THE EXPOSITION CLOSES

And the Everett Piano Club B Opens Same

Day.

On Saturday, October 18, the first piano will be delivered on the weekly allotments to Everett Club "B." The list of subscribers is now so near completed that the manager has decided to commence delivering the planos on the above date. Persons contemplating the purchase of a plano should investigate the plan and make application for membership at ouce, as this is the last opportunity to secure an Everett piano on the liberal terms offered to these first clubs. The manufacturers have increased their prices, and should there be any more clubs organized., it will be necessary to make some changes in the terms and prices. These beauti ul pianos have taken possession of so many hearts and homes in this vicinity that t is not necessary to sound their praises here. That is done best by those who have tested them, many of whom declare they have no equal, and all agree that they have absolutely no superior in depth and rich-ness of tone, beautiful finish and durability. The list for club B is st-ll open. You can become a member by paying $1 per week and get your plano in a short time. You oan jay cash and get it at once, or you can arrange to get it at once on monthly pay-ments. In any case you get the discount of $75 from the retail price by being a member
