Audacity.

of a nuisance each season.

elect his successor so soon.

CHANCELLOR GOFF'S SUCCESSOR

Come.

Not to be Selected for Some Time

TOO MANY FOXES.

SENSATION ON THE SOUTHSIDE.

A RACE FOR A CHILD.

The Infant Was at Death's Door, and the Mother Says It Will PERISH IF NOT RESTORED TO HER Piercing shricks of "Help! Murder!

Police!" rang out in the neighborhood of Twenty-third and Sarah streets last night. Startled pedestrians for several squares around broke into a run and rushed in the direction of one of the dark thoroughfares, known as Carey alley, where the terrible cries issued.

Arriving on the spot the crowd saw Mrs. and wildly calling for some one to stop the flying figure of a man who was rapidly disappearing down the street. The woman had just rushed out from her house, No. 2817 Carey alley, and she leaned against the door for support in the agony of her emotion. Suddenly the hurrying pursuors who had started after the retreating man came upon the fugitive struggling in the arms of two strangers who had essayed to check him in his flight.

Back and forth swayed the excited combatants, and to the horror of the crowd the liftle, emaciated body of an infant almost at death's door was seen clutched in the hands of the man they pursued.

CRUSHED BY THE CROWD

The child was crushed in the heat of the brutal struggle, and the next instant the grasp on its little form was loosened, the baby falling to the sidewark under the feet of the pushing, cursing men. Its pitiful ery of pain wrung the hearts of lady bystanders, who were powerless to rescue it from the melee.
"Hold the kidnapper!" shouted a voice, but the next moment the man tore himself from the grasp of those who had pounced upon him, snatched up the child, and ran like mad through Sarah street, leaving his pursuers behind. He never paused in his terrible race till he reached a place of safety, saw that his pursuers were out of sight, and, taking an unfrequented course through side streets, arrived at 2426 Carey alley, where he hurried into the house to escape detection, and left his living burden in the care of a lady.

The man was Burt Connors, and the child he was accused of kidnapping was his own. According to the story which he afterward told to Officer Thompson, his and his wife's happiness had been wrecked by the presence of his mother-in-law, and three months ago they agreed to live apart, she taking their 18-month-old boy. Mrs. Connors secured employment in a Southside factory, and, with her child, took up her residence with her mother, Mrs. McFarland, in Carey al-ley, while her husband, Mr. Connors, was employed as a mill worker.

Suspicions arose in the bosom of the watchful mother soon after, and great anxiety seized her for the safety of the child. When she was forced to leave her boy for her day's work, her mother, Mrs. McFarland was intrusted with the care of the little one. Nothing alarming had occurred up to last night, when the incident above related took place. THE STORY OF THE MOTHER. This is Mrs. McFarland's story: "The little boy's mother was not at home, and I was watching the child while doing my work, when Connors walked in. He seemed to be delighted at the sight of his little boy, but I took up the child and had hardly turned around when he snatched it from my arms and rushed out of the house. Then I screamed for help and tried my best to stop him, because the baby was very weak from illness. The little sufferer's life is in great danger, and I am afraid something terrible When the weeping mother, Mrs. Connors, was seen, she affirmed Mrs. McFarland's story, and moaned that her poor little boy's before Alderman Hartman, imploring him to do something to recover the child. 'Squire Hartman told her that he was powerless. Mrs. Connors then made an information against her husband, charging him with desertion Constable Schertzinglu was given a warrant for Conners, and went to his house, but failed to find him. The house was locked. No traces of the child have been

THE Prince of Wales has been investigated by Colonel Frank A. Barr for THE DIS-PATCH. The Colonel finds the Prince isn't such a frivolous fellow after all. See to-n row's Twenty-four page issue. An unequaled

BOTH MAN AND MONEY MISSING.

Sudden Disappearance of a Southsider Who Secured $700 Insurance.

Since yesterday morning Frank Kraft has been mysteriously missing, according to the statement of his wife, who called at the Twenty-eighth ward police station, on the Southside, last evening. She fears that something has happened to him, as he had over $700 in cash with him when he disap-Kraft is the man who is alleged to have An excellent lot of ladies' and gents' tried to commit suicide a short time ago by cutting a vein in his wrist. His residence is in Lower St. Clair township, and on last Sunday morning his house was burned. Yesterday he came to the Southside to get e insurance on his house. His wife was with him when he received the money. The two were on their way home when Kratt told his wife to wait for him at South Thirteenth and Carson streets. She did not no-tice in which direction he went when he left her. After waiting on the street corner for nearly two hours she started to search for him, but had not found him up to 11 o'clock last night.

F. J. KIRK'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Well-Known Pittsburger Dies in a Mc-Keesport Hotel. Frank J. Kirk, a well-known Pittsburger, was found dead in his room at the National Hotel at McKeesport yesterday morning. He was a prominent member of the County Democracy, and commanded the club on all parade occasions during the last nationa campaign and at numerous other times. Mr. Kirk enlisted in a Pittsburg company at the outbreak of the war, and served until the close of the Rebellion. He was a member of the G. A. R., and was known as a good soldier

Mr. Kirk had been ill for some time with an affection of the kidneys, which was the immediate cause of his death. He went to McKeesport on a business errand on Tues-day, and wrote to Mrs. Kirk on Wednesday that he would be home last evening. His friends and acquaintances were shocked to learn of his death, as he was a man of robus appearance and apparent good health.

OBJECTED TO BEING FOLLOWED.

prettiest styles. Jos. Horne & Co.'s A Life Size Crayon 83 50.

Or 12 beautiful cabinets for $1, at Aufrecht's "Elite" Gallery, 516 Market st., Pittsburg, until Nov. 30, 1890. Bring the little ones.

Come rain or shine.

ALL the novelties in fine neckwear. JAMES H. AIKEN & Co., 100 Fifth ave.

$1 69 FOR boys' blue jersey short-pant suits and kilt suits at Kaufmanns' to-day.

Rare Chance for Anglomaniacs-Two Town ships That Are Run Over With Chicken Story of an Oil Driller Whose Love Thieves-An Incident That Shows Their

About 9 o'clock vesterday morning a red fox with a fine brush crawled through a BOWERS' MAD CHASE FOR A BRIDE. fence separating a pasture field from the woods northwest of Ewing's mill, and

Mind Loses Its Balance. How he got up to the flock of chickens gas lights all over the two cities had to be called into requisition.

The sun attempted to pierce the gloom, but didn't make much of a success of it.

About 4:30 o'clock, however, a few bright rays touched. Raving wildly in a little cell in the Alle-gheny lockup is a tall, dark man, about 36 stories of buildings, and soon the attention years old. He is slender, yet his muscles of hundreds was directed to the City Hall On the southernmost dial the sun's rays contact southernmost that the sun's rays seemed to concentrate, and the circle of numerals was for awhile transformed into a ring of fire of dazzling golden brilliance, Not one letter was distinguishable. All seemed to be melted together in a band of gold.

As the fog drifted and the sun alternately shone upon the face of the clock, or was un-able to do so, the effect was indescribable. No painter's brush could have done the sub-

FREAKS OF THE FOG.

A Phenomenon Witnessed Yesterday After-

Beautiful Sight.

noon-Dial of the City Hall Clock Transformed Into a Large Ring of Gold-A

For several days dense fogs have settled

Yesterday's did not wait for night to draw her sable pall, but came on the scene quite early. In fact, before 4 o'cleck in the afternoon it was almost thick enough to cut with a kulfe, and within half an hour electric and over this part of the country at night.

ject justice.

The phenomenon was witnessed by many, and the general verdict was that nothing of the kind has ever been seen hereabouts. It drew forth many expressions of enthusiastic

By 5 o'clock the fog was so general that from no bridge over the Allegheny river could another bridge be seen, and many fears of serious accidents on river or rail

HOWARD FIELDING IN THE DISPATCH to-morrow will tell how a friend of his wooed an heiress. It is in the popular humorist's most happy style. Twenty-four Pages. Best Paper in the State.

President John Newell, of the Lake Eria road, came to town yesterday and arranged a new schedule to take effect at once. A theatrical train to leave at 11:30 P. M. will be put on. The other changes are not ma-

The Leading Pittaburg, Pa., Saturday, Nov. 13, 1890.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S

PENN AVE. STORES.

LOT OF

MEN'S

UNDERWEAR

AT $1

A GARMENT!

A GARMENT.

prices) 25,000 yards of Body Brussels, which we And another special qua' early in the Fall, but cannot promise how long it will continue, as trade is lively just now. Camel's Hair Underwear, th ame

FOR SATURDAY.

SCOTCH WOOL

Shirts and Drawers, in which we cannot show every size, we reduce to $1 50-the regular price is $2 25. Nearly every size desired and the price only $1 50 a garment.

Much more than ordinary values in Natural Wool Underwear at $1 25 a garment; Natural Wool Underwear, double texture chest, at $1 50 a garment; Natural German Wool at $2 25 and $2 75 a garment: Scarlet All-wool Underwear at $1 to $2 a garment; White Merino, $1 to $2 a garment; Pure Australian Wool Underwear at $2 75 a garment; Heavy Winter

Fine Merino, Cashmere and Pure for gentlemen who cannot wear wool with comfort.

Special orders for Underwear made to measure. We show first to-day our second

NECKWEAR.

London, for which we are exclusive agents for Western Pennsylvania. For styles and quality these goods unquestionably lead. We have never shown as large assortments as now.

New goods to-day in our popular 50c Neckwear. No such assortments ever shown in these citiesall styles, new patterns, Pufts, Tecks,

JOS. HORNE & CO.

609-621 PENN AVENUE.

P. S .- Orders by mail receive especial attention. Catalogues mailed free to any

Gents' Furnishings Department open Saturday evenings until q

KILLING A FINE ART.

Slaughtering Hogs by Improved Ma- day. chinery So Rapidly and So Completely That There is NOTHING LOST BUT THE SQUEAL.

A New Industry Started in Pittsburg Which May Win the Laurels Now Worn by Chicago.

DEATH ENDS A BRIEF SEASON OF BLISS

Two Engined Pies Daily Converted Into Appetizing Food for Man.

An addition to Pittsburg's industries has been established within a few months, one that gives employment to between 80 and 90 men, but established so quietly that comparatively lew people know of its existence, though that it was under way was announced in THE DISPATCH last winter. It is the model bog-slaughtering establishment of Rea & Co. (Henry Rea, Jr.). on Second avenue, just east of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway crossing. It is the only one of the kind in this neighborhood, where the porkers are dispatched without first being struck on the head. Though the building is of seven stories, it attracts but little notice, from the fact that three of the stories are underground and make no show to passersby. It is so complete in its appointments that even its victims make complaint for only about two minutes, the most perfect accommodation being provided for their comfort up to the time they make their exit from exist-

Though the sight of a hog hung by one leg, with the crimson life-tide flowing from his jugular, and he making all the protest he is capable of, is not an inspiring one, ver one cannot belp admiring the mechanical appliances at work in the execution. There s much less ceremony and much more expedition than in electrocution. BRIEF HAPPINESS BEFORE DEATH. At present the arrivals from the illimitable corn belt, generally of the grades of what ere known as Yorkers and Baltimores, are unloaded from the Baltimore and Ohio railway, though arrangements are making to receive them from other tracks, also. As they come from the cars they pass up a slightly inclined plane running on two sides of the building to the fourth story above ground. After the long confinement in the cars the animals ascend the plane with grunts of eestacy, and arriving at their destination, they enjoy high life for a time. The air is balmy in the fourth story, and the animals are fed, watered and rested until their physical condition is such as to make good meat. During this probation every strention is given to make them happy. The floor has accommodations for 1,500 or 1,800, according to size. The supports of the floor are of course, very powerful, surtaining a weight of some 200 tons, in addition to the machinery. At one corner, where the executioners are stationed, the hogs, in order of admission from the cars, are from time to time A man armed with all the blandishments of a tame female elephant in a wild elephant pen, slips a bracelet around the hind leg of a hog. A simple twist of the wrist throws a belt on a shaft, and in a twinkle the hog hangs head-downward and begins to travel along a frame,

BAPID EXIT PROM THE WORLD. As he passes out of a door the executioner | New York train Thursday evening. drives a knife into the porker's jugular. He squeals with all the power of his lungs, but he continues to travel along the frame until he becomes stationary above what appears to be a flume, but in reality is a receptacle full of water hot enough to loosen the porker's bristles. He has scarce become stationary until a companion is swinging alongside of him. The procession continues until the track is full, and meantime the hogs in waiting in the pens look on with a stolidity indicating either that they do not understand the arrangement or that they do not regard life worth living. As each hog ceases to kick he is dropped into the bot water, the bracelet unclasping by a gentle tap on a spring. It should be stated that the m that the leg is not abraded by the After the hor has lain long enough in the water to loosen his bristles he is dumped out by a mechanical contrivance onto a table. The bristles are removed in a trice, and the scrapers clean him quicker than a "tonsorial artist" does his victim. In a few minutes the animal is again hanging head down, and is rinsed off with a spray of mensory apparatus is composed of springs.

artesian well water. - PREPARED IVE THE MARKET.

Other machinery now comes into play, and the animal passes into the hands of the dissectors. In almost less time than it takes to tell it, the head is flung to one side and the intestines to another, and a few seconds later no one could determine the parts that belonged to any particular hog in the pro-cession. Disemboweled and beheaded, the trunk continues its journey until it reaches another dissector, who splits it in half, and this part of the procession ends in the cooling room, where, with 1,500 other carcasses, it hangs for 24 hours in a temperature that extracts all animal heat, when the custers divide the halves into ham, shoulder, side, feet, spareribs, lard, trimmings, etc., the latter going to the sausage machines. Another important department, not noted above, is the manufacture of fertilizer. It should be stated that not a single atom of the hog is lost except the squeal, and more than one wit has suggested the emblovment of an Edison phonograph to save that, and even the denizens of Yellow Row could find no objection to the waste, for from the far height at which the sounds are tracting the notice at the passersby.

The sticker stands in blood to his ankles, and not a drop of it is wasted. It goes into and not a drop of it is wasted. It goes into a vat, and is boiled a short time until the water is evaporated, and, with other refuse, is put into a dryer, the entrials being cooked and the vapor thereof passing into a stack, where they are consumed. The mass is put under a press exerting a power of 500 tons, and when it comes out it is fertilizer. There is a catchbasin in the third story into which all grease and moisture are carried, and when a day's work is completed the slaughter house is as clean and smells as house is 200 bogs a day, but this will be considerably increased when the men are more familiar with their work. The Superintendent, Mr. Cottrell, is an expert in his line, and has had long experience in one of the largest establishments of the kind in sweetly as the best managed kitchen.

TWO HUNDRED DEATHS A DAY, The present capacity of the slaughter

Chicago.
The building is 83x110 feet in size, and as stated before, is seven stories in height, chinery is complete. Several miles of pipe carry cooling brine where it is needed from the cooling room on the ing and other rooms beneath the surface, in one of which are at present stored 500,000 pounds of hog in various shapes, all tooth-some. An artesian well supplies a 3%- some. An artesian well supplies a 3%-inch stream of water to a large tank on the top of the building. In one of the cellars is machinery for making artificial ice, and the cooling capacities of the brine pipes is equal to 60 tons of ice a day. In the smokehouse are smoked six carloads of product a day. The pudding kitchen and packing room are on the second story above ground. The machinery was put in by J. L. Clark, the Power Hall mechanical and electrical engineer, and it does chanical and electrical engineer, and it does all that was expected of it. The Christian world seems to have decided that the hog was created for food as well as to act scavenger, and if it be neces-sary to propagate him for food, it is com-forting to know that his life is a comparatively happy one, the most part of which he would choose for himself. He is a glutton and takes kindly to the satiety offered him by his numerous triends. When he gets to the Second avenue slaughter house, after his long journey from Kansas or some other part of the West, he is tired, and he enjoys the dolce far niente until within three minutes of the time sub-lunar sorrows cease, and all that can be devised to complete his happiness is some angesthetic that will save this brief agony and not harm the pork.

THE ORPHANS' TEA FARTY.

An Entertainment to be Given at Lafayette Hall on Wednesday Evening Next-

Beautiful Decorations for the Booths-List of Those in Charge. The Orphans' Tea Party to be held at Lafayette Hall on Wednesday evening next promises to be a most successful event. The auditorium will be beautifully decorated. On one side a magnificent floral booth, a veritable "bower of roses," will be placed. In an exquisitely adorned grotto lemonade will be served. Another pretty feature will be the violet booth, where dainty articles of this delicate hue may be found. This is something entirely new. In the banquet hall the usual delicious supper will be served. Each table will be designated by a color which will be carried out in the flowers and decorations, and will be pre-sided over by four chairmen, assisted by eight aides. The tollowing ladies will have charge of the entertainment:

President, Mrs. Charles Donnelly; Vice Presidents, Miss Stafford, Mrs. John McCaffrey, Mrs. J. K. Lanahan, Mrs. H. Mackin, Mrs. Gilbert Hafferty, Mrs. M. Connolly; Treasurer, Mrs. John McNality; Secretary, Miss Jones.

Talde No. 1, Pink—Chairmen, Miss Suc Lyuch, Mrs. William Colbert, Mrs. J. B. Larkin, Mrs. Crouse; aides, Miss P. Brophy, Miss Maggie Forarty, Miss Ella Lees, Miss Annie Colbert, Miss Alice Larkin, Miss Annie Wilt, Miss Kate Cassidy, Miss Sadie McMunnigle, Miss Bella Gaffney.

Table No. 2, Whits—Chairmen, Mrs. O'Dougherty, Mrs. A. C. Fogo, Miss Kate Tracey, Miss Jennie McCarthy; aides, Miss Annie Carroll, Miss Rebecca Dougherty, Miss Katie McSwigan, Miss Katie Brady, Miss Hamne Tracey, Miss Hannah Shea, Miss Letitla McCarthy, Miss Lizzie McNally, Miss Hughes.

Table No. 3, Red—Chairmen, Mrs. M. Connoily, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. John McNulty, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. John McNulty, Mrs. Houston; aides, Miss Annie Briley, Miss Mary Amn Keenan, Miss Mary Masterson, Miss Mary Amn Keenan, Miss Mary Masterson, Miss Mary Bernan, Miss Sophia Fedder, Miss Kate Garvey.

Table No. 4, Blue—Chairmen, Mrs. H. charge of the entertainment:

rvey.

abic No. 4. Blue—Chairmen, Mrs. H. ckin, Mrs. C. Sauers, Mrs. A. Kennedy, Mrs.

j. Dixon, Miss Rose Curran; aides, Miss LizMilligan. Miss Maggie Ford, Miss Jennie
e. Miss Kate Exler, Miss Curran, Miss AnGeary, Miss Aggie McNally, Miss Theresa rine, Mrs. Charles Bolsky, Miss Lizzie select Greeley.

Table No. 5, Yellow-Chairmen, Mrs. J. J.
Towley, Mrs. P. Smith, Mrs. McKeever, Mrs.
Blanchard; aides, Miss Jean Devlin, Miss Childs,
Miss Costello, Miss Weber, Miss Elizabeth
Friel, Miss Sallie Friel, Miss McDonald, Miss

Maloney.
Floral Booth-Chairmen, Mrs. Charles Donnelly, Mrs. Gilbert Rafferty, Miss Kate Keating; aides, Miss Marie Keating, Miss Katharine Keating, Miss Marie Phelan, Miss Calette Phelan, Miss Rose Callery, Miss Alice Rafonade Booth-Chairmen Mrs. J. K. Lana-Lemonade Booth—Chairmen, Mrs. J. K. Lana-han, Mrs. John McCaffrey.
Violet Booth—Chairnen, the Misses O'Con-nor; aides, Miss Allee McCullough, Miss Blanche Warren, Miss Josie Riley, Miss Katha-rine McBride, Miss Ella Seaforth, Miss Nellie Duffey.

ARRESTED AS A JOKE. A Little Job Put Up on an Unsuspecting Brooklyn Gentleman. "Is your name Smith?" said Sheriff Mc-Candless to an elegantly attired, handsome

"Yes, sir." "H. P. Smith?" "Yes, sir." "Are you from Brooklyn, N. Y .?"

Yes, sir.

"Formerly the drawing school teacher of the Brooklyn public schools? "Yes, sir. "Coming here in connection with the Pittsburg public schools?

"Well, I am Sheriff of the county, and I have you under arrest," said Mr. McCand-less, at the same time taking a death grip on the gentleman's arm, and endeavoring to grasp his valise. This method of procedure Mr. Smith, of Brooklyn, objected to strongly, but upon the Sheriff informing him that he had better go along quietly, he submitted with as good a grace as possible, at the same time protesting it was all a mistake. But his identity he had most conclusively ad-mitted, and it was not until Mr. Charles Reistar, the genial Secretary of the Central Board, stepped up, that Mr. Smith realized he had been the victim of a rather startling practical joke.

A COUNTRY CONSTABLE MISSING. He Comes to Pittsburg to Make an Arrest but Fails to Return. Constable T. F. Black, of Greenville, Pa., came to this city over a week ago after a couple of prisoners, but has not been seen since the day of his arrival, and there is considerable speculaton as to his wherea-About two weeks ago Inspector McAleese received a telegram from A. H. Robbins, of Greenville, asking him to arrest Robins and Russell, managers of a theatrical company performing at the World's Museum in Alletheny, on a charge of libel. The Inspector did not make the arrest, but found where the men wanted were and notified Robbins to send an officer. The Inspector got a letter from Robins, dated November 10, stating that Constable Black had been sent after the two men, with all necessary papers, but up to date had not returned. A Geeenville man who was in the city on the 6th inst., says he saw Black at the Inspector's office that day, but the In spector was not in and Black went away. He has not been heard of since. MAYOR WYMAN DRAWS BLOOD.

He Returns From Ohlo Loaded Down With

All Kinds of Game. Mayor Wyman, of Alleghenv, has proved his ability to hunt game to be as great as hunting votes. Last night he returned from a hunting trip of several days in Ohio. He brought with him 150 quail, 36 rabbits and almost half a hundred pheasants. and almost half a hundred pheasants.

The Mayor says he saw half a dozen "Welsh rarebits," but they were too strong for him and got away. At City Hall be handed out game to his friends with just the same happy smile with which he presents and the chances are that rates will be 30-day sentences to the erring. Making Our Fun.

This is sometimes done, it is said, for thrifty people who study economy at every turn, but not so easily as by one of THE DISPATCH'S proofreaders who in yester-day's issue of that paper altered at one fell swoop the entire stock of fur capes adver-tised by Messrs. Boggs & Buhl, of Alle-gheny, into fur caps. The local notice in its proper form is subjoined. It will be seen how the omission of but a single letter completely altered the sense. Fur caps would be very costly at $75.

B. & B. Fur capes-the best made-at $5, at $6, at $7 50, at $10, at $12 50, at $15 and up to $75. BOGGS & BUHL.

GROVER IS WILLING.

Congresssman Springer Would Like to be Speaker of the House.

THE ELECTION PLEASES DAN LAMONT

Ex-President Grover Cleveland, Daniel Lamont and Congressman Springer, of Illinois, passed through the city last evening bound for New York. They occupied special car, and were returning from the Thurman banquet. Few people knew of Mr. Cleveland's coming, but as soon as it was noised abroad in the depot quite a large crowd gathered around the ear to look at him. It must be said that he attracted more people than President Harrison did a few weeks ago. Grover stood on the rear platform, wearing a big cap, but he thought it was "time for disappearing" when the subject of politics and 1892 were broached. A question about the situation in Ohio was intended as a gentle brush leading up to the general subject, but Mr. Cleveland would not be drawn into the contest. OHIO DEMOCRATS HOPEFUL. "The people in Ohio," he said, "are satisfied. They are feeling very hopeful, and that is a good sign, but then I don't want to talk. See Lamont and Springer."

"But how about 1892?" was asked. Mr. Cleveland smiled and re-entered the car. The question seemed to tickle him mightily, but like a coquettish maiden, he declined to answer it.

Dan Lamont was satisfied with himself as usual. It takes a great deal to knock out Daniel, but the general result of the elec-tions more than pleased him. "Things are drifting our way at a rapid rate," he re-marked. "The Democrats did well in Pennsylvania, but it does not give me as much satisfaction as the outcome in other States. Factional fights were responsible for the Republican defeat here, but it was the high tariff that did the work elsewhere," and then Dan gave Grover the wink, as much as to say: "It confirms your tariff re-form views, old man." CLEVELAND NOT UNWILLING TO RUN.

Mr. Springer was more talkative. He is willing to fill Reed's shoes and give him a dose of his own medicine, if the Democrats will elect him. The truth is, he would like to be Speaker, and he doesn't conceal his longing desire. During the day he said Mr. Cleveland told him that he had no thoughts for himself in 1892. He much preferred to be a private citizen than President, but he was anxious to see his party win, and he wanted the most available man who could insure Democrati: success nominated.

If the party felt that he was the one, then Mr. Springer supposed that Mr. Cleveland would feel it his duty to run again. Out in Illinois, he added, Cleveland is the only man talked of. He thought Pattison was not in the race. It may have been an easy matter to knock out long before the Democrats will secure the House, Senate and President.

Delamater, but running for the Presidency was a tougher job. He thinks the country is moving toward free trade and it won't be

A ROW EXPECTED AT THE THIRD MEETING OF THE WORLD'S FAIR COMMISSION. Chicago Too Fond of Permanent Improve ments-Working to Put the Best Attractions on the Lake Front-Captain McClelland Looks to Pennsylvania.

Captain William McClelland went to-Chicago, last evening, to attend the third meeting of the World's Fair Commission. P. A. B. Widener, of Philadelphia, and he appearing gentleman who stepped off the represent Pennsylvania. The Captain is also on the committees on classification, tariffs and transportation and manufactories. anticipate a very lively meeting," he said, last evening. "The resignation of President Gage is an indication of what is

He claims the Chicago people have broken faith with the National Commission about the site. I find, without criticising Chicago's action, that they are working for permanent improvements on the lake front, at least it looks that way to me, and I will vote against it. I do not object to locating the art gallery there, but it was understood that the lake front was to be the gateway to the Fair. Chicago seems to be anxious about placing all the more delicate features where they will do the city the most good in the future I favor scattering them to make all parts of the exhibition equally attractive. For example, they are perfectly satisfied to see the entile show and manufacturing display in Jackson Park, but some other feature should be added. Here is where the rub will come, and it is hard to tell what the outcome will As for Pennsylvania, Mr. Widener and I concluded that nothing could be done until after the election. We will outline some plan of work at this meeting in Chicago. Much is expected from this State, but I re-peat again that Pennsylvania is too prosperous to do itself justice. It is the one State that is capable of making the finest exhibit, but a manufacturer expressed a common sentiment when he said to me the other day that he had more orders than he could fill, and he couldn't see the necessity of spendng money to make a show at the Fair. It hould be a matter of State pride, and I look for a good appropriation from the Legislature. I am not prepared to say how much we will ask for. It Hastings had been made Director General, Pennsylvania would have been out of sight, but as it is some people are feeling a little sore, because he wasn't appointed. Mike De Young, of San Francisco, tells me that California's exhibit will cost $3,000,000. This year their output of fruit amounted to $10,000,000 alone. Immigration has been lagging for ome time, and the Californians are determined to maintain their prestige at all hazards. Other Western States also propose to do handsomely, and I should feel badly if Pennsylvania don't come to the front."

Quite an Advance to be Made on Iron to St. Paul From Chicago. Rates from Chicago to St. Paul and Duluth will be advanced about 10 per cent on the 17th. The Duluth advance will not affect Pittsburg very much, but to St. Paul the iron rates will be pushed up from 121/2 cents to 18. The special iron tariff will be advanced, and this commodity will be restored to the fifth class.

The Transcontinental Association will meet in Chicago next week. An attempt will be made to pacify the Union Pacific,

LOVES AUSTRIA BETTER.

Mr. Sochor Prefers His Form of Govern

to the American. Mr. Sochor, of Austria, one of the iron and steel delegates, was at the Monongahela House last evening. Like all foreigners, he is sore on the McKinley bill, and thinks Americans will suffer the most from its operation.

He likes the people and the country, but prefers his own form of Government to the Yankee Constitution. He thinks people are nore contented under a monarchy. Cleveland Solid in New Jersey. W. S. McKean, Secretary of the New Jersey Democracy, was one of the Democrats returning from the Thurman banquet, last evening. He says that Cleveland is the only Democrat mentioned for the Presidency in his State.

WHAT CAUSED THE FLURRY.

Excited Crowds Pursue a Man.Aclanker Ferguson Says Spain Has Been Drawing Gold Out of the Country. J. M. Ferguson, the banker, left for New York last evening. He states that the re cent flurry in the New York money markets was caused by Spain withgrawing all her gold out of the country. He adds that the panic would not affect interests here except in an indirect manner. Mr. Ferguson takes a very hopeful view of the financial situation, and he thinks business will soon right itself.

COMPLETING THEIR WORK. THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE WILL SOON BE READY TO SEE MR. WOOD.

He is the Only Man Who Can Give Ther What They Want-New Glass House in Coraopolis-Other Labou News.

The Grievance Committee representing the north and southwest divisions of the Pennsylvania Company's system has its McFarland wringing her hands in distress work about completed. Had two other committeemen representing two of the Ft. Wayne divisions been present at yesterday's meeting the committee would probably have been ready to meet Mr. Wood to-day. But the work was hin-dered somewhat by the absence of these two men, who are expected to arrive early this morning.

The complaints from every division on the Southwest system have been received and acted upon. The matter will all be settled at to-day's meeting, and on Monday the proposition of the committee will be presented to Mr. Wood.

A call was made at the office of Mr. Watts, but that gentleman had not received any official notice of their men being in the city and he could not see any good reason why the men should step over the rules and their division superintendents for the purpose of presenting claims to either the gen-eral superintendents or manager. Mr. Watts has been entertaining the belief that when the Grievance Committee completes its work, the members will return home and present whatever claims or demands they may have to their respective division superintendents.

In this connection one of the committeenen said (without knowing anything about its condition): "If you wanted milk, you wouldn't go to the Monongahela river for it, would you? Our business will be with Mr. Wood when the proper time comes. There is no use asking a man for something when we know it is not within his power to give it. That is the shape we are in with respec to the division superintendents, and that is the reason we are not calling on them. Mr. Wood is the only man who can give us what we want."

THAT BUILDERS' MEETING.

And the Stir Caused by It Among the Labo

The action of the builders and contractors at their meeting in the Builders' Exchange on Thursday evening, stirred up considerable discussion among the labor organizations yesterday. By some it was regarded as a bluff, while by others the matter was taken seriously, as indicative that with the demand for shorter hours which will undoubtedly be made here next spring will come a severe struggle between organized labor and its employers.

The men have been organizing since last May, and by next April or May it is ex-stand firm for what they ask. When the demand is made it will be done so quietly and so solidly that the contractors nize the necessity of being in shape to meethe demand with some sort of a formidable The men interested in Thursday evening's The men interested in Thursday evening a meeting are very much incensed over the publicity given to the objects of their meeting. George S. Fulmer, who presided, absolutely denied that the contractors had aimed at a fight with the organizations, but pected that every trade will be united, so that when the demand is made the men will admitted that the routine report of the meeting as it appeared in yesterday's DISPATCH SECRETARY DILLON'S REPORT.

ion of the Flint Trade in and Around Pittsburg. Secretary Dillon, of the A. F. G. W. U. has just issued a report concerning the work for the last six months. Among other things the official letter says: We observe a slow, but healthy growth in the membership of the organization. The precentage of the unemployed is small when we con-sider the staguant condition of some branches sider the stagnant condition of some branches of the trade.

We find the prescription or bottle branch still enjoys propserity. The shade, castor place and iron mold branches are active. Also the chimney, cutting and stoppering branches. The pressed or tableware branch, while not so active, is improving very much. The mold making branch is doing fairly well, also the lamp workers. The engraving branch is very slow. The paste mold branch is moving smoothly.

We observe with pleasure the healthy financial condition of both the national and local organization.

rganization. In addition Mr. Dillon says the membership Of the 2% unembloyed, 53 are reported to be locked out. The money in the treasury is about $80,000.

BAKERS WILL ORGANIZE The English Craft to Join the America Federation of Labor. The English bakers of the city will be organized into a union at Rupple's Hall this evening. The Germans are already organized, and are known as L. U. No. 27, L. B.

U., and the English were in the K. of L. previous to the trouble with Marvin & Co. which broke them up.

The effort to-night will be to form a local union of English bakers, which will affiliate with the International and the A. F. of L. It is expected the meeting will succeed in its intention, as the men are anxious for a union. Among those who will address the meeting is John J. Martin, of the Commoner and Glass Worker.

MAY REMOVE THEIR PLANT.

Coraopolis Has Good Chances of Getting a Glass Factory. Coraopolis is about to have a glass factory.

It is reported on good authority that Humphrey Bros., of Steubenville, O., have RATES GOING UP. been looking for a site with the intention of removing their plant.
One of the largest stockholders in the great gas well just struck there is said to be willing to take $15,000 worth of stock. The facilities for successfully carrying on the industry at Coraopolis are good and there are plenty of boys to be had. To Form a Council.

Plasterers' District Council, to include all local unions from Braddock, McKeesport, the Southside and the city proper. INDUSTRIAL ITEMS.

Notes of Interest to Mill Men and Tho Who Pay Wages.

A meeting will be held on next Friday evening to perfect the formation of the

On Sunday evening next an address will be made before the Single Tax Leage on "The Cause of Industrial Depression." THE report that the upper Union Mills are to be removed to Homestead is again denied by a member of the firm of Carnegie, Phipps & Co. THE whole trade of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators is at present voting on the proposition to enforce the eight-hour day next spring. ACTING MASTER WORKMAN H. F. DEMP.

musician over whom so much trouble has been caused by the statement that he was a non-union man, is a member in good standing of L. A. 1583, K, of L. DR. B. M. HANNA. Eye, ear, nose and throat diseases exclusively. Office, 720 Penn street, Pittsburg, Pa. 8&su adies Cause the Arrest of Two Very Im pertinent Young Men.

Mrs. Kate Sturm, of No. 208 Fifth ave oue, and Miss Callie Lyons, of Allegheny, were walking along market street last night about 10:30 o'clock, when Jack Jones and Thomas Logan followed them. The women went down Fourth avenue to Ferry street SEY of D. A. 3, K. of L., issued a notice last night to the effect that Mr. Pfankuch, the and the men were keeping close behind them, until finally Mrs. Sturm turned and demanded to know why she was being for-The men took to their heels at this june ture, but Officers Maxwell and Summerville chased and captured them. They were taken to Central station, and the two ladies will appear against them to-day. MAD AND BANKRUPT and Reason Fled Together.

ambling along within 200 yards of a number His Fortune Takes to Itself Wings and His of men, pounced on a fat buff-cochin hen.

THINKS HE HAS A WIFE IN GREENSBURG

without being seen was a mystery. The hen gave one despairing squall, and then gave up the ghost, and her companions all fled, squalling loudly, without attempting a rescue. Even the lordly rooster ingloriously fled with the remainder of his harem.

There was a herd of steers feeding nearby, and when the hear control of the control of Raving wildly in a little cell in the Alleand when the hen squalked they looked up, and seeing the fox charged on him, heads stand out like whipcords. He pounded the and seeing the lox charged on him, heads down and tails erect, nostrils foaming and eyes flashing. He, however, succeeded in getting through the fence and into the woods, carrying the hen with him, though bars of his cell all night, and called continually for stones. Whenever any one appeared before his cell he would invite them in "to join the great Brotherhood of American Mechanics." Then his tone she seemed to be as heavy as himself.

In Robinson and Moon townships there are many rocky caverns in deep woods, and foxes are very plenty. The agriculturists would change, and he would imagine himself in a buggy, with his sweetheart on think city sportsmen, who almost annihilate quail and grouse each year, would be of their way to be married. He thought he was fleeing from an imaginary pursuer, and more use if they were to cultivate the sport of chasing foxes, which are becoming more madly urged on his phantom horses.

The name of the man is J. D. Bowers, of Bakerstown. He was arrested Thursday night, on a Pittsburg and Western train, night, on a Pittsburg and Western train, for disorderly conduct. His only baggage was a Bible and a box of photographs. Yesterday morning it was discovered he was crazy. He told Major Hunker he was married and that his wife had a millinery store in Greensburg. No such woman could be found there. When Bowers was searched, however, a letter was found on him from Miss Lizzie M. Orr, who has a millinery store in Greensburg. Bowers still labors under the hallucination that he is married.

The letter was only of a nature such as one The position made vacant by the death of Chancellor Milton B. Goff, of the Western University of Pennsylvania, will probably not be filled for some time. Mr. James B. Scott, President of the board, said yesterday that the meeting to be held to-day is merely to pass resolutions appropriate to the death The letter was only of a nature such as one of the eminent educator. He said it would friend might write to another and treated of family and business matters.

The real cause of Mr. Bowers' insanity not be respectful to the dead Chancellor to cannot be discovered, but it was part due to his losses in oil. By years of labor he accumulated about $10,000. He took At present the school is moving along smoothly. For some time previous to the Chancellor's death, he was unable to attend contracts for putting down oil wells. Within to his duties, and Prof. Carhart was made Chairman of the faculty. This position he still holds, to the utmost satisfaction of all, contracts for putting down oil wells. Within the last year he has lost two sets of tools after the wells had reached a depth of almost 2,000 feet. As a result everything was swept away. He owned nothing but his Bible and the pictures of his friends. and there is no reason why any change should be made so soon. There is some talk of Prof. Carhart being the successor of On Friday he nearly set fire to his father' house, in Bakerstown, and then started out Chancellor Goff but as to whether there was any foundation for the rnmor, could not be learned. All interested refused to talk on His father appeared at City Hall yester the question, out of respect to Mr. Goff. day, but refused to take his son away. Major Hunker will try to make the county authorities take care of him.

Would Like to Know Why.

You can find benefits by continued use of pure beer. First-class bars prefer to serve their customers with Iron City Brewing Company's brands of beer.

THE ANTICIPATED ADVANCE

CARPETS

OLD PRICES CONTINUE

AT

GROETZINGER'S.

We are advised by Eastern manufacturers that Body Brussels Carpets have been advanced from 15 to 25 cents per yard, accordin

This will be quickly followed by a sharp ad-

We have in our present stock (bought at old will continue to sell at the low prices made

EDWARD

GROETZINGER.

627 and 629 Penn Avenue.

SPECIAL TO DEALERS-We will, for :

limited time, supply the trade at less than New York prices, yes, less than manufacturers'

BIBER & EASTON.

FUR MUFFS.

Fur Trimmed Jackets.

Ladies' Imported Wraps.

Children's and Misses' Garments.

OUR CLOAK ROOMS

OFFER YOU

Prompt and courteous attention

Ladies' Underwear,

As our stock of Merino, Cashmere and All-Wool Underwear embraces all the best-known foreign and domestic manufactures you will have no trouble in finding just what you want as to Weight, Warmth and HOSIERY and GLOVES.

Everything to suit the see fastidious at the lowest cash prices.

BIBER & EASTON

Children's Underwear.

The lowest possible prices.

Alaska Seal Jackets,

Seal Plush Jackets.

Immense variety.

Perlections in shapes,

The latest novelties.

Men's Underwear,

Price.

FUR SETS.

FUR CAPES,

per cent more. Don't forget that.

proper successor to Chancellor Goff. He has been with the school since 1882, coming to accept the position of professor of engineering. At present he is also acting professor of mathematics. He is also the author of Dick Brokaw says the members of the Young People's Society of Christian Ennumerous volumes on surveying, which have gained for him a national reputation. deavor, in some portions of the Southside, are clothed with spectacles as a garment, and he wants some one to tell him the

He Pledges Himself to Please You as No On Else Can.

S. Hamilton, the dealer in musical instruments and goods, at 91 Fifth avenue, has on hand not only the largest stock of goods, but one of the greatest diversity of character, qualities and prices. His prices range from the lowest to the highest, according to the quality of the instrumentor article required, and therefore he rightly claims to be able to suit every purchaser's tastes and means. No one who obtains a comprehensive view of the contents of his extensive storerooms can doubt this for a moment. Hamilton has already booked several or-ders for instruments intended for holiday presents, and expects to receive a good many more, which are to be delivered at the proper These have been selected and set aside, and are therefore not regarded as in stock, but are still on exhibition. However, there are enough left until others shall be procured to take their places, so that there will always remain the same infinite variety from which to select. Leave your orders as early as possible so as to avoid the rush which will inevitably occur as the holidays approach. You can buy anything you please in the music line at Hamilton's, 91

HAMILTON'S GREETING.

Clubs Not Tolerated at Kleber's Music Store, 506 Wood Street.

e pianos and organs sold by H. Kleber & Bro, are too good and artistic to be operated by means of clubs. They are made to be played upon by the fingers and hands of ladies and children and by artists. People who insist on using clubs need not apply at Klebers', for the grand pianos of Steinway, Conover, Gabler, Opera, etc., are too far above the vulgar level of club playing. If you desire music to cheer the heart, elevate the spirit, refine the feelings and delight the listener, buy one of Klebers' first-class instruments and possess a joy forever. The Klebers sell, also, on time payments, $25 down and $10 a month—or $2 50 a week. The old trusted house of H. Kleber & Bro., 506 Wood street, has the preference over all others, and hence sells three-fourths of all the instruments disposed of in this section of country. For To-Day-Special.

800 men's stylish medium weight overcoats, dark, medium and light shades, silk faced or plain, for the low price of $10. These overcoats are really worth double the P. C. C. PITTSBURG COMBINATION CLOTHING COMPANY, cor. Grant and Diamond sts., opp. the Court House.

For Winter Wear.

lined kid and dog skin gloves. Fur tops and plain. A specialty in children's fur trimmed gloves at The People's Store. MISSES' and children's long coats, fancy plaids, beaver and diagonal cloths, in all newest shapes. New goods received daily.

Jos. Horne & Co.'s Penn Avenue Stores.

There is Only One Trouble

With the boys' combination short-pant suits, viz.: the demand exceeds the supply. 300 more just received will undoubtedly be grabbed up to-day. They come in fine all-wool plaids, regular $5 goods, and are sold by us at $3 98. Besides we give free of charge to each buyer a nobby hat and a pair of extra pants to match the suit. KAUFMANNS'.

Fifth avenue and Smithfield street.

B. & R.

Bargain counter-the balance of our stock of "Nellie Bly" caps to go at 25 cents-50c, 75c and $1 qualities. Boggs & Buhl. BLACK SILKS .- A large number of dress lengths, peau de sole, faille, gros grain, armure, regence, etc., at prices to insure quick sale.

HUGUS & HACKE.

For all rushing to Kaufmanns' new house turnishing goods department. "Tis human nature, you know, to buy things as cheaply Misses' and Children's Dresses, In all sizes, in medium and finest grades of cashmeres and Henriettas. The latest and

One Can't Really Blame the Ladies

MOUNTAINS of stylish jackets at mole-hill prices—Kaufmanns' Cloak Parlors to-

ANOTHER THIRTY (30) DOZEN

Has taken place in the East, CAMEL'S HAIR BUY QUICK.

Also, 18,000 pairs Lace Curtains, of our own importation. The next invoice will cost us 20

Weight Balbriggan at $1 50 a garment. Silk Underwear, the softest and warmest Underwear made, suitable importation of fine London

Made by J. H. Buckingham & Co.,

Scarfs and 4-in-100"'s.

address.

o'clock.