THE RIDDLE OF LIFE.

Strength That Must Come From Faith in God.

sermon, taking for his subject "Samson's Rid-dle." The idea that he sought to convey was that life is a struggle, and that out of this. Rev. George T. Purves, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, last night delivered a that life is a struggle, and that out of this struggle comes the strength that is necessary to overcome the temptations of life, Samson's strength came from his faith in God. He argued that success is reached by strife and toll, and, that after all, difficulty was man's best friend. The same was true as to moral difficulties,

The same was true as to moral difficulties, and he believed that temptation had a divine mission among men. Man is made strong by his resistance to templation. He did not mean that people should place themselves in the way of temptation, but that when it came they should resist it with all their power. That is the riddle of life with which all should wrestle. There are many is this sinful world who testi-fy that they never knew the reality of life an-ul in the agony of their suffering they had ap-pealed to God and obtained the needed strength. Samson's riddle is the riddle of life now as it was then—taith in God.

FEAST OF ALL SOULS

Appropriately Remembered in the Catholic

Churches of This Diocese. The Feast of All Souls was yesterday cele-brated in all the Catholic Churches of Pitts-burg and Allegdeny. Solemn high masses were burg and AllegBeny. Solemn high masses were offered up for the benefit of the dead of all time. Relatives of church members were par-ticularly remembered: the new mode of hand-ing in names of deceased persons, with money to defray expenses of masses, being put into operation for the first time. This method, as described in last Monday's DispArter, consists of placing the communications in mourning en-velopes, supplied to the concregation, and thus delivering them to the collectors. The plan proved a happy one and worked excellently. Bisloop Phelan celebrated high mass in St. Peter's, Allegheny, while Rev. Dr. Wall per-formed a like office in the Cathedral.

THE WAGES OF SIN.

to show that "cternal torment" is not the wages of sin. Rev. Mr. Leak brought forth ar-guments to prove that the word "not" should be stricken from the subject to make it a state-ment of facts according to his benief. He reviewed the whole tract very fully, pick-ing it to pieces and bringing to bear as evi-dence quotations from the Bible to show that the tract's teachings were wrong. The main point of his sermon was to prove that life is eternal in heaven. Next Sunday he will deal more fully with the "eternal torment" end of the argument.
