A Large Locomotive Explodes With Fearful Force, Instantly

KILLING ENGINEER AND FIREMAN.

Easted Staybolts Believed to Have Caused the Disaster.

Engine No. 1, of the Monougahela Connecting Railway, which operates on the new bridge between Jones & Laughlins' works on the Southside, and Laughlins Bros." Eliza Furnace, exploded about 11 o'clock vesterday morning, instautly killing Engineer John Flatly and Fireman Thomas McGouch and seriously injuring several other men. Fintly had been to breakfast, and upon Fintly had been to breakfast, and upon his return climbed up into the cab. He on the dollar of manufacturers' cost. As had been there scarcely a moment when the boiler of the iocomotive exploded with a terrific crash. The engineer was blown through the size of numer and through the air like a piece of paper, and short time. fell into the Monongahela river 120 yards away. McGongo was dashed against the brick wall of the casting shop, a piece of fish torp out of his left breast, exposing his heart, and his right leg was split open from what gigantic bargains will be offered, a few prices are mentioned, and remember this foot to thigh.

STRUCK BY FLVING DEBR'S.

Thomas Clark, a track walker, was ap-$4 60. This suit is well made, all to match proaching the engine when it exploded, and was struck by a piece of the beiler, which brokenisleg in two places. Joseph Ferris and in best possible manner, $7 89, guaranteed to be worth $20. High grade goods, meanlames Fornker, two laborers, who were not within 100 test of the locomotive, were all styles, Prince Alberts, cutaways, sacks in wide wales, Clay worsteds and cheviots, truck by pieces of the flying dabris. The ormer had his knee fractured, while the latter as badly cut and bruisel about the head and edg. The engine, which was a large one, and was the head and satis lined, we will sell for $10 25, worth $25. We offer an elegant pair of men's pants for $1 55, make struck by pieces of the flying debris. The former had his knee fractured, while the latter was badly out and bruised about the head and the engine, which was a large one, and was t by Baidwin & Co. of Philadelphia, in 1888, underwent a thorough overhauling about months areo was literally tora to pieces, to so it were found 250 feet from where esgine stood. One large fragment struck size of the casting house, and plowing its through, landed on the opposite side of the ding 150 feet away. The men in the mill men in the mill away. The n y was 51 years old, single and arents on Forward avenue.

d with his parents on Forward avenue, chody has not yet been found. Fireman Gongn was 21 years old, single, and lived on enneld avenue. His brother was killed r the same spot a year ago. McGongh's y was taken to Flannery's undertaking ms, on Grant street.

THE DEFUCTIVE STAYBOLTS.

oroper McDowell and Boiler Inspector ter visited the scene of the disaster, and he latter made a thorough examination of the agments of the locomotive. The crown sheet as not burned, neither had the flues collapsed, s considered positive evidence that s no lack of water in the botler when it with you. Positively no goods sold and exploded. In one fragment of the front end of a fire-lox were found two rows of staybolts, 30 all, the heads of which were covered, and no one allowed in the building until sale commences, on Thursday, October 23, at 9 A. M. During this great fire insurance clothing sale the store will remain open arcently just extent. This, the Boller In-ctor considers the weak part of the locomo-, and to this he attributes the explosion. the other bolts found were bright and in gread condition. The Coroner will empannel a jury this morn-the and view the dead body of Fireman Meof the city.
