The Detroit and Home Football Teams Have a Scrapping Time at Exposition Park.

PRINCETON WINS A GREAT GAME.

A Local P. L. Club Director Makes an Important Statement About Consolidating the Clubs.

NEWS ABOUT KENTUCKY TROTTERS

Sectifies and Smith to be Arrested-General Sporting

If downright, thorough scrapping, fighting or bulldozing will prevent any team of football players from being defeated, the Detroit aggregation that visited Exposition Park vesterday should never lose a contest. Such a determined lot of objectors and hurral bluffers never set foot in Pittsburg before, and if any local player escaped from the game without a broken head, rib or leg it was no fault of the visitors. Their style of play is no credit to themselves nor to the game generally, and they did not win at Certainly they displayed some good features of football playing, but their charbalanced their better points.

The weather was miserable, being damp and cold. At times rain fell, making the surroundings for the speciators extremely disagreeable. Despite the inclement weather, however, nearly 1,000 people were present and the grounds were in much better condition than was expected. The contest, as already intimated, was one of the lively and demonstrative kind. Neither the lively and demonstrative kind. Neither side won, the score standing six and six at the end of one boar and a haif's play. Only one feature, except the "scrapping" proclivities of the visitors, saved them from defeat. That was their very powerful rushing. In all other respects the home team showed their superiority as far as football playing was concerned. The Detroiters, however, deserve credit for real good rushing, and had it not been for that they never would have scored. As rushers they would not be denied In this respect the home players

The home team was not as strong probably as it might have been. At times there was a littice loose play by the half backs but generally speaking the home players did very well after the first 20 minutes. Valentine and Fry played very well, although the latter missed the ball once at a critical stage. Professor Gault was referee and Mr. E. Robinson was impore. The latter gentleman, however, resigned his position owing to the bolsterions insults of the visitors. Mr. Morgan replaced Mr. Robinson.

The convest started at 23,9 the Athlettes having the ball. They soon gained ten yards, but that was speedily lost by show work on the part of McCord. Thompson them made a most daring attempt to break clean through Detroit's line and gained fully 29 yards and cheers. The visitors then braced up and got the ball. By a determined rush they gained 25 vards, getting within a few yards of the Athlettes' goal. The Athlettes tien secured the ball and by a gallant run Faxtor gained 15 yards, but the Detroits made another desperate effort and forced the contest by their rushing. Yard by ward they rushed over the line, making a touch down. Warren followed with a goal lick, making a total of 6. Play had lasted 20 minutes. During the balance of the first half the home players had all the best of it. The rushing of the ball within two yards of Detroit's goal. Here a long wrangle took place which caused Umpire Robinson to retire from the contest. Detroit had the ball, and the referee, because of fool play on the part of the visitors, or the strong of the transition of the part of the visitors, or the first half the part of the part of the part of the contest. Petroit had the ball, and the referee, because of fool play on the part of the visitors, or the part of the visitors.

contest. Detroit had the ball, and the referre, because of foul play on the part of the visitors, ordered it to the home team. Hence the kick. Finally play was resumed and Valentine soon made a touchdown, Fry subsequently kicking gozl, tueing the score.

The second half was a desperate struggle, neither side scoring. It was noteworthy for scrimmages and rusbing, and when time was called the ball was about in the center of the grounds. None of the players were disabled, but many of them were bally scratched and cut.

A GREAT CONTEST.

Princeton Defeats Pennsylvania by Only Six Points After a Struggle.

CONTRAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, November 8. - Pennsylvania, 0; Princeton, 6, and that 6 made within two minutes of the first half. Both halves lasted 45 minutes and the fray was the fiercest and most inspiring ever seen in the Ounker

The thousand people witnessed the game and for squares away could be heard the rolling, sissing vocal roar. Princeton expected to score from 25 to 50 points and is thankful to-night that she was not beaten. She should have been and even she will admit that she should have been fied. Camp and Thayer carried off the honors of the game.

Yale Won Easily. ESPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.

NEW HAVEN, November 8.—The Yale eleven put up a stiff rushing game of football against he Entgers College eleven this afternoon Yele played a team made up largely of substitutes, for McClung, Hefflefinger, Rhodes, wattis, Williams and Harvey were all on the relired list, not so much from injuries as from the fact that Yale appears not to show her strength prior to her contest with Harvard, two weeks from to-day. In the first half Yale's work, barring a few excussable errors made by the new men was satisfactory and was in fact exceptionally good. The score: Yale, 70; Hutgora College, 0.

THE GREAT CONTEST.

Football Enthusiasts Getting Warmed About the Yale-Princeton Game. NEW YORK, November 8-The Yale and Princeton football teams will contest for the championship at Eastern Baseball Park, Brooklyn, on Thanksgiving Day. The game will be called at 2 P. M. The attendance is expected to largely exceed that of former years, because of the superior seating facilities of Eastern Park, the grand stand alone having accommodation for over 8,000 people, while special stands will be erected with a scating cauacity of 14,000. All the Brooklyn Elevated railroads match.

The grounds are perfectly drained, thus insuring a good playing field, even though the weather should prove unfavorable. Special interest attaches to the game between these two great teams, on account of its being the deciding game-between the clubs, each having won three games from the other. Football is becoming more popular each year, and in orwon three games from the other. Football is becoming more popular each year, and in order to provide for the enormous crowds expected at Eastern Park the sale of reserved seats has already commenced. An auction sale of 30 boxes will be held at the New York Real Estate Exchange, No. 65 Liberty street, on Nowenber II, at 1 o'clock F. M.

To prevent any unnecessary confusion, and to assist in handling the immense number of people, 200 special policemen have been engaged, and a staff of 150 ushers will be furnished from the students of the two colleges.

THE CHAMPIONS DOWNED.

The Orange Club Victorious in a Match With the Crescents. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCHA NEW YORK, November 8 .- Fully 1,500 persons witnessed the closest and most exciting football match of the season this afternoon, be-tween the Crescents, the present champions of the American Football Union, and the Orange Athletic team, on the Orange Oval. There was Athletic team, on the Orange Oval. There was considerable rough play and occasional slugging, but no one was disqualified.

In the second half the hall was put in play just inside the Crescent goal line. Moffat kicked, but the ball struck a goal post and slid in among the crowd. Had he made a safety the game might have been sayed. There was a rush and scattering of spectators. The referee could not tell whose ball it was. The Crescent claimed that Bucher got it, but Orange also claimed it, and the referee gave the touchdown to the latter. It was taken out and DeHart tried for a goal, but he was rattled and the ball rolled along the ground. The score then stood: Crescent, 5; Orange, 4. It was then so dark that the play could hardly be seen, but Orange soon forced the hall over for a second touch-down amid tremendous excitement among the Orange fraternity. DeHart again missed the goal leaving Orange the winagain missed the goal, leaving Orange the win-ner by a score of 8 to 5.

The Yale Freshmen. PERCHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEWBURG, N. Y., November 8 .- Prof. Siglar's Institute football team run up against as other Yale College team to-day and were again defeated, although they have had wondeful success with all other teams. The Yale College team represented the freshmen of the 'Varsity this time, and the game was a hustling affair from start to linish. It was played on the grounds in the Fourth ward, and a big crowd witnessed the codest. Yale vanquished their foes by a score of 14 to 4.

The Adelphi Boys Won.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, November 8.-The Adelphi boys played against superior weight this morning but the presence of the young ladies of the academy and the "eight" banner no doubt inspired them to victory. The game was intensely exciting and some very good liusting was done by both teams. Harriman, for Adelbhi, Main, for the Pollys, tackled well. Truslow's running and Coon's brilling dashes were noteworthy.

Harvard Beaten by Scrubs

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CAMBRIDGE, November 8.-A scrub eleven ored against Harvard's crack football team to-day, and the latter are disgusted enough. The only thing that tempers their disgust is the fact that the touch-down was made by Lee. The score was 49 to 6 in favor of Cambridge.

between the Canadian horse Roseberry and the American horse Filemaker for a purse of $500. Filemaker, in attempting to make the 6-foot II jump, fell, and for a time it was thought had fatally injured his rider, Potter. The next attempt was 7 feet 134 inches, which was one-half inch higher than Filemaker's world-beating record of Thursday evening.

Roseberry was ridden by Tim Blong in excellent form, and at the very first trial cleared the poles, the horse barely grazing with one of his forefeet. The enthusiasm of the crowd present was unbounded, and for many minutes there was a great outburst of cheering. Potter, the rider of Filemaker, although in an injured condition, had by this time mounted his horse and was determined to make another attempt. and was determined to make another attempt, but the people protested so forcibly that he was obliged to desist, heering Signs of a Local Settlement-A Local P. L. Director Wants to Consolidate Both Clubs on an Equal Basis.

There is a very strong hope of a speedy settle-nent of the baseball trouble as far as Pittsburg nificant statement yesterday afternoon:

everything, I am willing to sacrifice considerably. Others of ns are prepared to do the same. We are prepared to meet Mr. Nimick and others on Monday to see if we can come to terms before Tuesday. We do this in the interest of peace only, believing that the public will support us in so doing."

It was learned last evening that the local N. L. directors are quite willing to meet to-morrow with a view of ending the local warfare. The announcement of the P. L. director who requests his name to be withheid from the public, will undoubtedly be hailed this morning with the heartiest delight by every lover of basebali in and about Pittsburg, and the P. L. director and his friends ought certainly to not be forgotten if inatters are amicably adjusted director and his friends ought certainly to not be forgotten if matters are amicably adjusted to-morrow. There is nothing reasonable to prevent it, now that the director in question has come so patriotically to the front. The very fact of such a declaration being made will cause the public more than ever to not rest satisfied until all the nonsense is ended. When it is ended everybody will be gainers and good gainers at that. In view of the above statement of the P. L. director nobody can now say that all the local P. L. directors are standing in the way of a settlement, and it is now time for everybody else to step to one side.

The St. Paul Kid Talks Very Plainly to Spider Kelly. New York, November 8.-Jimmie Kennard, the "St, Paul Kid," yesterday sent the following letter to a sporting paper of New York, in which city he is at present located:

hound me like I have Kelly, even if he weighed ten pounds more than I do. Why don't he say he is airaid to fight me and I will give up all prospects of a match with him? I will make him a fair proposition. The Puritan Club offers a $1,000 purse. If I whip Kelly I will make him a present of $200. If Kelly whips me he can have the entire purse. I will also bet, him as much as he likes on the outside. My backer is ready to post $600 within 2 hours to bind the match. In reply to Flaherty's challenge, I will say that if he posts a forfeit or gets some club to offer a good purse. I will be right after him. Yours troly.

Jimmir Kennard.

When the above was shown to Kelly he was chatting socially with a party of friends, who edged him on to accepting Kennard's challeng. but to the surprise of all the "Spider" flew into a rage and at once started out to find the "Kid," whom he vowed he would thrash on sight, but when, an hour later, he can across Kennard in a Bowary sporting resort, his anger had vanished. Their meeting however, was short and business-like, and before parting they came to an understanding by which Kelly will meet Kennard shortly after his go with Murphy. They will sign #rticles next week.

It is a fact known to a select few that the recent purchasers of the Cincinnati ciub, or rather the holders of the majority of its stock, tried to unload this week for $30,000. An offer of $20,000 was made but not accepted, and everything is in a state of uncertainty. Cincinnati will probably be represented at the annual meeting of the National League, and there will be a scramble for the franchise. Two factions are anxious to secure control. Harry Sterne already regrets he ever consented to be driven into quitting the field, and he has associated with him four of the wealthiest young business men in the city, who are anxious to invest if he agrees to return to the field. Mr. Sterne was the sighter of the old firm, and he went into the business because he was a "crank." Now that he is cut he is as uneasy as a fish on land. Guy Webber is the other leading spirit who is anxious to become a League magnate. Of the 14 touchdowns secured during the game King made 10, and he frequently made runs of from 30 to 50 yards before being downed.

THE annual colored boxing championship com-petitions will be held at Robertson's Gymnasium, Orange and Fulion streets. Brooklyn, on the 18th and 20th instant. The classes will be bantam, feather, light and middle, weight. Handsome prizes will be awarded to first and second man in each event.

THE Manhattan Athletic Club Football team will play the Princeton team at Princeton next Wednesday, November 12, at 2 P. M. The team will be as follows: Rushers, Devereux, Baldwin, Janeway, Hyller, Barnes, Cowan and Whife; half backs, Bergen and Hollister; quarter back, Ely; full back, Davis. Marvin is preparing Palo Alto and Sunol for a last grand effort against the watch. To have the Electioneer station fourth on the list does not please Marvin, but It looks as though Palo Alto would stay there, although 80 good a judge as Budd Doble thinks he will beat 2012. It is a hard mark to shoot at, however, and the 2:11½ of Stamboul and the 2:10½ of Neison are still more difficult to hit.

Mit. RIGHARD K. FOX has received the following dispatch from London by Commercial Cable: "The backers of Jem Smith, the English champion, propose to match him against Joe McAuliffe, the American champion, for £500 a side. If McAuliffe is acquited in the impending trial it is probable a big match will be arranged. Jemmy Carney has been challenged by Bill Render, who offers to fight Carney at 9 stone? pounds and wager £500 to £300 on the result. Slavin and McAuliffe are meeting with big success. Both attract large crowds at every exhibition, and there is a creat curiosity to see the big American champion."

Mr. C. F. Dunbare is willing Joinston should curiosity to see the big American champion."

MR. C. F. DUNEAR is willing Johnston should measure strides with Hai Pointer, 2:09%, in the free-for-all class next year. He thinks that Johnston, 2:09%, can bent Hai, and of course has a right to his opinion. What a sensational pacing race it would be if such "flyers" as Johnston, how Wilkes, Hai Pointer, B. B., Cricket, Adonis and Dallas should score up for a start at a Grand Circuit meeting. It would be worth going thousands of miles to see an event of this sort—the greatest turf battle in the history of the world. And who could pick the winner?

FENCES NEAR HER PROPERTY.

Many Anxiously Awaiting the Decision in the Frick Case.

RECORD OF EVENTS IN THREE STATES

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. MARTIN'S FERRY, W. VA., November .-There was a large sized row here yesterday along the Pittsburg and Cleveland road, where the company is putting up a large board fence. When the men came to Mrs. Clevis' saloon, which fronts on the railroad, that lady pulled the posts out and filled the hole with gravel, but the workmen were too much for her, and she finally con-

Barney McEntee, who lives next door, was more obstreperous, and forced all stoppage of work. Marshal Westwood was called, and Barney attempted to put the Marshal off his land by force, but received a severe clubbing, when Mrs. McEntee appeared with a revolver which she flourished in a very reckless Her husband was put under bond, and immediately went on duty again, saying some one would die before the fence went up.
There is more trouble expected when the fence workers get further along.

McK eesport Witnesses an Experiment a an Iron and Tin Plate Plant. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 MCKEESPORT, November 8.-This city has the Archer gas fuel process already in use in the plant of the United States Iron and Tin Plate Works. Last night for the first time it was used in a pile heating furnace with the most successful results. But 40 minutes intervened between the time of charging the furin the Democratic jubilee in this place to-night John and Harry Winters, sons of Thomas nace and drawing the heat, and the test was successful throughout. If the fuel proves as successful in other furnaces it will be used in Winters, were dreadfully burned about their heads by the explosion of a coal oil barrel. Both will lose their eyesight. all departments of the plant, The gas used is made from Lima oil and water gas or super-heated steam. About 300 yards away from the mill the oil is held in a big tank. away from the mill the oil is held in a big tank, from which it is sucked by a pump to a converter in the center of the interior of the mill, where the mixture takes place and the gas is conducted from the converter to the furnaces through pipes similar to those of natural gas. Preparations are also being made by the company to make tin plate, and it will manutacture that article by January and place it on the market in February. It did contemplate doubling the size of its plant and go into the manufacture of tin plate extensively, but will now move very cautiously and will not erect the big building until It is seen what the Democratic majority in Congress will do with the tariff.

WATCHED WITH DEEP INTEREST. Excited People Awaiting the Decision of the Frick Trouble. PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, November 8.-The Arbitration W. Ross Funk and Jacob Loucells, three reputable citizens here, to which the Tip Top miners case was submitted for decision, met in the Scottdale House to-day and heard the evi-dence as presented by the Frick Company and the Knights of Labor. General Manager Lynch officiated for the Frick Company, while Lynch officiated for the Frick Comman, while John Argus imde the plea from the Knights of Labor standpoint.

The excitement over the case is intense, and crowds of miners and cliziens visted the botel during the hearing eager to hear the development. A decision has not been rendered owing to the great bulk of evidence presented by both sid.s. Affidavits of the workmen were presented by both sides.

CHANGING OFF TO COAL

Puddling Mill Closed Down at McKeespor to Stop the Use of Gas. ISPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCE. MCKEESPORT, November 8.-Puddling mill No. 1 of the National Rolling Mill will close on this evening and will remain idle for a dling furnaces, all double, which will be imme diately torn out and rebuilt for the use of coal. This is the last of the pudding departments of the big mill to quit the use ments of the big mill to quit the use of gas. The others have all been remodeled at different intervals, and are now using coal. In refitting this mill two extra puddling furnaces will be added, and coal and manufactured gas from coal will be used. In the tube works the old producers that were used in the days of coal are being repaired for emergency, and the day is not far distant when the entire works will be operated with coal.

UNLOADING FALL OVERCOATS

This fiery and untamed steed is engaged in the business of unloading Fall Overcoats. Jackson's are engaged in exactly the same occupation. This spirited animal is a high stepper, and to that extent therefore may be called a high charger. In this respect he fails to resemble Jackson's, whose charges are moderate to the last degree. There is also another great difference between the steed and the great clothing house of Jackson's. They have an infinitely larger variety of Fall Overcoats on hand than any animal could be expected to carry at one time. Those who purchase one of them to unload it. Note our prices
