Details Showing that La Blanche Had No Show Against Kessler.

Foller details regarding the fight between La Blanche, "The Marine," and George Kess-ler show that the former had the worst of the emotest from the start. A lengthy account from theorge La Blanche, the self-nominated cham-

In the thirteenth round, finding that he could state no longer, he deliberately kicked Kessler in the groin white standing in the center of the ring. This ended the fight, the referee giving it to Kessler on a fout. La Blanche was fairly whipped if ever a man was. He had to be carried to his corner and then to his dressing room, while Kessler jumped the ropes and ran in as light as a boy. Fully 2,000 people witnessed the fight.

Possibility of Lehigh and U. of P. Playing Football in Pittsburg.

There is considerable local interest centered in the football game which takes place between the Lebigh and University of Pennsylvania teams at Bethlehem on Saturday. another foot race yesterday, John Quinn, a ocal sporting an hority, said: 'I think that Priddy can get two races, both of shich he can win. Some time ago I was talking with Lon Meyers, the famous pedes trian, and he told me that he would match trian, and be told me that he would match frescricks to run Peter Priday a mile for $2,000 a side. I think Priday can beat Fredericks. Meyers also said that it Priddy defeated Fredericks he, Meyers, would run friddy a mile for $2,000 more. If Priddy keens himself in good condition I'm certain that he can secure a good datch or two, because he need not be afraid of acybody in the East."

It is likely that Priddy's backers will sooner or later try to secure a maich for him for a big stake. McCleiland's backers, too, are not at all discouraged about the defeat of their champion, and they think he can defeat anybody in the country except Priddy, and the general opinion is that they are right in their judyment.

The Association Meeting. LOUISVILLE, November 18.-The meeting of the American Association to be held to-day a week will be an important one, as the circuit for next season will be decided. It is about definitely settled that Syracuse and Rochester will be dropped. Washington, Indianapolis and Milwankoe have applied for franchises, but it is not at all probable that either will be admitted. The Athletic's franchise is now owned by the Association, as the owners of that dub failed to make good their guarantee, and club failed to make good their guarantee, and they are still deeply indebted to the Associa-tion. All club nombers of the Association for 'il will be compelled to deposit a cash guaran-tee of $2.50 by January 1, to play the season through. It was ascertained to-day from a re-liable source that a club would probably be placed in Cincinnati. The Association still owns a franchise there, and several men have written to the Association office here saying that they can secure backing for a club there. Manager Chapman will take the Lonisville Club South on March 1. Grounds for week-day games will be secured in the center of the city.

Mr. Prince says he bas $40,000 to spend over the matter. The threat, for such it merely is, is looked upon as ridicu for such it merely is, is looked upon as ridicu-lous, occause Judge Bacon, the P. "Bets prove dothing at all, as Schaefer ought to know by this time," he said. "The thing that counts and which settles all billiard matches is the play at the billiard table. Schaefer speaks as if he were pretty confident that he will produce that play and carry off the cup. Perhaps he will, and then again perhaps he won't. All that I have got to say is that I am playing with great steadiness, and am very well satisfied with the records of my practice thus far. If my memory serves me aright, both Schaefer and Ives came to town with a brass hand and a lot of vocal fireworks at the time of the Chickering Hall tournament. I also beheve that the newspapers of that period, if examined, will show that they both went back done up in crape. Their return to the West was in the nature of a funeral procession. Perhaps that thing may happen again this time; but whether it does or not, I will be in business at the same old stand, and I don't believe that anybody will discover that it has made any change in me, whichever way the game results. I will have no horn to blow if I win, and if I loss nobody will know better than myself that I alone am to blame. I know that he is the hardest man in the world to beat, but I think from the way I feel now that I can beat him. My only trouble has always been indigestion, but I never was in better condition in my life than I am just now, and I am dleting myself." Slosson said that he could not consider the proposition made by I yes on Sunday of a challenge for a match of $500 a side at 14-inch balk line, the winner to take everything.

I walked to Mampooja, but found that all the natives and all of Tippoo Th's people had run away. Returned here and started out for Bonny's camp. Met a messenger with note from him on the road. Bonny tells me the guides led him all wrong, and then ran away. His camp is half an hour from here.

July 11—Somal informed me to-day he gould not leave for Unaria until day after to-morrow. I warned him that every day lost on the road meant a day less at Unaria. Bartelet would expect us to be ready to start on his arrival, He has not the slightest power over the other head men.

It cleared however, and we made a start, when it began to pour again and rained steadily until reaching Bonny's camp in the forest, where we camped. When within about a mile from camp, we were met by a messenger from Bonny, who handed me a letter. While opening it I heard some men saying Barttelot was dead. This is only too true, as the letter contained the sad news that he had been shot dead early in the morning of the 19th at Unaria, and forther that all the Manyemas and mini Somai had left. Bonny's letter follows: "July 19, 1883. Dear Jameson: Major Barttelot was shot dead early this morning. The Manyemas, Somai, Abdullah and all have gone. I have written to Tippoo Tib through Baert, and shall push on. Yours, BONNY." I have determined to start early to-morrow for Unaria, getting there in the evening, leaving everything in charge of Sergant Paquit and the head of the Muniampara, Haines, with orders to come on as fast as they can to Unaria. tent up. ## BURGLARS SHOW FIGHT.

Police Officials and Thieves in a Lively but Harmless Fusilade. IBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.

HERTFORD, November 18 .- A very un usual scene occurred this morning at Hatfield, about six miles from this town, the country seat of the Marquis of Salisbury.
Superintendents Hood and Reynolds, accompanied by two police constables, went to Hatfield railway station, which is opposite usual acene occurred this morning at Hat-Hatfield railway station, which is opposite the entrance of Lord Salisbury's estate, for revolver of the bulldog type, and the first one fired at Reynolds, the second at Hood and the third at one of the constables named Wright. Hood returned the fire of the second burglar, and immediately a lively inter-change of shots ensued, with the result that 21 were discharged in the course of a minute. By a remarkable chance not a single bul-let took effect, and they all lodged in the wall of the park of Hatfield House. This scene took place in broad daylight and in the presence of several onlookers. The burglars eventually fled into the wood, and were hotly pursued by the police. One of their number was captured, but the others are still at large.

An Old Bomb Explodes With Terrible Fatal Results.

(BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.) LONDON, November 18 .- An old bomb, which was believed to be unloaded, exploded to-day at Jacque' Ironmongery, Kirchstrasse. An apprentice, Samuel Klein, was trying to break the bomb into pieces, when it burst and Klein received the full charge in his face, breast and arms. His limbs were literally torn from his body and he was instantly killed.

An artisan named Turowski, who was in the same room, had his face badly torn. All the windows were smashed and much damage was done.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE POINT.

From a Catholic Archhishop down to the Poorest of the Poor all testify, not only to the virtues of ST. JACOBS OIL, but to its superiority over all other remedies expressed thus: It Cures Promptly, Permanently; which means strictly, that the pain-stricken seek a prompt relief with no return of the pain, and this, they say, St. Jacobs Oil will give. This is its excellence.
