Increased Population in Eastern Counties Shown by

SUPR. PORTER'S CENSUS RETURNS.

The Number of Inhabitants in Two Populous Districts.

A WESTERN SENATOR'S DIFFICULTY

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, October 11.—The Census Office will soon be able to announce the result of the count of the population for the whole State of Pennsylvania. The results in two districts were announced to-day, and there remains only one district yet to be heard from, and that will be ready soon. The following are the figures for the second Pennsylvania district by counties:

The total population for the district is 412,023. In 1880 the population was 366,870. Increase, 45,153 or 12.31 per cent.

Table with columns: Towns, 1880, 1885, Inc., Per Ct. Rows: Chester, Codorusville, Conowingo, Hanover, Leesport, Marietta, Pottsville, South Chester, Union Deposit, West Chester, York.

The Third district by counties is as follows:

Table with columns: Counties, 1880, 1885, Inc., Per Ct. Rows: Berks, Bucks, Lehigh, Northampton, Northumberland.

The total population for the district is 401,203. In 1880 the population was 324,023. Increase 77,180, or 23.82 per cent.

Table with columns: Towns, 1880, 1885, Inc., Per Ct. Rows: Allentown City, Bethlehem, Pottsville, Catawago borough, Doylestown borough, Easton, Hamburg borough, Norristown borough, Pottstown, Reading, South Bethlehem, South Easton.

WORRYING A WESTERN SENATOR.

A Former Hoosier Making It Warm for Squire, of Washington.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, October 11.—"They are having lots of fun out in our corner of the earth," said a politician who hails from the State of Washington to-day. "You know that Senator Squire drew the short term? Well, he's out for a re-election, and the probabilities are he will get it, but there is a stumbling block that may change the appearance of things. One W. H. Calkins is the obstruction. You will remember that Calkins was a member of Congress from Indiana and that he migrated to Washington Territory, when he temporarily retired from the legislative field. He was a Territorial Judge, and when we were admitted as a State he was a candidate for a Federal Judgeship. He had that office right in his grip when Squire voted against him and knocked him out. Now Squire wishes he had not done it because Calkins is making things warm in the Senatorial fight.

"The opposition to Squire is very ably conducted, and the sly old Hoosier is not alone. Somebody has been going through the Congressional Record and has prepared a pleasant little statement as to the number of times he was absent during the session, the number of times he spoke and the number of times he might have spoken, but didn't. Another variety of strife springs from the Federal appointments, over which there is dissatisfaction between the rival towns of Seattle and Tacoma. Calkins may not win, but he is worrying Squire a good deal.

"And Wilson? He's all right. He had a majority of 10,000 when he ran for Congress before and he will beat that by 2,000 this time."

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in Eastern Iowa was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterward used several bottles at various times. He said, in his experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen.

A GOOD JUMP, TOO.

Still, don't be alarmed, as far as we are concerned. As we said last Sunday, we "Caught the bull by the horns," and bought extensively for our Fall trade. Consequently we shall be able to supply our trade at the old prices, which, you already know, were very low. If you don't think ours a well-selected stock, you have only to come down and look over it. We are sure you will see lots of patterns, pleasing to the eye and purse. These goods are not going to last always, though, so we would advise you to do as we have done. Take advantage of this offer and do as we have done—buy at once.

Lace Goods, too, are bound to go up about 15 per cent. This week we received a large consignment of Lace Curtains at all prices. Turcoman and Chenille Portieres, Rugs, etc., etc.

KAUFMANN'S GRAND FALL STOCK THE SOURCE OF SUPPLY FOR COUNTLESS THOUSANDS. Fashionable people come here, because we have the latest styles; particular people, because we have the best qualities; economical people, because we name the lowest prices. IN SHORT-PANT SUITS. We're showing lots of the finest (4 to 12 years) "Norfolk" and "Chester" Suits—corded and plated front and back in newest colors and mixtures. The "Sherwood," a 3-piece (4 to 10 to 12 years)—Coat, Vest and Pants—Suit, is not only dressty but "real swell." They're made of Veivets, fine imported Tricots, nobby rough-fur goods, etc., and are made plain and fancy. Tricots, for Boys 3 to 8, were never so popular, and quite naturally, too, for they are so becoming to well-formed little fellows. We show them in blue, brown and combination colors—the most fetching of which is the "Gilmore," a real beauty! For Boys, 8 to 15 years of age, who wear short-Pant Suits, we have a world of gay, jaunty, quiet and natty styles that'll catch 'em all! The favorite with Boys of this age is, of course, the 3-piece style—because it's so much like the "Guvnor's," you know. We're showing this popular shape in plain goods and gay colors. BOYS' LONG-PANT SUITS, 13 to 18 Years. Come (we're speaking of ours only) in pleasing, graceful styles and rich—lovely colors! Double and Single-breasted Cutaway Sacks and Frocks in every new shape and Dress Prince Alberts especially made for dressty youth. An equally grand assortment of Boys' Kilt Suits, sizes 2 to 6. We sell these superior goods for less money than the inferior qualities are sold for elsewhere.

KAUFMANN'S GRAND FALL STOCK THE SOURCE OF SUPPLY FOR COUNTLESS THOUSANDS. Fashionable people come here, because we have the latest styles; particular people, because we have the best qualities; economical people, because we name the lowest prices. THIS IS THE HAT KAUFMANN'S LATEST That Made the Most Wonderful Hit Ever known in this city. But yesterday we introduced it to the gentlemen of Pittsburgh, and to-day it adorns the heads of hundreds. And no wonder, for a nobbier, natter and neater hat was never turned out in this country. The qualities (we have three of 'em) are all fine Fur, and the binding and band are the best. OUR PRICES ARE: $2, $2.75 and $3. Bright and early to-morrow morning this sale will continue, and, if our Hat Department won't be crowded every day this week we have very much mistaken the judgment of the gentlemen of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Special Underwear Sale! For To-Morrow Only. 98 CENTS Will buy your pick from the following choice lots: 20 dozen double thread, fancy Wool Underwear. 15 dozen extra fine Camel's Hair Underwear, with silk front. 24 dozen of Imported Scotch Wool Underwear. 18 dozen fine Angora Wool Underwear, in handsome stripes. 12 dozen of best Medicated Scarlet Underwear. 15 dozen of Pure Natural Wool, double front and back Underwear. Any kind is worth $1.50; we offer choice to-morrow for 98c. For To-Morrow Only. $2.50. WORTH $3.75 AND $4. They're genuine French Kid and Bright Dongola, and have been made by a celebrated manufacturer of Boston, whose cheapest shoe never retails for less than $3.50. Well, we happened to close them out at a big sacrifice, and the price we now offer them at shows that YOU will get the benefit of our good fortune. These Shoes come in Common Sense and Opera Toes, widths from AA to E, and sizes from 2 1/2 to 7. Ladies, here's a chance for you to buy as fine, stylish and durable Shoe as is produced in this country for only $2.50. Will you hesitate? Will you delay? Remember, this sale is limited to one day (to-morrow) only. Make hay while the sun shines. MEN'S FINE OVERCOATS. In fine Fall and Winter Overcoats we have more styles than ever before. All grades, shapes and fabrics are represented, among which are numerous exclusive novelties that will be seen nowhere else—this season. A liberal percentage of these exquisite custom-fitting garments were made right here in our Merchant Tailoring Department during the month of August. Nothing like them can be found anywhere in this city, and yet their prices are most reasonable, ranging, as they do, from $18 to $25. IN PANTALOONS We have a large number of exclusive and ultra styles that'll delight the fastidious. We show thousands of pairs, and, no matter what your wants, rest assured that we can please you. Prices for Fine Dress Pants from $4 to $7; Business Pants from $2.50 to $3.75.

'WAY AHEAD OF 'EM ALL! That's the position of our popular Cloak Department, and yet it's but in its infancy, having been called into existence but three years ago. Indeed, our large and beautiful Cloak Parlors (third floor) are where the ladies gather to see all that there is in the Cloak and Wrap World. Our ability to teach the trade so quickly proves Leadership; and, unless we named lowest prices, we wouldn't be doing THE business of the two cities. Ladies who look over and read this paper to-day will know whatever of importance took place yesterday the world over; and those who look through our Cloak Department the coming week will know what there is in the Cloak World. BLAZERS, REEFERS, JACKETS, CAPES, WRAPS, MANTLES, FURS, NEWMARKETS, SACQUES, SHAWLS, etc., in the newest styles, colors and fabrics—just from the hands of the best artists of this country and Europe. And, mark you, Ladies, there's no old stock here to get rid of—everything being entirely new, tempting and fashionable. Our special bargains for this week should be seen by every lady from near and far. Ladies from the country visiting the Exposition this week are especially invited to call and see these goods. We also keep a complete stock of French and American Corsets. Prices always lower than elsewhere.
