

WALTER RETAINED

Mr. Burnham Given to Understand That He May Not Manage Pittsburgh's New Ball Club.

HANLON OR WARD WILL OFFICIATE

Director O'Neill to Go to Chicago to Confer With Mr. Spalding About Next Year's Players.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION MEETING.

A Challenge for Peter Friday's General Sporting News of the Day.

After all the talk there has been made about the engagement of Mr. Walter W. Burnham to manage the local ball club next season, it seems safe to say that Mr. Burnham will not be here.

Yesterday afternoon, J. P. O'Neill, who has no doubt been explained to those who have been directly connected with it, that the world outside of Pittsburgh can rest assured that it is not the regular thing to change managers.

Of course, it is much to be regretted that a gentleman of Mr. Burnham's abilities and energy should be forced to such an extent, because the telegram states that he is not wanted here. The result tendered Mr. Burnham, who did not originally seek, this position, can best be explained by those who have been directly connected with it, that the world outside of Pittsburgh can rest assured that it is not the regular thing to change managers.

It is not a fault whatever to find with Mr. Burnham. He is an able man and a perfect gentleman; in fact, it was the first to suggest him as a future manager for a Pittsburgh club.

Mr. O'Neill went on to say that there are strong chances that Mr. Spalding and Hanlon will be the last manager of the club. He will consent to take Mr. O'Neill. If Ward will accept, and Hanlon will be captain, Mr. O'Neill is certain that he can secure all the players.
