An Indoor Athletic Meeting Likely to be Held Her General Sporting News.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, October 32.-When the base ball magnates began to assemble at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning it was evident that the influences of those favorable to a continuation of the conflict that has disgraced the national game were in the ascendant. The Conference Committee met, and it was soon made known that the American Association and the National League declined to have three players on the committee. Messrs. Johnson, Talcott, Good-win, Ward, Hanlon and Irwin then went to the Hoffman House and conferred with their triends. Subsequently the six gentlemen named returned to the Fi th Avenue Hotel and a long secret session was held, with Messrs, Ward, Hanion and Irwin, the players, on the outside. When the session was ended Secretary Byrne made a statement to the press

He explained that the meeting to-day was to have been attended by three delegates from the Players' League, three from the National and three from the American Association, A.L. Johnson, F. B. Inicott and Wendell Goodwin were to represent the Players; A. G. Spalding, were to represent the Prayers, A. G. Spadning, J. B. Day and U. H. Byrne, the National, and A. W. Thurman, Curis Von der Alte and Wm. Harnie, the American. All these were present looday, but were surprised to find three other gentlemen, Messrs Ward, Haulon and Irwin on hand to represent the players. Mr. Thurman refused to call the meeting to order unless they retired. It was explained that the allowers and treatment their delevation. that the players had increased their delegation and Mr. Johnson said that the committee was not ready to proceed unless the whole delega not ready to proceed mission followed, and so a result the Plavers' original committee of three and the Brotherhood committee retired. These gentlemen talked over the situation, and the additional three players retired and both committees returned to the meeting

Mr. Thurman then called the meeting to or or and read a letter from the directors of the Players' League explaining the appointment of the sidditional members of the committee. A. I. Johnson moved, and E. B. Talcott seconded, that the Players' delegation be increased by three. The motion was lost, and the delegates Mr. Johnson said that the national agreement was represented by six members on the committee, and the players thought they were entitled to an equal representation. They could do nothing under the circumstances but withdraw.

The National League beld a meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-night, and the delegates were in session until nearly midnight. It was a continuation of the adjourned meeting of October 9. Messrs, Spalding, Dav and Byrne, the committee appointed to confer with the Players League committee, made a detailed report of the proceedings of the afternoon and their refusal to confer with the players. The action of the committee was approved without a dissenting voice. Every delegate expressed his views and all were of one voice regarding the effort of the players to be recognized in a conffort of the players to be recognized in a con erence. The committee was continued with that was reasonable and fair, and to report at the annual meetin, of the League to be held on November 12 at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. PITCHER WEVHING IN TROUBLE

Ward's Star Twirler is Wanted for Damaging a Drinking Saloon.

NEW YORK, October 22 -- Justice Petterson sitting for Judge Kenna, in the Gates Avenue Police Court yesterday, issued a warrant for the arrest of Gus Weyhing. the star pitcher of the Brooklyn Players' Lengue Baseball Club, Court Officer O'Shaugh nessey, who has been a regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's abilities, who he declares is the greates, pitcher in the country, is hunting for Weybing, armed with the warrant. The complainant is Brewer Piel whose place, corner of Liberty and Sheffield avenues, was damaged by the pitcher one day last week.

It seems that Weyhing and a party of friends, among whom was a well-known local politician, visited the brewer's saloon, and were soon ensconced in a private room, where the liquid refreshments, which were imbibed in unlimited quantities, soon exhibitarated the party. The place has been a favorite resort with Ward's team throughout the season, and before this incident Piet was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

An elaborate figure of Gambriums attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he he attention of a member of the party, and he suggerted that Weyhing "try to put a sandwich over the plate," i.e., hit the figure of Gam-brinus. The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and with the rder of a street gamin be prepared an immense plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So successful was the hat the painted figure. So successful was the that that others were sent rapidly flying after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined. The damage done by Weyning it extinated at $500. is estimated at $250.

University of Pennsylvania Football Team Win an Interesting Match. "SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, October 22.-The Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania teams had their turn at football this afternoon at Brotherhood Park. This was Columbia's second game of the season and it also proved to be her second defeat. To this must be attributed not wholly the superior play of the Pennsylvania men, but the loss of three men of Columbia's regular team. The game was called about 3:15 o'clock Columbia having the ball and the east goal. The V tactics were commenced, but the Columbia line was not strong enough to break through the Pennsylvania rush line, and the gaine was soon turned against Columbia, who was gradually pushed down the field.

The second half opened viciously. The Pennsylvania men did some rough playing and occasionally a little slugging. Tuttle became so angered twice that he had to be forcibly restrained from having a free fight then and there. Time was called with Pennsylvania 18 points to Columbia's nothing. The Columbia team was noticeably weak in the rush lines and lacks good runners. Camp, Church, Dewey and Schiff did good work for their team, and Dilworth, Culver, Tuttle, Mackenzie and Gil-uersleeve did their best to uphoid the Columbia end. the Columbia line was not strong enough to

If he was just leaving the mark when the pistel went off he wins, because it is always possible for a runner to get the best of the most expert pistel firer. However, there is a difference between getting the "break" on the pistel and the latter being fired when one man has pulpably left the mark. No starter has a right to fire the pistel after a man has left the mark. A competent referee can always decide these points.

Restrictions on American Cattle Removed it Found Healthy.

WASHINGTON, October 22.-Secretary Rusk said to a reporter to-day that he was receiving encouraging reports of progress from Mr. J. H. Sanders, his special agent in Great Britain, relative to the removal of British restrictions upon the importation of American live stock.

In a recent report to the Secretary, Mr. Sanders encloses excerpts from British journals, which give, among other things, the details o' the embargo recently placed upon a shipment of Canadian cattle to Scotland. The Secretary said that the English account of the incident confirms account of the incident confirms what he has always contended, namely the difficulty of depending absointely upon a single diagnosis in order to determine whether symptoms of disease indicate the contagious or non-contagious pleuro pneumonia. It was on this ground that the Secretary concluded to adopt the plan of co-inspection by representatives of his own department with the British Inspec-

· FEARS OF DISEASED CATTLE.

The Secretary also said that he thought the action of the British authorities in the Dundee case rather justified the inference that the restrictions imposed and maintained on American cattle by the British Government are due less to any spirit of unriendliness which might lead to discrimina-tions against the United States than to a positive tear less through any lack of their official vigilance danger to British cattle might ensue. This naturally leads him to the conclusion that comparatively little difficulty will be experienced in securing the removal of any restrictions discrim inating between American and Canadian cattle just so soon as the British authorities can be thoroughly convinced of the immu-nity which American cattle now enjoy from contagious pleuro pneumonia and of the smple powers vested in the Secretary of Agriculture to control and eradicate should any outbreak occur in the future. The Secretary feels highly encouraged at the present state of his efforts to remove restrictions upon American cattle. QUARANTINE AT PITTSBURG.

BRANDY TAXES REFUNDED.

Levies on Fortifying Spirits in Sweet Wines te be Paid Back. WASHINGTON, October 22 .- One of the provisions of the existing tariff law is that makers of sweet wines shall be allowed the use of grape brandy 'ree of tax for the purpose of fortifying their wines. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is charged with the duty of transferring the brandy from the bonded warehouse or distillery where it is made to the winery, requiring a large number of new stamps and the preparations of new regulations. In view of the press of other work at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing it will be impossible to procure a supply of stamps until a ter De-cember 1. By that time the vintage season will have passed and the wine makers be precluded this year from all benefits in-tended by the act.

To provide against this state of affairs, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has instructed the collectors at San Francisco, New York and elsewhere to notify persons interested that he will consider applications to refund the taxes paid on all spirits which may have been used in the fortification of sweet wines.

secretary Spaulding's Decision as to the Tariff on Steel Rails in Bond.

WASHINGTON, October 22 .- Assistant Secretary Spaulding has written to the Collector of Customs at San Francisco in regard to certain steel rails now in bonded warehouses which have been withheld from sale from time to time at the request of the Oregon Pacific Railway Company.

It is understood that the railway company intends to withdraw the rails and pay the duties thereon in a short time, and the question arises as to whether they are dutis-ble under the old or the new tariff law. General Spaulding says that as the duties, regular and additional, had accrued on the rails before the passage of the act of October 1, 1890, and as the rails remained in bone merely by sufferance and not legally they do not come within the puerview of section 50 of the act or October 1, 1890, and are therefore dutiable under the old law.

HIDING THE BLEMISHES.

What the Retoucher Does for the Art of Photography. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The retouchers perform a service for the public that is not generally known. But for the retoucher portrait photography would not to-day be much in advance of the pictures made 40 years ago. Then negatives had to be made dense enough to obliterate freckles, wrinkles and other defects appearing on the face of the average human being. At the same time, of course, the soit gradations of light and shade were lost, and the pictures produced were merely chalk and charcoal presentments of the original.

It is now possible, through the retoucher's art of hiding blemishes, to preserve the delicate modeling, and at the same time keep the likeness intact. Retouchers remove a point of a lace collar, scratch out malformations, and so manipulate a negative that the subject thereof would be pleased, and his or her friends surprised, at the flattering re-

TWENTY ACRES OF LAND THROWN IN

SPECIAL TRIEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. ATLANTA, October 22 .- "To Africa for ne dollar!" This was the dazzling offer which delighted and gulled over 800 Atlanta negroes. It was the scheme of a negro emigrant agent named Key, and how successfully it worked remains to be told. Some weeks ago Key erme to Atlanta and began to talk his scheme. He was a smooth talker, and quietly claimed the attention of his colored brethren and sisters. His offer was to take a negro to Africa and give him 20 acres of land for $1. Another condition was, that a badge had to be purchased for a quarter which entitled the holder to passage on the steamship "Good Hope," which would leave Savannah for A rica in a few weeks. Of course Key made money from the scheme.

A BOLD SWINDLER.

Finally he became bolder and began ganizing meetings. He would speak at length, explaining to his audiences that cabbages grew as tall as trees on the soil in Africa, of which each emigrant was to be given 20 acres. He told of the peculiar brand of sweet potatoes which grew wild and to an enormous size. His speech was dazzling to the minds of the colored men, and after the meeting when he called for those who wanted to go, dollar after dollar was turned over to the "slick artist." His meeting went on without interrup-tion for some time, and he was "in clover" as the saying goes. He has collected about $800 and had a fine prospect of much more. One evil moment, George Trasher, the well-known colored ward politician, dropped in at one of Key's "meetings." Now, it's a hard matter to fool George into anything, and his mind is naturally of an investigative turn. So, when he heard the brilliant offer o the emigrant agent, he was on his feet in a twinkling. "By what authority do you make that offer?" shouted George. HE REFERRED TO HARRISON. The agent was ready with an answer. "By authority of the President of the United States," he replied. This somewhat stunned George, but he was not to be so easily de feated.

"That's mighty good authority," he said,
"but what steamship company have you made your arrangements with to carry all these people over?"

The agent saw that George was becoming too inquisitive, and luckily was able to call the audience to his assistance. George was hooted out and the collection of money went merrily on. The agent saw, however, that his game was up, and has skipped out, leaving about 800 dupes "in the soup." Elkins' Tin-Plate Remarks.

A TRUCE DECLARED.

AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT THE RESULT OF THE R. P. CONFERENCE.

sented - The Minority Ministers Not Censured for Issuing Circulars Expressing Their Views-Will Report to th

As far as the Pittsburg Presbytery is concerned the difficulty pending between the two fractions of the Reformed Presbyterian Church has been settled for the present and a truce declared. This means that the threatened split in the church has been averted, so far as the action of the committee is concerned, and that according to the views of the committee the action of the committee is concerned, and that according to the views of the committee there is no cause for consuring the Pittsburg Presbytery signers of the circular urging liberal amendments to the laws of the church.

Nearly a year ago, just after the meeting of the Synod, the minority faction of that body held a meeting in the East End and formulated a platform, emoodying their views as expressed at the Synod meetings. This platform was printed in circular form and distributed throughout the district.

When the Pittsburg Presbytery met it was alleged that the 17 ministers had done wrong in holding the meeting and that some of their teachings were not just in harmony with the creed and laws of the church. As a result of the Presbytery conference the following committee was appointed to meet with the alleged recreant members of the minority faction belonging to the Pittsburg Presbytery and talk over the matter and report to the central body: Rev. J. W. Sproull, of Allegheny, Chairman; Rev. David McAllister, of the Eighth Street Church; Rev. K. J. George, of Beaver Falls; Prof. D. B. Wilson, of the Allegheny Theological Seminary, and Eiders D. O. Brown and John Magee, of New Alexandria and Buller respectively.

Rev. J. W. Sproull, the Chairman of vesterler respectively.

Rev. J. W. Sproull, the Chairman of yesterday afternoon's meeting, which was held behind closed doors, said: "You may say that we met and talked the whole matter over in a very friendly way and came to an amicable settlement. We found that after all there was not make a disagraph of opinion as represented. ment. We found that after all there was not such a divergence of opinion as represented. All proceedings against the mini-ters, as far as the committee is concerned, will be stopped. You can say that there is no danger of a split in the church, and that all is unity."

A member and officer of Rev. J. R. J. Milligan's congregation said that the divergence of opinion in the church was due to the two factions placing a different construction on the rules of the church. The old school do not believe in voting or holding office under the United States Constitution, as they think it ungodly in its wording. The unionists, or liberals, believe in allowing that matter to be a personal one with the members. There are also other differences regarding communion and other church institutions.

The ministers concerned in yesterday's conference were Revs. J. R. J. Milligan, of Allegheny; O. R. Milligan, of the East End; E. M. Milligan, of Parnassus; Mr. Sampson, of McKeesport; Mr. Temple, of Manchester and Brookland; H. W. Reed, McKeesport, Rev. Mr. McClurgen was not present.

Rainfall in the South Expected to Extend Northwardly To-Day.

IPREPARED FOR THE DISPATCH.I

The cyclone on the Gulf coast is rapidly in creasing in intensity as it moves slowly eastward. Its center was east of the Mississippi river, and gales were blowing along the Gulf coast and were steadily increasing on the South Atlantic coast, from Florida to North Carolina. Vessels sailing South should do so with caution for the next few days. The rain area attending the storm has become greatly magnified. Heavy rain fell in all the country south of the lakes, except on the Middle Atlantic coast, and reached from Arkansas to the Atlantic, and will extend northwardly today. Another storm is moving slowly south-eastward from Montana, and will cause rain in the Northwest States to-day. The high pres sure over the lakes caused frosts in the lake regions, New England, and as far south as Virginia. It was warmer in the Northwest and South Atlantic States and colder in all other
