PRINCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, November 25. - Master Workman Kerfoot and Worthy Foreman McSloy, of the Knights of Labor, were at Uniontown to-day completing arrangements for the trial of the widows and orphans of the Hill Farm miners against the Dunbar Furnace Company. About $5,000 will be the damages demanded by each of the 29 widows. It is understood that the company has made overtures to the widows for a compromise, to the effect that if the suits are withdrawn the company will allow each widow a reasonable amonat. It is not known when the trial against Superintendent Lang for criminal negligence will come

The work at the Hill Farm mine has again been abandoned, an experience yesterday nearly losing the lives of ten men. They had been making splendid progress in their task of entering the mine to recover the bodies of their fellow workmen, when they reached a place where black damp was quite pienty. Two workmen were quickly dispatched for some brattiening, and on their return they were horrified to see all of their ten companions streiched out on the ground unconscions. The slarm was given, and the men wore carried out of the injue, many of them in a half-dying condition. A liberal rubbing revived them, but some are still quite ill.

The exploring party considered at an utter impossibility to proceed any further, and the long deferred hopes of the vives and mothers are finally totally dissipated. The opening to the main entry was closed up to-day and operations undermitely suspended. It is believed that all of the bodies of the miners have been cremated. Many of the families are in a greatly distressed conducion, with far greater discouragement this winter staring them in the face. reached a piace where black damp was quite Catarrh is constitutional in Mrs. Lucinda, wife of John Kinard, aged 46 do but little good. Catarrh is constitutional in character and therefore requires a constitutional remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla attacks the disease at its foundation by eliminating the impurities in the blood which cause and feed it, P. M. and by restoring the affected membrane to healthy condition. A book containing full information will be sent free to all who wish it.

Thought She Had Consumption.

"My daughter has had catarrh for nine years. She coughed and expectorated so much that everyone thought she had consumption. I tried everything I heard of but gained no rehef. I sent her to Florida in September for the winter, and there her friends advised her to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. She wrote me that she had taken three bottles and never felt so good in her life."
