display.

This rushing week of concerts opens well to-morrow evening with the first appearance here of the famous Belgian violinist, Mr. Ovide Musin, with his concert company, which will be effected at Old City Hall. This forms a prime attraction in the Pittstempt to give really good entertainments at prices within the reach of thousands who cannot usually afford to attend them. A very similar course now going on in Cleve-land has a subscription list of 3,000 names; it ought to fill Old City Hall without diffculty.

Ovide Musin was born in Liege, Belgium, in 1854. At the early age of 8 he evinced so remarkable a talent for music that his father sent him to the Royal Conservatory of Liege, where he received the first prize for violin playing when but a boy of 11. Meanwhile, his father endeavored to per-suade him to abandon music as a profession, but this was impossible. In 1870, Leonard, the celebrated violin player and composer, having heard Musin, was so well pleased with him that he tried, and succeeded, in persuading his parents to let him choose the career of an artist, and from that time to the present his successes have been many and great both in Europe and in America, where he has been on concert tours from ocean to

The Beethoven Quartet Club.

Tuesday evening brings the first concert this season by our much-prized chamber music organization, the Beethoven Quartet Club, composed of Messrs. Carl Retter, piano; Fred G. Toerge, violin; George Toerge, viola, and Charles F. Cooper, violincello. For this occasion Miss Clementina De Vere, whose popularity in the East this senson is even more astonishingly great that before, has been engaged. Old City Hall has been chosen for the Beethoven's con-certs this senson.

preat vogue last century. Beethoven's great "Kreutzer" sonata, for violin and piano, played by Mesars. Fred Toerge and Retter, will delight all lovers of good music as well as satisfy the curiosity of the less musical lately awakened by Tolstoi's novel.

When strolling troupes can command such audiences, surely our own musicians, working honestly in a peculiarly delightful field of music, ought to have most generous patronage, especially when enterprising enough to call in the aid of the leading soprano now before the American public.

service. ALFRED GAUL'S anthem, "The Ten Vir-gins," dedicated by the composer to American choirs and choral societies, had its first produc-tion in this country last Sunday evening by the tion in this country last Susday evening by the vested choir of St. James' Church. New York, under the direction of G. Edward Stubbs. Mr. Gaul was led to write "The Ten Virgins" by the favor with which his cantata, "The Holy City," was received by cathedral chors. Learn-ing of the intention of Mr. Stubbs to produce the anthem, he composed a bymn to accompany it, which was also heard for the first time. The anthem was written only in August and the bymn in October.

It is significant of the place that music holds certs this senson. The programme, printed in full last Sun-day, includes two novelties—Taubert's quartet, op. 38, for piano and strings, and Doppler's Nocture, op. 19, for flute, horn, violin and piano. It is good to see on our home programmes evi-dence of the renaissance of chamber-music for wind instruments such as used to enjoy great vogue last century.
