Strong Hopes That the Two Pittsburg Baseball Clubs Will Consolidate To-Day.

TWO IMPORTANT CONFERENCES.

Prospects of To-Day's Big Meeting Among Leading Representatives of the Players' League.

A WELL-KNOWN SPORTING MAN DEAD.

Slavin and McAuliffe Indicted-General Sporting News of the Day.

There were busy times among the baseball magnates in this city yesterday, and there will no doubt be busier times to-day. And the P. L. representatives haven't all the fun to themselves, because the magnates of both the local clubs had an entertainment of their own, which probably was of more importance to Pittsburgers than the doings and talk of the magnates from other cities. There were numerous informal meetings and "confidential talks," but nothing absolutely resulted from any of them. To-day is to be the great day, and is expected to be frameht with the weal or woe of many things and people.

TWO IMPORTANT CONFERENCES. The stockholders of the local N. L. and P. L. clubs held two conferences-one in the afternoon at the St. Charles Hotel, and another in the evening at the Hotel Anderson. Both were characterized by the best of narmony, and although nothing definite was arrived at, it seemed to be generally understood that the seemed to be generally underseed that the two local clubs will be merged into one before the sun sets this evening. In fact Mr. Auten, of Chicago, a stockholder in the local P. L. club, during a conversation after the evening

"I hope we'll be in partnership for many The following gentlemen were at the evening onference: For the P. L. club Messrs Mc-lallin, Rea, Auten, Kerr and Hanlon; for the N. L. club Messrs, O'Neil and Scandrett. At he end of the conference none of the gentleen named would say what had been done, ex-It was intimated by one or two members of conference that had Mr. Nimick been pres-

A LITTLE DIFFICULTY. What the little difficulty was could not be clearly learned. The division of stock in the new club was agreed to; the directors and officials were also agreed to. One cause, how-ever, assigned for the non-consummation of the ever assigned for the non-consummation of the deal was that the P. L. stockholders wanted to leave their League honorably and proposed to withdraw constitutionally before joining hands with anybody clse. This cause could not be verified. The same gentlemen and Mr. Nimick will meet this afternoon when it is fully expected that consolidation will be ef-fected.

What the Players' League meeting will do to-day is difficult to tell. There are some strong adherents to the principle or notion of fighting it out, while the more cautious busi-ness men favor a cessation of hostilities. The latter seem to see that it is sheer nonsense and inexcusable folly to continue throwing money away in fighting for mere sentiment when au himorable plan, and of easy adoption, can make everybody gainers. These two elements

WILL CONFRONT EACH OTHER at the meeting, and it will be a contest of common sense against sentiment. Last evening John M. Ward took a somewhat despondent view of the situation, looking at it from the standpoint of a man who does not want to conolidate. He said that it looked as if New York and probably Brooklyn would withdraw m the P. L. But be and his friends claim that if these clubs and even others do withdraw the P. L. will still go on.

Thus matters stand. But there is one very

Thus matters stand. But there is one very potent fact that everybody interested in the business is aware of, vir., that the public is heartily sick of this nonsensical and ruine a quarreling and fighting that has injured the national game to such an alarming extent. It is, without doubt, the opinion of every pairon and wellwisher of the game that to continue a quarrel that is creditable to nobody will mean confirmed to the game that to continue a quarrel that is creditable to nobody will mean collapse of the national game.

At to-day's meeting New York will be represented by Messrs, Robinson and Ewing; Cleveland by Mr. Al Johason; Chiergo by Messrs, Addison and Auten; Brooklyn by Messrs, Ward and Goodwin; Boston by Messrs, Ward and Goodwin; Boston by Messrs, Ward and Goodwin; Boston by Messrs, Harilon and Rea, and Cincinnati will be represented by guntlemen from Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New York, the stock of the club being owned by stockholders of these clubs. The meeting will commence at 10 o'clock A. M. Secretary Brunell arrived yesterday ann was busy all day preparing his innual report.

When it was over Colonel McAlpin, in answer to a series of questions, said:

"We have only been having a talk about things in general and we have come to no definite conclusion about anything. There was a strong pulse heating for the continuance of the Players' League, but that matter will be ecided to-morrow. There is an opposition to onsolidation, and I caunot say what will be one at the general meeting."

In answer to further inquiries the gentleman said that there had been no definite consolida-tion of the New York and Brooklyn clubs. The suidate will New York and Brooklyn do so?" The President made the very significant re-

Jake Kalrain, Jack Ashton and Billy Muldoon Jake Karain, Jack Ashton and Billy Muldoon accompanied him, and the whole party drove to Brooklyn, where the Denver man will romain mult to-merrow evening. He is confident that he can defeat Godfrey, and so are his friends. The Boston man arrived here at 10,30 o'clock last night with Billy Mahoney and several friends. He is in excellent condition, and firmly believes that he will win the match. Jere Dunn the official referee of the club, will set the electric clock in motion at precisely 9 o'clock, when both men will be ready to box. Tom O'daurke and Billy Mahoney will probably second Godfrey, while Smith will be cared for by Muldoon and Kilrain. It is expected that 500 Boston sporting men will arrive here that 300 Boston sporting men will arrive here to morrow night with plenty of money to bet on the black man. Some of Smith's Denver friends have already arrived, and he is now a slight favorite in the betting.

Mrs. Riordan Confesses in Court to Having Shot at Dr. Bright,

BUT NOT WITH INTENT TO KILL.

She Only Meant to Frighten the Doctor and is Sorry for the Deed.

RICH WINDFALL FOR A LONDONER

[BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.] OXFORD, November 10 .- This morning, before Dr. Boyd, Vice Chancellor of the University, Mrs. Kate Riordan was charged with having made an attempt to murder Dr. James Frank Bright, the Master of University College. Immense interest has been excited in the case throughout the city, and under-graduates in their caps and gowns crowded around the entrance of the court. The prisoner was brought in by an an attendant, and appeared to be very ill. She reclined her head on a cushion as if she were in an exhausted condition.

Mr. Mallam, one of the prosecutors of the court, prosecuted, and the prisoner was defended by Mr. Fuller, a local solicitor. The clerk of the court read the charge and asked Mrs. Riordan if she understood it. She remained in a semi-dazed condition and took no notice, so the clerk again read the charge and inquired a second time if she understood it.

Mr. Fuller said that the prisoner was ill, and unable to give him any instructions. Mr. Mallam, in reply, urged, in the absence of any medical testimony on this point, the case should proceed, and he would be able to prove, by means of two letters, the inten-tion of the prisoner was to commit murder. Mr. Haines was the first witness called. He is a Fellow Tutor and Subdean of versity College, and deposed that on Thursday he was in the Master's house and saw the prisoner, who said: "Why are you holding that dagger over my head? You promised me marriage. I have got the certifi-cate." The witness said to Dr. Bright: "That is madness." The Master told the prisoner her statement would be proved by the production of the certificate.

The witness identified certain documents as being in the handwriting of the prisoner. In one of them, referring to the witness, she said: "I am nearer to you every day than you think, and, by - I will be a mur-

CONSUMPTIVE CURES.

Prof. Koch Preparing to Receive a Large Number of Foreigners.

TBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY. 1 BERLIN, November 10 .- Dr. Koch says he may get a new stock of lymph within from two to six weeks. After that several physicians and surgeons will be in a position to attend all surgical comsumptives in the order in which they are booked. Foreigners arriving previous to this time must expect to exercise patience, and not jeopardize their health by fleeing because they cannot be attended to at once. They are reasonably sure to find a cure within a few weeks. As the number of patients crowding in is sure to be tremendous, early notifica-tion of coming is advisable. Dr. Bergmann ommences his lectures on Koch's methods within six weeks. Lung tuberculosis is the most difficult to cure. The lymph must be innocuisted six or eight weeks in succession, Minister Gossler invited Prof. Koch this morning to demonstrate to him the manufacturing pro-cess of the lymph, which he considered as too costly to admit the innoculating of poor patients, unless the Government bears the cost. It is expected when Dr. Bergmann begins his lectures that the influx of physicians will be very great.

Terrible Experience of a Vessel Caught in a Gale of Fearful Severity.

IBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY !. QUEENSTOWN, November 10 .- The steamer Bawnmore, from Montevideo with a general cargo and 51 horses, reached here this morning in a terribly battered condition, the result of a fearful gale which she encountered on the 5th inst. The ship was thrown on her beam ends, and for six hours eas mountain high were washing over her, and swept 49 of the horses overboard, whose screeching and bellowing while they were in the water is described as particularly horrifying. Water poured into the engine room, and as the stoke hole bilges were choked, the starboard fires were quenched and the crew were compelled to jettison a portion of the cargo. The Bawnmore afterward ran short of coal, and it is regarded as little short of a miracle that she arrived here safely.

Visit to India.

By Associated Press. ] LONDON, November 10. -The Lord Mayor gave the customary banquet to the Ministry in the Guild Hall to-night. Lord Salısbury said he regarded as a good omen of peace throughout the world, and of a general entente among nations, the fact that the Czarowitch was about to visit India as the guest of the Queen. He felt that this visit represented the growth of friendly ideas in Russia with reference to India-ideas that were pregnant with benefit to both countries and that afforded additional security for the peace of Europe.

Touching the African agreements made with France and Germany, he said they tended to cement the relations of England with those countries, while the perotiations with Italy were making progress toward a successful issue. Referring to the trade with America, Lord Salisbury said that the McKinley tariff law would certainly affect some portion of Brit-ish commerce. APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE. Cheers greeted Mr. Dillon. He said: This errand for which we have come here to-night is to appeal to the people of America to assist the Irish people to attain the right to make their own laws and to administer the same; to assist that people to arise from the unparalleled and formerly unheard of system of oppression to which they are now subjected. There may be those who say Americans have no right to interfere with the affairs of another nation, but we feel justified in making this appeal because our liberty has been denied us.

We have been deprived of what you ladies and gentlemen enjoy so bountifully. No amount of corruption has been spared to keep our people under the heel of oppression. Ireland to-day is governed in opposition to the wishes of five-sixths of the inhabitants, and the Tory Government holds 40,000 bayonets to ald its oppressive laws. America's army, I believe, numbers 24,000, yet 40,000 bayonets are used to keep the people quiet in Ireland, which is about equal in size to the State of New York, And all this because Irish people want to rule themselves. make their own laws and to administer the

He had pains over his eyes, ringing sounds in his ears, and his hearing became impaired. His nose was continually stopped up, and the tough, ropy mucus that gathered in his throat extended to his lungs, setting up a cough that caused him much alarm. It is now over four months since he became convinced of the permanency of his cure, and his mother is now receiving treatment from these specialists that she, too, may become cured of that dreaded disease.
