Mr. Nevin's Playing and Mrs. Wyman's Singing Tuesday Evening.

A RARELY ARTISTIC OCCASION.

The New York Philharmonic Club Opens the Carnegie Course.

NEWS ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

The pianoforte and song recital given by Mr. Ethelbert Nevin and Mrs. Walter C. Wyman at the Pittsburg Club Theater last Tuesday evening, was attended by a cultured and highly appreciative audience. It was an occasion of rare artistic pleasantness. The programme drew upon a high order of compositions, which were judiciously consorted-it would be punted here in full were it not that the writer's copy has been somehow mislaid, and this hasty notice must mends be indited from memory.

Mr. Nevin opened with Brahms' "Hungarian" Variations and Schumann's Concert Allegro, op. 8, numbers well calculated to show the player's musicianly grasp of rhythmic and themstic intricacies as well as this purely pianistic prowess. In the next group of pieces, Grieg's charming little morceaux ("Papillon" and "Eronque") were imbued with most graceful expressiveness, and had cameolike delicacy of outline. The familiar Chopin Mazourka received one of the finest interpretations of the eventuality sections. lations of the evening; the contrasting sections portioned, while the rhythm of his strongly-marked form was remarkably well unintained throughout. One of Liszt's "Lieb-estraeume" was delivered with much poetic fervor. A set of pianoforte pieces of his own on served to strengthen materially r. Nevin's home reputation both as composed ad player. The Walzer Gentile was as grace ful as could be; the Simmber Song, sweetly imple and with a rich climax; the Intermezzo, simple and gay, suggestive of Grieg in spirit, but not in note; and the "Song of the Brook," an exceptionally melodious and ef-lective study. Mr. Nevin's concert walts, with which the evening closed, merits the attention which the evening closed, merits the attention it has received from one or two virtuosi, as one of the freshest and most brilliant works of its class lately written. It is thoroughly waltz-like in character, but wholly unconventional in Wyman scored an unqualified success in Mrs. Weman scored an unquainted success in his, her first appearance in Pittsburg. She inscesses a voice of remarkable range, eveness and richness; with a luscious tone eculiarly its own-a fimbre that one essitates over at first, but which haunts be afterwards. Nothing could exceed the clicacy of sentiment and the intensity of feeling by which her interreptations were characbritished which her interpretations were charac-brized, whether in the arch and bright measures like Mr. Newin's "'Twas April," or in the pathetic longing of his "Oh that We Two Were Maying," or in the passionate and brilliant "Herzens-Truehling," Mrs. Wyman will always find a hearty welcome in Pittsburg.

The Philharmonic Club Concert.

The "Carnegie Course" at the Allegheny hall of similar title was opened last Friday evening with a chamber concert by the New York Philharmonic Club. Those who were present say the ensemble playing of this sterling organization was altogether delightful and, and certes, unless Mr. Arnold and his present conditions have fallen much below the igh standard they held six or seven years ago, hen the writer used to drop in at Chickering tall quite often to hear this fells, their playing onld not have been otherwise than oelightful. s andience seemed much pleased, encor-cast three of the numbers on the follow-

A Ball With Strauss

When Strauss and his merry band of Vienthe were here in the spring (their promised re-turn on November 7 makes this apropos) in will be remembered there was some talk of trying to get up an elegant ball and induce the "Waltz Prince" to play the dances. The idea was pronounced utterly unfeasible for the seemingly good reason that "Edi" would cerproposal. Yet he was tricked into doing this very thing while in New York this summer. ribing the delight of a large andi-very thing while in New York this summer. After describing the delignt of a large andicage at Saratoga in listening through long-distance telephones to the Strauss concert at Madison Square Garden, New York, the Electrical Engineer, narrates the following: "A very movel and striking use was made of this telephonic concert by A. S. Hibbard, who happened to be entertaining a number of friends at his residence, in Morristown, N. J., the same evening. Mr. Hibbard's private telephone line was connected at Cortland street with the circuit running to Madison Square Garden, and the strains of the famous orchestra were heard so plainly in the house at Morristown that dancing was carried on to the accompaniment with perfect case and comfort by the guests there assembled. If someone had told Strauss that his orchestra was playing for dancers who were chjoying them, solves at Morristown, some 20 or 30 miles distant, the information would probably have been received with shee, incredulity, yet such was actually the case. We colleve this is the first instance recorded of the transmission of house by telephone with sufficient volume and clearness for dancing to be indulged in by the listeners."

THE Handel Musical Association, of Allegheny, resumes rehearsal this season on next Thursday evening. CARL MILLOECKER'S "Poor Jonathan" has scored a great hit in its recent production at the New York Casino. MR. SIMEON BISSELL will inaugurate the new Wirsching organ of the Cumberland Pres-byterian Church at Uniontown. MR. AUGUST RECKERT, Putsburg's leading obocist, has gone off to Texas for the present with the captivating Mr. Innes and his band. MISS ADELE AUS DER OHE, after some preliminary recitals at Chicago and elsewhere, will begin her regular season at San Francisco A HITHERTO unpublished concerto for the bassoon, with accompaniment for violin, viola, ilio, by Paganini, has been discov-

MR. CHARLES CORCORAN, the well-known local baritone, has returned home after an extended course of vocal study in Florence and in London under Blower.

THE late H. T. Knake's position at St. Paul's R. C. Cathedral has at last been filled by the election of Miss Alice Carter as organist and of Mr. Thomas F. Kirk as choir master.

THE revolt of Gilmore's band against its famous leader out West the other day shows in more ways than one. On Thanksgiving Pay Pittsburgers will doubtless see that he has his men in band better than ever.

THE Verein Frohsian, with its new conductor, Herr Carl Ahl, and its new feminine contingent, gave its first programme this sea-son last Thursday evening at the cosy club quarters. Herr Aul, Herr Staub, Fri. Ahl and Fri. Stadtfeld appeared as soloists. Josephi Stich's new one-act opera, "Der Geiger zu Ginuend," is likely to be produced this winter at Stuttgart. Herr Stich is one of the conductors of the Royal Opera at Munich, also the teacher and friend of Mr. Frank E. Saddler, of Pittsburg, now studying composi-tion at the Bavarian capital. Mr. THEODORE THOMAS will this evening commence another series of Sunday evening concerts at the Lenox Lyceum, New York.

The programme will include two novelites— a symphonic poem by Smetana, entitled "Il Vetana," and a dance of Tschaikowsky's. Herr Reichnann will be the soloist of the evening. PAULINE LUCCA repeated one of her early triumphs as Nelika in "L'Africaine" at the Frankfort City Theater last Friday before an

THE Karl Merz Musical Library is now on its way from Wooster, O., and will ere long be established in the Academy of Science and Art Building, on Fifth street, where it will remain until Pittsburg's Carnegie Library is in operation. The few subscribers who have not yet paid up are requested to make early remittance to Mr. Charles C. Mellor, custodian of the fund.

A PROMISING musical and elecutionary entertainment is being arranged for Friday even-ing, November 14, in the chapel of the Pittsburg Central High School, for the benefit of Miss E. M. Simpson, a highly valued member of the High School faculty, whose prolonged illness occasions this practical evidence of sympathy on the part of her many old pupils and friends.

"READER" may address to the Secretary of the Mozart Club, J. Boyd Duff, Esq., 153 Fourth avenue, his inquiry as to the manner of be oming a member of that chorus. The club neets for tehearsal every Monday evening at s rooms in the McCance block corner of mithfield, Liberty and Seventh avenue, lough it is now on the lookout for more comnodious quarters.

THE New York Chorus Society, Mr. C Mortimer Wiske, conductor, will give three concerts this season in the Lenox Lyceum, on the evenings of December 4, February 5 and April 22. The first will be devoted to Sullivan's "Golden Legend," the second to Massenet's "Eve" and Hamish MacCunn's "The Lay of the Last Minstrel," and the third to Dr. Parry's "Judith"—all novelties to New York.

AND still they come. "The Pittsburg Star Course," to be given at Old City Hall this sea son, proposes to emulate the similar efforts newly stimulated in Allegheny by the erection of Carnegie Hall. Three concerts and two lectures compose the series; the first musical attraction being a first-class one, in the shape of Ovide Musin, the eminent violinist, and his concert company, to be followed later by the Fiske Jubilee Singers and others. The most popular kind of a price is named for the series.

THE rumors about a possible May Festival this season under Mr. Carl Retter's direction, while not wholly without foundation, are not based upon a state of facts at all definite enough to warrant anything more than the statement that plans to that end are being considered. The exact status of thes inchoate ideas has for ometime been known to THE DISPATCH, and its raders will be fully informed just as soon as they settle upon a reasonable foundation of fact. Meantime the earnest hope may be expressed that a Festival may by some means be held next spring upon a scale commensurate with the rapidly growing musical activities of our community. our community

MR. THEODOR SALMON announces an excellent musical programme, to be given next Tuesday evening at the Pittsburg Female College, with the assistance of Mr. Harry B. Brockett, Mr. Carl Retter and Miss Lucille Eldridge, the violinist, lately of Cleveland, who dridge, the violinist, lately of Cleveland, who has become a member of the faculty of this institution. Miss Eldridge will on this occasion make her local debut, playing De Beriot's Eichth Concerto and an "Evening Song" by Nachez. Mr. Brockett will sing songs by Weber, Meyer-Helmund and Mattei; Mr. Salmon will play solo pieces by D'Albert and Chopin, and Mr. Retter and Mr. Salmon will play on two pianos Schumann's Andante and variations and Raff's Gavotte and Musetto, op. 200.

terprising managers of the "Star Course" at Carnegie Hall, Allegheny, have 'determined to follow two suggestions lately made in this de-partment of THE DISPATCH. First, they offer half rates (less than 50 cents per concerts at half rates (less than 50 cents per concert) to music teachers and pupils properly identified. Considering the greater cost of artists hall, etc., this is about as cheap as the European rates which offer such inducements to students. rates which offer such inducements to students. There ought to be no absentee teachers or publis when De Pachman (November II), the New York Philharmonic Club, Clementina De Vere, John Chesbire (harpist) and other arists of like rank are to be heard at such prices. The management have also opened a correspondence with a view to securing, if possible, an organ recital from that greatest of English players, W. T. Best. The second feature referred to is the intention to print proure referred to is the intention to print pro-gramme books for these concerts, with descriptive and analytical notes—a most valuable feature, which could not be in bett hands than those of Mr. Beveridge Webster.

THE Musical Association, of Allegheny, announces a promising schedule for the season. For the first concert, December 9, Hiller's For the first concert, December 9, Hiller's "Song of Victory" and lesser works by Kuecken ("There is One That I Love Dearly") and by Leslie (Lullaby) are in rehearsal. Miss Grace Miller, among our own singers, with Mr. William J. Lavin, tenor, and Mrs. Anna Moody Burch, soprano, of New York, will be the soloists. For the second concert, January 20, the choral work will be miscellaneous. Miss Maud Powell, the well-known violinist of New York, will play. The third concert, March 17, will present a novelty. Goring Thomas' cantata, "The Sun Worshipera," with solos by Miss Mary Howe—the brilliant young soprano spoken of last week in this column—and Mr. Whitney Mockridge, the tenor, of Chicago. Another novelty is underlined for the fourth concert, May 19, in the shape of Barnett's "Three Mariners:" the soloists will be Mile. Decca, the soprano whose successful appearance here last spring with the Marine Band will be remembered, Dr. Carl Martin, the bighly esteemed bass, and two others one of whom will probably be Rosa Linde (Schaarschmidt), who would be heartily welcomed at her old home. The Allegheny society has been extremely successful in securing associate members for the season and is certainly making road used its cessful in securing associate members for the season and is certainly making good use of its means in securing such such an array of artists. But how about an orchestra?

SCROFULA.

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, have yielded to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurity from the blood and builds up the system.

The Worst Type. "My son was afflicted with the worst type of scrofula, and on the recommendation of my druggist I gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today he is sound and well, notwithstanding it was said there was not enough medicine in Illinois to effect a cure." J. CHRISTIAN, siring fresh goods at a fair price. Shop-worn and poorly made goods are not desirable at any price. Especially is this true in furniture. We are glad to note that the average furniture dealer in this city, relying, as he does, on the people of this immediate vicinity, has nothing but fresh stock. Not so are certain stores of larger cities, where they sell to outsiders such stock as they cannot dispose of to their own people. Some stores, very few in the furniture business, we are glad to note, speak of nothing else in their advertisements but closing sales, bargains here, bargains there. If these are honest sayings, one is led to believe they had nothing else to sell. Do you think such a firm could exist, with all sales made up of goods (at cost?) (and below?) We doubt the truth of such sayings. Right here, we wish to call your attention to a complete assortment of furniture, all patterns new and practicable, not one of which will command any price but the one that is necessary to produce such an article.

Us as Being
