A Sale of Tennessee Foundry Iron at a Very Low Figure Creates

EXCITEMENT IN THE PIG TRADE

Mill Grades Are Plentiful, With Prices Barely Steady.

NEW YORK, October 16.—The Iron Age of this date quotes the American metal market as follows: American pig iron-The rather monotonous condition of affairs that has prevailed in this market for some considerable time past has been broken by the sale of a block of 1,000 tons of Tennessee No. 1 foundry-Lucy or Ensley brandsfor October, November and December de livery, at $16.25 at tidewater. The lot was taken by a prominent local customer. That this transaction, at so low a price, caused a little excitement among the local trade bardly need be stated, local trade hardly need be stated, as it has all along been claimed that the particular brands specified, as well as several others popular brands specified, as well as several others popular with Eastern consumers, are in light supply. However, the facts are as exactly as couldned above. The iron sold was not No. 1 "soft," as stated in some quarters, but strictly No. 1 foundry, and the only extraordinary feature connected with the transaction is the very low purice. It is the general report that the first-class Southern No. 1 foundry can be improvement in transportation of course, the first-class Southern No. I foundry can be had at less than $13 at furnace, or $17.25 at tide, sooner or later, and only hope our expectations water, for delivery during the balance of the will be realized. Old rails—Inquiries from the West are still on the market, but no important business has resulted, and buyers and sellers' trees are for the most part as far apart as they were a week ago. About 300 tons of foreign tees were sold at $35 delivered at Philadelphia. A lot on the spot could have been secured at $25 50 in store, but buyers wouldn't go above $25 50 to at. cars.

Scrap iron—In wrought scrap there has been uttle doing. A small quantity went at $21, which price is $2 cents to $1 below holders' present ideas. A lot of $90 tons foreign, affoat, has been offered at $22, but was withdrawn on receipt of decuments showing that the connas open onered at $22, but was withdrawn on receipt of documents showing that the consignment included a considerable amount of St. Louis.

PETECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. NEW YORK, October 16.-The Iron Age quotes the British iron and metal markets as follows from Loudon: Operations in pig iron warrants have been on a large scale, and prices have fluctuated considerably, dropping under the effect of realization to 50s for Scotch, 47s for Cleveland and 55's 45'd for hematite. There has been considerable selling by holders, who purchased enite freely a short time ago, in ancipation of strikes, and there is also some indication of reopening of bear accounts. The large decrease in stocks and dampening of urnaces is greatly disturbing the finished fron nd steel trade. Steel ship plates are now quoted at 16 lbs i. e. b., Barrow, but there is no change on other steel or manufactured iron prices. Warrants improved to-day to 54s 6d for Scotch, 47s for Cleveland and 58s for hematile. Block tin prices have gradually re-neded, going to £38 for prompts and £97 for three months futures. MORE CARS WANTED. Lack of Shipping Facilities Still a Stum bling Block to a Prosperous Coke Market-Consumers Suffering. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTTDALE, October 16.-The stumbling block to a prosperous and almost unprecedented coke market is still the lack of shipping facilities. Trade is becoming more and mor perplexed by the scant car supply. The efforts of the railroad companies to furnish a liberal METAL MARKETS ON THE OTHER SIDE supply have been unavailing, and it is readily conceded that the famine, instead of abating, conceded that the famine, instead of abating, is growing gradually worse. Shippers and consumers are suffering in consequence. With the former there is too much coke and with the latter not enough.

There is still danger of the interruption of the operation of a number of furnaces by reason of their small receipts of fuel. An operator defined the coke trade as follows to THE DISPATCH correspondent:

Orders for production are abundant, and, while the productive capacity of the region is felly sequal to the demand, it cannot be net be-

while the productive capacity of the region is fully equal to the demand, it cannot be niet because of that old barrier, poor car supply. One of the causes of the car famine is that when coke is shipped West the cars are utilized in the shipping of grain East.

In that way it invariably takes two and three weeks for the cars to come back to us again. Under the old pooling agreement between the various railroad companies whose lines tap the coke region, each company supplied a stipulated amount of cars daily for the coke traffic. That has gone asonder now and the company will keep up.

James Dillinger, the joynal Pennsyille coke operator said to-day that he was looking for an improvement in car supply after Pattison was elected. Production is still being restricted at many plants according to the car supply, which serves as a preventive to a mountain of coke on the stock yards. At several plants discretizations are resourced to the stock yards. on the stock yards. At several plants disappointments in cars necessitates the stocking of coke. Orders are numerous from all districts. Works are still operating five and six days per week. There is a complaint of lack of motive power by some operators.

Another railroad, connecting with the coke regions, would probably relieve the argent necessities of the coke companies. The fire is

There are only about 1,700 idle ovens in the region. The total number of ovens is 15,510. Shipments last week averaged about 1,077 cars per day, against 1,071 cars for the week before. The total increase in shipments over the previous week was only 35 cars. Route of the Projected Line to Homestead Settled at Last.

A PROMOTER TALKS HOPEFULLY.

Raid on the Business of the Country in the Interest of Wall Street. THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

According to information obtained yes terday from reliable authority, the muchtalked-of route of the Homestead Railroad has been definitely determined. It will start from Boquet street and strike Greenfield avenue, near the residence of William Barker, thence along Greenfield avenue and private property to Hazelwood avenue, thence through the north corner of Calvary Cemetery and S. S. Brown's property to the projected bridge and thence to Homestead. The point of connection with the Duquesne Traction has not been settled upon, but will he in a few days. The distance from the Court House to Homestead by this route is about four and a half miles.

The bridge will be 1,800 feet long, and will cost over $200,000. The cost of the road will be about $300,000, making the total outlay between $500,000 and $600,000.

Asked when work on the road would begin Asked when work on the road would be git, the informant, who is a large stockholder, replied: "It is hard to say. Some of the details must be arranged first. It may begin next week. I am confident ground will be broken this fall, but if the winter should be a bad one, it is probable that little will be done before next spring. Once fairly started, however, it will be rushed through as fast as possible. There are many interesting features connected There are many interesting features connected with the road which I am not at liberty to give you at present, but you can say that it will be a go. It is backed by men of abundant means, who will not stop short of complete success."

Wall Street Tactics.

New York seems to be the center of a conspiracy to abstract and cripple the legitimate business of the country, with a view to benefitting the stock market. Some may wonder how speculation can flourish when business is on its back. The explanation is easy. In flush times, such as the country is now blessed with, there are so many good opportunities for safe and profitable investment that stocks are neglected. Holders realize and employ their money in other directions. There are more sellers than buyers. When times are dell these opportunities for investment disappear, and capitalists must either speculate or let their money lie idle. This is the rule,

The New York conspirators—the bears o Wall street—and their numerous agents at all of the principal business centers, seeing that the country is prosperons and that large amounts of capital are being invested in various useful enterprises, are endeavoring to counteract this tendency by sending out reports of an impending panic and general collapse of business. The frequency of these luguirious predictions has no doubt attracted the attention of readers of Wall street letters, special and otherwise, and they have doubtless wondered what it meant. So far the conspiracy has failed to produce the desired effect. Busi-ness is active all along the line, and steadily inness is active all along the line, and steadily increasing in volume and strength.

No bolder attempt to discredit the business standing of the country has been made since Wall street speculated on the necessities of the country during the war. So far as can be discerned there is no ground for it. Production is quickly absorbed, showing that stocks are not accumulating. Railroads are unable to handle all the freight effered. Property is being improved and homes established at a rate hitherto unknown. Money is in good supply at moderate interest charges. Wildcatting is limited to a few localities in the Far West. All of the substantial activities are on a firm footing.

But facts go for nothing with the Wall street crowd. They ignore them at the beginning of crowd. They ignore them at the beginning of their crusade, and seem resolved to continue the agitation on that line. But the public havthe agitation in the same tactics before, is ing been deceived by the statement that everything is going to the demnition bow-wows against conclusive evidence to the contrary.

Business News and Gossip. of the Bank of Pittsburg, showed further improvement yesterday. Unless the unexpected happen, his recovery is only a question of time. People who are interested in the Homestead Railway will no doubt be glad to learn that the route has been selected, and that work will probably begin this fall. Eleven of 32 mortgages on file yesterday were for purchase money. The largest was for $14,-445. Eleven were for less than $1,000 each. Within the past two months nearly 200 mortgages have been paid off.

The contractor is rushing work on Penn avenue and Wood street, Wilkinsburg. The greatest drawback is a scarcity of laborers.

An "outsider," said to be from Phitadelphia, leased a business place yesterday and paid the rent up to April 1, 1892, amounting to nearly $6,000. Eleven were for less than $1,000 each.

$6,009.

Arrangements are being made for the erection of several more apartment houses out Fifth avenue. They are growing in popularity.
A member of the firm of Black & Baird said A member of the firm of Black & Baird said yesterday: "There will be the greatest rush next spring for dwelling houses ever known in Pittsburg. It is great now. A great many outsiders are coming in, but where they will find quarters is more than I can tell."

The Bank of England's directors at their meeting yesterday made no change in the rate of discount, as was expected.

Advices from Cuba indicate a very favorable yield for the sugar crop.

demand for building sites in that locality.

HOME SECURITIES.

Luster Active and Stronger—Other Gains and Losses Without Significance.

Luster was again the center of attraction at the local stock calls yesterday, over 300 shares changing hands. The first transaction was at 19 and the last at 19½. The close was 19½ bid, with none offered under 19½. While some of the business is no doubt attributable to the covering of shorts, the bulk of it seems to be due to favorable news from the mine, giving reasonable assurance of success.

The other active stocks were Philadelphia Gas, Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad and Pleasant Valley, all of which were processional board and strading by pressional board room in almost everything traded in.

The pressura upon the Coalers and St. Paul by the bears later sagged off everything, and the level of the opening prices was generally reached. The buying in the last hour, however, was most urgent, and these losses were generally fractions better than first figures. The final changes are in but few cases for more than small fractions, and are fairly evenly divided between gains and losses, and, while Sugar is off 1½ and lackawanna 1 per cent. Kansas and Texas securities show an increased trading and attract more attention increased trading and attract more attention with the regular list for the first time to-day.

Raifroad bonds were dail throughout: sales, 5791,000. Government bonds have been neglected.

The Post says: The lower prices for stocks in the afternoon were almost entirely the effect of some heavy manipulation and trading by processional board room speculators in St.

road and Pleasant Valley, all of which were about steady. Electric and Switch and Signal were weaker. Pittsburg Traction was the strongest of its class, closing at 34% against 33% at the opening. Freehold Bank was offered at a concession, probably on an imperative order to sell.

One Sale Saves the Oil Market From a Goose Egg.

The oil crowd narrowly escaped a whitewash yesterday. Just before the close 2,000 barrels changed hands at 81%. This was the only trade. That the commodity was firm was shown by refusing 823s. There is considerable long oil in Pittsburg, but it is held for better prices. Refined was unchanged. Wednesday's clearings were 58,000 barrels.

A broker said: "Really, I don't know what to think of the situation. Oil is strong, but there is no market for it at anything like fair prices. I suppose we shall have to sell out to the Standard, allow certificates to be retired and try to do something with Lima. This seems to be the only course we can take, unless the independent may some any course.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

General Market Rules Dull-Exchange Room Manipulation Causes an Artificial Depression in St. Paul, Which is Felt by Other Stocks.

NEW YORK, October 16 .- The stock market to-day was again dull, with all the business confined to a few stocks in which the bears were still active, the remainder being without feature and fluctuating within extremely parrow limits, with considerable irregularity in the movement of prices. The injunction granted, restraining the reorganization of the Sugar Trust was one of the most influential factors Trust was one of the most influential factors on the bear side, but the failure of the directors of the Bank of England to advance their minimum rate of discount was the occasion of the renewal of confidence in many quarters. The bears sought to make an impression upon values by severe drives against a few stocks, among which the coal stocks, with the exception of Iteading and St. Paul, were most prominent. Delaware and Hudson was conspicuous for the easy manner in which it yielded. The foreigners were sellers at the opening, which was made generally at small concessions from last night's figures, and further losses were subtained in the early trading in Sugar Refineries and Lackawanna. The general list, however, was well held and the foreigners, turning buy-ers, fractional advances were scored before DOMESTIC MARKETS.

Standing-Pork Stronger. CHICAGO-Wheat-A very fair business was transacted to-day, though it was principally local. Some outside business developed, and it was hinted that St. Louis was trying to cover some short wheat here to-day. A prominent local trader was also credited with buying. On the whole there was pretty good buying, while the offerings were only moderate.

Corn was fairly active and stronger, a material advance being established on all futures. Oats were active, and a further advance wa
