PURITY IN PLEASURE.

Sports and Recreations Allowable That Are Free From Vice.

RANK TREASON OF PESSIMISTS.

Their Selfish Doctrines Impeach the Government of God. VARIOUS SERMONS ON TIMELY TOPICS

Last evening Rev. George T. Purves faced a large congregation in the First Presbyterian Church. His sermon was on the subject of religion and pleasure. Text, Timothy ii 3, 4.

Beginning, the pastor referred to the practical side of the relation of amusements to a Christian life. He said when Paul referred to pleasures he looked at life as he ound it, and the joys of to-day are similarly related to religion.

"Extreme views of what pleasure is or of the true objects of religion," continued the speaker, "are injurious to both sides. Vice should have no place as a proper pleasure in human life, but recreation, sports and those pastimes designed to improve the mental and physical powers are highly commendable as a form of relief to draw our attention from the somberness of life. "The proper place for pleasure in life has limits. If the pleasure is calculated to have an evil effect it should not be countenanced. Pleasure should not be indulged in when work, which is of supreme importance, remains to be done. Amusements tending to e hurtiul to society are improper. Only those that will elevate the world are fit to meet the approval of all.

"There are recreations that may be harm-less to oneself, but duty to others requires such pleasures should be stopped. One positive guide to true happiness is the love of God. Following in the light of His holy precepts and wishes, pure pleasures will attend us through our lives. Let all pause on the threshold of contemplated joys and reflect whether they are walking in rightous paths. When we know that our acts are guided by the principle of love for good and all that is free from contamination, then we are pleasing our Father.

"It should be the object of our life to keep before us, day and night, the great principle which the Savier sought to instill in the bosom of humanity-love all that is good in the sight of God; With this thought in mind we will know how to distinguish evil from pure in pleasure, and adhere to the teachings of religion."

PRAISE FOR PITTSBURG

From a Speaker at the Sabbath Observance Association Meeting.

The meeting of the Sabbath Observance Association, at Old City Hall, vesterday alternoon, was presided over by Rev. Dr. Robinson, of Allegheny, and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Waiton. The attendance was good. The first speaker was empty for them, and parents should study

Rev. Wilbur F. Graff, D. D., was the next speaker. He said the Sabbath should be kept because Christ kept it. It should be kept because it is the law of the church 'Il as the law of the State. The speaker stated that Pittsburg is the best Sabbathkeeping city in the country, and that didn't speak any too well of it, either. Pennsyltania is the best Sabbath-keeping State in the Union; but what was wanted was to filled. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Crait, whose subject was "The right of the laboring man to his Sabbath." He also paid Pittsburg the compliment of having one of the best Sabbaths in the DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

An Allegheny Baptist Congregation Worships in Its New Home.

The Green Street Baptist Church, of Allegheny, was dedicated yesterday. Services were held in the morning, afternoon and evening. The little church had been decorated with vines and wreaths of green, and about the pulpit and the choir seats | otted plants and palms were placed. The music or the services was rendered by the choir of the church, a chorus of a double quartet. The pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Laws, delivered the sermons, that of the morning being but the usual discourse. The dedica-tory cration was delivered in the afternoon. The church was filled with mem-bers of the congregation and their friends. A lesson wes read of the building of the temple, from which the paster drew the conclusion that the work of erecting their present house of worship was a repetition of history. He charged his hearers to guard their new edifice with a jealous care and to look to its interests as ey would any other of their belongings,

The congregation of the church numbers about 60, who have been two years in erecting the present church. It stands on Scott street, some distance back of Robinson, and is an unnyetentions little brick structure, but one story in height. In time, it is noped, another story will be added to it. Dr. Laws also preached a sermon last night.

WHY SINNERS ARE NOT CHECKED.

Reasons for the Postponement of Punish ment for Evil Doings.

"Why the Sinuer Persists in Sinning." was the theme of Rev. Dr. Sutherland's sermon last evening in the Second Presbyterian Church. He said: "God is the only being that can afford to take time for the accomplishments of His purposes, and for the execution of His judgments against those who persist in disobedience to His righteous and commands. His judgments may be held back and long delayed in mercy and forbearance, but no evil can escape divine penalty. In the administration of the affairs of His moral government, He pursues a course totally different from that which is apparent in the control of the national world. gression is, as a rule, followed immediately by penalty. His moral law is, has been and vill be violated in 10,000 ways with seeming

Why is this? Evidently not because God is ignorant of the sins of men, for He fills immensity with His presence. There is but one reason, viz: The long-suffering mercy and patience of God. 'He willeth not that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance and live.

RANK TREASON OF PESSIMISTS.

Their Selfish Doctrines an Impeachment of God's Wisdom.

At the Eighth Presbyterian Church Rev. F. R. Donehoo delivered an interesting sermon on "Pessimism." Among other things he said: "Pessimists are found not only among the cultured and refined, not only among those of mature years who have had abundant opportunity for philosophizing on such subjects, but also among the easy going and hard working classes the taste for metaphysical speculations Pessimism is simply the doctrine that everything in the world is going on from bad to worse, that no adequate compensation awaits our toil and struggles and pains. "Pessimism is an impeachment of God's "Pessimism is an impeachment of wisdom, it is rank treason in His government, begotten of basest selfishness and superior at a price impossible to obtain in any other way. Members can suit themany of making payments. which God's word abundantly sheds on all the things which trouble us here below."

MORALITY AND RELIGION.

ermon by Rev. Dr. Townsend, of the Unitarian Church, Yesterday Morning. In the course of his sermon yesterday, Rev. Dr. Townsend said: "We sometimes hear the phrase, 'mere morality,' as if morality were something poor and mean. I have heard ministers denounce morality as if it were immorality, and declare moral men the most dangerous class in society! Now I wish to show the identity of morality and religion; show how large and inclusive morality is. I think you will see that street, Allegheny, and see the piano, or send morality includes religion as the root includes branch and blossom. But what is morality? Morality includes four thingsindustry, purity, kindness and honesty. He that gives some useful service to the world makes shoes, coats, iron, or steel, shops or houses, thought or beauty, and is pure, kind and honest in his relations to his fellows, is a moral man. Morality cannot be less; I do not see how it can be more. But see how much this means. For example, in the smallest moral action there is presence of the whole moral law, as when an apple falls, there is presence of the great law of gravitation, as much as when a sun is pulled round its awful orbit. when a sun is pulled round its awful orbit.

So that the smallest right action is right for me, and for all men, in all places and at all to the office. Ring up 1186. times-right in the lurthest star, or in a thousand thousand years hence. It is connected with the eternal and universal. That little moral action circles out until its waves touch all shores of the infinite sea. It has the ideal element, it is religious.

Look at any action of common honesty. inknown, unseen, perhaps. Yet that deed is a thread in the web of mutual confidence that holds society together. Again, how the word morality orbs out, glows and burns like a sun. Or, in that drama we call sin, what is that which releutless memory turns our eye upon? This, that we have brought the tear to the cheek of an innocent child, or bruised a sacred friendship, or taught virtuous teet to walk in unholy paths. Again, we see that morality is the greatest word that ever trembled on spiritual lips. But is not belie: in God religion? But where is God most urgent and near? Is he not within us, most of all in the commands of the moral right? Is not God revealed in the reverences of the right. Again, the word morality shines and glows. I would rather you would wear the common cloth of morality than the fashionable velvet of a loud profession.

TRUTHS FOR YOUNG MEN.

Dr. David Kennedy Outlines the Elements

of Business Success. The Rev. Dr. David Kennedy, of the First Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, last night closed his series of sermons to young men. The subject of his last sermon was "The Young Man and Business." He said business success was due first to Mrs. Travers, who for ten minutes dwelt on brains. He argued that each man how to interest children in the Sabbath. is blest with a certain amount of The speaker insisted that the day is now too | brains which are given out as capital stock for him to improve. He cited society as some way in which to interest them. The one of the enemies of brains, and described activity of children cannot be subdued, and a man who gives himself up to society as there should be something interesting given them that while it would amuse them it would also be instructive.

"a babbling of small talk; a butterfiv, all show and no substance; a peacock with a big tail and weak legs. Were I young "a babbling of small talk; a butterfly, all again I would shun the so-called society as I would Asiatic cholera."

In speaking of industry as another feature of success he said, "There is no such thing as luck; there is only divine sovereignty and man's agency. What is termed luck in business men is only the natural result of labors done maybe years before." Over-meddle, obstinacy and laziness he pictured the Union; but what was wanted was to make it even better. Mr. Graff closed his the way to avoid them. The doctor referred remarks by entreating those present to en-roll themselves as members of the associa-tion. on.

The evening meeting at the same place bonors of their unusual powers. Genius to be of any use must be accompanied by industry. He believed in caution, but said there must also be adventure-that adventure which calculates results. He argued strongly against speculation and compared success in that with business growth as balloon and a house. The house would stand, but a passing bird might destroy the

MARRIAGE VOWS WORN LIGHTLY. A Lively Sermon on Wedlock Delivered by Rev. T. J. Leak.

"Wedlock," was the subject of Rev. T. J. Leak, at the North Avenue M. E. Church, last evening. He believed that marriage was a contract in which both parties should stand equal. "No young man," he said, "who has not lived a pure life has a right to marry and curse his posterity. A young man who has not at least moderate means should not ask a girl to share his poverty." Husbands also bear too easily their mar-ringe vows. He should be as pure as his wife, but too often is he a connecting link between the purity of his wife's life and the degradation of the outside.

Closing Out Auction Sale

Of diamonds, watches, jewelry, clocks, bronzes, silver and silver plated ware, etc. Finding that I cannot give the necessary amount of attention to two stores I have decided to dispose of my Smithfield street store and afterwards give, my entire atten-tion to the store at 36 Fifth avenue. Both establishments have large and complete stocks of goods usually carried in first-class jewelry establishments. The consolidation of the two stocks would be too large for our store, in consequence I have decided to close out my stock at 533 Smithfield street, at auction, and have secured the services of Colonel J. M. Rutherford, of Philadelphia, as salesman. My stock is composed of over $75,000 worth of strictly first-class watches, diamonds, jewelry, silverware, clocks, bronzes, etc. This stock must be closed out as quickly as possible. All goods are guaranteed. I am not retiring from busi-ness. After disposing of my Smithfield street store I will be located at 36 Fifth ave-nue. Sales begin Monday, November 24, at 10 A. M., 2:30 and 7:30 P. M., and will continue daily until entire stock and fixtures are disposed of, at M. G. Cohen, Diamond Expert and Jeweler, 533 Smithfield street,
