Intermezzo and Song of the Brook, and a new concert waltz of the pianist's own composition.

Mr. Nevin's recital will be a most artistic and artistic representation of the highest kind in the leading musical centers. The program is of the highest quality, and the Worcester Festival may be instanced as indicating the class of concerts at which Mr. Nevin has performed.

FUNERAL on SUNDAY, October 12, at 2 P. M. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

BOTHWELL-Suddenly, on Thursday, October 10, 1890, at 10:30, MRS. JOHN R. BOTHWELL, aged 72 years, at her residence, 124 West 12th street, Allegheny, Pa. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

FUNERAL on SUNDAY, October 12, at 2 P. M. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

FRANK M. HUNTER, having had a summer's rest at his home in this city, after his course of vocal study in Italy, is now going fairly into a public career.

MESSES KINGSBURY AND BATES are managing the "Carnegie Course" of seven concerts to be held at Carnegie Hall during the present season.

Mr. HENRY EVER BROWN, the eminent organist of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, East End, next Tuesday evening, Mr. Brown will be assisted by Miss Helen, the organist of the church, and by Miss Agnes Vogel, soprano, and Miss M. P. Fraser, contralto.

MISS ANNA KADERLY, the new soprano of the Second Presbyterian Church, has already won high regard in her new post.

Mr. W. A. LAFEBRY will begin a choral union class in the Fifth St. Church, at 8 o'clock, on Monday evening, October 20, to continue every Monday evening for 12 weeks.

THE Handel Musical Association, of Allegheny, having reorganized for the year, will hold their first rehearsal at their hall, corner Federal and North Diamond streets, on next Thursday evening.

MISS MAY HENSLEY, Mrs. Mary Scott, Messrs. F. J. Bussman, Wm. H. Edwards, Jos. H. Gittings and others took part in this season's first musical under the auspices of the young people of the Third Presbyterian Church, last Monday evening.

THE Boston Symphony Orchestra opened its second season under Mr. Arthur Nikisch's direction last night, presenting a choice program, on which the Boston's seldom heard concert for two violins, played by Mr. Kussner and Mr. Loewler.

THEODORE REICHMANN the great Viennese baton, now the conductor of the Grand Opera House, New York, has been making a preliminary concert tour in the West. He is also announced as the soloist at one of the Boston Symphony Orchestra concerts this season.

MR. F. N. INNES, whose name and face are familiar to all Exposition visitors, will be a promise made last year to Rev. H. W. Graves, pastor of the F. K. Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, by playing Gounod's "There is a Green Hill," as a trombone solo, during the offertory at that church this morning.

MR. DAN E. NUTTALL, the much-prized tenor of the First Presbyterian Church and well known in business circles, will sail next Saturday, per Steamship Ems, expecting to spend a short time in London and then to go to France, for a long course of vocal study under Vassallo. Mr. Nuttall will be missed, but his serious adoption of the musical career is cause for congratulation and no small expectations.

MISS LILLIAN SANDERSON is spoken of by a correspondent of the American Musician as an American contralto who has had great success in Berlin, and who is engaged for one of the leading Hamburg concert.
