National Convention of the New Temperance Organization.

MANY LEADERS OF PROMINENCE.

A Day Devoted to Prayers, Singing and Earnest Addresses.

Avenue M. E. Church. All the members of the convention are assigned to the houses of friends of the cause in the two cities, but at the opening exercises there were not more than 75 present. As the day wore on, however, the church became filled with later arrivals. The membership, as can easily be seen, is composed of ladies of unusual intellectual attainments. Some were richly, but all tastefully, dressed. A feature of the convention were the young lady pages, whose blue badges flutered up and down the sisles as they attended to the wants of the delegates. Another feature is the music, which is under the direction of Mrs. Patton, of Philadel-

LAST NIGHT'S SESSION. The church was crowded last night, and much interest was manifested in the addresses made by Revs. J. T. Leak, W. H. McMillen, and Mrs. Mattie Bailey. Miss Isabel G. Shortledge, of Concordville, Pa., made an earnest appeal for financial aid to carry on the work of distributing literatue and educating the boys and girls who are to take the belm in the future.

Mrs. Lydia H. Tilton, of Washington, D. C., spoke of the hard work done by members of spoke of the hard work done by members of the union in trying to get proper temperance legislation through Congress. She was followed by Mrs. Mary J. Aldrich, of Cedar Rapids, reviewed the work of the temperance cause for the past 100 years, after which the convention adjourned until to-day.

The proceedings of the merning session were opened with a hymn and prayer by Mrs. Isabella Plumb. Oberlin, O. This was followed by a short prayers and addresses by Mrs. J. Allen Fester, of Iowa, and Mrs. Camelia Alfred, of Brooklyn, N. Y. After the appointment of a committee on credentials, telegrams meet of a committee on credentials, telegrams of greeting were read from Oregon, Minnesota, lowa and Onio, the Crusaders of Tiffin adding to their greeting. THE SECRETARY'S REPORT. The report of the General Secretary, Miss F. roud a tribute to the co-operation of the Y's, a junior organization of the union, and gave a statement showing the standing of the senior order in the eight States in which it had been organized within the last ten months. Mrs. Bailey, President of the lowa Union; Mrs. Panl, President of the Maine Union; Mrs. Lukens, President of the New Jersey Union, and Mrs. Planney, of the Ohio Union, made snort addresses. Mrs. Campbell, President of the Pennsylvania Union, said that if any work was needed this State would be in the van. She unged that the boys as well as the girls be brought into the junior organization.

At the afternoon session Rev. J. T. Leak, jaster of the North Avenue M. E. Church, and Rev. W. H. McMillau, of the Second United Presbyterian Church of Alleghens, delivered addresses of welcome. The response to the welcome was made by Mrs. Mattie M. Bailey, President of the lowa Union. The remainder of the afternoon session was taken up in the appointment of committees and other routine business.

SABBATH REFORMERS. MEASURES FOR PROPERLY ORSERVING

THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK Congress Urged to Pass Laws Prohibiting Carrying the Mails, the Running of Trains and Other Secular Employment

The sessions yesterday of the Sabbath Reform Convention were largely attended. Last night Rev. Dr. W. F. Crafts, of Chi- fitted. cago, delivered an address on behalf of the "hristian Sabbath, giving several reasons why t was not more generally observed throughout | branch store.

The following delegates were appointed to attend the National Convention to be held in Philadelphia, next month: Rev. A. J. Gregg Philadelphia, next month: Rev. A. J. Gregg and Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick, of Armstrong; T. S. Stewart, Westmoreland; Rev. J. H. Gibson and Rev. J.W. Baker, of Fayette, and Dr. J. W. Robinson and Captain A. Wishart, of Allegheny county. The Executive Committee was authorized to name the other delegates. At the afternoon session the topic first dis-cussed was "The Physical, Intellectual and So-cial Benefits of Sablath rest," Dr. Havs, Dr. maked was "the rayston, intellectual and So-cial Benefits of Sabhath rest," Dr. Hays, Dr. McAllister and Dr. Crafts taking part. Dr. Hays made a verbal report as to the work of the Executive Committee during the past year. With the coming year they expected to do much better, as the work so far had been in the cluded with an address by Charles C. Bonney, of Chicago.

"The Duty of Congress to Protect Sabbath Rest as Far as its Jurisdiction Extends," was discussed at the morning session. Chairman Rev. D. S. Littell suggested that it was not necessary that the convention should devote itself solely to speeches, as Congress needs praying for as much as talking to, One speaker said the President of the United States.

speaker said the President of the United States had set a bad example in traveling on Sunday. When Rev. Dr. Crafts suggested that President Harrison bad not traveled on Sunday the first speaker said he did not mean the present President, but Mr. Gleveland. Dr. Crafts ther went on to tell about the movement to stop Sunday mails, Sunday trains and Sunday parades, Petitions had been presented to Congress representing 10,000, 600 people. He said that Congress was so busy legislating far other sections of the country that it could pay no attention to Washington, in which there was more Sunday descration than any city of the Union except New Orleans. the Biar and kreekenridge bills for the defense of the Sabbath in the District of Columbia. The second topic was 'The Immediate Duty of the Friends of the Sabbath in Western Penn-sylvania. Box D. McAllister said the first sylvania. Hev. D. McAllister said the first duty was to organize in all the counties and push the tork in every known way.

The Committee on Resolutions offered a pre-immary report deploring the apathy and lack of consistency of Christians; appealing to the Colombian Commissioners against the opening of the Work. Fair on Sunday: recommending a business men's protest against such opening; calling upon the Postmaster General to put a atop to Sunday work in the 60,000 postoffices of the country, and advocating a law deposing public officers who will not enforce Sunday laws.

The various subjects were discussed at length LAW AND ORDER BANOTIET

But the Jingle of Silver Drove Away His Good Intentions.

"Did you ever see a man disgusted with himself? Well, I am one," said an unkempt indi-vidual to a reporter yesterday. "I am going to the Central station and give myself up." "I wouldn't do that. You have been drinking and they may send you to the workhouse You ought to brace up," was the reply he re-ectived. He had an honest face, partially hidden behind a layer of dirt and a straggling

"I am a printer," he continued. "I have done wrong and I know it. Booze is the curse of my life, and I feel if I could get behind bars and stay there for awhile I might recover from this HOW THE NEW WORK IS PROGRESSING

STONING RAILROAD CARS.

A Man Knocked Senseless on the Pittsburg and Western.

P. W. Lupher, while riding in a smoking car near Herr's station, on the Pittsburg and Western Railroad Tuesday evening was struck in the temple and knocked senseless by a stone that crashed through the car window. The train was stonped and an unawalling search made for the person who threw the stone.

The company has set several detectives to work, as this is not the first time cars of that road have been stoned at the same point.

Science Overcomes Deafness. Just now the medical world is engaged in discussing the new device for deafness called Sound Disc. No invention of late has attracted so much interest among the medical profession. Its perfection, which is now an established fact, has resulted in the over throw of many pet theories of the being no relief for a wast number of cases of deafness. This ingenious discovery was made by H. A. Wales, of Bridgeport, Conn., and coming as it does with the approval of some of the leading aurists of the world it can hardly fail to prove of great value to both the profession and the afflicted.
