

WASTE MAKES WASTE... Discovery of a Device Which is Guaranteed to Lessen the Consumption of Gas in Mills.

NO NEED OF RETURNING TO COAL... A Ton of Muck Iron Can be Produced 35 Cents Cheaper Regardless of the Increased Rates.

NO ROYALTIES TO PAY ON PATENTS... Prof. S. B. Hannister's Process for the Production of Iron.

HOW THE DISCOVERY WAS MADE... The discovery was made by Samuel Hannister, Vice Chairman and Manager of the Fuel Gas and Manufacturing Company.

AMOUNT OF GAS NOW NEEDED... More than this, the amount of gas consumed in the production of a ton of iron in the present furnaces varies with the style of their construction.

BEYOND THIS IS THE GREATER DISCOVERY... The amount of gas they consume under the present system is sufficient to operate 1,000 furnaces under the new system.

STILL A GREATER DISCOVERY... Beyond this is the greater discovery that no matter what the heat value of the gas may be, with this furnace the number of heat units required to produce a ton of iron varies but a scarcely perceptible amount.

THE DISPATCH HAS DESCRIBED NUMEROUS appliances to economize gas in the home, and in the above is the first to announce the discovery of a method to prevent waste in the mills.

EMPHATIC SAVING POSSIBLE... For some time I have been estimating the amount of gas used in puddling mills. So far my investigations show that it requires an average of about 35,000 cubic feet of gas to make a ton of muck iron.

Mr. Hannister, of the Fuel, Gas and Manufacturing Company, has discovered a process by which only 14,000 cubic feet of gas is consumed in producing a ton of iron.

THE RESULTS OF TESTS MADE... The amount of gas necessary to puddle a ton of iron will vary inversely with its calorific value, provided the combustion is equally perfect and the apparatus in which the puddling is done is in each case equally well designed.

AFTER REMODELING THE FURNACE on the Siemens' regenerative plans, with certain alterations for convenience in getting at the checkerwork, the amount of gas required for each ton of iron or puddle, this amount of Pittsburgh coal contains 30,000,000 heat units, and it was found that the gas in the ordinary manner, consumed about 33,000 to 24,000 cubic feet of gas per ton of iron or puddle.

EXPERIMENTS WITH FUEL GAS... After the above test was made, gas made at the plant of the Fuel, Gas and Manufacturing Company, Limited, was used with the following results, in these puddling furnaces.

TRANSFERRED AT LAST... ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS DEAL COMPLETED... The Works Were Shut Down Yesterday and the Old Hands Paid Off—Plant Will Not Be Idle Long—Employment for More Men.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

THE ALLEGHENY BESSEMER STEEL WORKS were shut down yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in order to transfer the plant to the new management.

CAUGHT BY THE BAIT... The Glittering Inducements Held Out by a Loan Institution LURES MANY VICTIMS TO THE NET.

Officers of the Granite State Provident Association IN JAIL FOR CONSPIRACY TO DEFAUD... "Gentlemen, we had some people here before you who were apparently arranging a similar business to yours, and they are now in the workhouse. Your business may be legitimate, but we propose to test it in order to protect our citizens."

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY... Yesterday Robert McAnderson, of No. 150 Caldwell street; Mary Crane, a washerwoman of No. 61 South Fourteenth street, and Mrs. Mary Barmiller, the wife of a coal miner, of No. 101 West street, Southside, went before Police Magistrate McKenna and charged the prisoners with conspiracy to defraud.

THE PROSPECTUS OF THE ASSOCIATION holds out a glittering bait. The officers are: President, Joseph C. Moore, President of the People's Fire Insurance Company, Manchester; Vice President, G. Percival Stewart, President Lowry Printing and Stationery Company, New York; Secretary, E. B. Burdette, Manchester; Treasurer, Hiram D. Upton, Treasurer of the New Hampshire Trust Company, Manchester; Trustees, in addition to the above, Hon. E. W. Brewster, Vice President of the Dover National Bank, Dover; Hon. S. M. Bernard, Supreme Solicitor of the State of New Hampshire; Hon. S. M. Bernard, Supreme Solicitor of the State of New Hampshire; Hon. S. M. Bernard, Supreme Solicitor of the State of New Hampshire.

BIG PROFITS ON PAPER... The plan of operations, as outlined, is the selling of shares of a par value of $200 at $1 per month for eight years. Thus, when the shares are sold, the investor will receive $200. On the other hand if a man desires to purchase property he invests in shares of a par value of 25 per cent more than the cost of the property, but no loan is made until the shareholder has paid dues on the shares for six months. This is where the fraud is alleged to have occurred.

AN UNSATISFACTORY EXPLANATION... The Inspector sent Detectives Shore and Coulson to the association office, and the men were taken to City Hall. Superintendent Kimball, who was in charge of the investigation, but failed to yield any important information. He did not know where his predecessor had gone, but thought he was in New York.

HE WAS SEVERELY INJURED... William J. Laey, who lives at No. 264 Rebecca street, Allegheny, was brought to the Mercy Hospital last evening suffering from severe wounds. He had been walking across the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge at the foot of Sylvan avenue when a freight train struck him, hurling him from the bridge a distance of about 20 feet.

COURTED HIS DEATH... A Man Killed Through Crawling Under the Gates at a Railroad Crossing... About 6 o'clock last night an unknown man was run down by a Panhandle engine at the Second avenue crossing and instantly killed. The safety gates were down at the time, but it appears that the victim crawled under the gates, and in attempting to cross the street in front of the engine was struck and knocked down.

NO JEALOUSY VISIBLE... Es-Sollicitor Jenks Sees Only Harmony in Democratic Ranks... Hon. George A. Jenks, es-Sollicitor of the United States Treasury, spent a portion of Friday evening at the Randall Club rooms. Mr. Jenks states that the Thursday birthday oration was the most remarkable pouring of the indication of Democratic sentiment that he ever witnessed, especially as related to the possible juxtaposition of ex-President Cleveland and the next President.

WOULD BREAK THEM UP... One Reason Why No Tinplate Works Are Being Established... George A. Bannister, of St. Louis, at present, but formerly of this city, who had money invested in the tin plate works at Demaria station, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

OBJECT TO THE TAX... CORPORATION OFFICIALS ORDERED TO HARRISBURG... The Pennsylvania Railroad Officials Receive a Subpoena, but the Others Are Still in Anticipation of the Pleasure-Cause of the Coming Litigation.

A telegram was received by THE DISPATCH from Harrisburg last evening saying that subpoenas had been sent to Pittsburgh to be served upon the officials of the Pennsylvania Company, the Philadelphia Company, the Western Printing and Publishing Company, and the Pennsylvania Printing Company, summoning them to Harrisburg on November 25. The subpoena also orders that the books of the companies named be taken there for the examination of the State officials.

CRISP FAVORED FOR SPEAKER... Colonel Echols Pushing His Fight for the Attorney Generalship... The sub-committee of the House on Naturalization and Immigration, composed of Congressmen Stump, of Maryland; Lehigh and Keel, of New Jersey, was on board the limited, last evening, going west. Their business is to investigate the extent of Chinese immigration on the Pacific Slope in violation of the law.

LOOKING FOR ANOTHER DAY... Congressman Lehigh, the Republican on the committee, stood by and listened to the speech of the Democratic member, who will come, said he. "The McKinley bill defeated us, and at will finally restore the party to power. The Republicans are not discouraged over the outlook, but then I don't blame the Democrats for rejoicing. My object now is to see that the immigrant laws are not violated."

FOUGHT AGAINST THE CHAINS... A Product of the Howling Wilderness Battles With Six Men... Imprisoned in a powerful cage in the heart of the city is a ferocious native of the wild jungles. Nothing in the cold, proud look which he turns on his master and sole proprietor, Mr. Harry Davis, would betray the anguish of his wounded feelings.

PARALYSIS OF THE HEART... Suddenly Ends the Life of a Little Girl at Play... Lizzie Kleinman, 12 years of age, died of paralysis of the heart yesterday. Her home is at 169 Vickroy street, where she was at play about the door, when she fell on the sidewalk as if in a faint. She was carried into her home by her companions, and Dr. Look was sent for. Before he arrived, however, she had expired.

EXPLOSION IN A BREWERY... Natural Gas Collecting Between Boilers Shakes Up a Building... An explosion occurred in Pier, Daniels & Co.'s brewery on Stevenson street shortly after 10 o'clock. The explosion was caused by natural gas collecting between two boilers and becoming ignited.

WORKING FOR THE PLACER... Friends of Colonel Echols Recommend Him for Attorney General... Colonel J. W. Echols left for a business trip to Vermont and New Hampshire last evening to settle up some legal affairs. He will spend to-day and to-morrow in Philadelphia and incidentally call on Governor Park to pay his respects, and tell him frankly that he would like to be his Attorney General.

WENT AFTER THE ELEPHANT... Superintendent McKnight Will Soon Have an Addition to the Park Menagerie... Levi DeWolf went to New York last evening to look after the transportation to Pittsburgh of the Guskus elephant which will be presented to the city for the Schenley Park menagerie. He had been contracted with a New York man to go to India and secure one for $2,200. He telegraphed yesterday that the animal had arrived in New York.

WENT AFTER THE ELEPHANT... Superintendent McKnight Will Soon Have an Addition to the Park Menagerie... Levi DeWolf went to New York last evening to look after the transportation to Pittsburgh of the Guskus elephant which will be presented to the city for the Schenley Park menagerie. He had been contracted with a New York man to go to India and secure one for $2,200. He telegraphed yesterday that the animal had arrived in New York.

AFTER THE CHINESE... The Immigration Committee Will Work on the Pacific Coast... The sub-committee of the House on Naturalization and Immigration, composed of Congressmen Stump, of Maryland; Lehigh and Keel, of New Jersey, was on board the limited, last evening, going west. Their business is to investigate the extent of Chinese immigration on the Pacific Slope in violation of the law.

REMEMBERED AT CHRISTMAS... Remittances of Money From America to Relatives in the Old Country... "Every year about this time I do a big remittance business across the sea," said Captain J. J. McCormick yesterday. "It will commence next Saturday and continue about four weeks. The Irish, English and Welsh send their money for Christmas, and the Scotch for New Year's. But it is amazing how much money is forwarded by poor people at Christmas time. I have on an average for four weeks before the 25th of December from 200 to 500 drafts a day, ranging in amount from $1 to $10, and frequently less. I have sent as low as 10 shillings, but I tell you that that pitance was dear, indeed, to the giver."

EFFECT OF BURNING COAL... Mills Throwing Out Great Clouds of Black Smoke and Dirt... On Friday the atmosphere in Pittsburgh was very murky, but toward evening great clouds of black smoke, mixed with a dense fog, which is nothing unusual, rolled over the city, and hung like a dark shadow above the tops of the houses.

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

THE POLITICAL OUTCOME DID NOT SURPRISE... Harry W. Paul... Harry W. Paul, President of the American Club, returned a few days ago from an extended trip along the coast to Washington and returned; "We of New York for the latter part to Connellville, and the Stewart Concert Company to New York. Division Passenger Agent Smith is now arranging for the mid-winter excursions to Washington."

CLAIMING HIS WIFE... Census Agent Angell Refuses to be Comforted When He Views Severe Arraignment of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the Terrible Disaster at New Florence

THE COLD FORM OF HIS LOVED ONE... S. H. Angell, the husband of Mrs. Angell, who was killed in the wreck on Friday, arrived here yesterday morning. He is special agent for the census, having in charge the recorded indebtedness, and Pennsylvania and Virginia come under his direct supervision. He called on Assistant Postmaster Edwards, whom he knows, and together they went to Samson's undertaking establishment to look at the body. Mr. Angell was deeply affected, and at first refused to believe that he saw the mangled remains of his wife before him.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

CLAIMING HIS WIFE... Census Agent Angell Refuses to be Comforted When He Views Severe Arraignment of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the Terrible Disaster at New Florence

THE COLD FORM OF HIS LOVED ONE... S. H. Angell, the husband of Mrs. Angell, who was killed in the wreck on Friday, arrived here yesterday morning. He is special agent for the census, having in charge the recorded indebtedness, and Pennsylvania and Virginia come under his direct supervision. He called on Assistant Postmaster Edwards, whom he knows, and together they went to Samson's undertaking establishment to look at the body. Mr. Angell was deeply affected, and at first refused to believe that he saw the mangled remains of his wife before him.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

WILL BURY HER IN CALIFORNIA... Mr. Angell lives in California. He returned to Washington last evening and will arrive here on Monday to take his wife's remains to the Pacific coast for burial. J. W. R. Binn, manager of the Royal Concert Company, who was one of the passengers on the wrecked Pennsylvania train, was feeling very sore yesterday. His nervous system has been badly shocked, and he has a pain in his head. He was irregular in the last few weeks, he is almost afraid to board another train. He bitterly blames the management of the road for not caring for the passengers after the wreck occurred. He says they claim that ten bottles of whisky were distributed, but he paid 50 cents for that he got, and then the conductor kindly stopped the train coming in until he bought it at a station.

HUMAN LIVES ARE MORE VALUABLE THAN to be kicked about like billiard balls, and the cause of this wreck should be thoroughly investigated. Those victims of the accident who were brought here are rapidly recovering. The Pennsylvania Railroad officials commenced an inquiry yesterday into the cause of the accident.

MARSHALL... THE CASH GROCER... WILL SAVE YOU MONEY... Colonel Bayne says the Tariff on Tin does not take effect for a month yet.

And so there ought to be no change in the price of tin until that time. Now, the Colonel is a very knowing man when it comes to passing along a seat in Congress to the right party, but what he does not know about tin cans would fill a very large book. The price of tin cans was advanced long before the packing season was over, and this advance was added to the price of all can goods. Vegetables and fruits were scarce and there were few to pack. So what were packed cost more money. In spite of these two causes we offer you can goods cheaper than last year. Not old inferior goods, but this season's pack and strictly first-class goods. Our greatest leader is Cold Packed Tomatoes, 85c PER DOZEN... Every can guaranteed. No wholesaler grocer will sell them for less than 95c.

Cor. California Can Goods and Maryland Yellow Peaches... We will sell you 20 per cent less than any Wholesale Grocer in Pittsburgh.

Don't miss your chance. These prices cannot last forever. We had 7 carloads of Tomatoes and 5 carloads of corn. They will last for some time, but when they are done, they cannot be replaced at my prices. Send for large Weekly Price List and order by mail. Orders amounting to $10, without counting sugar, packed and shipped free of charge to all points within 200 miles. A special discount of 5 per cent allowed on all orders of $30 and over, sugar and meat excepted. Send to PITTSBURGH... Tea and Order Department, 99 FIFTH AVE., Pittsburgh, or Cor. Sandusky, ALLEGHENY.

NEW ATTRACTIONS... CLOAK ROOM... A Few of Many Attractions. $5.00 Extra grade Stockinet Jackets. These are great sellers, being very shapely, double breasted, with French Lap seams.

Very rich, soft finish Royal Armures, Faillie Francaise, Peau De Soie, Rhadamens, Jersey and Duchesse at $1 a yard, actually worth $1 25. 24-inch wide Black Gros Grain Silks at $1, worth $1 25; $1 10, worth $1 35, and $1 25, worth $1 50. Elegant heavy Black Silk Brocades at $1 and $1 25 a yard, just half the manufacturers' original prices.

Exceptional assortments and values of fashionable garments. Ladies' Cloth Jackets, Reefers, etc., Plain, Braided and Fur Trimmed, the newest shapes and materials, in all sizes and prices. A special line of Rich Plain Cloth Mourning Wraps. New this week. Fur Capes—A great assortment of the most fashionable Furs, and made in the latest styles. Prices the lowest possible at which genuine Furs can be sold.

At $16 to $22—A large line of very handsome Jackets, embracing latest styles and effects as to shape, fur and handsome buttons, fastenings, etc. Gent's Smoking Jackets in handsome plaid and plain materials, beautifully made with finest linings and trimmings. These we offer at $7, $10, $12 to $18.50.