SERVING THE KING.

His Allegheny County Daughters

Preparing for Great Work. A CENTRAL BODY TO BE ORGANIZED

Last Night's Meeting at the Bellefield Presbyterian Church.

ADDRESSED BY THE ORDER'S PRESIDENT

There are over 700 King's Daughters in Allegheny county, and they have been working without a head, but to-day they will organize into a central body for the are now unsurpassed. county, and concentrate their work, with the hope of accomplishing more good than bergtofore.

The General President, Mrs. Margarette Bottome, and General Treasurer, Miss G. H.
Libby, both of New York, are here and yesterday two meetings were held. In the nftermoon a meeting was held in Christ M. E. Church, at which Mrs. Bottome gave a very interesting Bible reading. She took for her subject "The Giants in the Land," and told of some of the giants in this land that are being overcome by the order of the King's Daughters. Her talk was interesting and instructive.

In the evening a meeting was held in the Bottome again gave a Bible reading, giving the aims and objects of the order. She read the story of the good Samaritan, and took that for the foundation of her address. She talked eloquently of the good to be accomplished by the order if it merely took for its motto the story of the good Samaritan.

Mrs. Bottome talked of the little members of the order, not more than 6 or 7 years old. She then told a story illustrating how the little ones comprehend the meaning of the word. One little tot saw another wearing the silver cross and asked what it was. The reply was "That's my badge. It means that I must wart upon others instead of having others wait on me."

A QUEER KING'S DAUGHTER.

has a humorous side to it as well as a moral. One little King's Daughter was given a hen and a "setting" of eggs, and in the course of time a broad of little chickens were chirping around the poultry yard. But one day he old mother hen scratched up her last bug and turned over in the dust heap dead. A dozen little motherless chickens were left on the little girl's hands, but shortly afterward she saw another hen gather the entire brood under her wings. The little girl ran to tell her mother about it and added, sotte voce: "I guess that old hen's a real good King's Daughter."

The lady was somewhat surprised the following morning to see the "King's Daughter hea" proudly scratching up grubs for her adopted (amily, wearing about her neck a 401 Smithfield Street, Cor. Fourth Avenu red ribbon, the symbol of the order.

The organization is mainly grouped into little bands who have set aside some special work for themselves to do, but there is a small army of members who do not belong o any circle, but who do just what opportunity gives them, and they find their hands full indeed.

Thus the work goes on and is increasing year by year. Only four years ago the or-der was organized by Mrs. Bottome, who is the wife of a Methodist clergyman, starting with a very small circle. But it has grown until now nearly 200,000 young ladies wear the little silver cross and work "in His

After the close of the meeting at the Beliefield Church last evening the ladies spent a few moments in chatting of the work and their opportunities. One lady said she had been thinking all day of a 9-year-old boy she had seen in the morning. His clothing was ragged and his feet were without Inquiry developed the fact that the child had been drinking. This the lady decided was her opportunity and she has taken the boy as her special charge. She will try by kindness to teach him to take care of mself and keep him in school if possible This only illustrates the work being done by the ladies, and many similar instances were heard last night. In her address Mrs. Bottome told of the manner of working of a great many of the ladies and circles.

THE WORK IN THIS COUNTY. T e Klugs' Daughters were organized in this county through the efforts of quite a number of prominent church ladies, but Miss McKnight, of Allegheny, was the lender in the movement. The movement is quite widespread now, and takes in almost every section of the two cities and their suburbs. Miss Killikelly, of the East End, ends the young ladies in that section of the city, and has about 200 of them included in Miss Killikelly talked to a DISPATCH reporter last evening about the work. It is not confined to any particular kind of work, she says, except good work. However, in anking after women and girls who are employed in the shops and factories. The East End circles have a baby's Day Nursery in Oakland, which is now flourishing, and is a great protection to the infant industry, even though it has not been opened more

One of the leading features of the work these young ladies have done so far is to two children's cots in the hospitals. They have invested $4,000, the interest of which keeps the two cots as long as the hospitals exist. All the Kings Daughters are very enthusiastic in their work and they have great hopes for the future of the organiution in Allegheny county.

The meeting for the organization of the county body will be held at 2:30 to-day at Christ M. E. Church. To-night a mass meeting will be held and to-morrow afteroon at 4 o'clock a Bible reading in Christ M. E. Church. Wage workers are especially invited to attend the Sunday afternoon meeting. Christmas Letter Mission

The Dispatch of Friday notices the com-pletion of the Christmas Letters, and thus refers to the work of the committee: "The manager had 35,000 printed this year, which is the largest number ever published. They are more attractive and the general work is better than ever before." It is only neces-sary to add that the publishers, after issuing part of the edition in the past two years from the publication office of Percy F. Smith, 53 and 55 Virgin alley, found the work to be of such a satisfactory character that, beginning with 1890, the general publication office in America was removed from New York to Pittsburg and located in Mr. Smith's popular establishment, where are erected and running the most modern presses, the best in use for finely illustrated work. Indeed, it may be said that the first successful printing of this kind in Pitts-burg was executed by Mr. Smith, whose facilities for fine book and catalogue work
