How a Green-Goods Swindler Takes in the Unwary Dishonest.

HE FINDS MANY RURAL VICTIMS.

Terrible and Fatal Boiler Explosion in Reading Shop.

A PEA TAKEN FROM AN OLD MAN'S EAR

PERCHAL TELEPRAN TO THE DISPATOR ! CLEARFIELD, November 17 .- The green goods man has been active here for some time past, and seems not one whit disheartened by the recent newspaper exposures. It is shrewdly suspected, however, that he is now seeking backwoods victims in the hope that the exposures have not yet reached such places. That he has guessed aright can be attested to by more than one to his interest to keep quiet since one man was sent to the Allegheny county pen simply because he lost $350 by going into just such a scheme with a crook. In every case the man to whom the letter is sent is a coun-

Your corespondent was shown a letter of invitation and instruction to-day which was just received from New York. The letter is marked "Strictly confidential," and holds out glittering promises to an agent, and the efficacy of Uncle Sam's mail restrictions are best shown when it is seen that time and time again the intended victim is cautioned time again the intended victim is cautioned not to write, but to telegraph. The letter of instruction is a marvel of ingenuity, well calculated to catch weak nien, and after warning against the writing of letters at least a dozen times, closes with another dire threat of what would happen if letters were written. Another inclosure reads as follows:

"If you wish to come to see me send the following telegram; I shall understand it, and shall send full instructions as to how I can be found; but distinctly remember, under no consideration ever send me a letter, for I won't receive it:

OPY OF TELEGRAM YOU ARE TO SEND .-A. R. Fotrell, Lintner, Piatt County, ill.:
"Engage the output: have papers drawn up.
Sign your name and postuffice address.
"I shall send you full instructions on receipt of above telegram, where you can meet me at my headquarters. I only receive my telegrams at this address, but transact business elseshere."

Accompanying all of these minute instructions is an estensible clinping from a country paper, telling the old fake story of how the United States Government is robbed out of millions annually, by being obliged to redeem notes printed on plates stolen from the mint, and told in such a way that it is no wonder the unwary dishonest are so often caught. The alleged newspaper clipping, however, was shown to an old "type," who at once detected it as being bogus. The column is cut wide, so as to show a portion of the reading matter in the other two columns alongside. These the other two columns alongside. These the printer referred to quickly scanned, and ex-posed at once as being bogus. There were end-ings and beginnings of words never used in any language, the letters having evidently been thrown together, with no idea that there would

TERRIFIC BOILER EXPLOSION.

Many Injured and Four Lives Lost in Reading Cooper Shop.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. READING, PA., November 17 .- A boiler explosion occurred at the cooper works of Trexler & Bro., at Mertztown, this county, this morning, killing Charles Oswald, machinist, aced 36, who leaves a widow and five children; Henry Epler, aged 24, single, and Sassman Hil-bert, aged 32, who leaves a widow. Charles Walborn was also fataliy injured. Seven others were scalded badly or otherwise injured. The injured are: Charles Walborn, a jointer, aged 35, farally; Samuel Epler, aged 45, badly scalded about hands and face; Alfred Epler, aged 28, sugmeer, slightly injured: Frederick Long, aged 41, seriously scalded about race and legs; Charles Boriz, aged 20, scalded about face and hands: James Bausher, aged 40, received two new cashes the badd race serious. Plant of the control of two ugly gashes in the head, very serious; Plas Rausher, aged 15, scalded about face and body; William Reppert, aged 30, terribly scalded about the face.

The boiler was 30 feet long and was torn into three pieces, one of which, 24 feet long was harled a distance of 150 yards. The three men halled were thrown 140 feet away and lay side by side. The injured were found in the debris and removed to their homes. The mill was partly wrecked. The loss is estimated at $3,500.

CARRIED A PEA IN HIS HEAD.

The Substance Placed in a Child's Ear

Comes Out in Old Age. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ALLENTOWN November 17 .- A queer story comes from Friedensville, a few miles south of nere. David Mohry, nged 74 years, has been suffering with pains in the head for years, and lately he took to his bed and called in and lately he took to his bed and called in medical relief. The hearing of his left ear was also affected, and he finally lost all use of it.

What was the surprise of the family to find last week, that a cherry stone had been taken from that organ, as smooth and round as glass. The old man then remembered that when he was a child, his mother used to tell him that he had stuck a cherry stone in his right ear, but after being troubled with it for some time the rain ceased, and they thought it had dropped out.

The strangest thing of it all is that the centioman is positive the stone was in the right ear, and if so it had worked completely through his head, and come out of his left ear. It had been there for at least 70 years. Mr. Mohry is now recovering his hearing, and all pains in his head have ceased.

FULFILLED A WAR PROMISE.

A Veteran Finds Money Secreted by a Comrade at Gettysburg. PECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. MCKRESPORT, November 17 .- Just prior to the battle of Gettysburg a soldier who auticipated that he was to fall in that engagement made a request of John Ambrose, an old soldler now residing in Westmoreland county, which our just been compiled with. Mr. Ambrose was himself injured in the battle and atterward drifted away, so that he was unable at the time drifted away, so that he was unaute at the to carry out the wishes of his comrade.

Before the fight the man gave Ambrose a package of papers, among which were £15 in gold, said he did not expect to survive the fight, and the standard ambrose to secret the package beand asked Ambrose to secrete the package be-tween the rocks, and after the war was over to secure it and return them to his wife. Am-brose, who lost a leg in this battle, did so, and brose, who sust a seg in this satisfies the wisen he went to Gettysburg a snort time ago, found the package where he left it. The gold was intact and was returned to the widow of his friend, but the papers had long since rotted.

COKE REGION SOCIALISM.

The Order Holds a Large Secret and Fiery Delegate Convention.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, PA., November 17 .- The Sccialists of the coke regions held a Delegate convention at Everson, just across the line from this city, yesterday. About 80 delegates, representing all of the societies of that order in the region, were in attendance. The forenoon was devoted largely to routine business, and the afternoon to a discussion of the live issues of the day and the objects of the order. Socialistic enthusiasm was quite liberally expressed at both sessions, and the addresses of their leaders were clamorously received. clamorously received.

The convention was secret throughout, and was held in a remote place. A large number of Americans are joining the order.

RICHARD QUAY'S SEAT IN CONTEST.

His Democratic Competitor Says Smooth Bore Tickets Beat Him.

** PECCAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]
ROCHESTER, Pa., November 17.-W. 8. Braden, late Democratic candidate for the Legislature, was in town to-day looking up evidence for his contest against Richard R. Quay, the successful man.

He claims that he has the affidavits of several He claims that he has the allidavits of several recisons who claim they worked a smooth-bore ticket in the interest of Quay, but he refuses to give their names. Mr. Braden says the use of this licket was the cause of his defeat. Mr. Quay, in the meanwhile, does not appear in the least alarmed as to the threatened contest.

A NOTEWORTHY SCENE.

Protestants Attend the Lecture of a Pries

in a Catholic Church. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SYRACUSE, N. Y., November 17 .- A remarkable scene was witnessed in the village victim in this vicinity who probably finds it of Cicero, this county, on Sunday. All the Protestant churches dismissed their congregations from evening services and gathered with their clergy at the Catholic Church o the Sacred Heart to hear the lecture of Father Joseph Tiernan, of St. John the Baptist's Church, Syracuse, on the subject

He had been invited by the Christian Temperance Union of the village about three weeks ago, and announcements having been made in all the churches on the intervening Sundays, the concourse at the Sacred Heart Church was very large and it com-pletely filled the edifice. The lecture was listened to with rapt attention.

ALLEGHENY.

We are daily warned through the newspapers to look out for counterfeit bills which are in circulation. These are most of them cleverly executed, and are readily accepted by great numbers as genuine. Of course, the man who gets one of them is out that much. But this is just as true of counterfeit clothing as it is of counterfeit money. A counterfeit is something that looks like what it is not. That's just how counterfeit clothing looks. Behind plate glass, and, even to the touch, it appears all right. It's true nature comes out in the wear. There's a heap of it in the market. Did you ever get stuck on a suit. If so, you will appreciate these remarks. Not one man in a hundred is a judge of clothing, you say, and this is true. How may you protect yourselves? Deal with a reliable house, that has a name and reputation to sustain, a house that is really more interested in giving you good value for the money accepted than you are in getting it. Deal nowhere where a sliding scale of prices exists. Buy no auction or bankrupt stock goods. Avoid clothing houses whose residence in the city is temporary, in the windows of which, when you go around a month or two after to lay them out for the manner in which they have de-ceived you, you see this sign, "TO LET."
