MR. DELAMATER REFUSES TO DEBATE

TFROM & STAFF CORRESPONDENT.! BUTLER, October 17 .- Butier gave ex-Senator Emery a warm reception this evening, fitling the Opera House to overflowing. There was a brass band, procession, a great deal of red fire, roman candles , and sky rockets and what was more to the purpose, much thoughtful discussion.

THE DISPATCH instructed me to get here in advance of the speaker and get the drift of public sentiment. I arrived early to-day and found the town in first-class condition for mud slinging, as all the streets are about two feet deep with a very tenacious mixture. Much interest was manifested in the coming meeting, which was a favorite topic of discussion on the streets, in the hotels, in the stores, offices and everywhere. That there is a pathetic feeling among Republicans here cannot be denied, but the extent of the actual bolt is

REPUBLICANS WON'T TALK.

The most noticeable feature of the situation is the number of reporters who will not talk. The Democrats talk freely and the members of the Independent Republican organizations are not close-monthed, but a large .umber of those who usually vote the -oublican ticket are silent. All the campaign committees are working earnestly. In the old parties the work is methodical and systematic. The Iudependents are earnest, but show inexperience in campaign work. They know what they want, but don't know much about running political machinery. I secured expressions from the County Chairmen on the situation and estimates on the result as follows:

S. H. Huselton, Chairman of the Repub ican County Committee, said: "There are 5,600 Republican votes in this county. Delamater will get at least 5,200 of these votes in spite of all the mud slinging and personal campaigning. We will carry the county by a majority of 300 to 600 votes. The effect of this meeting is to make Delamater votes. The speeches have been good ones for our side. Three-fourths of the audience were Democrats, five-sixths of the other fourth Delamater Republicans and the remainder were Mugwumps and kiekers." ENTHUSIASTIC DEMOCRATS.

Charles Heineman, Chairman Democratic County Committee, remarked: The Democracy is enthusiastic and the full vote will be out. The Republicans are not great defection. In 1888 Harrison carried acter. this borough by 35 majority, and the county by 1,300. We will carry the borough for fied that Delamater was the choice of the Republicans of the State for their candi-dacy for Governor. He was surprised at the feeling in Tioga county, where he had been. There had been no speaking there, but there was a tremendous revolt against the boss candidate. Referring to the affairs of the State as purely business matters, he declared they should be administered as such by men who would serve the people. He declared if the Republicans did not defeat Delamater this year they would have to carry the fight into the campaigu o: 1892, and then they would be lost. THE FREE PIPE LINE.

The speaker then proceeded with a his-tory of the futile efforts of the people of the oil country to get a free pipe line bill passed until a Democratic House, elected with Pattison in 1882, passed it, and the Demo-crats in the Senate, with Lee, John Stewart, Watres and Meredith, on the Republican side, passed it in the Senate for Governor on to sign it. He next referred to Patti anti-discrimination being still a dead letter in the Constitution for the bosses and the corporations. The failure to pass a free pipe bill and the continuance of the shameless discrimation of the railroads had en-grafted the Standard Oil Company firmly on the country for the oppression of the producers.

The lost revenue bill got a touch and then the Billingsley bill and Delamater's part in de eating it. Grange bill No. 10, he said, had lain in committee until Brown, of York, moved for its release. He was de-feated and the bill stayed in committee. Delamater, who was Chairman of that committee, had been telling the farmers he had voted in committee to report that bill.

DELAMATER ARRAIGNED.

Brown's motion had received 25 votes in the Senate. If Delamater favored the bill in committee, he "wondered why in heaven's name he hadn't given the one vote necessary in the Senate to bring the bill out." Delamater, Emery said, was chargeable with the defeat of that bill. Mr. Emery delared himself a Republican. He had cast his first vote for Lincoln and had not broken his record by voting for a Democrat, but would break it this year and vote for Robert E. Pattison. This elicited tremendous cheering. The speaker then took up his charges against Delamater. He read the report of the detective read at Bradiord, supplying the name of Charles Laufear, of Townville. He then said he would receive the statement of Y. "You have heard of X. Y. Z." This was again the cause for cheering and laughter. He said Y. was Hon, L. E. Beach, of Mendville. Delamater had wanted to know who Y. was. He (Dela-mater), could not come out of his house in Meadville and go up town without passing Mr. Beach's office, and he had known all along who Y. was.

MONEY PAUD TO X. X. Emery said, was ex-Senator Homer J. Humes, of Crawford county, and Z was Mr.

Odell. Lest his audience should judge Mr. Humes harshly, he would state that Humes had been a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket and was defeated. He had learned of Delamater's corrupt methods. Beach had offered him the $700 which was the amount of his campaign expenses, to keep him from exposing Delamater. He had said it was Delamater's money and heartily in favor of Delamater. There is he begged Humes not to smirch his char-

the Scheme.

Interest in the proposed Ohio river and Lake Erie canal is increasing in this section as the work of the commission progresses and the feasibility and desirability of the project become better understood.

AN IMPORTANT STREAM.

The low water supply of French creek is found, by gauge, to be greater than that of the Clarion, Red Bank and Kiskiminetas rivers combined. Of course, it is not mean by this that more water flows through French creek the year around than through city. the streams named, for during their flood periods the lower streams discharge enor-mous quantities of water. French creek rises in the swampy belt running through from Eastern Ohio to Alleghany county, N. Y., embracing Chautau-qua Lake, Conneaut and Conneuatee, as well as minor accumulations of water. This swampy region is the flat summit be-tween the great lake basin and the Ohio river. It conserves the water supply admirably, holding its rainfall long after the steep rivers heading toward the mountains have discharged their supply in floods. For this reason this region offers an ample supply of water for the canal at all seasons of the year when it would be free from ice.

The proposed route of the canal is through the great Pymatuning swamp, near the State line between Ohio and Pennsylvania, the various devices for successfully apply-ing electricity to street cars as a motive the first lock on this side will cover a distance of 12 miles farther. The new route is 30 miles shorter than the old canal, though from Sharpsville to Beaver it follows the river as the old one did. The chief advantage of the new route over the old is that while the latter required 133 locks and lockage raise of 920 feet, the former will only require 50 locks and a lockage of not quit 786 feet.

> TO THE DAVIS ISLAND DAM. Calculations by the commission have been for a canal 12 feet deep to carry vessels of 1,500 or 1,600 tons burden. It is proposed to continue the canal from Beaver to the Davis Island dam, as the movable dams to be placed in the Ohio between the Davis Island dam and Beaver will not give a sufficient depth of water to float such heavy craft as is provided for in the canal plans. One of the marked advantages of the proposed canal is the clearness of the water supplied from the flat summit. The supplied from the great Pymatuning swamp carry very little silt. The ad-vantage of this feature is best understood by those iamiliar with canals and slickwater improvements, but may be easily grasped by anyone who will stop to consider that

You deny that Mr. Delamater is the henchman of Mr. Quay, and that his candidacy has been forced upon the Republican voters. Let me briefly recall to you the assertions so long and so publicly made and never. I believe, denied, that abont two years ago Mr. Quay prom-nsed him the next Governorship in return for certain services surmised to be of a peculiar nature. Let me recall to you the manner in

Let me recail to you the manner in which Mr. Cooper was ousted from the Chair-manship of the State Committee in favor of Mr. Andrews, and the still hunt which the lat-ter forthwith instituted for the benefit of Mr. Delamater—a still hunt exemplified by the manner in which they obtained the delegates from Cambria county. Let me remind you of the fact patent to all men that no one could se-cure the nomination without the ald of the Re-publican machine under the control of Mr. Quay. The Captain reports St. Andrew to-day, the convention went into conference on the subject o: "Laymen in the many conversions of miners who had in-tended to bolt Delamater, and of Democrats Community." Rev. John Williams, of St. Louis, impressed on the concerence the fact He that as a member of the brotherhood he laid will remain in the regions for several days aside his garb of priest and went forth as a layman to act and speak as God saw fit to direct him. H. A. Sill, o New York, characterized the work of the St. Andrew' Brotherhood as evangelical. It was al church work. He thought the administer ing of a sacrament was just as evangelical as leading a prayer meeting.

After urther discussion the convention went into the regular business session. A letter was read from Bishop Tuttle, of St. Louis, inviting the brotherhood to hold the next annual convention in that city. A resolution designation St. Louis at the set

METALLURGISTS IN DIXIE.

They Inspect Processes of Mining Coal and Iron at Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., October 17 .- Three hundred and twenty foreign metallurgists arrived here at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, direct from Chicago. At 8 o'clock they were met by the local Reception Committee, and at 9 o'clock a special train carried them to the coal and ore mines. The visitors inspected things very carefully. They went down in the coal mines and watched the process of mining iron ore, by simply digging it from the side of mountain, with evident interest. The visitors could scarcely credit the statements of the low cost of making iron here. With their reception, the visitors expressed themselves as much pleased, es pecially the German contingent. The Ger-mans say this is the first place in America to pay them special attention. Last night the visitors were given a reception by the leading social club. Sir James Kitson and other distinguished members of the party replied to the addresses of welcome. To-day the iron furnaces and other indus tries were visited, and the visitors will leave the city to-night.

SHIPWRECK AT THE ANTIPODES

New Brunswick Vessel Wrecked in Chinese Waters.

PHILADELPHIA, October 17. - The ship Lizzie C. Troop, whose officers narrowly escaped being poisoned on the high seas by Steward D. Diaz, while on a voyage from Philadelphia to Nagasaki, Japan, as heretofore reported, has been wrecked on the Island of Loo Choo, midway between Nagasaki and Formosa, and nearly all of the crew lost.

This news was received from London today by cable to the vessel's agents in this city, and has caused much anxiety in shipping circles, for Captain Ben-jamin G. Founes, her master, was accompanied by his wife and child. Her crew were all shipped at this port, and numbered 19. The Troop was owned by Troop & Sons, of St. Johns, N. B., and is partially, if not wholly, covered by in-
