A COZY CHURCH HOME

Dedicated by Southside English Evangelical Lutherans.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The Rev. J. D. Butler Says the Fourth Commandment is Obsolete.

SERVICES FOR AMERICAN MECHANICS

Dedicatory services were held in the Trinity English Evangelical Lutheran Church, Southside, yesterday morning, afternoon and evening. The new church is which republican government was reached a beautiful and cozy little edifice, on Sidney served as an introduction to his sermon. street, near South Twenty-first street. The He spoke of the necessity of educating congregation is an English-speaking offshoot of the South Eighteenth Street German Lutheran Church. The new congregation was formed October 1, 1889, and the corner was formed October 1, 1889, and the corner sufficient intelligence, and also because was formed October 1, 1889, and the corner seats and woodwork in natural colors. The size is 39x70 feet. It is not a large church, of course, comparatively speaking, but the work, including the designs, is tasty and head, and its body afterward. The cow neat. The cost will be a little over $7,000. | first brings into play her bock joint, and FIRST SERVICES IN THE CHURCH.

The services in the morning were in the bovine method is the proper one. English, Rev. W. Dallman, of Baltimore, preaching the sermon. The dedicatory titual of the church was augmented by congregational and choir singing, prayers, etc. Rev. Mr. Brandt preached the atternoon ermon, which, together with the services, was in German. Rev. C. Spannuth, the future paster of the congrega-tion, preached the evening sermon. tion, preached the evening sermon.
The latter was in English. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, exotics and tropical plants. The choir of the Eighteenth church, under the direction Mr. Peters, had charge of the music. The government of the new church is as Mows: President William Kemmler: reasurer, Henry Rudel; Secretary, Joseph P. Zoelier; Trustees, Henry Rudel, John Schuchman, William F. Zoeller; Deacons, August Coleman, John Weyman, Jr., Edward Kress; Elders, John Weyman, St., Joseph P. Zoeller. Louis Stande has died once being elected elder and his place will be filled shortly.

TWO OTHER DEDICATIONS.

New churches were also dedicated at Mansfield and Camp Copeland, near Brad-dock, vesterday. The new Methodist Episopsi Church at Mansfield is named after esley, the great reformer. The presiding elder of the district, Rev. Robert Steel, preached the morning sermon at 10:45. Rev. W. H. Brooks, of the Wheeling M. E. Church, assisted the presiding elder. Rev. R. H. Robinson preached at 3 P. M. At 7 P. M. Rev. G. W. W. Jenkins addressed the Knights of Pythias. The church is a cell-arranged and commodious structure, and will make a home for the congregation or years to come.

The new St. Luke's Reformed Church is in Copeland avenue, two squares from Copeand station. A house of worship has been needed at that point for some time, and the ongregation felt happy to be enabled to induce their riends to the result of their hard work yesterday. Dedicatory services were held in the afternoon. Among the ministers who assisted in the services were: N. Hellman, Huntington; Rev. Jacob Hassler, Mercersburg; Rev. Dr. P. C. Prugh, Butler; Rev. A. E. Truxal, Manor; Rev. H. D. Darbaker, McKeesport; Rev. James S. Freeman, Wilkinsburg; Rev. James S. Freeman, Wilkinsburg, Rev. John H. Prugh, Grace Church, Pittsburg.

AN OBSOLETE COMMANDMENT. Rev. J. D. Butler Says the Fourth Was Made for the Hebrews.

Rev. J. D. Butler, pastor of the East End land avenue and Alder street, took a view opposite to that of the majority of clergymen in his "Sabbath Observance" sermon, vesterday. He said: "I hold that the law f the Sabbath for the world is to be found mandment was exclusively their law of the Sabbath and went out of force when the New people. The church as such alone can keep them at the warerooms of Alex. Ross, 137 that day. The secular day is for man's Federal street, Allegheny. Mr. Butler also noticed the Law and Order Association's work. He charged his people to keep the Lord's Day in the home as well as in worship. They are not to do nanecessary work or keep their servants at unnecessary work on the holy day.

AMERICAN FLAG SYMBOLS. Budget of Thought Given Out by the Rev

The Thanksgiving service of the Jr. O.

Mr. Cowl.

U. A. M. was held last night in the Union Avenue M. P. Church, Allegheny. The Manchester, Reliable, Colonel Clark, Peerless and William Thaw Conneils were present. Rev. Mr. Cowl flag symbolizes by saying: "In the thought of the Jr. O. U. A. M. it symbolizes Americanism and nationalism. They open the country's gates to the world, but worst. It also symbolizes to them that sel-fishness which leads an American to help an American in preference to one of any other nationality. It also gives to them the idea of an open Bible every school, and also that in those schools clean, unclipped history should be tanglit. History tells of the horrors of the History should be taught in schools as it is, and it is the duty, of this order to see that the story of the past, which is handed down to children, shall tell both faults and the virtues of all parties and of all re-

WOMAN AND CHRISTIANITY.

Thousands Who Would Like to be Born Again and be Men.

"Woman as a Factor in Christianity" was the subject taken by Rev. Charles Edward Locke, of the Smithfield Street M. E. Church, for his evening's discourse. "Christianity emancipated woman," said be. "If you want to learn the degree of a nation's christianity and civilization look at the position held by the women. Socrates once said that he thanked God that he was neither a slave nor a woman. This only shows the position formerly held by the women in regard to the world. There are 300,000 women in the world whose highest ambition would be if it were possible to be born again and be a man." Continuing, Mr. Locke said the church is trying to give woman the place assigned her by God. The church was crowded beyond its seating capacity to accommodate the congregation.

MORE BINDING SCHOOL LAWS.

Dr. W. H. McMillan Makes a Plea for Compulsory Education Statutes. Rev. W. H. McMillan, D. D., preached last evening to a number of councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at the Second United Presbyterian Church, Stockton avenue, Allegheny. He said the first ducy of the order was to the public schools, which all classes of goods. are the nurseries of popular intelligence.

Compulsory education was what he advocated, except where it could be shown that children received adequate education

"If what I am told," said he, "be true, children do not receive adequate education in parochial schools. Dr. McMillan told the order to teach lo of country and morality, and as the Bible was the only standard of morality, it was their duty as American citizens to see that the Bible was taught in every school.

WANTS A LITERARY TEST. Ideas on Voters and Candidates by Rev-

Dr. Fulton. At the Second Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, the Rev. J. L. Fulton, D.D., spoke yesterday on "The Ballot," before the Fort Pitt and Pleasant Valley Councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. A history of the events by those who own property are taxed and yet the architecture is semi-gothic, the material used being dressed brick.

The structure has a moderate-sized auditorium, the ceiling finished in white, and the continum, the ceiling finished in white, and the maning the book lain. This is the latin word meaning the book lain. meaning the hock joint. This is the joint by which an animal lifts itself, and it is by the vote that a candidate lifts himself to office. When a horse rises it first lifts its then lifts her head. Politics at present are too much on the horse-hoisting style, while

PRAISE OF MAN

Or Praise of God, the Subject of Rev. Dr.

Sutherland's Sermon. "For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God" was the text from which Rev. J. R. Sutherland, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, preached last night. He said: "You can tell what a man is when you know what he most loves. The Pharisees believed in Christ, but would not confess it because they loved the praise of men more. There is a great deal of secret faith as well as secret doubt. Men are kept back from acting with Christ because they love the praise of man, and will not risk losing it.

"The praise of men and the praise of God seldom fall upon the same men," continued Mr. Sutherland. "In the society of to-day it is not the best man or best woman, but the best dancer, the loudest dresser and the smallest-brained persons who are more likely to be considered successful.'
