F. P. SLAVIN RESOLVES TO RETIRE.

Everybody Pleased That Emuwood Track is Safe—General Spouting News.

It may be accepted as a certainty that Walter W. Burnham will be manager of the Pittsburgh Baseball Club next year.

Mr. Burnham is a fine looking gentleman of about 34 or 35 years of age. He looks every inch a business man; a good conversationalist and at once gives one the idea that he knows what he is talking about and when he has said enough, it will be difficult to meet a man more ready to talk.

After registering at the hotel he and Mr. Scandrett went to the Duquesne Club where they met Mr. Nunnally.

Mr. Burnham has not yet been definitely engaged to manage the club, but it is likely that he will be today if a meeting is held.

REILLY'S SWEEPING CHALLENGE.

The Pittsburgh Wrestler Ready to Meet Any Man in America His Weight for the Championship—He Makes a Plain Statement.

Pittsburgh is becoming prominent in more branches of sport than foot racing. In the latter Peter Priddy stands as a representative of the very first class, and now we have a young man who is getting ready to challenge anybody his weight in America to wrestle him.

"I am considerably above my wrestling weight, and I don't want to enter into any contest with you," he said. "I am a professional wrestler, and I am willing to meet any man in America his weight for the championship."
