MAN TREED BY AN UGLY BLACK BEAR

WASHINGTON, Pa. November 23.—A desperate attempt was made by the prisoners confined in the county jail to make their escape this afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Hugh Sample, while passing up Beam street, noticed several of the bricks out of the west side of the jail, and some one from the inside was removing others. He reported the fact to the Sheriff, who shut the prisoners in their cells.

He also found a number of tools with which they had been working their way to liberty. A plan had been formulated by which West, the condemned murderer, and Teaters, held on the charge of causing the murder of Mrs. Sanders, were to be the first ones to make their escape; then the others were to follow.

White, who is on a charge of illegal liquor selling, refused to obey the Sheriff at first, but at the point of a revolver was forced back into his cell.

STEVENSVILLE, November 23.—The row over the morality or immorality of short skirts, in connection with the Reeves Opera Company was decided yesterday by the ladies of the Social Purity Society of this city. The society took exception to the posters of the opera company, and attended the show, the party elements being represented by Medes and Brownlee.

The ladies sat in their seats but a short time when they hastened out and sought the office of the Mayor. That gentleman was at the scene, and was ready to take any action at all at the show. Thoroughly aroused at such a scandal the two ladies sent for the Mayor, who came to the scene.

The ladies wanted the show people arrested, to which the Mayor refused his consent, and a scene followed. He finally refused to allow the fight to proceed and serious trouble would have resulted had it not been for the fact that he had in his pocket a revolver.

A REVERENT AGNOSTIC.

Although Opposing Christianity, Favors Booth's Scheme.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, November 23.—The Earl of Derby has subscribed £1,000 to General Booth's scheme of social regeneration. The Marquis of Queensberry sends £100 to the same cause, and proposes a yearly donation for the same.

He asks an interview with General Booth, saying that he believes the general is engaged in the best work that a man can lay his hands to; but he desires it to be distinctly understood that he opposes Christianity, which, he says, has failed to help the poor. He concludes by saying that he has his own idea of a "reverent agnostic." Other donations of £100 and smaller sums continue to arrive.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT ON TOP.

ROME—Midnight returns have been received from the Senate, which the Government has a large majority. The Government candidates have defeated the opposition in several places now held by the latter. In Rome the Government has secured four seats. The opposition has secured three seats. The Government is assured. Premier Crispien is elected in three different cities—Palermo, Syracuse and Girgenti. The socialist Costa is defeated in Bologna.

DISTRICT IN POLAND.

LODGE ADHERES TO HIS BILL.

It is a compilation which leads the Republicans to be exceedingly careful about expressing themselves until they have had time and opportunity to counsel with each other. They are not ready to allow themselves to be slowly driven into the city, the more serious the diversity of opinion seems to be. Henry Cabot Lodge is one of the last in the line to arrive. He adheres to his convictions in regard to the bill which bears his name, and declares that the Senate must redeem its promise to pass the measure.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

Many Mortgages Given, but Only One is Valid, for Lack of Consideration—Judgments Were Improperly Confessed in Favor of Debtors.

CHICAGO, November 23.—Another attack has been made upon the alleged fraudulent assignment of Leopold Brothers & Co., this time in a bill filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by Charles Stierbach, of New York, who asks to set aside conveyances made by Henry Leopold, deceased, in favor of Leopold Brothers & Co., secured by Henry Leopold, February 8, 1890, and never recorded. Complainant is a member of the firm of Stierbach & Co., which had large dealings with Leopold Brothers & Co.

Leopold Brothers & Co. gave notes for $4,363 to Sherman, Stierbach & Co., secured by a mortgage, which Henry Leopold requested not be recorded on account of his good business standing, and on representing that his firm had assets amounting to $238,730 over their liabilities, the document was not recorded, so complainant charges.

Subsequently, it is charged, Henry Leopold mortgaged the real property for $40,100 to Samuel Cole, Francis H. Peabody, Carrie B. Leopold, Isaac Hass and L. Spiegelberg. Only the Peabody mortgage was said to be valid. The other mortgages were void for want of proper consideration.

A charge is made that most of the judgments, aggregating $148,323, were confessed which were given by Henry Leopold, and the court is asked to set aside the fraudulent ones. Then Henry Leopold is accused of paying $5,000 to lawyers for no service, which money rightly belongs to the estate. The appointment of a receiver is said to be conclusive and the court is asked to appoint a new one, after setting aside the various conveyances subject to that of complainant. The court is requested to declare complainant's mortgage a lien and order a sale of the premises to satisfy his claim, and in the meantime to restrain any disposition of the property.

VALUATION OF AUTOGRAPHS.

The President's Signature Costs a Dollar, and Gladstone's is a Drug.

Autograph collecting is a very innocent though somewhat costly hobby, says a collector in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. My collection has cost me over $500, and its cash value to-day is over $1,000. Autographs have their cash prices, and will always fetch them. The signature of a President of the United States is worth $10; that of a statesman, $5; that of a general, $3; that of a soldier, $2; that of a sailor, $1; that of a farmer, 50 cents; that of a laborer, 25 cents; that of a woman, 10 cents; that of a child, 5 cents; that of a dog, 2 cents; that of a cat, 1 cent; that of a mouse, 1/2 cent; that of a rat, 1/4 cent; that of a pig, 1/8 cent; that of a cow,
