The Non-Partisan W. C. T. U. Becomes the W. C. T. Alliance.

THEIR CONSTITUTION ADOPTED. A Dispatch of Greeting Received From the National Alliance.

INCENDIARISM PREVALENT IN OHIO

APPCIAL TRADGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. INDIANA, October 22 .- The delegates to the Women's Christian Temperance Alliance, as the non-partisan union people are beneeforth to be called, were electrified this alternoon by receiving a dispatch from the President of the National Alliance, Mrs. E. J. Finney, dated at Cleveland, and saying, "Give my love and prayers to those assembled. The Alliance, with God's blessing, will accomplish great things. With malice toward none and love for all, let us strive for happier lives for humanity."

The second session met this morning, and after the usual devotional exercises, the Executive Committee made its report, and submitted a constitution and by-laws for adoption. The constitution was adopted, one article after another. It changes the name to "The Women's Christian Temperance to "The Women's Christian Temperance Alliance of Pennsylvania," and the objects noted are to interest and unite all the women of this State in non-partisan, non-sectarian, Christian temperance work, and confining itself strictly to such temperance work, it will devise and execute measures, which, with the blessing of God, will secure total abstinence and complete prohibition of the liquor traffic, The State Superintendent of the young women's work, is made a member of the Executive Committee, in addition to the officers of the State Alliance. There is a little friction in regard to the adoption of the constitution, but regard to the adoption of the constitution, but the President, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, of Alle-gheny, cut the debate snort and kept the dis-cussion to the point. She said that in the dis-cussion as to the adoption of the constitution i in subsequent proceedings, allusions to the ings of the old W. C. T. U. would be disre-ded and considered out of order. This regarded and considered out of order. This re-mark was lendly applauded.

In the afternoon the reports of the officers of the alliance showed a membership of 2074, 16 county alliances and $500 in the hands of the State Treasurer. Miss Shortlidge made her collection address to-night. She was followed by Rev. Dr. Hall, of the First Presbyterian Church. He made a stirring address, replete with good points, in which the President, Mrs. Campbell, was highly eulogized. In her ad-dress, which followed, Mrs. President Campbell said it was more in sorrow than in anger she dress, which followed, Mrs. President Campbell said it was more in sorrow than in anger she took the stand to say a word to the wayward partisan sisters, and hoped that with grave and earnest work all might again meet together on a common platform of "Reform."

THE CASE OF DR. EWING.

Arguments Pro and Con at the Synod Meeting at Greensburg.

PETECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. GREENSBURG, October 22 .- After the election of Prof. Thatcher as Professor of Ecclesias. tical History of the Allegheny Seminary, this afternoon, the United Presbyterian Synod took up the case of Dr. Ewing, who is charged with marrying his deceased wife's sister. Dr. Littell, of Pittsburg, the appellant, spoke briefly. He did not think the Monongahela Presbytery had the power to dispose of the case. The action of the Presbytery in accepting the confession and expressions of regret from Dr. Ewing as suffiexpressions of regret from Dr. Ewing as sum-cient evidence of repentance, and rebuke and admonition as sufficient consure, plainly nuli-fies and violates the law contained in the Con-fession of Falth. Nothing can make it lawful for Dr. Ewing and his wife's sister to live together as husband and wife. But the action of the Presbytery makes it lawful for them to do so, after being rebuked for getting married. He having offended against the account be permitted to pass against the accepted standard of the churce, he should on no account be permitted to pass unrebuked. Dr. Littell is in favor of having Dr. Ewing silenced, although he is willing to have a written record given that he may apply to another church for admittance. have a written record given that he may apply to another church for admittance.

To night the answer was made to the appellants by Dr. J. C. Boyd and Rev. J. T. McCrory. They claimed that the decision of the Monongahela Presbytery was sufficient, and that the law of the church or that contained in the Confession of Faith touching marrying was in accord with the word of God, and being so, the confession of Dr. Ewing and the rebuke administered was sufficient punishment. If the appeal is sustained a vote on suspension will be taken in the morning, and adjournment will follow.

walk, but did not appear in the evening, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cornelius Willard, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cornelius Willard, became very uneasy about him.

This morning Mr. Elliott was picked up dead on the banks of the Ohio river, where he had doubtless passed away in the night. He was 82 years of age, and had several children. Mrs. Hess Farrell, wife of the station agent at Sheridan, was his daughter, and he died within a mile of her home. He was evidently wandering, as he had been telling people that "he was going home."

A UNION'S BLUNDER.

Its Restrictions on Apprenticeship Force Employers to Import Labor.

PECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR . STEURENVILLE, October 22.-The Sumner Bottle Works, of this place are 20 cars behind their orders. Manager Graham says it is impossible to get enough bottle blowers to do the work either here or elsewhere in the country.
It is said the rules of the union limit the number of apprentices to such a degree that the new blowers coming on cannot begin to supply the demand, and it is said by some of the managers that they will certainly have to import some Belgians to fill the vacancies,

PERSISTENT FIRE BUGS.

The Latest Large Incendiary Blaze of Many

Recent Ones. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. NEWARK, O., October 22.—Incendiary fires are becoming of frequent occurrence in this county. Last night the large barn, stables and sheepsheds of Henry Keller, in Licking township, four miles southwest of this place, to-gether with their contents of hay grain, agri-cultural implements and four horses were

There is no doubt the fire was incendiary, The less is placed at $2,000, with an insurance of $1,500. No clew.

Much has already been written about her progress, and Mr. Brown intends to use the letter to help him secure aid for the Blind Institute. She is now learning to talk, and speaks fairly well. Here is the letter:

TUSCUMBIA, ALA., August 4, 1890. My Dear Mr. Brown: My Dear Mr. Brown:

I am very glad to write to you this beautiful, cool morning. I love you very much because you are so kind to little deaf and olind children and try to make them good and happy. I am so glad the good people in Pittsburg are going heip you build school for those who cannot see all the beautiful and wonderful things which the dear Good has made for us. But they will be overloyed when they know to read all that very wise people lave written. I love my books dearly. They are much prized friends. Please give my love to all the little calidren, and tell them God wants us to be happy and loving always. If I could I would write a long letter, but I feel tired and must rest.

Lovingly your little friend.

**MANSFIELD VALLET, PA., October 22.—The aged Mr. Elliott, who has been lost from his home since Monday, was rast seen alive at Nimick station, near the "short cut" ferry, on the Ohlo river. He left his home to take a walk, but did not appear in the evening, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cornelius Willard, struggle.

A MOTHER'S ERRING BOY.

She Ran Into Debt to Supply the Young Man With Money.

Frank W. Hohl, of Easton, Pa., was sent to the workhouse for 30 days yesterday. Officer O'Hara arrested him while following another who was very drunk on Market street. He tallied exactly with the photograph and de-scription of Walter E. Huey, a member of the Harbor Commission of San Francisco, who is wanted for embezzling $20,000 of public money, and Inspector McAleese thought he was the man."

The prisoner was photographed yesterday. He is a handsome man, dressed in fashionable clothes, and his hands are as small, white and soft as a woman's. In his pocket was found a letter from his mother at Easton, written on a blank of the Northampton County Bank, of which he alleges his father is a director. In her letter the mother wants to know if he thinks she is made of money, and says she is already deeply in debt for him, and is in such a state of mind that she wishes she were dead.

AGAINST HIS WISHES

Young Wilkinson Not to Blame for the Sudden Breaking of His ENGAGEMENT TO WINNIE DAVIS. The Young Lady Declined Marriage on the Plea of Hil Health.

TALK WITH THE DISAPPOINTED LOVER

CINCINNATI, October 22.-Mr. Alfred Wilkinson, the affianced of Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," was in the United States District Court today. He is attorney for plaintiff in the patent case of Helen A. Wells against Eleanor Tatem, the administratrix of the late Captain Tatem. The suit is over a patent book

Mr. Wilkinson is a very handsome young man. He is tall, of fine figure, stands very erect, and has a full beard, which is kept at short growth and pointed at the chin. It shows the bestowal of much care. The color is brown. His features are regular; a fine straight nose, broad white forehead, clear brown eyes, and a face that is round and full with the flush of health. A DISTINGUISHED APPEARANCE.

His appearance is decidedly distingue. He was dressed in a neat fitting salt and pepper suit, sack coat. A man scrupulously neat. He has a fine, open, manly way of addressing the court. Directly upon adjournment of court at noon Mr. Wilkinson was taken charge of by Mr. Nat. Henchman Davis. He stopped to chat with Judge Sage for a moment on certain points of law.

Upon introduction to the reporter by Mr.

Davis, Mr. Wilkinson gave the usual information about the case. Then he was asked to speak of the breaking off of the engagement between Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of the late Confederate chieftain,

"There is a report, Mr. Wilkinson, that you broke off the engagement."

The fine color left his face for a moment and he seemed very much annoyed, but he replied promptly:

ONE REPORT DENOUNCED "That is absurd. It is not true. I don't "That is absurd. It is not true. I don't see how such a report could get out. Unless it is through some Northern prejudice, which I am sorry to find still exists. You will do me a favor if you will deny such an absurd rumor. Miss Davis broke off the engagement herself, and solely on account of her health, and I will also say that it was very much against my wishes. There was no other consideration in the matter."

"Is Miss Davis in any sense an invalid?"

o other consideration in the matter."
"Is Miss Davis in any sense an invalid?" "Well, her health is not good. But that was no reason for breaking as far as I was concerned. I did not wish it. It was against my wishes. My friends all thoroughly understand the situation. She saw fit to sever the engagement. In that case a gentleman can do nothing but submit. But if there is such a rumor as my breaking off my engagement to Miss Davis you will do me a kindness by contradicting it."

TAXING EXPRESS COMPANIES

Important Decision in a Suit Between the Pacific Corporation and a State. KANSAS CITY, October 22,-The last State Legislature enacted a law providing for the taxation of all express companies doing business in the State over rented or leased lines, the tax being $2 on every $100 received or charged for carrying freight within the State. The law provided for an annual report from the company to the State Auditor for each year's business.

Last June Auditor Siebert attempted to enforce the law. The Pacific Express Company resisted, claiming that the law was discriminative in its operations in favor of railroad companies, of express companies own-ing their own lines, and of steamboat lines. The claim was also set up that the law was not valid because it levied a tax upon inter-State commerce. The company obtained s temporary injunction restraining the Auditor from enforcing the law. To-day Judges Phillips and Caldwell, of the United States Circuit Court, dissolved the injune tion and declared the law valid. SHOULDER capes in astrakhan, skunk-krimmer, seal, Persian lamb, mink or mon, key furs. A splendid assortment of all the newest shapes. HUGUS & HACKE.

COME TO-DAY

A Regular Walk-Over. That's what we are having in our efforts this season to convince the public that in Gents' Furnishings we lead, not only in the quantity and variety of the stock we show, but in price also. It is quite amusing to us -and we haven't a bit of doubt that the general public share in our amusement -to notice that our wouldbe competitors every now and again warn the people not to be misled by newspaper statements of price. They know as well as we, and the public at large, that newspaper statements of price amount to nothing, standing alone. What they really fear, and with good cause, is the force of the regular knock-down arguments which a stock such as ours carries with it, and their make-believe solicitude is mere dust kicking to hide the facts.
