PIEST OF THE CASES ARGUED. The first case argued was the appeal of sue and that Jones Marshall, Jr., had a vested interest in the property.

The next case taken up was one of great importance, the appeal of John R. Gleanger vs the Pittsturg and Consellsville Railroad. The suit seeks to set aside all proceedings by which the Baltimore and Chio Railroad acquired control of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, and to have the court set aside the action of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, and to have the court set aside the action of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad compan in placing a mortgage of $10,000,000 on its property and franchises. The case was argued for the appellers by John S. Ferguson, E.g., and George Shiras, E.g., while D. T. Watson and William S. Pier, Esgs., appeared for the appellants. In 1834 the bill alienes the capital stock was $1,994,500 and its funded debt $10,618,600. With its business in that apparent prosperous way, with no pressing necessities, and without any notice to stockholders, it was suddenly proposed and resoived at the annual meeting in December, 1884, without any discussion or explanation, that the directors be authorized to borrow $10,000,000 and issue bonds for that amount.

00,000 and issue bonds for that amount.

EFQUESTED BY THE RAILBOAD. This resolution was prepared by and presented at the request of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, and was adopted be-caus hat company required it. There was no opposition, no stockholders had notice of the sposition, no stockholders had notice of the etion, and few, if any, outside the Baltimore no Ohio people were present. There were 2003 shares voted, and 32,200 were voted by the Baltimore and Ohio Company. Six weeks rear to the resolution of the stockholders to one these bonds an agreement had been made it a New York syndicate to deliver to it 16,000,000 of the second morteage bonds of the 0,000 of the second mortgage bonds of the Pittsburg and Convellsville road. By the issue of these bonds the fixed charges have been increased $212,000 nunually. Its liabilities have been increased more than $6,000,000, and it has been converted from a corporation with a handsome surplus to one with a constant deficit and certain insolvency awaitment. No notice was given to the stockholders of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Company of the increase of its indebtedness, as required by the act of 1874. The bill asks that each of the onds to secure the $10,000,000 loan be declared

The defense was that the Baltimore and Ohio The defense was that the Baltimore and Ohio Company has sold the bonds held by it, and they are in the hands of bona fide helders for value; that the mortgage is a valid mortgage; that the deed of trust to Robert Garrett is valid, and a general denial was made to all the charges, and that one and general notice was given of the meeting at which the vote on issuing the $10,000,000 mortgage was received. The paper books in the case cover 1.300 pages of printed matter. The appeal of Mary N. Bodgers from the decree of Quarter Sessions was argued. This is cree of Quarter Sessions was argued. This is a appeal from the report of the Board of Viewers meesing damages caused by the wid-ening of Sheridan avenue, Bellevue. The argu-ment was made by Bobb & Fitzsimmons. J. W. Kirker appeared for the appellee.

A DAMAGE CASE APPEALED.

The appeal of the defendant in the case of ylvester Ross vs. J. W. Walker, appealed from C. P. No. 2, is one of damages. The laintia, Sylvester Ross, was employed by the bridge building firm of J. W. Walker, and it s alleged that he was injured by the downfall of a scaffolding on which he was working. The scaffold is alleged to have been defective, inas-much as it contained one bad board. It was constructed under the supervision of the fore-man of the firm. Knex and Reed, attorneys for the appellant, claim that the scaffolding was built by the men who worked upon it. There was piesty of good lumber on the ground, and if a bad board was placed in the ground, and if a bad board was placed in the scalleld the fault belonged to the men and not to be foreman or Mr. Walker.

The suit of the Murshall Foundry and Construction Company, Limited, against the Pittsborg Traction Company, appealed by the defendant from C. P. No. 1, was argued. The suit was to recover a belance claimed to be due on the contract for furnishing from work for the Traction Company's line. The Traction Company alleges that some of the work was not according to the specifications.

An argument was heard on the appeal of the Commissioners of Potter county from the C. P. of Potte county. The case was an appeal from the decision of the Court on the matter of the assessments of C. W. Goodycar and others

PECULIAR WILL CONTEST.

Attempt to Break the Will of the Late

Mrs. Mary Fisher. The taking of testimony in the contest of the will of the late Mary Fisher, of Verona, was commenced yesterday, before Judge Hawkins, 75c, $1 00—sold by the piece only. of the Orphans' Court. Mrs. Fisher was 54, years of age and died about 18 months ago. She was worth about $10,000, and in her will is that for it to her son, John Fisher, discrim-tisating against her other children and husband. The will was contested, the claim being made that indue influence was used, and that Mrs. Fisher was mentally menpable of making a

At the hearing before Judge Hawkins yesterday the testimony taken was for the contestants. It was to the effect that in 1885 John Fisher, the favored son, started a saloon in Verona. His mother ment to live with him, and while there she acquired the habit of drinking. She because very intemperate, and he obtained great control over her. She turned her other children out of the house and behaved badly to her husband, on one occasion hitting him on the husband, on one occasion hitting him on the head with a shove! The hearing was continued intil this morning.

RENTS DIVIDED EQUALLY.

Decision of Judge Hawkins in the William Carr Estate Trouble.

Judge Hawkins, of the Orphans' Court, yesterday handed down an opinion disposing of the question at issue in the distribution of the state of the late William Carr. Mrs. Carr, the widow, refused to accept under the will, and was allotted her one-half of the real estate, there being no children under the intestate law. The e-time cas apportuned by the trustees, and Mrs. Carr received her share. In the other half, for though the shares were of equal value, that given to Mrs. Carr was productive of the best rents. The trustees objected to this, and said that Mrs. Carr was only entitled o one-half of the net rents of the whole estate up to the time of the divis A decree was ordered for the division of the SUPREME COURT SENTENCES.

Counterfelters Get Much the Old-Time Worst of It. The October term of the United States Court was closed yesterday, and Judge Acheson imposed the sentences on prisoners convicted during the term. The first were the McDowell brothers, Robert and Archibald, convicted of raising $1 bills to $20s, and passing them on merchants on the Southside, Mrs. Archibald McDowell, with her three children and her father, sat in the room. Mr. McElroy, their attorney, read a number of letters testifying to previous good character, and Judge Acheson said he would not give them the extreme penalty, but that their crime was a grave one. Each was then fined $10 and sent to the penitentiary for two years. The husband and wife kissed each other goodby, and the scene affected everyone in the room. One of the men is said to have been the head of a Sunday school in Ireland.

David Warhupt, convicted of passing coun David Warhupt, convicted of passing counterfeit dimes, was fined $10 and given a year in the penitentiary. He had been recommended to the mercy of the Court by the jury. Theodore Blum, of Clearfied county, another man who raied notes, was fined $10 and given 18 months to the penitentiary. James Kelly, another counterfeiter, was fined $100 and sent to the penitentiary for three years. Benjamin Bladen, who was convicted with him, was said to have served three years in the East for the same offense, and was given four years in addition to a like fine.

Simon Fritz, alias Veik, who was brought from Chicago for passing syurious half-dollars in Alierheny, was given five years and fined $100. His attorneys made a plea for him, and said be had five little children to care for Judge Acheson said the man had served two years before for a similar offense. John Pfeifer, who was convicted with him, had a better record, and was sentenced to two years and six months.

SEELY PLAN LOTS.

Grand Opening Sale on the Plan, Saturday, November 1, and Monday, November 3, 1890. On the Plan from 1 to 5:30 P. M.

WALLS STATION, situated on P. R. R., only eight miles from Pittsburg, has been selected by the Pennsyl ania Railroad Company as a site for the location of their immense machine shops and round-house, which are now being pushed to completion and will give steady employment to several thousand skilled mechanics and employes. Several other large manufacturing establishments have also been attracted to the same locality on account of the abundant and cheap supply of natural gas and other advantages. This emphasizing the fact that this is but the nucleus of what promises to be one of the most enterprising and wideawake manufacturing towns in Western Pennsylvania.

Necessarily the vast army of employes and others attracted to this center will require homes adjacent to the railroad and shop, and in order to meet the ever increasing demand for such Mr. C. B. Seeley has laid out his desirably located tract of land into a plan of splendid building lots, ranging in size from 25x100 to 50x200 on front streets, and prices from $75 to $750, according to size and location. Terms—very small cash payment down and balance on long time and easy! payments. This plan is desirably located within three squares from Walls Station, on the southeas side, and only one square from P. R. R. Trains leave Union Station at 12:15, 12:50, 1, 2, and 3.

COLD FACTS.

Some Plain Statements Con-cerning Drs. Copeland and Blair.

MR. GRANT INTERVIEWED.

"It requires all kinds of people to make this world," said Mr. J. W. Grant, "and no one can realize it more fully than those who cater to the public in the large hotels in this

The speaker was Mr. J. W. Grant, of No. 74 Logan street, who has for a long time been the head waiter at the hotel Anderson, and is well known throughout the city. His experience will, therefore, be of double interest, not only to his friends, but the general public. Mr. Grant said:

"My trouble began several years ago. I caught a severe cold, which I could not get rid of. Cold followed cold, and my trouble must accumulate where a large business is done—our decision was a sacrifice—and transfer them to our retail we did at once.

Mr. J. W. Grant, 74 Logan Street,

"My head and nose would stop up. First one nostril would be clogged and then the other. I had a dull pain in my forehead, directly over my eyes. There were roaring and buzzag noises in my ears. My eyes were weak and watery. I could feel the muons dropping back into my throat. I was constantly hawking and raising. Sharp pains would shoot through my chest, extending as far as the shoulder blades. A dry, hacking cough set in.

"My appetite failed me. My rest was broken. I felt tired and unrefreshed in the morning. When I would stoop over and raise up quickly I would become weak and dizzy. Night sweats weakened me terribly. I tried various remedies and could obtain no relief.

"One day I heard of the wonderful success Drs. Copeland and Blair were having with cases similar to my own, so called to see them. After consultation I began treatment.

"The result has been far better than I dared to expect. My head and throat are clear. I have no more night sweats. My appetite is good. I sleep well, and to be brief, all the symptoms have left me and I feel like a new man."

Mr. Grant lives as stated at No. 74 Logan
