Republican Party Leaders at Washington Are Not Feeling Well Over the Election.

MRS. HARRISON IS CAST DOWN.

Wanamaker Refuses to Talk and Clarkson Flies to the South to Commune With Himself.

ANDREW CARNEGIE STILL HOPEFUL.

He Save Everything Will Come the Republicans' Way in 1892, Without a Doubt.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, November 5 .- The conversational abilities of the Republicans in this city seem to have deserted them to-day. Like Mr. Pickwick on a celebrated occasion, they evince a decided tendency to silence and sodawater. The rank and file of the party, though they have little to say, say it tricts outside of Cook county do they apfrankly. The magnitude of the catastrophe shames them from a resort quibbling and equivocation. They in as few up beaten" words as possible and look as pleasant as they can. The party leaders, however, are attractive and they lot, but the Democrats as vigorously insist isel very sore and ugly. The President, who came back from Indianapolis to-day, refused to see or talk to anybody about the election. From members of his official family it is understood that Mr. Harrison considers the result "pretty rough."

MRS. HARBISON IS DOWNCAST. Mrs. Harrison looked less vivacious than usual this morning. In conversation with friends, she said frankly that she was very sorry the Democrats had carried the House, because now all important legislation would be blocked. Secretary Blaine did not appear at the State Department to-day. He assiduously avoided the interviewer and would not deliver an opinion about the election, though it is safe to say that he has one which would be read with interest if it could be published. It is also safe to say that he does not sorrow over the result as much as some other good cannot conceal his surprise and anxiety over the landslide yesterday. He declared this morning that he really couldn't understand it and would not believe it until the official figures wer obtained. He was in-clined to think that yesterday's result would he a valuable lesson to the Republicans and would in the end prove an assistance rather than an injury to them, because the Demo-crats in the next Congress would be sure to disgust the country, as they always did when WANAMAKER DESPONDENT. Postmaster General Wanamaker returned from Philadelphia this morning, but he sought the seclusion of his inner office and that party also claims the Fifth district. seni word to the interviewer that he was "very busy" and there was "nothing to which is probably the case to-day with any Republican as averse to promity as Mr. Wanamaker is reported to be. The preparations for a joilification at the Republican headquarters came to a sudden and untimely end, and their whilem superintendent, ex-Assistant Postmuster General Clarkson, decided late lust night that the condition of his health demanded an immediate change. Accordingly, after he read the dispatches amounting the defeat of Delamater and the election of a Democratic House, he took the midnight train for the South, and will stay away several weeks.

ANDREW CARNEGIE STILL HOPEFUL. A reporter asked him what he thought about the little affair in Pennsylvania and elsewhere yesterday, and in reply Mr. Car-negie said: "I want to say that it is simply a case of history repeating itself. Ther not feel the effect of a reverse wave during the middle of its term. Politics is simply a combination of ructions. They come in cycles of two years, and fortunate is the party that gets the benefit of the reaction that comes in years when it counts. It is a see-saw, and you can easily see how I'd prefer to be on the side that is down when the bump comes. It hurts to be on the other side when the soard breaks. See? As to this election, it seems to me that there was a re-versal of things on account of per-sonal bickerings that had to be fought to a finish. They have brought their result, and now I am sure they will be healed. The storm that is just passing will then have given place to a calm within our own ranks. The trouble between leaders will have been succeeded by harmony, and out of what now looks to be a political chaos will result the grandest of victories, and it will be a victory that will count, for it will mean a Presi-

A CASE OF PERSONAL FEED. "No, I don't agree with you that the tariff produced this effect. I think that it was a case of personal lend, In Pennsylvania there was a personal fight between the leaders, and it was the Republican party comes, as it will come before two years have come by, were unto the people that try to get between the two factions. They will be so close together that somebody will be hurt. There cannot well be any more legislation between now and 1892, and the McKinley all will long before then have vindicated itself, working out its own salvation, as it

Mr. Carnegle's declaration embodies about everything the Republicans have to offer in the way of explanation. They are trying les themselves down easy by quoting the theory of "reaction" in the middle of a Presidental term, and by calling their detest a blessing in disguise and a valuable

Commissioner Frederick Douglass says that the election reminds him of the old able event as the work of an "All-wise but unscrupulous Providence." Samuel Shellenberger attributed the re-

THE DEMOCRATS SMILING AT THEM-SELVES.

The Democrats here are greatly elated and the celling of satis action is by no means confined to members of that party. Many happy faces were visible to-day in the Government buildings, for the present administration is not all manufactures. By Hardy & Hayes, Jewelers, Silversmiths and Art Dealers, 529 Smithfield street. tration is not at all popular with the older and better class of Government emploves. Much satisfaction is also expressed in army and navy circles. The impression prevails here to-night that the administration, after deliberating about the situation eral elections bill and attempt to lay the burden of the defeat on Lodge and Reed. It is significant to notice how may Republeans have to-day in conversation expressed n wish that Lodge might be defeated. Simultaneously the administration has changed front on the extra session idea. Until Tuesday the arrangement was that the President should call the extra session immediately after the election. A hurried consultation was held to-day, and as the result of it Postmaster General Wanamaker announced this afternoon that the extra session idea had been given up.

TIGHT RACE IN ILLINOIS. RESULT OF THE CONTEST FOR THE GEN-ERAL ASSEMBLY IN DOUBT.

Both Parties Claiming Victory-No Official Report of the Outcome of Palmer's Canvass for the Election of a Majority on

CHICAGO, November 5 .- Great interest has been felt in Illinois in the outcome of a vigorous canvass which General John M. Palmer has made for the election of the majority of the General Assembly on joint ballot. Early in June the Democrats, departing from their usual custom, named General Palmer in State Convention as the Senatorial candidate against Charles B. Farwell, the present incumbent, and General Palmer has made a personal canvass of the State in behalf of his party.

Both parties to-night are claiming a ma jority on joint bailot, and the Democrats are hopeful of electing General Palmer to succeed Senator Farwell. In the doubtful districts throughout the State the Democrats have almost uniformly won by electing two majority Representatives, as well as a Senator in the districts where Senators were to be elected. In only one or two dispear to have lost, and in one of these a Farmers' Alliance man (whose allegiance to either of the leading parties is questionable) has been elected as Representative. The Republican State Central Committee insists to-night that it will control the Genthat they will have the majority of from one to three.

The result is still in doubt, and must re-main so until the official returns are in, al-though the probabilities are that the Repub-licans will have a bare majority on joint ballot. One of the disappointments of the Democrats has been the failure to carry all the doubtful Cook county districts which was so confidently expected. Had they done so well in the city or Chicago as in the State, a Democratic General Assembly would have been the result. The House will certainly be very close with the chances to-night in favor of the Democrats, on the face of the incomplete returns,

WON BY OVER A THOUSAND.

Careful Estimates Give the Democrats Victory in Minnesota.

St. PAUL, November 5 .- Full returns Republicans do. Secretary Noble preserves and care ully prepared estimates from 49 of an outward semblance of cheer ulness, but the 79 counties in Minnesota give 1,672 plurality for Wilson, D., for Governor, The counties heard from include the four big counties which gave strong votes against Merriam, while those yet to be reported are mostly Republican. It is also claimed that the greatest of the Alliance strength has been included in the counties already reported. For these reasons the Repub-lican Committee still claims the election of Merriam by about 1,000 plurality, but the Democrats are equally strong in their claims of the State for Wilson by from 1,000 to

As to Congressmen, its seems probable that three of the five are Democrats, and

HEAD OFF THE STRIKE. TROUBLE AVERTED IN THE FRICK WORKS

BY ARBITRATION. Employes Refuse to Work Until Verostic, the Discharged Committee Man, Was Taken Back—They Relent Upon an Agreement Being Made. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 SCOTTDALE, November 5. - The employer of the several Frick works in this region came out on a strike to-day for the reinstatement of Andy Verostic, the committeeman recently discharged.

The strike, which was spreading rapidly, was happily settled, however, by a conferance this evening between General Manager Lynch, representing the Frick interests, and Secretary Robert Watchorn, Master Workman Secretary Robert Watchorn, Master Workman Kerfoot and Secretary Parker, representing the Knights of Labor. An article of agreement was signed by the representatives agreeing to submit the Verostic case to an arbitration committee, composed of M. J. Kennedy, proprietor of the Scottdale House, Jacob S. Loncks and Rev. W. R. Funk, all of this place. The committee will meet to morrow and render their decision. The miners of all the works out on a strike the miners of all the works out on a strike will resume work to-morrow morning pending the adjustment. There is great joy in the miners' camp to-night, as a long and bitter struggle was feared. The miners had made great preparations for the strike.

UNEARTHED A MYSTERY.

Workmen Find a Human Skeleton Jammed in a Rotten Box.

TRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. FINDLAY, November 5-This morning as some orkmen were engaged in excavating a trench in Mechanics street, they came across the skeleton of a human being. The bones were all jammed together as if they had been en-closed in a box, which had rotted away, leaving only the nails.

The bones were apparently those of a man, and had lain there for a long time. They were taken to the police station, and efforts will be made to clear up the mystery.

A PUGILISTIC SINGER.

Rough and Tumble Fight Before an Audience That Almost Caused a Panic.

INTECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. EVANSVILLE, November 5 .- Misfortunes seem to follow the "Pearl of Pekin" troupe. Only recently they stranged in Philadelphia. Through the efforts of E. A. Stevens, the New York agent, they were reorganized and resumed their tour. But there has been trouble within the ranks from the start, and two days ago it broke out. Oscar Girard and Stevens had a dispute on the stage here during the second act, and wound up with a rough and tumble fight. The audience was considerably excited, and a panic was narrowly averted. Stevens at once discharged the pugilistic singer.
