buildings consist of a new and elegant brick building, 125 feet in diameter, having office atbuilding, 125 feet in diameter, having office at-tached, with 25 feet of vacant ground adjoin-ing. The building is well adapted for many purposes requiring large space, and could at a moderate outlay be converted into a public ball or theatre, affording the largest seating capac-ity in the State. One of the finest pictures of the Battle of Gettvsburg is still on exhibition, and will be sold either with the building or sep-arately.

and will be sold either with the building or separately.

Three lines of Electric cars pass within 100 yards of the building. The property is most favorably located, fronting on the West Park, and in a fashionable neighborhood. With a population of 100,000, Allegheny City has no Theatre, and a liberal patronage could be relied upon. The lease has 17 years unexpired term.
