SERMONS UPON THE HOLY LAND.

Lessons to be Drawn From a Visit to Jacob's Famous Well.

THE BATTLE FOR THE WOODEN CROSS

INFECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BROOKLYN, November 16,-This morning in the Academy of Music in this city, and this evening at the service in the New York Academy of Music, Dr. Talmage preached the eighth of the series of sermons to is giving on his tour in Palestine. At both services the respective buildings were crowded to their utmost capacity in five minutes after the doors were opened, and all who came later were unable to get in. Dr. Talmage's subject was "Among the Bedouins, and his text, Numbers 10:31: "For-asmuch as thou knowest how we are to en-camp in the wilderness." He said: Night after night we have slept in tent in Palestine. There are large villages of Bedouins without a house, and for three thousand years the people of those places have lived in black tents, made out of dyed skins, and when the winds and storms were out and tore lose those overings, others of the same kind took their places. Noah lived in a tent. Abraham in a tent. Jacob pitched his tent on the mountain. Isaac pitched his tent in the valley. Lot pitched his tent toward Sodom. In a tent the woman Jacl nailed Sisera, the General, to the ground, first having given him sour milk called "leben" as a soporific to make him soundly sleep, that being the effect of such nutrition, as modern travelers can testify. The Syrian army in a tent. The ancient battle shout was "To your tents, O Israel" Paul was a tent-maker. Indeed, isalah, magnificently poetic, indicates that all the human race live under a blue tent when he says that God "stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in," and Hezekiah compares death to the striking of a tent, saving "My age is removed from me as a shepherd's tent."

AN ILLUSTRATION EXPLAINED. Nothing surprised me so much as the per-istence of everything. A sheep or horse talls dead and, though the sky may one minute bere be clear of all wings, in five minutes after the skies are black with eagles cawing, screamig, plunging, fighting for room, contending for argest morsels of the extinct quadruped. Ah, argest morsels of the extinct quadruped. Ah, now I understand the force of Christ's illustration when He said: "Wheresoever the carcase is there will the eagles be gathered together." The long-evity of those eagles is wonderful. They live 50 or 60 and sometimes 100 years. Ah, that explains what David meant when he says. Thy youth is renewed like the eagle's." I saw a shepherd with the folds of his coat far bent sutward and I wondered what was countined in shepherd with the folds of his coat far bent utward and I wondered what was contained in tax amptitude of apparel and I said to the ragoman, "What has that shepherd got under it coat?" And the dragoman said: "It is a cry young lamb he is carrying; it is too young and too weak and too cold to keep up with the ock." At that moment I saw the lamb put shead out from the shepherd's bosom and I aid, "There it is now, Isaiah's description of the tenderness of God—'He shall gather the mils with His arm and carry them in His open."

sing by a village home, in the Holy Land, moon, I saw a creat crowd in and around ate house, and said to the dragoman; id, what is going on there." He said; ebody has recently died there and their bors go in for several days after to sit and weep with the bereaved." There it is, the old sermoural custom: "And mark of the old scriptural custom: "And many of we came to Martha and Mars, to comfort concerning their brother." Early in the the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother." Early in the morning passing by a cemetery in the Holy Land, I saw among the graves about 50 women bressed in black, and they were crying: "Oh, my child?" "Oh, my husband?" "Oh, my allow?" "Oh, my allow?" "Oh, my mother?" Our dragoman old us that every morning very early for three noranges after a burial, the women go to the spuichre, and after that every week very early or a year. As I saw this group just after dayreak, I said: There it is again, the same old ustom referred to in Linke, the evangelist, there he says: "Certain women which were arry at the sepulchre."

A HISTORIC SPOT.

it here we found ourselves at Jacob's well, the most famous well in history, most dis-tinguished for two things, because it belonged to the old patriarch after whom it was named. and for the wonderful things which Christ said drizzling rain, and our dragoman, climbing up to the well over the slippery stones, stumbles and frightens us all by nearly falling into it I measured the well at the top and found it six feet from edge to edge. Some grass and weeds and thoray growths overhang it. In one place the roof is broken through. Large stones em-bank the wall on all sides. Our dragoman took ing rains and to that Christ refers when to the Samaritan woman about a ual supply: he said that he would, if asked wing spring in distinction from the that well which was rain water. But why did Jacob make a reservoir there when there is plenty of water all around and abundneed of that reservoir? Why did Jacob go the wast extense of boring and digging a ill perhaps 200 feet deep as first completed, en, by going a little way off he could have ter from other fountains at little or no ex-use? Ah, Jacob was wise. He wanted his as an Jacob was wise. He wanted his as well. Quarrels and wars might arise with other tribes and the supply of water might be out off, so the shovels and bick-axs and boring natruments were ordered and the well of learly 4,000 years ago was sunk through the olid rock.

THE LESSON TO BE DRAWN.

When Jacob thus wisely insisted on having his own well he taught us not to be unnecessuirly dependent on others. Independence of lusiness character, Independence of religious Have your own well of grace, your character. Have your own well of grace, your own well of courage, your own well of divine supply. If you are an invalid you have a right to be decembent on others. But if God has given you health, common sense, and two eyes, and two cars, and two health, common sense, and two eyes, and two cars, and two feet. He equipped you for independence of all the universe except Minnelf. If hie had meant you to be dependent on others you would have been built with a cord around your waist to the fast to somebody else. No; you are built with comeyes to him your own way, with ears to select your own music, with hands to fight your own battles. There is only one being in the universe whose advice you need and that is God. Have your own well and the Lord will fill it. Dig if need be through 250 feel of solid rock. Dig it with your pen, or dig it with your yard-stick, or dig it with your shovel, or dig it with your Rible.

In my small way I never accomplished anything for God or the church, or the world, or myself except in contradiction to human advice and in obedience to divine counsel. God knows everything, and what is the use of going for advice to human heings who know so little that no one but the all-seeing God can realize how little it is. I suppose that when Jacoh began to dig this well on which we are sitting this noomlide, people gathered around and said: "What a useless expense you are going to when rolling down from yonder Mount Gerizim and down from yonder Mount Gerizim and down from yonder Mount Ebal, and out yonder in the valley is plenty of wat-if." "Oh," replied Jacob, "that is all true, but suppose my neighbors should get angered against me and cut off my supply of mountain beverage, what would I do, and what would my family do, and what would my focks and herds do? Forward, ye brig de of pick-axs and crowbars, and go down into the deaths of these rocks, and make me independent of all except Him who fills the bottles of the clouds! I must have my own well?" in my small way I never accomplished any-who are industrious and self-denying almost always have good luck. You can afford to be laughed at because of your application and economy, for when you get your well dug, and filled, it will be your turn to laugh.

But look up from this famous well, and see two mountains and the plains between them on which was gathered the largest religious audience that ever assembled on earth, about 500,000 people. Mount Gerizim, about 800 feet high, on one side, and on the other Mount Ebal, the former called the Mount of Blessing and the latter the Mount of Cursing. At Joshua's command six tribes stood on Mount Gerizim and read the blessings for keeping the law, and six tribes stood on Mount Ebal reading the curses for breaking the law, while the 500,000 people can the plain cried Amen with an emphasis that must have made the earth tremble. "I do not believe that," says some one, "for those mountain tops are two miles apart, and how could a voice be heard from top to top?" My smower is that while the tops are two miles apart, the bases of the mountains are only half a mile apart, and the tribes stood on the sides of the mountains, and the air is so clear, and the acoustic qualities of this great natural amphithearer so perfect that voices can be distinctly heard from mountain to mountain as has been demonstrated by travelers 50 times in the last 50 years.

SORROWING PARENTS.

SORROWING PARENTS.

On and on we ride until now, we have come to Shiloh, a dead city on a hill surrounded by rocks, sheep, goats, olive gardens and vine-yards. Here good Eli fell backward and broke his neck, and lay dead at the news from his bad boys Phineas and Hophni; and life is not worth living after one's children have turned out badly, and more fortunate was Eii, instantly expiring under such tidings, than those parents who, their children recreant and profligate, live on with broken hearts to see them going who, their children recreant and promgate, live on with broken hearts to see them going down into deeper and deeper plunge. There are fathers and mothers here to-day to whom death would be happy release because of their recreant sons. And if there be recreant sons here present, and your parents be far away, why not bow your head in repentance, and at the close of this service go to the telegraph office and put it on the wing of the lightning that you have turned from your evil ways? Before another 24 hours have passed take your feet off the sad hearts at the old homestead. Home to thy God, O prodigal!

Many, many letters do I get in purport saying: My son is in your cities, we have not heard from him for some time; we fear something is wrong; hunt him up and say a good word to him; his mother is almost crazy about him; he is a child of many orayers. But how can I hunt him up unless he be in this audience? Where are you, my boy? On the main floor, or on this platform, or in these boxes, or in these great galleries? Where are you, your mother is praying for you. Your God is calling for you. Of will you wait until Eli falis back lifeless, and the heart against which you lay is infancy ceases to beat? What a story to tell in eternity that you killed her? My God! Avert that catastrophe.

A WELCOME CHANGE.

But I turn from this Shiloh of Ell's sudden decease under bad news from his boys, and find close by what is called the "Meadow of the Feast." While this ancient city was in the height of its prosperity, on this "Meadow of the Feast" there was an annual ball, where the maidens of the city amid clapping cymbals and a blare of trumpets—danced in a glee, upon which thousands of spectators gazed. But no dance since the world stood ever broke up in such a strange way as the one the Bible de-scribes. One night while by the light of the lamps and torches these gayeties went on, 200 Benjamites, who had been hidden behind the lamps and torches these gayettes went on, 200 fenjamites, who had been hidden behind the rocks and among the trees, dashed upon the scene. They came, not to injure or destroy, but wishing to set up households of their own, the women of their own land having been sian in battle, and by preconcerted arrangement each one of the 200 Benjamites seized the one whom he chose for the queen of his home, and carried her away to large estate and beautiful residence, for these 200 Benjamites had inherited the wealth of a nation.

As to-day near Shiloh we look at the "Meadow of the Feast," where the maidens danced that night and at the mountain gorge up which the Benjamites carried their brides, we bethink ourselves of the better land and the better times in which we live, when such scenes are an impossibility, and amid orderly groups and with prayer and benediction, and breath of orange biossoms and the roll of the wedding march, marriage is solemnized, and with oath recorded in heaven, two mortals start arm in march, marriage is solemnized, and with oath recorded in heaven, two mortals start arm in arm on a journey, to last until death do them part. Upon every such marriage altar may there come the blessing of Him "who setteth the solitary in families." Side by side on the path of life! Side by side in their graves! Side by side in heaven!

path of life! Side by side in their graves! Side by side in heaven!
But we must this afternoon, our last day before reaching Nazareth, pitch our tent on the most famous battlefield of all time—the plain of Esdraelon. What must have been the feelings of the Prince of Peace as he crossed it on the way from Jerusalem to Nazareth! Not a flower blooms there but has in its veins the inherited blood of flowers that drank the blood of

AN ABSORBING SCENE.

gions round in which the Holy Cross, the very We dismount from our borses in a two pieces of wood on which Jesus was sup-grain, and our dragoman, climbing up posed to have been crucified, was carried as a standard at the head of the Christian host; and that night, closing my eyes in my tent on the plains of Esdraelon-for there are some things we can see better with eyes shut than openthe scenes of that ancient war come before me. The twelfth century was closing, and Saladin at the head of 80,000 mounted troops was crying: "Ho for Jerusalem! Ho for all Palestine!" and before them everything went down, but not without unparalleled resistance. In one place 130 Christians were surrounded by many thousands of furious Mohammedans. For one whole day the 130 held out against these thousands. Tenvson's "six hundred" when thousands. Tennyson's "six hundred" when "some one had blundered" were eclipsed by these 130 fighting for the Holy Cross. They took hold the lances which had pierced them with death wounds, and pulling them out of their own breasts and sides, burled them back again at the enemy.

On went the fight until all but one Christian had fallen and he, mounted on the last hor-e, wielded his battle-ax right and left till his had failen and he, mounted on the last hor-e, wielded his battle-ax right and left till his horse fell under the plunge of the javelins and the rider, making the sign of the cross toward the sky, gave up his life on the point of a score of spears. But soon after, the last battle came, History portrays it, poetry chants it, painting colors it, and all ages admire that last struggle to keep in possession the wooden cross on which Jesus was said to have expired. It was a battle in which mingled the fury of devils and the grandeur of angels. Thousands of dead Christians on this side. Thousands of dead Christians on this side. Thousands of dead Mohammedans on the other side. The battle was hottest close around the wooden cross upheld by the Bishop of Ptolemais, himself wounded and dying. And when the Bishop of Ptolemais dropped dead, the Bishop of Lydda setzed the cross and sgain lifted it, carrying it onward into a wilder and fleroer fight, and with sword against javelin, and battle-ax upon heimet, and piercing spear aganst splintering shield, horses and men tumbled into heterogeneous death.

ONLY A SEEMING DEFEAT.

ONLY A SEEMING DEFEAT.

Now, the wooden cross, on which the armies of Christians had kept their eye, begins to waver, begins to descend. It falls! and the wailing of the Christain host at its disappearance drowns the huzzah of the victorious Mosance drowns the huzzah of the victorious Moslems. But that standard of the cross only seemed to fall. It rides the aky to-day in triumph. Five hundred million souls, the mightiest army of the ages, are following it, and where that goes they will go, across the earth and up the mighty steeps of the heavens. In the twelfth century it seemed to go down, but in the nineteenth century it is the mightlest symbol of glory and triumph, and means more than any other standard, whether inscribed with eagle, or lion, or bear, or star, or crescent.
That which Saladis trampled on the plain of Esdraelon, I lift to-day for your marshalling.
The cross! The cross! The foot of it plainted in the earth it saves, the top of it wointing to the heavens, to which it will take you, and the out-spread beam of it like outstretched arms of invitation to all nations. Kneel at its foot.
Lift your eye to its victim. Swear eternal allegiance to its power. And as that mighty symbol of pain and triumph is keep before us, we will realize how insignificant are the little crosses we are called to bear, and will more cheerfully carry them.

And then I hear the wild rush as of millions of troops in retreat, and then the shout of victory as irom 1,400,000,000 throats, and then a song as though all the armses of earth and heaven were joining it, clapping cymbals beating the time—'The kingdoms of the world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever." lems. But that standard of the cross only

FEATURES OF TRADE.

Tanners and Hide Dealers Agree on

Lower Prices of Hides.

CALFSKINS WRAK BUT UNCHANGED

Country Butter Goes Begging for Buyers, and Oleo Booming. CANADA POTATOES TO THE PRONT

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH. SATURDAY, November 15, 1890. The tanners and hide dealers of Pittsburg and Allegheny have agreed on a new scale of prices, to go into effect on Monday, November 17. There is a drop all along the line, with the exception of calfskins, which are weak. Price of light hides is now within Ic of the lowest point reached a year ago, when hides were lower than they had been since the war. Some dealers are of the opinion that another drop may come, as markets are weak at the decline, which has been in practical operation for a week or two past. Following is the classification of hides and scale of prices as agreed on by tanners and dealers of the two cities: Green steer hides, trimmed, 75 pounds and up, 75 cents per pound. Green steer hides, trimmed, 60 to 75 pounds, 7% cents per pound. Green steer hides, trimmed, under 60 pounds, 5 cents per pound. cents per pound.

Green cow and heifer hides, trimmed, all weights, 5 cents per pound.

Green bull hides, trimmed, all weights, 4½ cents per pound. Green steer hides, with one or more grubs, 14 Green cow hides, with one or more grubs, 1½ cents per pound less.

Green bull hides, with one or more grubs, 1 Green pannd less.
Green calfskins, 7 cents per pound for No. 1.
Green calfskins, 5 cents per pound for No. 2.

Harness Leather. Trade in this line continues quiet, but there no more accumulation of stock in the hands of tanners than is customary at this season of the year. Prices of harness leather are not changed, but a new classification has been adopted by the Allegheny tanners, which is given below.

Butter vs Oleo. The butter question is one of great perplex sion men report that they can sell a good article of country butter at 15c per pound and less, and find it heavy stock even at these low figures. On the other hand, the retail grolow figures. On the other hand, the retail grocer reports that he cannot get such country rolls as his customers want under 25c to 28c,
and consumers are charged 35c per pound.
Jobbers of dairy products report that they discourage shipments of country butter because it is hard to sell at any price. Said a leading jobber to-day:
"Oleo is pushing out the creamery and country butter trade in this city. Fully four-fitths of all that is sold here is oleo. Our trade in creamery butter has been steadily on the decline of late, and as to country butter, we can hardly sell it at any price. The imitations of butter have the field in spite of the law, which makes it criminal to manufacture or sell cleo
in Pennsylvania."

It is one of the unexplainable features of trade that country butter should go begging for

It is one of the unexplanable features of trade that country butter should go begging for customers at 15c per pound, while fancy Elgin creamery cannot now be laid down in Pitsburg at less than 3lc per pound. In the past week Elgin creamery has been advanced 3c per pound, and still jobbers of dairy products are reluctant to accept shipments of country butter called good at less than half these figures. Canada Potatoes.

By reference to domestic market column, it will be seen that Canada potatoes are now coming to Pittsburg. A commission merchant reports receipts of three car-loads from that source, on which the duty was $500, or 25 cents per bushel. With freight added in 40 cents per bushel. With freight added in 40 cents per bushel was added to lay-down cost. Cauadian consumers are paying less than one-half the Pittsburg prices of potatoes this season. This, however, is an exception, and it is a rare thing that this country needs to call on her Northern neighbor for products of garden and farm.

MARKETS BY WIRE.

To me the plain was the more absorbing be-cause of the desperate battles here and in re-The Longs to Unload, Resulting in a Tremendous Slaughter of Values.

CHICAGO-The wheat market exhibited all the symptoms of a true case of panic before trading had been in progress over an hour today, but the spasms, though violent, were not of long continuance, and during the last hour there was a recovery of nearly 25% from the lowest prices of the day, with the closing figures showing a decline since yesterday of 1/2c in December and %c in May. Corn and oats were dragged down, while wheat appeared to be in the throes of dissolution, but came up again like corks when the weight of the wheat panic lifted, and each closed with moderate gains. Provisions were dull, and, while averaging lower, closed with very little loss since yesterday.

Pork-Rather active at irregular prices. Opening sales were made at about the closing figures of Friday and a reduction of 5c was quickly submitted to. Later, prices railied 7½ @10c, but more pressure to sell caused a weak feeling and prices receded 17½@20c. Toward the close prices rallied 7½@10c and closed

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Baring Brothers' Troubles Have a Tremendous Effect on Stocks-An Improvement Toward the Close, but Losses Are Not Made Good. NEW YORK, November 15.-The stock mar ket to-day for the two hours' session was the liveliest we have had since the great slump of December 15, 1886, and for an honr or more there existed a perfect panic among the holders of securities, especially railroad stocks, and the declines established during that time were The only cause of the excitement was the announcement from London that the great firm of Baring Brothers had been forced to seek assistance to tide them over the present financial crisis, and the holdover the present mancial crisis, and the hold-ers of stocks became panic-stricken over the news, without reflecting that the danger had really already passed when the Bank of En-gland and the Rothschilds came to the rescue. Reflection, however, is the last thing a man thinks of when his pocketbook is in danger, and everyone went in to save as much out of the wreck as possible by selling out in the quickest time.

The early advices from London were reassuring, and the crisis was represented as over there, and, continuing the improvement begun yesterday, first prices were generally fractionyesterday, first prices were generally fractionally higher than yesterday's figures, with Northern Pacific preferred up 2 per cent to 591/6. The announcement about the Barings was thrown at the market immediately, however, and the good feeling disappeared in an instant, and from prospective buyers the whole room became sellers at the best prices obtainable. The force of the decline may be gathered from the fact that in an hour Lackagathered from the fact that in an nour Lacka-wanna had dropped away 9% per cent to 123%; Jersey Central, 7½ to 98: Atchison, 5½ to 23%; Pullman, 5½ to 175; Canada Southern, 6½ to 42; Burlington, 7½ to 89: Rock Island, 5½ to 62; and the other leading stocks from 2 to 5 per

and the other leading stocks from 2 to 5 per cent.

The final losses are very material, and Lacka wanna is off 4%: Jersey Central, L5; Rock Island, 4; Missouri Pacific, 3%; Atchison and Chicago Gas, each 3; Burlington, 2%; Cleveland, Chocago, Columbus and St. Louis, 2%; Silver certificates, 2; Northwestern and Canada Southern each, 1%; Western Union, 1%; New England, 1%; Wneeling and Lake Erie, 1%; Texas Pacific, 1½; Lake Shore, 1% and Sugar Refineries, 1 per cent. lefineries, I per cent. Railroad bonds were active, but showed none Railroad bonds were active, but showed none of the excitement or animation of stocks, and while the sales of all issues reached $1,484,000, the final changes of note were comparatively few. The active issues comprised Archison incomes, with $191,000: Northern Pacific Ss, with $178,000; Texas Pacific 2s, $155,000, and the Kansas and Texas 4s, with $125,000. Prices to night are naturally lower, and Atchison incomes lost 2 at 48, and Wabash 2s 2 at 70.

DOWN AND UP.

Stocks Given a Number of Sens Twists During the Week. The past week witnessed quite a flurry in New York, and to some extent in Pittsburg. Realizing assumed the proportions of a craze, and chean stuff was to be found everywhere.

and chean stuff was to be found everywhere. The slump was due to tight money at the speculative centers.

The storm broke on Monday, causing a decline all round. On Tuesday the disturbance was at its height and values vanished like dissolving views. On Wednesday there were symptoms of a reaction, which became quite manifest the following day. The recovery was as rapid and pronounced as the break, and the opinion was very generally entertained that everything was on its feet again. Yesterday, however, advices from London of the embarrassment of the creat house of Barings, with connections in New York, gave Wall street another twist and stocks again went off, rallying, however, at the close. The news was received too late to affect local stocks, and the entire list closed at about the best prices of the week.

entire list closed at about the best prices of the week.

Local trading was quite heavy on both the decline and rally. Total sales for the week were 2,430 shares, of which Electric furnished 995; Philadelphia Gas, 590, and Pleasant Valley, 355. Saturday's sales were 10 shares of Switch and Signal at 13%, 15 Luster at 20%, and 7 Electric at 23%.

Nothing Wrong With the Money Market-Business in Good Shape.

In spite of the upheaval in Wall street and financial troubles abroad, Pittsburg held the fort last week, coming out with a splendid record and nothing in sight to cause appre-hensions for the future. There is more than usual significance in this. It shows clearly that
