In the Tenth ward Pattison stock was in the ascentant all day. The Second predict polled a strang Renublican vote, but there was a good deal of vest-mocket work among it. Pattison exhibited a good deal of strength in the Twelfth ward. In the First predict some liepublicans were cutting Delamater, but in the Second district the Republican held his own, district a large vest-pocket vote, presum-ably antagonistic to him. There was a good deal of scratching in the Fourth district, and Pattison has credited with two-thirds of the vote-polled. He went abend on the ticket in the Fith. The Sixin, Republican district, a beyond out well for Delamater, though many the Fifth. The Sixin, Republican district, showed out well for Delamater, though many of the colored we ers cast their ballots for Pat-tison. In the ward generally, Boyle seemed to have most strength. Voting was slow during the day, but became more animated toward 6 clock. In the First district of the Fifteenth ward here was considerable cutting on the Legis-dure ticket, but Pattison went ahead of his ticket. Throughout the ward a marked feat-ure was the number of voters who came with lickets ready made. Both sides claimed the advantage but Pattison seemed to be in the load all day.

Pattison gains were made very freely in the First and Second districts of the Seventeenth ward. The Republicans, though, throughout the ward were concelled to have had the best

IN THE WEST END.

A Big Fight in the Thirty-Sixth, Over the Commissionership.

The fight in the Thirty-sixth ward, yesterday, centared on the County Commissionership. Dennis J. Boyle and Alexander Wilson, the two Democratic candidates, made a vigorous mode. Before the election the Wilson men, it was reported, claimed that they intended to run the straight ticket, without resorting to smoothbores. In a short time a Wilson smoothbore made its appearance, and simulaneously a Boyle ticket. Then the fight taneously a Buye locket. Then the fight began in earnest. P. Foley and his sons did some tall hustling at the three precises of the wards. When Mr. Foley was seen he denied the existence of smoothbores; later one was handed the reporter. The friends of both can-

A small knot of heclers and workers in the vicinity of the polly, well-muffled up and stamping about to keep the blood from congealing in the biting ward. Two voters had a misunderstanding about tickets, and they adjourned to the mid dis of the street and settled the matter. The Fires were built up at a good many places, and they served to miligate the serverity of the day's duy. Voting in these localities was characterized by the annusual extent of the rest-pocket vote, by which the Independents go it their work, and the enormous amount of cratching of the Legislative and county tokers. Perhaps the quietest part of the city yester day was that portion bounded by Grant street and the two rivers. There was no noise, but little drinking, and only one fight. In the First ward Pattison was a big favorite from start to finish. Michael Finn, a foreman from start to finish. Michael Finn, a foreman for Booth & Flinn, made quite a showing for Delamater in the First district. In the Second district a couple of firemen in uniform were tooking after Pattison's interests, while the straight Republican tickets were being sadiy neglected. At the school house district two men came to blows over the contest. They were both arrested and at Central station gave the names of John Jones and Martin Shenell. Both are fictitions. Jones is said to be a Dem-ocratic politician. He soon had a forfeit up for his release.

his release. Nearly all the offices in the City Hall were deserted yesterday. Controller Morrow, how-ever, was on duty at his desk, and demonstrated his strict allegiance to the city's interests by buying $14,000 worth of her water bonds. Roger O'Mara and Chief Cierk Crosby Gray were on duty at Chief Brown's office, but they had little to engage their attention and went home early
