Dr. Talmage on Scenes Observed From a Housetop in Jerusalem.

A JOURNEY UP MOUNT CALVARY.

Views of Ancient Temples and Spots of Hallowed Memory.

WORK FOR THE MODERN CRUSADERS

"SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. 1 BROOKLYN, October 12 .- This morning Dr. Talmage delivered his third sermon on his recent tour in Palestine, in the Academy of Music in this city. The large building author allows to pass out of mind the grandeurs of the Holy City where ence he dwelt.

Jeremiah, seated by the river Euphrates, wrote this pealm and not David. Afraid I am of anything that approaches imprecation, and yet I can understand how any one who has ever been at Jerusalem should, in enthusiasm of soul cry out, whether he be sitting by the Euphrates, or the Hudson or the Thames, "II I forget thee, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget her canning!" You see, it is a dity unlike all others for topography, for history, for significance, for style of population, for water works, for ruins, for towers, for domes, for ramparts, for interature, for trareddies, for memorable birth places, for sepulchres, for conflagrations and famines, for victories and defeats.

PLACES OF SACRED MEMORY.

am bere at last in this very Jerusalen and n a housetop, just after the dawn of the morning of December 3, with an old inhabitant to point out the salient features of the reenery. "Now." I said, "where is Mount Zoot." "Here at your right." "Where is Mount Clivet." "In front of where you stand." "Where is Le Garden of Gethsemane?" In yonder valley." "Where is Mount Calwary." Before he answered, I saw it. No unprejudiced mind can have a moment's doubt as to where it is. Yonder I see a hill in the shape of a human skull and the Bible says that Calvarywas the "place of a skull." Not only is it skull-shaped, but just beneath the forehead of the hill is a cavern that looks like eyeless sockets. Within the grotto under it, is the shape of the inside of a skull. Then the Bible says that Christ was crucified outside the gate, and this is outside the gate, while the site formerly selected was inside the gate. Beside that this skull bill was for ages the place where malefactors were put to death, and Christ was slain as a malefactor. morning of December 3, with an old inhabi-The Savior's assassination took place beside

The Savior's assassination took place beside a thoroughtare along which people went "warging their heads," and there is the ancient thoroughtare. I saw at Cairo, Egypt, a clay moid of that skull hid made by the late General Gordon, the arbiter of nations. While Empress Helena, 80 years of age, and imposed upon by having three crosses exhumed before her dim eyes, as though they were the three crosses of Bible story, selected another site as Calvary, all recent travelers agree that the one I point out to you was, without could, the scene of the most terrific and overwhelming tragedy this planet ever witnessed.

There were a thousand things we wanted to see that third day of December, and our dragonan proposed this, that and the other jourman proposed this, that and the other jour-ney, but I said: "First of all, show us Calvary. Something might happen if we went elsewhere and sickness or accident might hinder our see-ing the sacred mount. If we see nothing else must see that, and see it this morning."

CLIMBING UP CALVARY. ome of us in carriage and some on mulecack, we were soon on the way to the most sacred spot that the world has ever seen or ever will see. Coming to the base of the hill we first went inside the skull of rocks. It is called first went inside the skull of rocks. It is called Jeromini's grotto, for there the prophet wrote his book of Lamentations. The grotto is 35 feet high and its top and side are malachite, green, brown, black, white, red and gray.

Coming forth from those pactured subterra-Coming forth from those pictured subterraneous passages, we began to climb the steep sides of Calvary. As we go up, we see cracks and crevices in the rocks which I think were made by the convulsions of nature when Jesus died. On the hill lay a limestone rock, white but tinged with crimson of sacrifice, that I said. That stone would be beautifully appropriate for a memorial wall in my church, now building in America; and the stone now being brought on camel's back from Sinai across the desert, when put under it, how significant of the law and the gospel! And these lips of stone will continue to sneak of insides and merce desert, when put under it, how significant of the law and the gospel. And these lips of stone will continue to speak of justice and mercy long after all our living lips have uttered their last message." So I rolled it down the hill and transported it. When that day comes for which many of you have prayed—the dedica-tion of the Brootlyn Thismoods the hind rehird structure, a work such as no other chu was ever called on to undertake—we invite you in the main entrance of that building to look upon a memorial wall containing the most sag-gestive and solemn and tremendous antiquities upon a memorial wall containing the most sag-gestive and solemn and tremendous antiquities ever brought together; this, rent with the earthquake at the giving of the law at Shai, the other rent at the crucifixion on Calvary. It is impossible for you to realize what our emotions were as we gathered, a group of men and women, all saved by the blood of the Lamb, on a bluff of Calvary, just wide enough to con-tain three crosses. I said to my family and friends: "I think here is where stood the cross of the impenitent burglar, and there the cross of the miscreant, and here between, I think, stood the cross on which all our hopes depend." STORY OF CHRIST'S SUFFERINGS.

STORY OF CHRIST'S SUFFERINGS. As I opened the xix chapteriof John to read a ast struck the bill and a cloud hovered, the natural solemnity impressing the spiritual solemnity. I read a little, but broke down. I ly any emotional Christian man sitting upon dely any emotional Christian man sitting upon Goigotha to read aloud and with unbroken woice, or with any voice at all, the whole of that account in Luke and John, of which these sentiments are a fragment: "They took Jesus and led Him away, and He bearing fils cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, where they crucified Him and two others with Him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midist;" "Behold thy mother?" "I thirst;" "This day shalt thou be with me in Paradise." "Father, forgive them, they know not "This day shalt thou be with me in Paradise;" "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do!" "It it be possible, let this cup pass from me." What sighs, what sobs, what tears, what tempests of sorrow, what surging oceans of agony in these utterances!

White we sat there, the whole scene came before us. All around the top and the sides, and the foot of the hill, a mob rages. They gnash their teeth, and shake their denched fists at him. Here the cavalry horses champ their their teeth, and shake their clenched fists at him. Here the cavalry horses champ their bits, and paw the varth and snort at the smell of the carnage. Yader a group of gambiers are pitching up as to a shall have the coat of the dying Savior. There are women almost dead with grief among the crowd, His mother and His aunt, and some whose sorrows He had comforted, and whose guilt He had pardoned. Here a man dipp a sponge into som wine, and by a strck lifts it to the hot and cracked lips. The hemorrhage of the Eve wounds has done its work. s work.
The atmospheric conditions are such as the temple were no longer visible. Darker! Until the surrounding tills disappeared. Darker! Until the inscription above the middle cross became illegible. Darker! Until the chin of the dying Lord falls upon the breast, and he sighed with this last sigh, the words, "It is finshed!" As we sat there

A SILENCE TOOK POSSESSION of us and we thought: this is the center from which continents have been touched, and all the world shall yet be moved. Toward this hill, the prophets pointed forward. Toward this the prophets pointed forward. Toward this hill, the aposities and martyrs pointed backward. To his all heaven pointed downward. To this with feaming execrations perdition pointed upward. Round it circles all history, all time, all eternity, and with this scene, painters have covered the mightiest cauvas, and sculptors cut the richest marble, and orchestras rolled their grandesi oratories, and churches lifted their greatest doxologies, and beaven healt its highest thrones.

rocks the Roman government set its seal. At the gate of this mansoleum on the first Easter morning, the angels rolled the stone thundering down the hill. Up these steps walked the lacerated feet of the Conqueror, and from these heights He looked off upon the city that had cast him out, and upon the world He had come to redeem and at the heavens through which He would soon ascend.

But we must hasten back to the city. There are stones in the wall which Solomon had lifted. Stop here and see a startling proof of the truth of prophecy. In Jeremiab, dist chapter and 40th verse, it is said that Jerusalem shall be built through the askes. What askes, people have been asking? Were those askes just put into the prophecy to fill up? No! the meaning has been recently discovered. Jerusalem is now being built out in a certain direction where the ground has been submitted to chemical analysis and it has been found to be the askes cast out from the sacrifices of the ancient temple, askes of the wood and askes of bones of animals. There are great mounds of askes, accommission of contrained of sacrifices. It has animals. There are great mounds of ashes, accumulation of centuries of sacrifices. It has taken all these thousands of years to discover WHAT JEREMIAH MEANT when he said, "Behold the days shall come, saith the Lord, that the city shall be built to of Music in this city. The large building was crowded, and numbers went away disappointed. This was the more significant because it had been publicly announced that the same sermon would be preached in the evening at the New York Academy which The Christian Herald had rented for that purpose. In spite of this fact, unprecedented since the days of Chalmers, both buildings were crowded to excess, and many were turned away from the doors, both inorning and evening. Dr. Talmage must have preached to-day to 10,000 different persons. The doctor spoke as follows from the text: "If I lorget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning."

Psalm 137, v.

Paralysis of his best hand, the withering of its muscles and nerves, is here invoked if the author allows to pass out of miod the grandeurs of the Holy City where once he dwelt. Jeremiah, seated by the river Euphrates, wrote this psalm and not David. mountain.

Here we enter the Mosque of Omar, a throne of Mohammedanism, where we are met at the door by officials who bring slippers that we must put on before we take a step further, lest must put on before we take a step further, lest our feet pollute the sacred places. A man attempting to go in without these slippers would be struck dead on the spot. These awkward sandals adjusted as well as we could, we are led to where we see a rock with an obening in it, through which, no doubt the blood of sacrifice in the ancient temple rolled down and away. At vast expense the mosque has been built, but so somber is the place I am glad to get through it and take off the cumbrous slippers and step into the clear air. pers and step into the clear air.

A SAD, SOLEMN SCENE. Yonder is a curve of stone which is part of a bridge which once reached from Mount Moriah to Mount Zion, and over it David walked or to Mount Zion, and over it David walked or rode to prayers in the temple. Here is the wailing place of the Jews, where for centuries almost perpetually during the day time, whole generations of the Jews have stood putting their head or lips against the wall of what was once Solomon's temple. It was one of the saddest and most solemn and impressive scenes I ever witnessed to see scores of these descendants of Abraham, with tears rolling down their cheeks and lips trembling with emotion, a book dest and most solemn and impressive scenes i ever witnessed to see scores of these descendants of Abraham, with tears rolling down their cheeks and lips trembling with emotion, a book of pashus open before them, bewalling the ruin of the ancient temple and the captivity of their race, and crying to God for the restoration of the temple in all its original splendor.

But I must get back to the house-top, where I stood carly this morning, and before the sun sets, that I may catch a wider vision of what the city now is and once was. Standing here on the house-top, I see that the city was built for military safety. Only three miles journey round, and the three ancient towers, Hippicus, Phasaleus, Mariamne, frowning death, upon the approach of all enemies.

As I stood there on the house-top, in the midst of the city, I said, "O Lord, reveal to me this metropolis of the world, that I may see it as it once appeared." No one was with me, for there are some things you can see more vividly with no one but God and yourself present. Immediately the Mosque of Omar, which has stood for ages on Mount Moriah, the site of the ancient temple, disappeared and the most honored structure of all the ages lifted itself in the light and I sawit—the temple, the ancient temple. Not Solomon's Temple, but something more gorgeous than that. It was Herod's temple, built for the one purpose of eclipsing all its architectural predecessors. There it stood, covering 19 acres, and 10,000 workmen had been 46 years in building it. Blaze of magnificence! Bewildering range of portices, and ten gateways, and double arches, and corinthian capitals chiseled into lilies and acanthus. Masoury beveled and grooved into such delicate forms that it seemed to tremble in the light. Cloisters with two rows of Corinthian columns, royal arches, marble stemp pure as though made out of frozen snow, carving that seemed like a panel of all ages!

From this house top on the December aftermon we look out in another direction and I see the king's palace covering 160,000 square feet, three rows of windows illumining the inside brilliance, the hallway wainscoted with all styles of colored marbles surmounted by arabesque, vermillion and golg, looking down on mosaics, music of waterfalls in the garden outside answering the music of the harps thrummed by deft fingers inside; banisters over which princes and princesses leaned, and talked to kings and queens ascending the stairway. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Mountain city! city of God! Joy of the whole earth! Stronger than Gibraltar and Sebastopol surely it never could have been captured.

But while standing there on the housetop that December afternoon, I hear the crash of the 23 mighty sieges which have come against Jerusalem in the ages past. Yonder is the pool of Hezekiah and Siloam, but again and again were those waters reddened with human gore. Yonder are the towers, but again and again they fall. Yender are the high walls, but again and again they were leveled. To rob the treasures from her temple and palace and dethrone this queen city of the earth, all nations plotted. David taking the throne at Hebron decides that he must have Jerusalem! The Assyrians under Sennacherib, enslaved nations at his chariot wheel, having taken 200,000 captives in his one campaign. Phomician cities kneeling at his feet, Egypt trembling at the flash of his sword, comes upon Jerusalem. all ares!

FIGHTING FOR THE HOLY CITY. Look, another siege! The armies of Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar come down and take a plunder from Jerusalem such as no other city ever had to rield, and 10,000 of her citizens trudge off into Babylonian bondage. Look, another siege! and Nebuchadnezzar and his hosts by night go through a breach of the Jerusalem wall, and the morning fluds some of them seated triumphant in the temple, and what they could not take away, because too heavy, they break up—the brazen sea, and the two wreathed pillars Jachin and Beaz.

Another siege of Jerusalem, and Pompey with the battering rams which 100 men would roll hack, and then at full run forward would bang against the wall of the city, and catapults hurling the rocks upon the people, left 12,000 dead, and the city in the clutch of the Roman war eagle. Look, a more desperate siege of Jerusalem! Titus with his tenth legion on Mount of Olives, and ballist arranged on the principle of the pendulum to swing great boulders against walls and towers, and miners digging under the city making galleries of heans undergroupe whiled sea on fire timelled Look, another siege! The armies of Babylon boulders against walls and towers, and miners digging under the city making galleries of beams underground which, set on fire, tumbled great masses of houses and human beings into destruction and death. All is taken now but the temple, and Titus, the conqueror, wants to save that unharmed, but a soldier, contrary to orders, hurls a terch into the temple and it is consumed. Many strangers were in the city at the time and 97,000 captives were taken, and Josephus says 1,100,000 lay dead.

But looking from this housetup, the siege that most absorbs us is that of the Crusadera. With all the world looking on, the armies of Europe come within sight of Jerusalem. Then the battering-rams rolled, and the cataquits swing, and the swords thrust, and the carange raged. Jerusalem the possession of Cristendom. But Saladin retook the city and for the last 400 years it has been in possession of cruel and polluted Mohammedanism!

LEATHER AND HIDES STILL DULL.

Receipts of Grain and Hay Were Very Heavy for the Week.

GENERAL FEATURES OF WEEK'S TRADE

Leather and Hides. The hide and leather situation is practically the same as it was a week ago. If any the Lord from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner, and the whole valley of the hides are very slow at the decline already noticed in this column. Steer hides are selling at 34c per pound below prices of three weeks ago. The current number of the Shoe and Leather Review has this to say of the situation as to Chicago hide market: "The market is in a very mixed and peculiar condition. Each packer has his own particular view of the situation in hides, and acts accordingly. It is admitted that stocks are not heavy in the hide cellars, as buyers have been actively picking up what they wanted. Receipts are enormous; 94,000 cattle and calves arrived in Chicago last week—the largest on record. Besides selling hides for immediate delivery, the packers seem anxious to sell futures to sustain markets." The Fashionable Leather. A Wood street shoe merchant said yesterday that the most popular material for footwear in the city is kangaroo skin. It comes pretty high, but produces a good effect and possesses excellent wearing qualities, having great tenacity of fiber, and a thick, compact grain, which offers effective resistance to water. Some

6,000 kangaroo skins are received in Newark,

N. J., every week, and all are tanned in one establishment in that city. Australia and New Zealand furnish kangaroo Australia and New Zealand furnish kangaroo skins for the world. The kangaroos are captured in Australia. Until about 1870 they were killed and eaten in Australia, and their skins out up into shoestrings. But an Englishman named Bröwn in that year discovered the wonderful consistency of the grain in the leather, and brought several thousand skins to this country. He tried to sell them to the tanners, but they were shy of the novelty, and he finally sold them to a bookbinder at a sacrifice. The bookbinder made triangular corner pieces for ledgers and commercial books, and so discovered the good quality of the leather. It was in this way that the trade became attracted to the kangaroo leather.

The great popularity, limited supply and high cost of kangaroo leather has been an incentive to tanners to find some substitute, and after long experimenting imitations are being made from horse hides. Light and spready callskins, classed as deacous, are also largely used for imitation kangaroo, and are a very desirable substitute. They can be sold at one-third the cost of the genuine.

MARKETS BY WIRE.

The Government Crop Report a Surpris to Both Bulls and Bears—A Scramble to Unload Pulls Down the Figures-Pork Steady.

CHICAGO-Wheat-The Government report on which the longs had so much faith to assist in advancing the market was rather favorable to the shorts, at least was so construed, and the market ruled weaker and lower with the feeling considerably unsettled. The market opened 11/4@11/4c lower than yesterday's closing figures, then rallied about 1/4c, but again because week week the state of the state opened 11/611/c lower than yesterday's closing figures, then rallied about 1/c, but again became weak, prices deciming 21/c, advanced a triffe, ruled Birregular, and closed about 21/60 21/c lower than yesterday.

There was a heavy pressure to sell, but at the same time demand was active, which tended to hold the market for some time, but later under continued heavy offerings, prices further declined from the opening figures. Trading was active, and there were a good many outside buying orders received.

Corn—The Government crop report was a great disappointment to the longs in corn, and at the opening there was a general scramble to unload. Lower prices were the rule on all futures, May in particular, most of the business being in this month. The bulk of the trading occurred during the first hour, the market opening with a loss of 11/601/5c, and quickly sold off another 1/c, rallied, advancing 3/c, and again became weak with a decline of 13/602.

Oats—There was a moderate volume of business in May, but nothing of consequence in the other months. The Government crop report was regarded as bullish. The weakness in wheat and coin and fair offerings produced a weaker feeling, and opening sales were at 1/60/20 decline. A rally of 1/c followed the depression, but it did not hold and prices receded to opening figures, but the market closed steadier.

Mess pork—A fair trading was reported. Opening sales were made at 15c decline, but a temporary advance of 5c was gained. Later pricts receded 5671/cc and closed comparatively steady at inside figures.

Lard—Trading was moderate. Prices ruled 21/60/20 lower, and closed quiet at inside figures, Short rib sides—A fair business was transacted. A hittle more pressure to sell resulted in a decline of 71/60/10 on the deferred deliveries, and the market closed spile at inside figures.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

been unusually large both this week and last, and nearly 70 cars in excess of the corresponding period a year ago. The marked feature of the week has been the great scarcity of shell corn. On account of scarcity each day has shown an advance in prices. Dealers report that there is plenty on the way, and a check to the upward movement is sure to come within a few days.

Notwithstanding liberal receipts oats are still firm, and drift of markets is upward. Receipts of oats for the two weeks past, as bulletined at the Grain Exchange, were 195 cars. Hay has weakened the past week owing to heavy receipts, and prices are lower, as was predicted in this column a week ago. Packing hay was very scarce last week, but now there is plenty. There can be no shortage in the hay supply, as this season's yield beats all former records.

Among the features of the week's trade are the upward tendency of markets for choice creamery butter and fresh eggs, and the downward movement of garden stuff. The weather has been very favorable to gardens in this section, and as a result vegetables of all kinds are in abundant supply, with markets lower all along the line. Tomatoes, cabhage, turnips and radishes are seluom as low in price at this season of the year. There have as yet been no killing frosts in the vicinity of Pittsburg, and gardens are making up for lost time in the spring, when weather was acceedingly unfavorable to gardens. ### NEW YORK STOCKS

Dull in the Market, With Slight Fluctua tions-Slight Improvement in the Opening-Downward Tendency

Developed, However. New York, October 11.—The stock market was dull to-day with slight fluctuations as a rule, and the final changes, while generally in the direction of lower prices, are slight in all the railroad stocks. The opening was made at small fractions better than last night's figures, and, while the traders were inclined to discount an unfavorable bank statement, causing slight losses in the early trading, the general temper soon became strong, and fractional advances were scored, with Union Pacific, Burlington and the Wheeling and Lake Erie stocks most prominent for strength. The demand was not sufficient to maintain the improvement, how-ever, and the sales of the traders on a duli market again developed the downward ten-dency, which, however, made but little progress until after the publication of the bank state-ment. There was then a more positive selling movement, and the final dealings were marked by more activity and a very weak tone.

Sugar Refineries was the only really weak point in the market, some heavy selling being point in the market, some heavy selling being done for Boston account, and it scored a material decline before the close of business. A few stocks like Union Pacific and one or two others were well held, but the majority of the railroad list were brought under the opening figures, the close being active and weak at the lowest prices reached. The only important loss was Sugar 1½ per cent...

This is a daily event in mills, shops, factories, etc. It is the point where Nature can endure no more, and demands a rest. Then the poor sufferer, worn with toil, and broken in health, stands aside to make room for another. "Quick consumption" they called it.

To this class of women and girls we proffer both sympathy and aid. When those distressing weaknesses and derangements assail you, re-member that there is a Remedy for all of them. We have on record thousands of such cases, that have been restored to vigorous health and lives of usefulness. Send stamp for "Guide to Health," a beautiful illustrated book.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VECETABLE

Is the only Positive Cure and Legitimate Remedy COMPOUND for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It cures the worst forms of Female Complaints, that Bearing-down Feeling, Weak Back, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, Inflammation, Ovarian Troubles, and all Organic Diseases of the Uterus or Womb, and is invaluable to the Change of Life. Dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus at an early stage, and checks any tendency to Cancerous Humor. Subdues Fainness, Excitability, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, etc., and invigorates the whole system. For the cure of Kidney Complaints of cither sex, the Compound has no rival.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00.
