ALL CLAIMS STILL EEPT UP TO BIG FIGURES

IFROM A STAYF CORRESPONDENT, 1 PHILADELPHIA, November 3.-The polittical atmosphere of Philadelphia is oppressive. It made the night before election dark with suspicion. Out of partisan distrust floated ghostly fancies, and these peopled the alteys of the Quaker City with "repenters," scented intrigue behind the polls, and feared the purchase of a dishonest

As long as darkness lasted the ugly spectre of fraud had it all his own way, but in the broad daylight of election morning the image of the crude and homely, but good, old-fashioned American ballet box will clear away the vagaries of the night, and reassure the honest voter. Still there is a possibility of trouble.

The Evidence Against Glenn.

Close upon the heels of yesterday evenfac's story about a second corruption fund being put into the fight on Mr. Pattison same the arrest of Cotonel John F. Glenn, the Republican leader in the Fifteenth ward, for alleged bribery. The sensational episade had good effect, and as Magistrate Slavin is after still bigger game it caused a great deal of speculation as to the extent of the scheme to purchase election officers thus

According to Francis Bannans' story he was paid the $50 to count 25 Pattison votes in his district for Delamater, which would be a clear gain of 50 votes for Delamater. Glenn had a hearing to-day before the M. cistrate. Attorneys Lincoln L. Fyre and R. P. White, of the Lincoln Independent Ciub, appeared on behalf of the prosecutor. Samuel E. Caven, who represented Glenn, vigorously opposed the presentation of any evidence and desired to waive a hearing. He claimed that the agreed of Mr. Gloon was merciv the last card of a desperate catapaier, and that the prosecution and made all the capital possible out of the case.

Bauman on the Witness Stand. Magistrate Slevin said that he would not allow any such course. He had never allowed a case to be warved since he became a magistrate, and as this was a very important inniter, he wanted all the testimony brought out. The case then proceeded. The first witness was Praucis Bannan, a brickmaker by trade, residing at 535 North Twentytourin street, who is Judge of the Thirtyfinh division of the Flifteenth ward.

He stated that he itnew Glenn as a Republicum leader by reputation only; that on Thursday night last he not him by appointment at Twenty-third and Green streets, and atter a short conversation with him Gleon named nom to transfer 25 Pattison votes to Delamater, and not to be hard on the Republicus. He was to get $50 for doing this

He met Glann at Twentieth and Race streets on Friday night and received $25. He was to meet Glean at Twenty-seventh and Parrish streets, but made a mistake and were to Twenty-fourth and Parrish surcets. Vesterday Bannan received a note from Clone and mer him at Twenty-seventh and Parrish streets, where he received $25 more. The note was not signed. The money was marked and identified, with the exception of the $20 note which was in the first payment, and which had passed out of Bannan's hands since the payment.

Charges Beflecting on Democratic Assessors. When the five Democratic Assessors of the Fourth ward who are charged with false registration were armigned before Maristrate Pole at the Central station this afternoon, the Republican City Committee was not able to make a very strong case against the accessed efficients. The defendants were held in $800 for trial. They say they will be able to break down all the evidence when the case reaches court.

The Democratic City Committee is still engaged in ferreting out preparations for iroudnient work te-morrow. On Hickey street, between Fourteenth and Fi teenth, in the Ninth ward, it has been discovered that some 30 colored men, mostly from Vircinin, have been recently domicised in one house, and it is understood that it is the intention of the Delaunter managers to bring toem to the solis to-morrow." On Lombard treet, between Eleventh and Tweitth, a nouse, which was uncompled until within a low weeks ugo, has auddenly become the notice of at least 20 colored men, whom none all the residents seem to know

Charges of Fraud Without Number. Still other charges of fraud are made by the Democrats and Independents. They elected to have discovered plans of the Re authicans to form lines at the polls in the early morning so as to prevent the Democratic workmen who can't get home from work until after 7 o'clock from voting, and also that the police have been but to work not! ving speak-erosies that unless they turn in and work for Delamater they will be pulled, and lastly that the false registration of 44,000 persons in Philadelphia will be worked to all advantage at the polls today for the Republican candidate, Ozodidate Puttison went to bed late tonight. He came in on one of the oil trains BAD BLOOD AROUSED om his last rally at North Ambler, and with the consciousness of having his work well done retired with an easy mind. He expresses entire confidence as to the probable result of the election in his favor. He will be at Democratic State headquarters to-morrow night to help receive returns. Chairman Kerr and Senator Wallace will be back from Clearfield on the early evening train. Every arrangement has been made for reliable returns at these headquarters.

Quay Has a Special Wire. At the Republican headquarters the special wire with Quay's residence in Beaver will again be working. A branch wire to the north will also be kept open for the benefit of Candidate Delamater at Meadville. Red-headed and hopeful Tom Cooper, by the way, is the latest man at Republic headquarters to venture an estimate. He has it down at 28,000 majority for Dela-Chasrman Mapes, of the Independents, to-night is still stiff on his 30,000 estimate ot a Pattison majority. He says that the vote of the Independent Republicans in the famous Wolf revolt of 1882 was 43,000 in the State, and that this year the Independent vote will exceed that by many thousands.

Democratic stock still remains par at about 28,000 majority for Pattison, though the State headquarters to-night are in charge of clerks only. L. E. STOFIEL.

HENSEL SURE OF SUCCESS. CLOSING FEATURES OF THE CAMPAIGN. HE SAYS THE ODDS ARE GREATLY IN PATTISON'S FAVOR

Glenn's Arrest for Bribery in Philadelphia Leads Him to the Conclusion That Money is the Only Thing That Will Defeat the Democratic Candidate. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.

NEW YORK, November 3 .- W. U. Henel, of Lancaster, came over to New York this morning, but returned to Pennsylvania claim the victory. At the State Repubthis evening, in order to be ready for the morning. When asked what he thought would be the result of the contest, he answered:

"I think it will be a close struggle, with the odds in favor of Pattison, and with chances for a tidal wave in his direction. I was talking last night with Mr. Singerly, who believes Pattison will have 40,000 majority, and he said that the only thing that disturbed him was that the Democratic prospects are so grand and glori-ous as to appear almost suspicious, as though Pattison was having an almost too easy time of Pattison was having an almost too easy time of it and that therefore there may be some unexpected accident in store for him. Much, of course, will depend on what the other side is able to accomplish in the way of corruption. The experience of Election Judge Francis Rannan, who swore out the warrant for Colonel John F. Gienn's arrest for bribery, may be exceptional or it may be the evidence of a widely spread scheme. I was present when Bannan came forward and produced the money which had been paid him. He is not a boodler, but a man of unquestioned integrity. It is not likely, however, that his experience is singular, because, certainly, if a good, honest Democrat were picked out to be bribed, it stands to reason that money must have been offered to election officers whose integrity is not above suspicion. However, this quick exposure and arrest will be likely to have a retarding effect if any wholesale scheme of fraud is contemplated.

Bribery is the only thing the Pattison people have to fear. I well remember that in the Buckalew-Hartranft campaign of 1872 the Democrats on the eve of election seemed as certain of success as they do to-day. The Republicans, however, had a reserve fund of $180.000, which was distributed throughout the State on election day, and they elected Hartranft by a large majority. At the time I thought that the rumors about this large sum of money were exaggerations, but now I know as well as I know my own name—as well as I can know anything that I haven't seen with my own eyes—that amount of money was raised and expended.

WEST VIRGINIA OUTLOOK.

A Remarkably Active Campaign Winds Up With Affairs Mixed.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.) WHEELING, W. VA., November 3 .- The outlook in this State for the election to-morrow is rather a mixed one, and here at the close of the campaign, which has been remarkable for its activity on both sides, considering that it is an "off year," one can really make nothing in the way of prediction which is not likely to be upset by the facts when the returns come in to-morrow night. The leaders of both parties agree in ne thing, and that is they claim everything with entire confidence. The truth is, view-ing the State in the light of the campaign two years ago, and supplementing that knowledge with the facts as to the present campaign, it would not be surprising, on he one hand, if the Democrats carried both branches of the Legislature and elected all our Congressmen; or, on the other side, if the Republicans should have the Legislature and elect three out of the four Con-

About the only sure thing in it is the election of W. L. Wilson (Dem.) in the Second Congressional district. Wilson will be elected because he lives in a Democratic district, which is sure to return him by at least 300 or 400 majority. Judge Lucas, candidate for the Supreme Bench, may possibly be defeated, because hundreds perhaps thousands of Democratic voters who never scratched a ticket in their lives will refuse to support him

A BIG VOTE DUE IN MERCER.

It is Feared the Congressional Fight Mar Hurt Delamater's Vote.

FFECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SHAEON, PA., November 3.-To-morrow's election will result in a larger vote being polled in Mercer county than was east in the last Presidental campaign. A desperate battle has been waged by the Democratic party to capture the State ticket, but Republican County Chairman Perry says that the county may be counted in Delamater's column. The bitter Congressional fight be tween McDowell, Phillips and Gillespie has completely overshadowed the State campaign, and all three candidates are tonight claiming the election. It is eared that this fight may hurt Delaunter's vote. So far the press backing either faction o the Republicans have discountenanced any talk of trading.

A great effort is being made by the Mercer county Democracy to defeat Harry Hall for Assembly, but both J. S. Fruit and Hall say they will be returned by the usual majority. The Democrats claim also to have defeated B. J. Haywood for Prothonotary. The one contingency that both sides meen to fear is that trading may bring about an entirely unlooked for result

PATTISON'S LAST MEETING.

A Large Audience Gathers at Ambler to Hear His Final Speech.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. AMBLER, November 3 .- Ex-Governor Pattison, William S. Stenger and Major Moses Vesle arrived in Ambler at 6 o'clock this evening to address a mass meeting held in the public square. Over 1,000 Democrats, Republicans and Independents gathered around the speaker's stand. Dr. F. S. Wilson, of Jarrettown, was elected Presi-When the ex-Governor was introfuced to the audience there was prolonged cheering, and the applicate continued throughout his address, which lasted three-quarters of an hour. The speaker discoursed at length on the purposes of constitutional government, and urged his andience to ex-ercise their power of the ballot cautiously and conscientionsly.

Mr. Pattison concluded by urging the voter to go to the polls to-morrow and vote intelligently and fearlessly, and he would be satisfied with the result. He was fol-lowed by Henry F. Keenan and William S. Stenger in stirring addresses. After a hearty and enthusiastic reception, attended largely by Republicans, Mr. Pattison and party left on the 10 o'clock train for Phila-

THE PIGHT IN WISCONSIN.

The Bennett Law, Upheld by Republicans the Great Issue

MILWAUKEE, November 3 .- The Ben nett compulsory school law is the issue which overshadows all others in the election in Wiscousin, where a full State ticket is to be elected. The unexpected election of Mayor Peck in the Republican city of Milwankee by the aid of the sectarian opponents of the Bennett law forced him to the front last spring, and he was only a few weeks afterward nominated by the Democrats for the Governorship.

His Republican opponent is Governor Hoard, who was renominated by acciama-tion by the Republicans and who holds holdly the position with his party that the Bennett law is sound. By pledging themseives to its modification or repeal the Dem-ocrats hope to secure considerable support from the Lutheraus and other sectarian societies for their ticket. The Republicans are confident that they will gain from the Democratic ranks a sufficient number of voters who favor the law to more than offset

PROHIBITION FOR NEBRASKA

Fate of the Proposed Amendment in Doubt,

With Chances Against It. LINCOLN, NEB., November 3 .- The election in this State to-morrow promises to be the closest and most bothy contested in its history. The situation is uncertain. Four tickets are in the field, and of these the Republicans and the Farmers' Alliance both lican headquarters Chairman Watson claims coming fray bright and early to-morrow the election of the entire State ticket by pluralities ranging from 8,000 to 15,000. The result on the prohibitory amendment is also in doubt, the general feeling appearing to be that it will be defeated. The amendment will cause a great deal of scratching and greatly complicate the result. L. D. Richards, the Republican candidate, and John H. Powers, the Alliance candidate for Governor, are non-committal, while James E. Boyd, the Democrat, is strongly opposed to the amendment. The Alliance will undoubtedly elect a majority of the lower house of the Legislature, and perhaps

His Majority Will be Satisfactory. ISPECIAL TRUEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, November 3 .- Ex-Senator William A. Wallace, Chairman Kerr, of the Democratic State Committee, and J. F. Snyder, of Clearfield, who performed an important part in the campaign just closed, passed through this city yesterday afternoon on their way home to vote for Pattison and the rest of the Democratic ticket. Chairman Kerr, in answer to a question as to the political situation, said: "There is only one thing to think with everything going our way. It is a 'cure winner' this time. They can't stop it. They have gone all to pieces."

"Will you venture a suggestion as to what majority Pattison will have in the

"No, sir, I have no figures to give, but the majority will be big enough to satisfy every-body. I am going home to vote now, and that is what I want to see every Democrat That is his first duty. Senator Wallace expressed an opinion similar to that of Mr. Kerr.

FARMERS CLAIM THE STATE.

A Third Party Expects to be the in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, November 3 .- Minnesota is one of the interesting political States of the Northwest this fall, from the fact of the phenomenal growth of the Farmers Alliance. It is likely that this party will to-morrow cast 40 per cent. of the total vote of the State. Minnesota has heretofore been strongly Republican, and with four full State tickets in the field the chances are still slightly in favor of the Republican ticket. The most sanguine party in the State is without doubt the Farmers' Alliance, and they claim the State by from 10,000 to 20,000 plurality. Of course, the older parties con-test this, but it is trequently conceded that either of the three parties is almost equaliliable to win.

The Republicans claim the entire five Conressional districts of the State, but in several of the districts their claims are stubbornly contested by the Democrats and Farmers' Alliance.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCHA MEADVILLE, November 3 .- Senator Delamater closed his campaign in his native county-Crawford-speaking at Cambridgeboro this morning, at Townville in the afternoon, and in this city to-night. At both of the former places more people than are numbered as residents of the towns named turned out to greet him.

Delamater's address to-night was very conservative, scarcely touching on politics. He referred to the campaign as having been hard lought, and believed his course of going through the State and meeting the people face to ace had been the proper course. He had been through the fiery ordeal, and the people would vindicate him by their ballots.

PANIC-STRICKEN VISITORS FLEE.

The Thunderer Grows Sarcastic Over Dillon and O'Brien's American Reception.

LONDON'S FIRST ELECTRIC ROAD

IBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY. LONDON, November 3.-A remarkable eizure of pictures was made to-day in the ashionable quarter of Pall Mall, which has created a great deal of excitement through the city. For the past three weeks the moral mind of London has been shocked by the exhibition at the art gallery in Pail Mull of a series of paintings illustrating the works of Rabelais. These are by M. Garnier, who painted "Naua," which had such a remarkable success. The pictures are all of a glaring character, and some of them are so bad that they were put into a private room. The gallery has always been crowded since it was opened, and ladies belonging to the best society and men of the world have been mong the chief and most constant visitors.

To-day the Chief Police Superintendent of the district, Mr. Fisher, accompanied by Inspector Conquest, entered the gallery and strolled about looking at the pictures. Then they entered the private gallery and to the consternation of all the visitors seized all the pictures that were on exhibition. . The Chief Superintendent of the district said to the attendant as he exhibited the warrant under which he was acting: "I shall want all these to take away." The attendant was indignant, but did not attempt to make any resistance, and then the officers took down all the pictures from the walls and conveyed them to the police station.

As soon as the fact of the seizure was known, the crowd of visitors became panicstricken and immediately fled, as people feared if they were found on the premises they would be arrested. Then the doors of the gallery were closed. Hundreds of would-be visitors were turned away; and so the House of Commons. great is the notoriety that has attached to this exhibition, that among them were very many people who had come to town from all parts of England in order to see those pictures. The Thunderer Attempts to Belittle the Reception to Dillon and O'Brien. [BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.]

LONDON, November 3.-The Times of to day prints the following editorial: Those high-souled patriots, Mr. Dillon and Mr. O'Brien, who hurriedly left their own country for their own country's good, have arrived in America and met with a carefully-engineered reception, at which the proper heroic tone mus have been rather difficult to maintain; but a brave face was put upon it by the hosts and the guests. The stimulating talk usual upon such occasions was freely poured forth, during which Mr. Dillon advised that no money from the famine fund should be sent to Ireland, be-cause that would only enable the people to pay their rents. This policy is a mistake, for the cry of relief for famine-stricken people would be the proper thing to relax the purse strings aware that in the first place there is no famine worth naming, and in the second place there is no intention on the part of the patriots to spend any of their hard-won gains in relieving any dis-tress. Judging from the speech, the outrage busi-Judging from the speech, the outrage business is in rather a depressed condition at present, as the itinerant patriots are anxious to make us believe they never had any connection with it. Moreover, the Chief Secretary traveling about in the most poverty-stricken districts of Ireland with no more serious accident than an injury done by an Irish window fastening is a spectacle calculated to dry up the fountain of ilberality. Even the delicate susceptibilities of the American politicians will be found difficult to arouse at the present time, on account of the elections. Altogether it will probably be safe to take the magnifecent subscriptious which will be quoted with a discount even more liberal than usual.

By Turning a Switch in the Path of a Fast Express Train He

HURLS FOUR SOULS TO ETERNITY. Terrific Collision With a Preight Train on

· the Side Track. BOTH FIREMEN AND ENGINEERS DEAD

SYRACUSE, N. Y., November 3 .- An acsident, most horrible in detail, occurred on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad at Rock Cut, a station about three miles south of this city, through the undue officiousness of a boy telegraph operator by the name of M. A. Clark. The accident occurred at about 5:40 o'clock this after noon, and the blundering of the operator resulted in the death of four persons, the injury of many others and the destruction of several thousand dollars' worth of the rolling stock.

The New York and Pacific day express, due in Syracuse at 5:50, passed Rock Cut at 5:40. It does not stop there, but passes the station at the usual rate of speed, which is 40 miles an hour.

AN OFFICIOUS OPERATOR. Before the express was due at Rock Cut two coal trains from Syracuse had ariryed at while is barge of his duties at Tarentum, a second murder is added to the pulf of the case I to the pulf of the case I to the pulf of the case I to the case the station and had been run in on a switch on the north side of the main track. Theenswitch stood pretty well up toward the east end of the side track. Engineer James Doyle, of Scranton, of the coal train, was in the cab of his engine waiting for the express to pass, when he would pull out. Michael Tierney, a brakeman, was also in the cab cleaning his lantern. The second coal train was behind Doyle's, and about 70 feet from the caboose of the forward train.

Clark, the operator, was in his room in the station, a few rods east of the switch. He was on the lookout for the express. The their revolvers. At first they merely strug-gled to escape, but seeing that at least one must give in to the plucky officer, one of atter was on time, and as the headlight of its engine came into view it flashed through the men fired three times, two of the shots taking effect, and fatally wounded Clark's mind that the switch was open and that if it was not closed the express would dash into the coal train. No sooner did the thought enter his brain than he dashed out of the door, rushed to the switch and swung it over. Then he realized, but too late, his mistake. ENGINES GROUND TO POWDER.

As the switch was turned the express swung onto the side track, and the crash of the engines spoke the result. Like monsters they ground each other to pieces. The noise of the collision was lost in the cries of the passengers within the coaches of the express train. The fireman and engineer of each engine were caught in the wreck and ground to death. Their names were:

JAMES DOYLE, Seranton, Pa. MYRTIE FERNAND, his fireman, MICHAEL J. BURKE, of Syracuse. JEREMIAH LEE, bis fireman

The baggage and express car of the pas enger train rolled over into the ditch on the north side of the track. In the car were W. H. Coppenall, of Oswego; George Derby, of Cortland, and Josiah Kimball, of Oswego. All were more or less injured, though not fatally. and Saves an Innocent Man. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, November 3 .- Detective Sergeant James Revnolds, of Brooklyn, has saved an innocent man from being sent to prison for a long term of years for burglary which he has made a full confession. The burglary occurred August 23 at the house of Mrs Charles F. Street The hardles made his way to the bedroom of Mis Frances Street. Miss Street awoke and egan to scream, but the burglar threatened to kill her if she did not keep quiet. He carried off several articles of jewelry and a gold-headed silk umbrella. George Neise was arrested by Reynolds on suspiction. Miss Street positively identified him, and he has since been in fail awaiting trial. John Wesley Ketchum was arrested for a burglary in September. Reynolds had been employing some myserious mesmeric power, which he is said to lossess, upon Ketchum, and at last induced him to confess that he was the midnight visitor to the bedside of Miss Street and to give him the necessary information to recover the stolen property. CANADA TO STRIKE OUT.

The Dominion Government Will Try to Secure the West Indies Trade. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH ! OTTAWA, November 3 .- The Dominion Government has evidently decided to adopt vigorous foreign trade policy, now that the McKinley bill will divert the Canadian trade from the United States. After a full discussion of the subject it has been decided by the Government to take immediate steps to promote closer trade relations between Canada and the West Indies. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance, accompanied by his private secretary, goes to the West Indies this week on a trade mission. Bar-badoes will first be visited. Mr. Foster will then proceed to Trinidad before visiting Demara, British Guiana. Coming north, Mr. Foster disembarks at Jamaica, where he will make a considerable stay. His mission it is expected will result successfully as the Government has given him anthority to discuss the question of closer trade

Then he went into the next room, which was Delimater's, and came back and asked how much it would take to fix those people. I said about $100. He said: "I think $90 ought to do that. I have no more money in my hands, but I will go again and see what Delamater can do, as this matter ought to be fixed." He then went into Delamater's room and brought me hack about $20 in bills and George Wallace Delamater's own check for about $40, which I myself had cashed at Delamater's bank afterward. I started out that night at Andrews' request and fixed those people. The check given that night was made to my order, S. M. Stevens. Several times during this campaign W. H.
