Business Office—Corner Smithfield and Diamond Streets. News Rooms and Publishing House—77, 77 and 79 Diamond Street.

TERMS OF THE DISPATCH. POSTAGE FREE IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE QUEEN'S PROMISES. The Queen's speech, at the opening of Parliament, outlines an Irish policy which indicates that Salisbury is tentatively contemplating the possibility of repeating the famous acts of Peel and Disraeli in stealing the Liberals' policy.

THE HUNGARIAN EXAMPLE. The Hungarian zone system of railway fares is attracting considerable attention in this country as a novel system of regulating charges.

THE REAL REASONS. It is instructive to find in an editorial comment on Mr. Depew's speech at the New York Chamber of Commerce banquet, the statement: "According to Mr. Depew the kings of finance are the real rulers of the world."

CONSUMPTION IN PITTSBURGH. During the last ten years there has been a marked decrease in the number of deaths from consumption in Pittsburgh.

CHICAGO'S GRAND SQUABBLE. The display of pettiness, bad temper and jealousy in connection with the Chicago World's Fair continues.

FREE TRADE INCONSTITUTION. The questions arising out of the election having somewhat palled on its taste, the Chicago Herald, which is of the most ultra free trade stamp, returns to its oft refuted attack on the sugar schedule of the McKinley bill.

HEAD IN COURT. A State Company That Claims Exemption From State Taxation.

"GHOST DANCE" DESCRIBED. A Woman Missionary Writes of the Orgies of the Indians.

THE MARKET STRIKE, who declined to give two burly broncos fighting room in the South-side market house yesterday, of course did his duty. But what a lot of fun he missed!

SOME papers are expressing the opinion that it does not make any difference whether the National Guard is paraded at Governor Tatnall's inauguration or not.

SO IT seems that President Cleveland has at last arrived at that stage of his career where the public man discovers that he has written one too many letters.

THE political organs of Philadelphia are raising an agitation for "a new Philadelphia." Perhaps one of the most direct methods to clean up the city would be to elect a new mayor.

THE warm weather of Monday and Tuesday brought down the price of turkeys. The gentle birds themselves will go down to-morrow.

CHANDLER'S plan of calling the old Legislature of New Hampshire together to prevent the Democrats coming into power, by virtue of the election of a new Legislature, is a very old and well-known device.

GLADSTONE ON PARNELL. Gladstone has declared himself against Parnell's retention of the leadership of the Irish Home Rule party.

TO KEEP GAS BILLS DOWN. The advance forehadened in the price of natural gas may be discounted largely by the general adoption of gas-saving appliances by the consumers.

SNAP SHOTS IN SEASON.

A WOMAN can have two strings to her bow, but she shouldn't have two bows.

WE like to laugh, don't we? It's not hard to make us laugh, either. If you don't believe this, just stop into some of the places of amusement where jests and antics take the place of set speech and mind absorbing plot—where the comic side instead of the serious side of life is turned to the audience.

THE wedding was a brilliant affair, and just as elaborate and elegant in detail, though not nearly so large, as the one which united the Misses and Mrs. J. D. DeLoach.
