

"The Reals of Beauty" indeed and the realm of wit as well can be said of Pittsburg and Allegheny society events. The drawing rooms and reception halls of the nitra tashionable of the two cities have been the scene of many a little encounter between gullant men and witty ladies, and usually with the result that the ladies come off the field victorious. One who has entree into the society of the wealthy of the Iron City will some learn that the ladies are the better read, and can talk usually more intelli-men of Federal street, and in fact the majority gontly than the gentlemen on the affairs of those in the club have some business con-the times daily chronicled in the papers, as well as the latest novel or theatrical success.

discussing the present State campaign-not in the languid way that is commonly supposed to characterize ladies of leisure, but a stormy, spirited discussion that would have done house to some of those who can "vote as they talk." Nor were they "female sufelther. They were perfectly willing to allow their husbands to do the voting, wen if they do know as much about the nerely because of the oft-repeated stories of notifing but fashion," when the fact is that the ladies are no core taken with "fashion and dross talk" than are the men.

A Change of Name.

But to change the subject, the past week was one continual round of social pleasures in which the marriage bells chimed forth merry music, telling of the course of lives changed from the rocky road of single bussedness to that happy way of matrimount briss. It has demonstrated the fact had marriage cannot and never will be a llowed to take its natural course and where Pretty home weddings and elegant murch weddings as well engrossed the atsotion of the movers in social circles dur-

Brides radiant and beautiful always, brow off the old name and take on the new cheer durie. Their happy smiles illuminate all in their presence, and the confirmed old beshelors present are compelled to go away is one corner by themselves for fear of being driven to madness—or better, to matrimony, tonce heard a saying that every bride made is a more, for young men, seeing the result of a triend's experiment, "go and do like-wise," Missouria Hague, Sadie Scott and Bessie Lane, of Allegheny; Annie Rabenstein, Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Annie Rabenstein Menter to Brushton; Clara and Maggie Weachter, of Allegheny; Annie Wiblie, of Kittaming; Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Annie Wiblie, of Kittaming; Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Annie Wiblie, of Kittaming; Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Stepheny; Annie Wiblie, of Kittaming; Mame and Lizzie Roeder, of Allegheny; Viola Stepheny; Annie Roeder, of Allegheny; Annie Roeder testivities of the six days. Beautiful little and very valuable presents there was an elegant supper served. The father of Mrs. Gold made a very pleasing speech, followed by Mrs. city were to be found more informal "at Cook and the host, making the evening one to ular every year, and slowly but surely the tag receptions and balls are being swept in private residences to the elegant social able to give a grand reception and treat each | ing. it being the occasion of the reception given ment. Hundreds of people spent their Halloween at these little gatherings, where corld is growing old-tashioned, and in no department more than the social department. Our grandiathers and grandmothers enjoyed themselves at the same kind of a Hall oween party as that which characterized Platsburg's celebration of that event.

The Week's Receptions.

A WEEK'S GLEANINGS.

Doings of the Social World of Pittsburg and Allegheny. One of the most charming weddings of the Goodman, of Haysville, Pa. The hostess was seek was that of hiss Maggie Lamb, youngest the recipient of several very handsome prescanguer of Mr. and Mrs. William Lamb, of Allegueny, and Mr. Harry E. Geissenhainer, of Pictsburg. The beautiful and impressive Epis-copal ceremony took place at the Grace Rethe pastor, Rev. Mr. Prugh, officiating. The bride, who is a very bandsome young lady of the brunette style of beauty, with brown eyes feathers and gloves to match, completed her rawding todes. She wore no ornament except a diamond pin, the gift of the groom, Miss Lamb is a rawer of Mr. Charles Lamb, of the Pittsburg Tube Works, and of Mr. George insult, superintendent of Spang & Chalfant's axed works. The groom is a handsome and popular young business man of Pittsburg and very prominent in musical sircles. Four ushers, Messrs, Charles and Will Lamb, brothers of the bride; Mr. John freischninger the groom's brother, and Mr. present Pov. Pruch and wife, Miss Lizzie Bell, of Columbiana, O.; Mr. Will Lynch, of Pitts-burg: Mr. C. C. Barker and daughters Lottie

Hallowern was made pleasant to the great number of guests at the surprise party tendered Mr. Cyrus S. Youngson at his residence, ener of Wylie avenue and Vine street. The special features of the evening were the charming vocal solos with which Miss Carrie Terrant, so well known as "Comrade Joe," of the G. A. delighted the crowd, and the no less enter-ning instrumental music furnished by the isses Naonie and Magrie Watson, Emma ddilagron and Mesers, Gant, Coughlin and J. Youngson, Jr. When at last the gay asthis city and Allegheny: Misses Nannie Wat-son, Maggie Watsun, Carrie Terrant, Jeane Nelson, Maggie Crawford, Mattle Booth, Sadie Hines, Emma Boddington, Ella Youngson, Zetta Early, Maggie Minnick, Lillian Foringer, Mary and Sadie Brokaw, Anna Zimmerman; Messes, Cytus Youngson, J. H. Parker, H. Messes, Frank Stedelord, Jim Stedeford, Irish,

J. Booth, Davis Martin, W. P. Hubbard, James Dinwiddie, Bob Coughlin, Robert and Samuel Chalfant, Bert Grazier, Florence Hill, John G. Minnick, John Gant, James B. Woods, Simon S. Riley, George Stewart, H. B. Riley, Will Finnerty and Wesley W. Crawford,

The ladies who have in charge the bazaar to Newsboys' Home, have completed the arrangements, and it promises not only to be a picasant but a profitable affair as well. The tea and chocolate room will be back of the platform and will be decorated a la Japanese. It will be in charge of Mrs. John Albree. The fancy table will be in the center of the room in charge of Mrs. H. Darlington. Following are the other tables and booths, their color and the lady in charge: Doil table, yellow, Mrs. F. P. Sproul; lemonade booth, blue, Mrs. C. A. Painter; news stand, pink, Miss Patti Laughlan; art booth, green, Mrs. Walter McCord; candy table, lavender, Mrs. Thomas M. McKee, Chairman; toy table, red. Mrs. George P. Hamilton; flower table, white, Mrs. C.L. Magee; second fancy table, yellow, Mrs. R. H. Leaky; scales and phonograph, old pink, Miss R. Patters, ice cream room, white, Mrs. J. D. Carson; isb pond, Mrs. Kramer. Mr. N. Patterson, the Sixth avenue florist, has kindly offered to furnish all the plants and to decorate the fish pond. Mr. E. L. H. Dabbs has photographed a number of the newshoys belonging to the home, and will furnish as many copies as can be sold as his donation to the bazaar. The photographs will be for sale at the news stand. John R. and A. Murdoch have also volunteered to assist in the floral decorations. The ladies wish it understood that there will be no chancing nor raffling at the bazaar. but a profitable affair as well. The tea and raffling at the bazaar, Allegheny has a new club that promises to take a prominent place in the social affairs of that city. The organization is to be known as the Federal Club, and comes into existence with 25 members. The membership roll bears is located at No. 101 Arch street, and contains well as the latest novel or theatrical success.

Nothing passes them, and, in fact, they seem to have even a keener conception of the probabilities of the future than do the men.

Even polities doesn't escape their eye, and the other day I heard two well-known ladies and erect a clubhouse. Following are the officers.

and erect a clubiodise, Foliating certs:

President, J. C. Parker, bookkeeper for James Anderson, the plumber; Vice President, W. C. Esterline, of Black & Baird's office; Secretary, H. M. Thompson, local manager for Hance Bros. & White, of Philadelphia; Treasurer, E. K. Harrison, toy dealer; Directors, A. J. Gilliland, gent's furnisher; B. P. Welsh, manager of Heck's Park drug store; A. G. Duncan, retired merchant.

Mr. Lewis Bentz was taken by surprise at his home on Ann street Thursday evening by a gay crowd of his friends who surrounded the house, and with a band of music called him out. Among the guests were Misses Mamie Hays, Katie Hays, Maggie Nugent, Katie Nugent, Emma Knight, Ida Kober, Clara Schrepper, Lizzie Snyder, Mollie Rimmel, Emma Gueth, Katle Raeger, Emma Staffer, Gertrude Bentz, and Messrs. George Barr, Benjamin White-bead, Henry Blum, George Knight, Charles Schuchman, Frank O'Brien, Lewis Bentz, William Hemingray, Frank Bown, Henry Knorr and George Bentz. An elegant supper was served by Mrs. Bentz and Mrs. Miller. The features of the evening were the recitation. was served by Mrs. Bentz and Mrs. Allier.
The features of the evening were the recitation of "Bernardo del Carpia," given by Miss Maggie Nugent and the recitation of "Incidents of 98," given by Miss Katle Hays. The music was furnished by the Logan and Bilverman Mandolin Quartet. At a late hour the band played "Home, Sweet Home," and home all went.

Dancing furnished the principal feature of a most pleasant surprise party tendered Mrs. Tuesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Calverley, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmer, of Brushton; Misses Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmer, of Brushton; Misses Misseuria Hague, Sadie Scott and Bessie Lane,

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gold. of Locust street. Al-The Week's Receptions.

Receptions also had a large place in the Tuesday evening. After the reception of many homes" than during any week of the present season. What can be more enjoyable than the little receptions given to a dozen or so of the most intimate friends? Then the cloak of formality may be thrown off and the gurst and host settle down to the splendid enjoyments of the evening.

These little affairs are becoming more popular every year, and siowly but surely the

New Turner Hall was beautifulle decorated with cut flowers and hot plants Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of the reception given by the Chelsea Ciub. There were about 170 couples in attendance. The club has been organized for about six years and has for its members some of the best known young men in the city, some of whom are O. A. Frommer, D. A. S. Warden, H. J. Eberle, Fred Mugele, O. Hennig, L. C. Dittler, O. H. Elliott, Wm. Kalkohi, R. Armstrong, E. P. Mechling, G. S. Wilson, Wm. Westwater, James J. White, Wm. B. North, F. J. Eberle, L. F. Bruff, Walter W. Andrews, Louis C. Scott, H. W. Reynolds, C. W. Shannon, J. B. Westwater, Tames J. P. Williams, S. F. Foley, Joseph Smith, W. J. Wilson.

The Misses Exlers, of Boyle street, Alle gheny, entertained a number of their friends unify-pulling and nut cracking were the on Tuesday evening last. Among those pres O'Neil, Annie Woods and Stella and Kate Exter, and Messra H. Linn, — Kirkpatrick, J. P. Keily, Joseph Lang, James McIntosh, A. Payton, H. Aland, — Denny and J. C. Woods, Euchre was the source of amusement from 8:30 until 10:30, after which the guests adjourned to the dining-room and partook of the elaborate luncheon prepared by the hostess. After luncheon the Misses O'Neil, Kirkpatrick and Exier and Messrs. Linn, McIntosh and Aland rendered some very fine instrumental

> One of the most pleasant events of the week was a birthday party given by Miss Blanch Goodman, of Haysville, Pa. The hostess was ents. Dancing and euchre were the evening's ents. Dancing and enchre were the evening's amusements. Following were those present: Misses Sallie Bronson, Lizzie Bronson, May Wentz, Nannie Wentz, Kate Wentz, Mand Sibert, Maggie Fetters, Carrie Palmer, Hattie Palmer, Sallie Palmer, Jessie Brown, Maggie Goeghenaghen, Hattie Givens, Kate Berington, Mamie Berington, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Berington, Mr. and Mrs. William Gardener, Mrs. Morris Whalen, Mrs. Bert Conner, Mrs. James McCelland, Mrs. Robert Wentz, Mr. Adair, Mr. Huff, Herbert Dailey, Harry Mong.

> A very enjoyable party was given by Miss Florence Shepard to her many friends last Wednesday evening. Among those present were: Misses Bertha Hauch, Annie Weinberg. Margaret Crawford, Gertie Glover, Sadie Margaret Crawford, Gertie Giover, Sadie Miller, Jennie Grimm, Jonnie McCaffrey, Alice Lemon, Edith Moorehead, Georgia Anderson, Lida Barr, Lucy Roberts, Lizzie Ostrich, Lila shush, Leonora Kennedy, Minnie Morgan, Marsha Megan, Daisy Miller, Mary Steveson, Messra Charlie Schwarts, Saul Susman, Oliver Stofflinger, Harry Keidel, Joseph Marshall Morris Baer, Frank Westerman, Willie Wal lace, Frank Green, Charley Kennedy, Frank Thuma, David Ackle, E. Eves, Ted Manning Harry Getman, William Henderson, Cummings, Harry Bennet, Charles Nelso

A very pleasant surprise party was held in honor of G. A. Douglass on Friday evening, at his residence, No. 167 Irwin avenue, Allegheny, Among the many present were Mr. and Mrs. Among the many present were Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Alston, Misses Thompson, Hettie Hall, Ella Douglass, Mary Conley, Annie Connolly, Mary Ferguson, Magzie Comley, Messrs. F. McCoy, Jr., Charles Daily, H. C. Comley, Napoleon James, Joseph Gamble, George Douglass, Wm. G. Hohmann, George S. Comley, Frank Connolly, Florence Schrader, Samuel Buchanna. The music was furnished by the Harper Orchestra.

On Thursday evening, at the residence of the brides parents on Second avenue, Homestead, occurred the marriage of Miss Maggie Davis occurred the marriage of Miss Maggie Davis and Mr. David Rogers, two of the best known young society people of Homestead. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Davis, of Pennsylvania. Many and elegant were the presents. A sumptuous banquet was served. The formality of a wedding tour was dispensed with. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers went to house-keeping in a beautiful home all ready prepared for them on Fifth avenue, Homestead.

An enjoyable birthday party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Welsh Thursday evening in honor of their niece, Ella Sing-

Fulmer, Welsh, Horner, Mackert, O'Rourke and Moles and Dr. Warne.

One of the most pleasant Halloween part was the one held at the residence of Miss Ada Carey, Manhattan street, Allegheny. Dancing was the feature of the evening. During the evening refreshments were served. Among evening refreshments were served. Among those present were: The Misses Anna Robertson, Emma Wilson, Maggie Nightingale, Bessie Camp, Kate Leech, Millie Fisher, Pauline Myers, Mary Baker, Annie Toomey, Jennette Robertson, Jennie Leech, Inlu Muller, Adda Cherry, Birdie Freshwater, Sydney Boyd, Annie Leech and Messra, John Caskey, Sam Till, Ed. Nightingale, Chris Knaur, George Connor, Will Forsythe, Clare Gould, Jim Stewart, Harry Shriver, Sol Connor, James Toomey, Harry Beaver, John Havill, Andy Buchanan, Dave Killinger and Tom Boyd.

An old time Halloween party, given at the suburban residence of Mrs. Laura Vandevort, was one of the most successful events of the season. Among those present were Misses Hattie Shepherd, of Marshall county, W. Va., Blanche Thackeray, Mame Cutler, Katle Kearns, Anna Wooster, Eva Burt, Jennie Kearns, Anna Wooster, Eva Burt, Jennie White, Jennie Vaudevort, Violet Vandevort, Rebecca Dunstan, Mrs. John G. Forster and dauchter Florence, Messrs. Elmer Parker, of Sharpsburg; Will Ford, Ross Foster, Will Laune, Joseph Johnson, Chris Johnson, Charles Haudeushield, Harry Mohlman, Tom White, George Kearns, Sam Smith, Prof. Stebic, of Braddock, and Bernard Johnson. Music was furnished by the Manchester Troubadors, Messrs. Alf Brown, Jim Rothmer and Will Hadfield.

A merry Halloween party was given at the residence of Miss Florence Stevenson, 89 Page street, under the auspices of the Y. M. L. and S. C. Music, under the direction of Mr. Walter S. C. Music, under the direction of Mr. Walter Wright, and dancing were the enjoyable features of the evening. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served. Those present were as follows: Misses Ada Lowe, of Brushton, Blanche Mitchell, Mary Sorrel, Ida Hilton, Rida Johnson, Ida Woodyerd, Lizzte Ball, Dora Bond, Ada Cain, Anna Bartholomew and Laura Jones, Messrs, Edward Johnson, Howard Hill, Jacob Proctor, Ed Randalls, Caleb Hankley, James Tallaferro, Louis Woodson, Walter Billows, Johu Graves. Howard Holland, George Elliot and Granville Googins.

Progressive eucher formed the feature of one of the most enjoyable parties of the week. It was given at the residence of Mr. J. Puder, East End, in honor of Miss Josephine Kremer, of Wheeling, W. Va. Those present were Misses Mary and Sophia Kremer, Anna and Misses Mary and Sophia Kremer, Anna and Rosa Wangrin, Mary Cornyn, Emma Schellbach, Annie and Minnie Puder, Annie Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Messrs. J. C. Gallery, Ben Derr. John Scherer, Theodore Haren, George Jacobs, H. A. Schaub, H. Schellbach, Jonn McNally, Henry Charles. Miss Josephine Kremer and John Jacobs won the first prires. Mr. B. Derr was lucky enough to win the booby. Refreshments were served.

The Misses Kirk gave a Halloween party in the old Scottish style at their home on Esplanade street, Allegheny. A most enjoyable tions were the features of the evening. An tions were the features of the evening. An elegant supper was served at midnight, Among those present were Misses Whittaker, Corry; Miss Hare, East End; Miss Douglas, Mr. Mingo Douglas and Mr. Edwards, Braddock; Mr. Dunseath, Jeannette, Pa.; Mr. George Weir, Jr., Sharpsburg, Pa., and their many friends in Pittsburg and Allegheny.

Miss Lizzie Davis, of No. 87 Sampson street, Allegheny, was tendered a most pleasant sur-prise on Wednesday evening. Among those present were Misses Sadie Herron, Minnie present were Misses Sadie Herron, Minnie Wheeler, Magrie Leaster, Ollie Cashdollar, Luiu Charles, Minnie Jones, Sarah and Lucy Howarth, Maud Riley, Lizzie Davis, Emma and Josie Brown, Messrs. Tommy Boyd, Charlie Park, A. Brose, Dan Brown, W. Wertig, Walter Davis, Frank Smith, H. Baird, A. Kimmell, Frank Sipes, G. Maxwell, Will and Norman Davis.

There was considerable change on that lonely street named Omaha, on Mt. Washington, Friday evening, when a crowd of young friends assembled at the residence of Mr. Rollins, and a Halloween party was given. The guests as a Halloween party was given. The guess as follows enjoyed themselves very much and re-turn thanks to Miss Mary Francis, who sent out the invitations: Misses Emma Scott, Hodkin-son, Dean, Rollins, Tranum, Alice Francis, Messra, Wm. Cetchna, W. Hodkinson, James Wise, M. McGrogan and C. McGrogan.

A very pleasant Halloween party was given Among those who were present were Misses Minnie Robinson, May Edgar, Annie Scook, Allie Robinson, May Edgar, Annie Scook, Allie Robinson, Emma Robinson, Mrs. Pixley,
Mrs. Gray, Messrs. John Jenkins, Charles
Smith, Will Scott, Dr. Miller, Harry Robinson, George Porter, Gilbert Goleman, Joseph Weir,
William Such, Thomas Brook, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reber.

Among the most enjoyable events on Holloween was a surprise party held at the residence of Cyrus Youngson, of Wylie avenue. Among of Cyrus Youngson, of Wylle avenue. Among those who enjoyed a very pleasant evening were the Misses Sadie and Mollie Brokaw, the Misses Watson Zimmerman, Bodington, Booth, Minick, Crawford, Early, Heinz, Nelson and Youngson, and Messrs. Stewart, Simeoz Riley, Crawford, Wood, Hubbard, Henry Riley, Minick, Hill, Dinwoodie, Booth, Parker, Cochran, Gant, Chalfant and Martin.

On Monday evening a birthday reception was her grandmother, Mrs. Cozade, No. 8045 Penn her grandmother, Mrs. Cozade, No. 3945 Penn avenue. Dancing, card playing and Halma were the features of the evening. At 12 a sumptuous lunch was served. Among those present were the Missea Ableys, Gemmel, Armstrong. Spratt, Hunter, Holland, Nevergold and Keally, Messrs. W. Ed. Keally, McAdams, Nevergold, Armstrong, Al. and Will Keally, Gemmel Cunningham.

Cards have been issued by Mr. Joseph Walton, the well-known coal dealer, for the mar-riage of his accomplished daughter, Miss Nelriage of his accomplished daughter, Miss Nel-lie, and Mr. James Wood, son of Theodore Wood and grandson of the late James Wood, which is to occur on Tuesday evening, Novem-bdr 18, at 9 o'clock, at the North Avenue M. E. Church of Allegheny. Preparations are being made for a grand wedding. Both the young people are well known in the highest social circles.

A pleasant evening was spent at the residence of J. V. Wilson, Superior avenue, Halloween. Among those present were: Misses Dolly Cochran, Pearl Casly, Lizzie Bron, Blanch Davis, of New Castle, Mame Busha, Lizzie Elcessor, Lola Elcessor, Emma Wilson, Marietts Wilson, Messers, Sprung, Reed, Morgan, Salter Cochran, McLophyla, Chumping, Wilson, Sellers, Cochran, McConbrie, Cumming, Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Cumming. Dancing was the feature of the evening.

The little people of the Arch Street Sunday school are determined that their new church shall be paid for. They will be busy little bees until the end is accomplished, and they are making great preparations for a pleasing en-tertainment they call "Modern Mirth and Music," to be given in the church Tuesday evening next. They expect to please a large audience.

The Center Avenue Shakespeare Club were entertained on Halloween by Miss Katy Ford, at her home, corner of Wylie avenue and Greene street. Misses Louisa and Wilkie Slagle, Emma and Allie Dicken, Miss Maggie Steen, of Mansfield, Miss Cook and Masters Frank Hodkinson, Guy McDandless, Howard Johnson, Edward Balkan and John Floyd were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

Rev. George Robinson, who was lately called to the pastorate of the Emsworth Presbyterian Church, was greeted on Tuesday evening by about 25 of the young people of the congregation. It was quite a surprise to the pastor, who went home to find his study filled with young people. Music and elegant refreshments were the features.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stoebener celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage on Friday evening. The presents were numerous and elegant. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Stoebener, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stoebener, E. G. Stoebener, Mr. and Mrs. George Friedman, Masters George, Henry and Willie Stoebener.

The Palmyra Social has been organized with the following officers: Evan Bauley, President; M. Feldman, Vice President; D. Rosenthal, Secretary; T. Hazlett, Treasurer. Its object ial entertainment. 'Squire J. G. Rolshouse, of McCandless township, has returned from an extended European tour, during which he visited his old home in Germany. He also made short stops in France and England. Miss Mary C. Taggart, of Taylor avenue, Allegheny, entertained a number of her friends very handsomely on Tuesday evening, in honor of her friend, Miss Mary Brownlee, of Paisley, Miss May Blaney, of the Southside, entertained a small number of friends on Halloween

With such a pretty and genial hostess the affair was a success. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crouch, of Washington Pa., leave for their Western trip to Colorado, California and other points on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Schmid are "at home" to their friends at their pleasant residence at Chartlers.

BIJOU THEATER..... "The Bottom of the Sea" GRAND OPERA HOUSE... "The Great Metropolis" HABRIS' THEATER. ... Woman Against Woman" . The Bottom of the Sea VORLD'S MUSEUM......Curiosities, Etc. The above are the theatrical attractions

It cannot be said that the general run of attractions this season at our principal theaters has been satisfactory in an artistic sense. The managers are contented with the pecuniary results, but a large portion of the theater-going public has been practically debarred from theatrical amusement by the prevalence of trashy farce comedy, cheap sensational melodrama, variety, veiled and naked, and spectacular revivals of a thirdrate order. THE DISPATCH has received many complaints upon this score, and they emphasize the need here for a theater that shall deal in finer dramatic wares.

At the same time it must be admitted that better things are promised us in the future at both Grand Opera House and Bijou, and the Duquesne Theater is being hurried forward so rapidly that it can be counted now as one of the factors in the situation, and it goes without saying that the new theater to succeed must cater to the element in Pittsburg that appreciates plays and players of the best sort.

By a typographical error in a news paragraph last week "The Great Metropolis" was described in THE DISPATCH as bloodthirsty, which is very different from what was intended, namely, bloodcurdling. The latter adjective ed, namely, bloodcording. The latter adjective is frequently applied to melodrama in a favorable sense, and it is tolerably certain that "The Great Metropolis" will justify its use in this instance, but in view of the unfortunate conversion of bloodcordling into bloodchirsty, it may be added that the attraction at the Grand Opera House this week promises to be a melodrama strong in scenic features and novel sensations.

The popular success of "A Straight Tip" cannot be denied. The novelty of the race course as a background for variety specialties, of which "A Straight Tip" is made up, and the cleverness of the whole company, with the cen-tral comicality of Mr. Powers bimself, account for the crowded houses the Bijou enjoyed all for the crowded houses the Bijou enjoyed and the week. The bad points of the performance have been clearly indicated in THE DISPATCH, and nothing more need be said upon this score. It has been suggested that this journal was in error when it stated that some of the jokes in "A Straight Tip" were entitled to respect on account of their age. Perhaps it would be more in accordance with the truth to say that a great many jokes in "A Straight Tip" were not respectable at all.

A correspondent writes with regard to an other New York production: " 'The Last Word,' an adaptation by Mr. Augustin Daly, from the German of Franz von Schontau, was produced n Tuesday. Mr. Daly's new play is almost an emotional drama, with a strong plot of love and Nihilism and human interest. Probably such of tickets placed at $1 for the entire series it a plot in a theater devoted almost entirely to light comedy would not have succeeded in the this course are every one of a high order of hands of the majority of Mr. Daly's players But the reality phenomenal acting of Miss Rehan in the character of a Russian Baroness changed what promised to be a disaster into a most brilliant triumph. In this latest produc-tion Ada Rehan rose to a height of dramatic tion Ada Behan rose to a height of dramatic power that she has never before displayed. The play opened with a ballroom scene, which was the most perfect representation of such an event that has been seen in New York. The persons on the stage were dressed and looked like ladies and gentlemen; they all talked at once in that bysterioally mirthful tone which obtains between this and the next waltz, and so natural was the movement on the stage and the apparent obliviousness to the audience that one felt as if he stumbled into a private house without an invitation."

Whatever may be said of the worthlessness of farce comedy as art, and its evil effect upon the stage to-day, it must becognized that Mr. Charles H. Hoyt's plays continue to be the best of this kind. "A Texas Steer," his latest work, is receiving unusually serious and favorable consideration, and the Boston Globe has deemed it worthy of an editorial in which this passage occurs: "The follies and iniquities of Congressional life are satirized with a keenness of wit that of itself would make the play a remarkable one. The humor and drollery of the situations are worked out with consummate skill. In Maverick Brander the American stage has, we think, gained a character to the full as salient, strong and raoy as any of the famous comedy characters which our native authors have given us. It will take rank easily in the same class with Colonel Sellers, Hon. Bardwell Slote, and other immortal creations." work, is receiving unusually serious and favor -

In New York last week two or three plays of some importance were produced. In "Reckless Temple" Maurice Barrymore made his ap-pearance as a star under the management of pearance as a star under the management of the sly Mr. J. M. Hill at the Standard Theater. Barrymore is an interesting young man, with a face that a great many people insist on likening to a Greek god's, who is more famous for his Bohemian escapades and athletic feats than for serious dramatic effort. The criticisms upon "Reckless Temple" in the New York papers would seem to indicate that Mr. Barrymore has tried to exploit his athletic and Bohemian traits in a drawa with rather dreary results. The play deals with a very uncertain quantity called St. Louis society, and shows Barrymore in all the glory of black hair, whitened at the sides (Do we not remember him in the same guise supporting the unspeakable Laugtry at the Opera House?) making long speeches and doing ridiculous things to prove Bohemianusm is a blessing and "society" in St. Louis and elsewhere a curse. The New York papers agree that "Reckless Temple" is not worthy of serious criticism. Mr. Winter, in the Tribune, says: "There is not a particle of nature or sense in this story, and the social incidents of the play are silly and ludicrous."

The rage for dancing of the unconventional sort still keeps up in New York, and the theaters are bidding against each other with all sorts of Spanish and other dances, chiefly remarkable for the high kicking and postoring they entail. Carmeneta has lots of rivais now. Otero is at the Eden Musee; another Spanish dancer kicks over the congruities and whiris in modern dress before Nero at Niblo's; Miss Edith Keuward injects wonderful life into a farce at the Madison Garden theater with her agile limbs, and Miss Sadle Martinot in the same piece—"Dr. Bill"—last week sought to win favor with a Spanish fandango, which, however, did not compare favorably, it is said, with the bold, lace-breaking, fascinating steps of Miss Kenward's so-called "Kangaroo" dance, Another of the sensational dancers now stirring jaded New Yorkers is Miss Amelia Glover, "the little fawn," who showed Pittsburgers a great deal of herself in a dance incidental to "The City Directory."

All these young women are receiving big salaries for their gymnastic and terpsichorean exercises, far beyond the $25 a week of the first-class ballet girl and even the $150 that a premiere danseuse usually gets for a week's ironatting and prancing on her toes Of all sorts of Spanish and other dances, chiefly ing to the report of the event in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette the elephant is now in her 89th year. When she was here her keeper and Mr. Kiralfy agreed that she was in her 42d year. It would appear, therefore, that between Pittsburg and Cincinnati she grew 47 years.

The latest story about Mrs. Mary Nevins Blame is that she is recovering her health rapidly and that she will join the Kendals at the close of their tour in America. The latter part of the story is not likely to be true, for Mrs. Blaine has not yet made her debut as a professional actress, and although Mrs. Kendal may be very kindly disposed toward that hardly-treated young woman, it is not probable that she would go so far as to invite an untried novice to join her company of thoroughly trained players.

Hepburn Johns.

The Programme.

THE novelty of the initial presentation before a Pittsburg audience to-morrow evening at the Bijou Theater of the marine spectacle, "The Bottom of the Sea," is the unconventional theme and scenes that are not familiar to regular theatergoers. The piece is an adaptation by William A. Brady, and the exigencies of the plot demand that a considerable portion of the action shall occur on and in Neptune's realm. Originally produced at the Porte St. Martin, Paris, some 20 years ago, the spectacle has in many different forms been presented in almost every country under the sun. For years many attempts were made by theatrical managers to roduce the spectacle in this country, but it has produce the spectacle in this country, but it has never been accomplished, owing, perhaps, to the great expense attached to such a scenic enterprise. However, Messrs, Webster and Brady, who now have the spectacle in charge, produced the piece in New York, and were well rewarded for the risk taken. It has since been presented at the Globe Theater, Boston, and in Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Providence, etc., and from reports that have reached here from these cities the criticisms are of the highest kind, pronouncing the spectacle a master work of stagecraft and ingenuity. It is on its merits as a scenic production to which the success of "The Bottom of the Sea" is mainly due. The scenes are said to be artistic and mechanical triumphs in their e artistic and mechanical triumphs in the way, and are presented with an elaboration of detail that is surprisingly perfect. The first act detail that is surprisingly perfect. The first act shows the interior of an ocean steamer on her way from West India to France, her boilers explode and there is a realistic shipwreck scene, showing the struggling passengers in the water and the gradual descent of the ill-fated vessel. At this moment a full rigged yacht comes in sight, tossing on the wave, and the act closes with the most realistic rescue ever conceived. After some episodes, which happen in France, the third act of the piece opens on board the French man-of-war Invincible, showing the deck of the craft which is laying the West India submarine cable. This scene will doubtless prove interesting from a scientific standpoint, as very few people have ever seen doubtless prove interesting from a scientific standpoint, as very few people have ever seen such an expedition. The fourth act contains the sub-marine scenes, of which there are ten tableaux or transformations, showing the descent of four sub-marine divers clad in their peculiar outfit and helmets with their flashing electric headlights. During the descent one of the divers is attacked by a huge octopus or devil fish, and a realistic conflict takes place. However, the diver escapes the horrible tentacles of the moster ard descends to the bottom of the ocean to join his companions who are repairing a break in the cable. Here they come upon the wreck of the ill-fated steamer sunk in the first act, and the hero of the piece, seeing the villains robbing the dead of their treasures, interferes and a terrific conflict takes place. The most interesting feature of this act is the pantoand a terrific conflict takes place. The most interesting feature of this act is the pantomimic work of the players, and the swimming about of all strange kinds of fish. The effect is indescribably thrilling and has made a sensation everywhere seen. The last act is an examination by the Admiral of the French navy of an innocent man for the murder at the bottom of the sea, but who is proven to be innocent. The real murderer is found and he makes a terrific leap from a high cliff into the sea to escape the law. The plotis one that can be best understood by witnessing the play itself. However, theatergoers will hall with gratitude a new piece removed from the conventional melodrama. The action is quick and stirring and there are more sensationalisms in the representation

The action is quick and stirring and there are more sensationalisms in the representation than any scenic spectacle now traveling, and while the story is weirdly imaginative, yet it is said not to outrage the bounds of possibility. The company, which is an exceedingly large one, embracing many well-known players, the principle of which are Eugene O'Rourke, an Irish comedian who has found great favor wherever seen in this representation; Messrs, George W. Barnum, Frank Karrington, Adolph Jackson, T. H. Fitzpatrick, Lillian Lee, Bella Douglas and many others. THE latest and one of the best ideas in the amusement line is the course of entertainments to be given in Old City Hall, and known as "The Pittsburg Star Course." With the price this course are every one of a high order of merit. "Been-Hur," the beautiful Oriental story of the time of Christ, told in the most fascinating manner, and illustrated with 120 magnificent views by Mr. L. O. Armstrong of Montreal, will open the course November 14. Ovide Musin, the famous violinist, and his grand concert company, the second of the series, comes November 24. Hannibal A. Williams, while comparatively a stranger to Pittsburg, has gained an enviable reputation in his recital of Shakespeare's plays from memory. Impersonating each of the characters, he will appear in "Julius Cassar" December 11. Mr. William, has received favorable notices from the press. The fourth in this list, Loudin's Original Fiske Juliules Singers, need no introduction to the people of Pittsburg, as they have a world-wide reputation. The Redpath Concert Company, which closes the list, comes with the best recommendations, and is fully noticed in the music column. In Cleveland, where a similar course was given, the opening sale of seats was attended by a regular blockade by people flocking to secure tickots. Scats for the P. S. C. will be on sale at Mellor & Hoene's Fifth avenue music store November 7 to 14 inclusive. A full announcement of this series of entertainments, with dates and particulars in detail, is given in our advertising.

"The Great Metropolis," the melodrama "THE GREAT METROPOLIS." the melodrams which comes to the Grand Opera house this week, is said to be wonderfully strong in a spec-tacular way. The play is in good hands, but after all the main interest centers in the great scene of the piece which realistically produces the work actually performed by the United States life-savers in rescuing from shipwreck. The system is that which was adopted by the The system is that which was adopted by the Government some time ago, and which is in successful operation all along the ocean fronts. It is an intensely interesting work, and, as will be seen by a brief description, it makes a dramatic situation of remarkable novelty. The signals of distress from an imperilled vessel are observed by the life-saver, who is patroling the beach, and he in turn notifies his comrades. At once a rush is made for the beach cart, which contains the now famous Lisie gun, and out upon the beach speed these courageous men. A projectife to which a hawser is attached is asserted in the little cannon, and with a card bearing the words "make this fast" attached to the line, the gun is fired and away speeds the life line to the rescue of the unfortunates upon the distressed ship. The line having been made fast upon the vessel, there is sent to it what is called the "breeches buoy." Into this device the passengers and crew come, one by one, like the passengers and crew come, one by one, like the wind, and are brought in safety to the beach. HYDE'S STAR SPECIALTY COMPANY WILL be the attraction at Harry Williams' Academy this week. The company comes direct from Hyde & Behman's Theater in Brooklyn and contains many first-class variety stars, among whom are Yank Hoe, the Japanese slight of hand artist and his fair Caucassian assistant, Omene: Helene Mora, female baritone; St. Felix Sisters, skirt dancers: La Petite Freddy, whom Pittsburg has admired so much for his precocious talent; Belie Clifton, skipping rope dancer; Sam Dearin, eccentric musician, and others of note.

others of note. FRANK HARVEY'S famous domestic drama, "Woman Against Woman," will be given at Harris' Theater this week, and ought to draw the usual large audiences at this popular place of amusement. Among the features and effects absolutely new to the stage will be introduced the great kitchen scene, in which an entire meal is cooked, served and eaten during the meal is cooked, served and eaten during the progress of the play. The company is said to be a good one. Election returns will be read from the stage on Tuesday night. They will be received by special wire, and telegraph operator in view of the audience.

Other Amusements.

MANAGER DAVIS made a special engagefamous Royal Hungarian Gypsy Band from Buda Pesth, where they played for three years exercises, far beyond the $25 a week of the firstclass ballet girl and even the $150 that a premiere danseuse usually gets for a week's pirouetting and prancing on her toes. Of course, the demand for Spanish dancers and dancing will not last, although, as a matter of fact, there are good artistic reasons for the popularity of both, but at present "a Pespagnole" is the style.

The Mirror represents a blonde coryphee moodily saying: "I'm tired of life. There's nothing left to live for!" to which the property man replies: "Don't say that. Dye your hair and become a Spanish dancer. They're all doing it." And this is about the truth. I notice that Cyrene, who danced at the short-lived Clipper Theater a while ago as a Kentucky girl not very careful about what she did, is appealing to the cultured theater-goers of Boston as the beautiful young Spanish dancer. A dancer does not have to cross the Atlantic to be born in Spaln.

Victoria Mazouka, our elephantine friend who nearly broke the Bijou all up ten days ago, has been delighting Cincinnatans during the past week, and a singular result of her experience here is to be noted in the account of her appearance at Heuck's Opera House. Accordfor the royal family. They are now ten in Thompson, vocalists; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Howard, sketch artists and vocalists, and many other novel and interesting features. AT the World's Museum and Theater in Allegheny the chief attraction this week will be the appearance of Miss May Smith Robbins, a clever singing and dancing soubrette, in the musical comedy called "Little Trixie, the Romp musical comedy called "Little Trixie, the Romp Heiress." Miss Robins is supported by Mr. Fred Robbins and a strong company. In the curio hall the following will be among the features: Mr. Chauncy Morlan, age 18 years, weighing 540 pounds, the circumference of whose arm is 24 inches, chest 60 inches, and waist 72 inches, and who wears No. 22 collar. He is said to be the heaviest boy in the world. Miss Lizzie Sturgeon, who uses her toes to sew and do the finest kind of embroidery; Miss Annie Nelson, the charming little lady songstress: Miss Nina Randall and her den of LIEUTENANT JAMES R. TREACY returned Stage Whispers.

Annie Nelson, the charming little lady song-stress; Miss Nina Randall and her den of snakes of all kinds, and many others.

THE St. Louis Republic says: "Miss Abbott s now the only representative of what we call advisedly American opera in the highest sense of the word." Great scott! ONE of the topics of interest to the loungers on the Rialto is that Rose Coghlan contem-plates marrying again. This time it is said to be John J. Sullivan, her leading man. "THE CLEMENCEAU CASE" did not suffer so very terribly in Boston. In the two days it played the receipts were $3,200. With many companies that would represent a glorious companies to week's cash. KATE CASTLETON will again resume playing, and will assume the role of Marguerite in Faust Up to Date," the part that Miss St. John was especially imported from London to play last season. The managers of the Ameri-can company have been in negotiation with Miss Castleton for some time. THE buzz saw in "The Limited Mail" is made the machine used in "Bine Jeans" at the Fourteenth Street Theater is the real thing and would easily divide Robert Hilliard in half if it had a fair chance. Joseph Arthur's buz saw means business and is as dangerous as RUSSELL'S Comedians in "Miss McGinty" begin their tour next week. The company includes Fay Templeton, Jennie Satterlee, Josie

Sadler, Fannie Johnston, Jehnie Satteries, Jose Sadler, Fannie Johnston, Lillian Rivers, Nina Haywood, Marion Giroux, Fred Lennox, Charles V. Seaman, William Carroll, T. J. Herndon, Edward Goodwin, a brother of N. C. Goodwin, Albert Riddle and several other comedians and vocalists. Mr. Sam Harrison will be the business manager. THE Queen of Rumania is among the drama-

tists. She has written a tragedy in verse, founded upon an old Rumanian legend, and the other morning, at her London hotel, she read the work before a select audience, which in-cluded Henry Irving and Ellen Terry. The gossips are wondering whether the plece will ever be played at the Lyceum, and if so, whether the Queen, in response to a call for the author, will appear before the footlights to bow her tbanks.

MRS. CARTER will certainly have a "tall" company. The lady herself is, like Rosalind, "more than common tall;" Miss Helen Bancroft is the same height; Arthur Dacre is the strapping six-footer of whom Onido is so fond of writing; R. F. Cotton, the eccentric comedian, unblushingly confesses to six feet; Mervyn Dalias and Ian Robertson are away up in the world. E. J. Henley is, however, not stately, but his stage appearance is tremendously deceptive. Miss Ida Vernon has that luxury known as a commanding presence.

Rose Coghlan, as everybody knows, was lately divorced from "Clint" Edgerly, hence the peculiar "patness" of a story about a recent performance by Miss Cognian and her cent performance by Miss Cognian and her company of "London Assurance." When Lady Gay Spanker was asked, "Have you a husband?" the actors tittered, and when she replied, "Yes-somewhere." they laughed. Continuing, she went on, "He doesn't seem to be within reach at the present time," and this caught the house. The audience roared with laughter, in which Miss Cognian joined,

As handsome Isabella Urquhart was leaving Palmer's the other evening, says the New York World, she was accosted by a ragged little gamin, who besought her to take a paper. As Miss Urquhart hurried on, paying no attention Miss Urquhart hurried on, paying no attention to his importunities, he exclaimed, in pleading tones: "Oh. I say, do buy one. Please do, Isabella!" This appeal claimed her attention, as he evidently intended it should. She stopped and said, as she made a purchase: "Wby do you call me that? Do you know me?" "Well, yer kin jest bet yer boots! knows yer! Yer front name is Isabeller, an' yer a actor."

MR. JOSEPH HAWORTH has left the legiture of the second of the s imate drama and taken to farce. Nym Crinkle, in the World, says: "Mr. Haworth has been so long identified with heroic and romantic roles that his breaking away was regarded with surprise and interest. His assumption at this late day of the part of Berkeley Brue in "Aunt Jack" gave to that now familiar farce a new flush of blood and lease of life. The piece had never before been done with the rattlebang of farce, and Mr. Haworth put into it the animation and dash that we have seen Mr. Wyndham impart to these lively compositions." MRS. KENDAL promenading on Broadway yesterday, before her matinee, was a walking lesson to the artificial little soubrettes who "do" that thoroughfare. It was raining, but Mrs. Kendall pursued her way, blissfully un-embarrassed by umbrella, and with no make-up that could possibly be damaged by the mois-ture. As a specimen of sound health Mrs. Kendall is superb. There she was taking a wholesome walk, with a performance of "The Queen's Shilling" at 2 o'clock and another of "The Squire" at 8. The fragile, poseful creature of the dramatic agencies would be buoying herself up with milk punches, and re-clining languidly in her boudoir. Sewickley Society Notes Miss Anderson, of White Plains, New York, s visiting Mrs, Joseph Craig. Ensign J. H. Rohrbacher, of the United States Navy, is home on a short furlough. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cunningham have issued

Mrs. Henry A. Davis gave a very pretty and dainty luncheon last Thursday. Covers were laid for 12

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robinson, nee Miss lones, are home from an extended bridal trip n the West. Miss Anna M. Cluen, of Duquesne way, is en-tertaining her friend, Miss Kinsey, of East Liverpool, O.

Cards have been issued for a club german to be given at the residence of Mr. Bishop Os-borne on next Friday evening. Halloween was well celebrated here, no less than six parties being given. Mrs. Craig, Miss McVay, Miss Arrott and Miss Marian Bryner were among the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Neil gave a progressive euchre last Thursday evening for those who assisted her at her reception the week before. The entertainment was an exceedingly onjoyante one.

Mr. E. H. Stowe's double reception last Wednesday from 3 till 6 in the afternoon and from 7 till 10 in the evening was elegant in every detail and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The large number of guests included many friends from the two cities as well as from the

Do You Eat?

We can interest you to the extent of sav-ing you many a dollar if you will call or send to our store when you are about pre-pared to lay in your winter supply.

If you kindly send for our weekly price list we will present you with the most plete article in that line. We quote the following:

3 hs. new evaporated rasperties for... 1 00
10 cans (best salmon in the world) for. 1 00
5 cans California apricots for... 1 00
15 hs new California dried grapes for.. 1 00
4 hs. Weyman's smoking tobacco... 1 00

1 case, 2 doz. cans string beans...... 1 70 1 case, 2 doz. cans solid packed corn... 1 95 I doz. cans choice table peaches..... 2 50 1 doz. cans large yellow peaches..... 2 75 1 doz. cans California apricots...... 2 40 Grandest flour in the city, per sack.... 1 45 Try it and be convinced. In barrel., 6 05 parties living out of the city will prepay freight on all orders of $10 and upward.

Send for price list.

JAS J. WELDON,

No. 201 Market street, corner Second avenue, Pittsburg. Telephone 1864.

0 fb. kit mackerel...... 1 00

Delivered to all parts of two cities. To

GOSSIP OF THE GUARD.

MAJOR J. C. KAY returned from a trip to lew York and Philadelphia last Tuesday. CAPTAIN HENRY SCHMIDT, of Company A. ourteenth Regiment, spent a few days in leveland last week.

from Chicago last week, where he has been visiting for some time. COLONEL A. B. COIT, of the Fourteenth Regiment, O. N. G., spent several days at the Hotel Anderson last week. LIEUTENANT JOHN RUST, who has been on the sick list for the past ten days, is now able to be about and take a hand in the drilling of

CAPTAIN A. G. TIM. of Company F. Fourteenth Regiment, is now able to be about, having almost recovered from the effects of the broken ankle he sustained some time ago. MAJOR WES CHEW, of the State Fencibles, has announced the appointment of Lieutenant Frank T. Redfearn as Adjutant. Lieutenant Redfearn was formerly Adjutant of the Third Regiment under Colonel Bonaffon. CAPTAIN EDWIN W. CAPWELL, of Company G. Thirteenth Regiment, has been discharged by resignation, and Assistant Surgeon George Halberstodt has been granted a leave of absence, with permission to go beyond the sea. BATTERY B was well represented at drill last Monday evening, 55 men being in line for Lieu-tenant Kimmel to handle. The members of the Battery have several schemes on hand to elevate the finances of the organization, but no definite steps have yet been taken.

FIRST SERGRANT JOHN WERLING, of the Verona squad of Company H, Eighteenth Reg-iment, will be united in marriage to Miss Harriet Langford, of the same place, next Thursday evening. A number of his military friends expect to be present to see him embark in his new venture.

QUARTERMASTER JOHN HUBBARD, of the Fourteenth Regiment, is a most enthusiastic horseman, and can be seen almost any Sunday morning conducting a party of friends through Schenley Park. Mr. Hubbard's present mount is one of the finest in the city, It having won duite a record among the jumpers this fall. COLONEL LOUIS A. WATES, General Inspector of Rifle Practice, in a circular to reginental inspectors, announces that the season of target practice will be extended to Novem-ber 15. The season would have closed next Saturday, but owing to the poor weather a week longer is given the men to become qualified FIRST SERGEANT FRANK CULBERT, of Company A, Fourteenth Regiment, has a squad of 18 men which he would like to put against a similar number from any local company in a competition drill for a purse or for fun. Mr. Culbert has quite a reputation as a drill master himself and has been connected with the local militia for many years THE battalion grill of the Eighteenth Regi-

nent last Thursday night was a success considering the condition of the weather. About 200 men were in line and they were handled by Colonel Rutiedge on Forbes street, in all the movements the width of the street would per-mit, Several more drills will be held before turnout on Thanksgiving Day. CAPTAIN JOHN P. SHERWOOD and Lieutenant J. M. Lourimore, both of Company B, Tenth Regiment, have been discharged by reason of resignation, Captain Sherwood's leaving the regiment was due to the recent election for Major at Washington, as he felt his seniority on the line should have gotten him the majority. His leaving the regiment places Company B in a bad position, as nearly every member of the organization is employed by him. An entire new company will probably be the result of his action. An election for second lieutenant in Company B, Eighteenth Regiment, was conducted by Captain Awl last Friday night. Twenty-eight men were in line and three ballots were cast, the result being a deadlock between Sergeant Major Bigger with 17 votes, and exgeant Major Bigger with 17 votes, and ex-Lieutenant Charles Bundshuh with 11 votes. The election was adjourned until to-morrow nighta week. The cause of lieutenant Bunds-huh's effort to obtain the second lieutenancy in Company Bafter but recently resigning his commission as first heutenant is hard to under-stand. The general impression is that should he succeed in being elected to the position he now aspires, the Brigade Examining Board will handle his case rather roughly. NEXT Tuesday the question will be settled as to who will handle the National Guard of Pennsylvania for the coming four years, and to the winner, whoever he may be, the suggestion is fitting that he do away with the inaugural parade. When Governor Beaver was inaugurated, January 6, 1887, the thermometer at Harrisburg registered 12° below zero, one of the coldest days seen for years, but not with standing this the 7,000 or more members of the National Guard present were compelled to stand for hours in a cutting wind, and many of them still carry painful reminders of that day. The terp is a long and tedious one for most of the regi-ments, and considering the time of year it oc-curs and the few hours spent in Harrisburg, it is certainly a most foolish one.

The management of "The Rustic" beg to inform the public that they have no connec-tion with the lunchroom next door. We make this statement in view of the fact that our name has been copied (in part), and some may be misled thereby. That which is imitated so closely must be of particular excellence. Having won the hearty support of the business men of this city by serving only the best and purest food in a popular way, we ask for a continuance of patronage on the same ground. Make no mistake, our place is "The Rustic," 35 mistake, our place is "The Rustic," 3 Diamond street, back of Weldin's. Di licious coffee, milk, sandwiches, pies, etc.

[Communicated.]

Attention, Republican Voters of the Sixth Legislative District. The attention of the Republican voters of the Sixth Legislative district is called to tickets which are being sent out, together with a letter from the Independent Republican headquarters, and which is meant to mislead voters. On these tickets the name of William C. McFarland, one of the Democratic nominees, is substituted for the name of John W. Nesbit, the regular Re-

Ladies and Gents' Watches in Great Variety From $15 to $150. Ladies' chains, necklaces, bracelets, etc., gents' chains, secret society emblems of every description, very low in price. Fine watch repairing a specialty. Fine clocks, silverware, tableware, etc. JAS. McKEE, Jeweler, "The Big Clock." 418 Smithfield st.

Special Notice.

Having purchased a large stock of colored and black cashmere before the recent ad rance in prices, we are therefore prepared to offer unexceptional bargains in French cashmeres, henriettas, serges, brondeloths and many other novelties in imported dress fabrics, to which the attention of close buy-ers is called. H. J. LYNCH, ers is called. 438 and 440 Market street.

Fall and Winter Opening. Nobby suits and overcoating at Dickson the Tailor's, corner Fifth ave. and Wood st.,

FURNITURE packed, hauled and stored. HAUGH & KEENAN, 33 Water st.

Winter Overcoatings. The largest stock overcoatings, suitings and trouserings at Pitcairn's, 434 Wood st.

A Leper Benefactress in a New Role. SAN FRANCISCO, November 1 .- Sister Rose Gertrude, the young Englishwoman who created a sensation by attempting to spend her life among the lepers of Molokai, one of the Saudwich Islands, is now a governess in the family of John Eng, Su-perintendent of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company at Honelulu.

ON THE FEMALE FACE On the upper lip, chin, cheeks, throat, nose, ears, hands, arms and breast, hair between the eyebrows, on men's cheeks above the beard line; also hair growing in tufts from scars, moles and birthmarks, destroyed forever without pair. forever without pair, shock, sear or injury by the Electric Needle Operation by Dr. J. Van Dyck, Electro-Surgeon, 502 Penn av-enue, Pittsburg. This superfluous

This superfluous growth of facial hair is surprisingly prevalent. We see it in the drawing room, street and wherever indies congregate. Every lady with hair on her face knows that the use of depilatories, the tweezers, scissors and razor all make these hairs grow coarser, stiffer, darker and more numerous. There is only one method in the world by which this obnoxious growth of hair can be destroyed forever, and that is by the ELECTRIC NEEDLE OPERATION This is a purely scientific operation, and is indersed by all physicians and surgeons of emi-nence. Dr. Van Dyck devotes several hours daily to the permanent removal of hair by this operation. He has operated for 13 years, has treated bundreds of cases, and has a national reputation as an expert in Electro-Surgery.

Ladies, if nature has unkindly provided you Ladies, if nature has unkindly provided you with this obnoxious growth of facial hair, don't neglect your case another day, but stop the use of depilatories, solssors, tweezers or razors and consult Dr. Van Dyck at once and be forever treed from this lifetime blemish.

Moles, birthmarks, warty excrescences on the eyelids, neck and hands, red nose, enlarged veins of cheeks and nose, elevated and discolored scars, keloid growths, enlarged glands, cancers and tumors destroyed by Electro-Surgery by Dr. Van Dyck. Book free. Office hours: 9 to 6; Sundays, 10 to 5. Engagements can be made by letter. Call or address

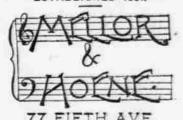

Electro-Surgeon, 502 Penn avenue, Pittsburg.

No refitting required whatever. Each day women are realizing the superiority of fit over fashion. Every fashionable dress does not fit, but every dress that dits the figure ac-curately is fashionable. Waists stitched and fitted.

Newton's System of Dress Cutting Taught and Patterns Cut at the White Sewing Machine Rooms, 12 Sixth St., Pittsburg.

Also, headquarters for Hall's Bazar Dress and Skirt Forms, no2-128 ESTABLISHED 1831.

TO FIFTH AVE.

The Most Durable Pianos Made. Unsurpassed in Power and Sweetness of Tone, and Handsomest in Appearance.

MADAME A. RUPPERT

And sold at the lowest prices and easiest terms, CATALOGUES MAILED FREE.

Mme. A. Ruppert's world-renowned face bleach is the only face tonic in the world which positively removes freekles, moth patches, blackheads, pimpies, birthmarks, eczema and all blemishes of the skin, and when applied cannot be observed by anyone. The face bleach can only be had at my branch office, Ne. 38 Fifth avenue. Hamilton building rooms 23 and 294, Pittsburg, or sent to any address on receipt of price. Sold at $2 per bottle, or three bottles, usually required to clear the complexion, $3. Send 4 cents postage for full particulars, ocil-su MME. A. RUPPERT.

NO CUT FLOWERS BUT CUT PRICES. A 38-INCH PLUSH COAT, $12.50! $12.50! $12.50!

There is no material made that will outwear a real English Mohair Silk Plush. We have just purchased from a manufacturer, who had more goods than money, one of the Biggest Bargains on record.

These goods are all of the very latest styles, and were purchased at a reduction of 40 We can't give you the goods for nothing, but this is virtually what other dealers, who have bought at market prices, would be doing if they were to attempt to sell this same garment at $12 50. We want every lady to see this bargain before buying her Fall Garment.

138 and 140 Federal St. and 45 and 46 South Diamond, Allegheny, Pa.

RAILINGS, counters and shelving. HAUGH & KEENAN, 33 Water st.