Majority for Pattison ......

.30,300 How He Accounts for It. The majority of 30,300, which Mr. Manes figures out for Pattison in the whole State is only about 3,000 less than the majority claimed within the past week by the Democratic State Chairman.

"On what do you base your claim of 5,000 majority for Pattison in Allegheny county?" I asked Chairman Mapes.

"On reliable information received from different sources in and around Pittsburg.' he replied. "But suppose we don't have that much in Allegheny county by 5,000, and suppose Philadelphia would give Delamater a larger majority than I have allowed, then we would still have 20,000 or more majority, according to my estimate by all the counties."

It will be seen by Mr. Mapes' table that he claims Delamater's own county (Crawford) for Pattison by 500 majority. His majority for Pattison of 2,000 in Clarion county is based on reports of the phenomenal Democratic enthusiasm up there.

Republican Hopes Based on Lancaster. Republicans all along have been expecting 10,000 majority for Delamater in Laneaster county, and have been rejoicing that it would thus steal the banner from Allegheny county as the the greatest Republican county outside of Philadelphia. Mapes only concedes them 7,500 in Lancaster, and in the whole city of Philadelphia he only estimates 5,000 majority for Delamater, while Republican estimates have been anywhere from 5,000 to 18,000. I asked Chairman Andrews this afternoon if he had done any late figuring on the result of the campaign. He said: "I am not talking for publication about results, and of course I cannot, therefore, give you any estimate. I have always said that the Republican ticket would win with a round majority, and I see no reason to change my views now. I have a pretty good idea what that majority will be, and I also have a pretty good guess as to what some counties will do, but I preier to keep them to my-

"Oh, Allegheny is all right," laughed the Chairman. "No, I don't care to give out any figures now. Leave that until after the voting is over." Colonel Andrews was assisted most of the afternoon by Captain Delaney and Collector Tom Cooper in receiving visitors, who came in from all over the State. A final and personal canvass of all counties is being concluded, and in many instances couriers come to headquarters clear from interior

For instance, there were there this afternoon Mr. Vensel, of Clearfield county; Mr. Blackmar, of McKean county, and a gentleman from Clarion county, Congressional candidates also flitted in and out of the room, among them John B. Robinson, of Delaware, and Mr. Reyburn, of this city. Senators Grady and Hughes were in at different times, and the jolly Senator Handy Smith spends an hour each day with the officials of the committee. Oil region missionaries were also interviewed to-day by Chairman Andrews.

The Republican campaign will reach high water mark to-morrow. To make the final appeal to Pennsylvanians the most popular Republican in the nation is being brought to the greatest Republican city. The party managers are depending upon that speech and meeting for powerful results. They predicted that two of Blaine's tions for members of the Fifty-second Conspeeches in either end of the State would be gress, which will occur next Tuesday. This worth 25,000 votes. Present Corruption. INTECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH . PHILADELPHIA, October 31 .- Hon. George E. Mapes, Chairman of the Independent State Committee, to-day issued his final address to the Republicans of Pennsvlvania as follows: Fellow Republicans of Pennsylvania: On the 25th day of September last we issued an address calling upon all loyal and broad-minded Republicans to co-operate with us and rid the Republican party of its corrupt methods. To that appeal you have responded methods. To that appeal you have responded beyond our fondest expectations. The political situation in the State since that time has undergone a remarkable change. What at first seemed like an insignificant protest against the machine candidate has developed into a resistless revolution. The people have become awakened to the great danger of permitting such degrading political methods to continue, and where at first were heard only the murmurings of disapproval, we now find indignant protest and the most active and organized opposition. The sentiment of reform has been steadily growing in every part of the State, and from a little cloud no larger than a man's hand the storm has overspread the entire political herizon, and now threatens to swoop all before it.

The conscience and heart of the Republican party have been awakened, its best men have come to the front to protest against bossism and boss rule, and thousands have pledged themselves to work and vote for Robert F. Pattison as the most effective method of purifying the Republican party and ridding it of its corrupt leadership. They are not fighting for men, but for principles—the principles which form the basis and foundation of honest and popular Government. The election of Robert E. Pattison by an overwhelming majority is at this time an assured fact. The revolt is widespread, extending over the whole State, and if an honest election is held Mr. Delamater is overwhelmingly beaten. Let us see to it that an honest election shall be held. We call upon you to be viginat in guarding your popular rights; to watch every polling place, and aid in bringing out every vote and to bring to prompt justice everyone who attempts to commit fraud.

Liberal rewards have been offered for the conviction of those who violate the election laws, and if the friends of honest government throughout the State will give their personal attention to this important matter, systematic fraud and corruption can be prevented. Viotory is certain, but our victory should be a crushing one, a victory that will leave no doubt of the intention of the people to free the Republican party and the State from the incumbus of corruption. Let every honest voter come to the polls and cast his vote for honest government. Let him see that his neighbor does likewise, and above all let him see to it that none are allowed to vote who are not entitled to do so. Still further, let him aid in the prevention of fraud and corruption among the voters, and if this is done a mighty victory for honest government will surely result, and the Republicans of Pennsylvania will have cause to be proud of their party once more because it will be a purified party, the rank and file of which will be in the future to nominate for the highest offices in the gift of the people men whose achievements and records will be, from the day of their nomination, a guarantee of victory.

CLAIMING CONGRESS.

VIGOROUS ADDRESS OF THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

The Voters of the Party Urged to Rally in Behalf of Protection-The Important Thing is to Vote for Candidates for National Representatives.

WASHINGTON, October 31 .- James J. Belden, of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, has issued an address, in which he says:

The Republican Congressional Committee desires to say a word or two to the people, and more especially to those who believe generally in Republican principles, concerning the elechas been an extraordinary campaign, Our op-ponents calculated to extract by theft and sharp practice 45 Democratic Representatives. Their scheme rendered voting superfluous and the popular will impotent. These were the chief features of their campaign. Supplementary to them, however, was another not less infamous. It was a grand conspiracy to raise the values of all the necessaries of life and to charge that inflation to the new Republican tariff bill. In order to enjoy the spoils of office they undertook to create a condition of the market whereby the people would be shamelessly swindled out of hundreds of thousands of dollars. This conspiracy has failed, and its failure has doomed the Democratil party to defeat in next Tuesday's elections. The manufacturers and merchants of America were too wise and too honest for the sake of temporary gains to allow themselves to serve as the tool of the Democratio party in inflicting upon the people such a colossal outrage. It is the reaction against this conspiracy that has confirmed to the Republican party its title to public confidence. The people have found that the Democracy, through its various agents on the stump and in the public press, was lying to them about the new tariff bill, its provisions and its effects, and they have been studying the bill for themselves. They have found that the principles which governed its construction are those and only those to which the country is indebted for the unparalelled presperity it has been enjoying since the war. They have found that the principles which governed its construction are those and only those to which they have be on the retofore applied. Withdrawing from the dutiable list practically everything that we cannot produce with our own resources. The people have discovered that the new law is not going to cause a rise of prices or any business disturbances, and they perceive that it is going to create larger and better markets for our own farmers. To build up many new industries, to give employment to thousands of workmen now idle or insufficiently occupied, and to maintain the present high rate of America wages.

We urge the people to consider carefully the significance of a vote next Tuesday in favor of a Democratic candidate for Congress. No Republican can afford, as h mentary to them, however, was another not less infamous. It was a grand conspiracy t

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. POTTSVILLE, October 31 .- Ex-Governor Pattison and Chairman James Kerr arrived in this city to-night, and were present at a mass meeting that proved to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Schuylkill county. An immense crowd of people were from the towns within a radius of 20 miles, and as all were anxious to see and hear the Democratic leader it was necessary to organize several overflow meetings, at each of which the ex-Governor was accorded an ovation. The more prominent of the speakers at the several meetings were ex-Senator Wallace, Robert E. Wright, W. S. Stenger, Captain Barelay, Chauncey F. Black and J. B.

Mr. Pattison managed to make a short address at each of the meetings, and his re-marks were received with the greatest en-thusiasm. Captain Barclay and Mr. Black were also received with every evidence o good feeling. Chairman Kerr was busy all the evening receiving reports from various sections of the county, and he said that, after talking with many conservative and well-informed Democrats, he was satisfied that Schuylkill county would give Pattison at least 2,500 majority.

They were met by the Third Brigade Band, a delegation of citizens, and after a short parade up Center street they proceeded to Armory Hall, where a large meeting was held. In the course of his speech Mr. Delamater said: "My opponent has presented no issue except slander, vituperation and lies.' Shortly after the meeting Delamater and his party left Pottsville on a special train for Birdsboro, arriving there at 5:30. The special passed through Reading about 5 o'clock. The party were met at Birdsboro by a committee and band and escorted to Brookehall, where a reception was held and speeches delivered. The party returned to their train at 7:25 and left for here arriving at 8:20. The Gubernatorial candidate was warmly received here, and later on ad-dressed a large and enthusiastic meeting.

CLERGY TAKE A HAND IN THE FIGHT

TOPEKA, October 31 .- Never in the hisory of Kansas have the people been so thoroughly aroused on the temperance question as now. The recent decision of the United States District Court declaring the present prohibitory law null and void, has created an indignation among the temperance people which is confined only by the borders of the State.

It came in the midst of a spirited campaign and has materially changed the situation. Before the decision was published original package houses had opened in this city, but they were stocked with the goods which had been stored when the Wilson bill became a law. Immediately these houses were opened in all the princi-pal towns and cities of the State, and to-day they can be counted by the hundreds.

In several places the indignation was so intense that package dealers refused to enter into the business for lear of violence. The greater portion of the goods shipped into Kansas came from Kansas City, Mo. Nearly every large liquor dealer of that city has agents traveling over the State establishing agents traveling over the State establishing houses. They require the local agent to furnish a bond of $2,000 before he receives his goods, and at no time is his indebtedness allowed to exceed that amount.

When this decision was rendered many appeals were made to Governor Humphrey to call the Legislature together and re-enact the prohibitory law. Prominent Republi-cans and Prohibitionists, however, declared this would be bad policy, because it would remove one-half the incentive to rally at the polls on the 4th of November and elect a new Legislature which would re-enact the present law. This would also aid Senator Ingalls, who expects a re-election at the hands of the next Legislature. The Republican party was glad to make the Issue of prohibition, and at once acphasized by a judicial opinion, that none but the most stupid can fail to recognize its significance, or determine its meaning. It means rum holes without legal restraint, against wholesome laws controlling and prohibiting the manufacture, use and sale of intoxicating liquors. It is the issue of home and temperance, against whisky, lawlessness and crime. The galiant Republicans of Kansas must fight this battle alone. It is the only party organization in the State that can be relied on to protect the home of the citizen against the vile influences of the rumsellers. No material aid can be expected from the People's narty. The State Alliance was in session at Topeka when the Federal judges rendered a decision in favor of free whisky, and five times they suppressed a resolution denouncing that inflamous decision. The Republican party of the State, true to its convictions, and in accordance with the law of its origin, naturally assumes the guardianship of the dearest and best interests of the people of this State.

The Republican party is for prohibition and against whisky in any form or disguise. We had rather be right on this great question than win a victory. If success comes to our banners, it must come hand-in-hand with the most vigance, against whisky, lawlessness and crime. had rather be right on this great question than win a victory. If success comes to our banners, it must come hand-in-hand with the most vig-orous beneficial prohibitory legislation. The election of Republican State officers and a Re-publican Legislature means prohibition, pure and simple. The election of the Demo-Resub-mission ticket means free whisky. Following this the clergy of Topeka, in their regular weekly ministerial union meeting, prepared an address to the clergy overwhelming majorities. There can be no doubt of the outcome of the election now at hand if this supreme issue is kept steadily in view. It will not do to ignore it. A grievous mistake will be made if a blind partisanship is allowed to keep out of sight the supreme importance of this burning question.

The duty of the hour is plain. A great moral issue, overshadowing all merely political ends, is boldly thrown into the arena. Christian men should accept the challenge thus boldly thrown down. Every pulpit in the State should be ablaze on this issue until the 4th of November. It is not a political question to be discussed, but high, moral principles. Effortsteady, energetic and persistent—should be made to unite all opponents of the saloon. Our laws prohibiting the traffic in intoxicating liquors must be re-enacted. A Legislature and Governor, therefore, of known sympathy with this movement must be elected. Within the two or three months between this date and the miesting of the Legislature, the "original package" houses, with no possible legal restraint, will become intrenched in the State. We must, therefore, elect prosecuting attorneys throughout the State who are in sympathy with the spirit of prohibition to wage over again, and for the third time, for the people, the war of extermination against the saloon. In this contest appeals will again

A POLITICAL ISSUE.

The Democratic theory is that whisky, like slavery, is protected by the Constitution of the United States. They claim that the Wilson bill is unconstitutional. They claim that the statutes of the State, prohibiting the manu-facture, sale and use of intoxicating liquors, is without life and vigor, because not re-enacted since the passage of the Wilson bill. A Democratic court has just decided the latter proposi tion in their favor. Whisky, like slavery, finds its last refuge in a Democratic Interpretation of the Constitution of our fathers. The recent of the Constitution of our fathers. The recent exposition of the law by the Federal judges narrows the issues in this campaign down to a struggle between Prohibition and free whisky. The voters in the State who have been impressed with the idea that a revenue should be derived from the unholy traffic in liquor, find that even this poor consolation is denied them by the Federal judiciary.

The sweeping terms of the opinion allow the original package saloon to run with open doors in every city, town and village in the State, without libense, without revenue, without local interference and without judicial control. The same court has forbidden the Sheriff and Country Attorney of Shawnee county to make any investigation as to whether or not the original package saloons are conducting their nefarlous busness in accordance with the judicial opinions that create them. The good recole of the business in accordance with the judicial opin-ions that create them. The good people of this State have their hands tied by these infamous decisions, and the rum sellers fondly imagine that they can so manage, control and debauch the voters of this State on the day of the elec-tion as to prevent the election of members of our part legislature who will respect our tion as to prevent the election of members of our next Legislature who will re-enact our present prohibitory statutes. They will now change their tactics. You will hear but little more about resubmission. Their scheme will now be to elect a House that will prevent all legislation to meet the demands of the Federal edict. They do not now want resubmission. The Federal judges have given them a "better thing." They will now seek to continue "free whisky" for all time to come. They will not meet the issue boidly. They will deny that they are for free whisky. They will conduct a "bushwhacking" campaign in every Representative district. They will resort to every expedient to deceive voters as to the true issue.

The vital issue of this campaign is now made so clear by the declarations made at the Demo-cratic and Resubmission Conventions, and emdistricts and 1 superintendent. Kansas. The "original package" houses are again open under the decision of the United States Circuit Court. Worse still, if that decision is final, the laws of Kansas under which the liquor saloon is made a nuisance and an outlaw, are null and void so far as regards the sale of intoxicants in the original package. It is impossible to obtain relief under the con-stitution and laws, except in two di-rections—appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, appeal may be made to the people of the Common-wealth. Immediate steps should be taken in both directions. We believe that the people of the State favor the prohibition of saloons by overwhelming majorities. There can be no doubt of the outcome of the election now at

gress and State Prohibitory Laws Valid-This Settles the Question Until the Supreme Court Passes Upon It. LITTLE ROCK, October 31 .- The opinion of Judge Caldwell, of the United States Circuit Court, in the original package case of H. M. Vanvliet, of Iows, was filed to-day. The Court holds that the act of Congress and the laws of the State are valid. The following are some of the saliant points

"It will be observed that by the terms of

in the opinion:

Judge Caldwell Pronounces the Act of Con-

the act of Congress the original package, upon arrival in the State, is put on the same feeting with liquors produced in the State. Now, there never was any question that the laws of Iowa prohibited the sale of tiquor roduced in the State, and that the laws for his purpose were constitutional. These laws were in full force at the date of the passing of the act of Congress, and that act having in legal effect abolished original packages on their arrival within the State by placing them on the same footing with liquor produced withthe same footing with liquor produced within the State, they are as much amenable to the State law as if they had never existed in the form of original packages. Congress regulates inter-State commerce, but not intra-State commerce. It may regulate com-merce among the States, but not in the States. The State may regulate purely intra-State, but not inter-State, commerce.

"The act protects the inter-State transportation of liquor until its arrival in the State where the transit is to end and no longer. Upon its arrival in the State the act of Congress declares that it shall be subject to the laws of the State. It is said the Supreme Court declared these laws to be unconstitutional in so far as they prohibited the sale of liquors in original to this contention. The first is the act of liquor on its arrival in the State to the laws of the State, passed in the exercise of its police powers, and there is not now, nor ever has een, any doubt of the validity of those laws. It is not the laws of the State, but the original package that is dead."
