3 EUGENE CARTER DEFEATS MAGGIOLI,

To-Day's Football Game at Recreation Park-General Sporting News of the Day.

PRINCETON, November 28 .- Very few Princeton, November 28.—Very few students attended recitations to-day and any that were held were very short on that account. About 100 returned on the owl last night, and if they had not a joyous time, they had a jolly one. This evening about one-third of all have returned. All look upon yesterday's game, and its results, as a kind of huge joke. Instead of crying over their defeat, they laugh at it.

Peall, 15,000: Dawson, 5,680. Peall won by 9,320 points. In a 12,000-point "spot barred" match at English billiards played during the same period. Campion John Roberts vanquished Expert McNeil, after conceiling him 4,500 points. The game to an end on Saturday night. The reporters say:

"When play ceased on the previous evening the scores were: McNeil, 10,310; Roberts, 10,000. The best breaks during the day were: Roberts. 37, 109, 117, 193 and 105; McNeil, 130, 142 and 70. The latter was still to play with an unfinished crying over their defeat, they laugh at it and admire the Yale players, especially McClung. Never before has de eat been met in the same spirit and because the defeat was complete. Had the game been a very close one, and lost by accident, the grief would have been much greater.

THINKS HIGHLY OF YALE.

The students acknowledge that their team is entirely overmatched. All agree that Yale would have won easily from Harvard had she played anything like as perfect a game as she did yesterday. Among the students Poe is spoken of as the greatest and best captain and player Princeton ever had, "He tackled like a demon; like a fiend," are the words on every tongue.

Already the question of the next captain has come up, and who it will be no one knows. Poe, it is thought, will take a post graduate course, possibly in public law, and if he would allow it there is nothing more certain than that the voice of the college

MAKE HIS ELECTION SURE. and unanimous. It is felt that Princeton will never have another captain like him. None of the students injured by the falling of the stand yesterday have returned except Brad-He is able to go around on a staff. John Rankin, a junior, who resides in New-ark, was also very badly hurt, getting one of his legs broken. He had only recovered from a severe illness. Henry Wolfe, of Princeton, contused ankle, is among the inured not reported. The students demand hat the management be sued and punished for such inhuman carelessness. It is now definitely stated that suit against the park management will be entered. Princeton has suffered much this year and yesterday's defeat was partly, if not wholly, due to misfortunes by accidents to the players dur-

To-day whole armies enter the field every Saturday, while the spectators muster in thousands upon thou- lowing challenge: spectators muster in thousands upon thou-sands. Naturally one will ask: What are the causes that have raised football in Yorkshire from the obscurity of being as near as possible an unknown game to the front rank among outdoor sports and pastimes? To answer this it will be necessary to go back to the formation of the Yorkshire Football Challenge Cup Com-petition.

BILLIARDS EXTRORDINARY.

The English Expert, W. J. Peall Makes a Marvelons Record. English billiardists are speculating whether any expert will beat the marvelous record runs made by W. J. Peall in his victory over C. Dawson in their 15,000 point "spot" match at the Royal Aquarium recently. Peall conceded Dawson 3,000 points to begin with, and knocked his chances to flinders with astonishing ease. The chances to flinders with astonishing ease. The thing that makes the Englishmen marvel was a break of 3,304 points, on which Peall kept his cue going for 2 hours and 40 minutes on a stretch. Critics say that Champion Roberts has scored at a swifter rate, once winning a 1,000-point match in 57 minutes.

English newspapers reproduce this record:
"In addition to the record break of 3,304, the Brixtonian compiled during the week 1,637, 1,494, 1,322, 747, 611, 587, 551, 512, several over 500, and 694 unfinished. When play ceased on Friday night the respective totals stood: Peall, 12,361; Dawson, 5,187; the former being in possession with an unfinished 302 (30 spois). This he made into 437 (144 spois), and subsequently adding a couple of small runs and 1,681 (184 spots) on the part of his opponent. The scores at the adjournment were: Peall, 13,751; Dawson, 5,654. In the evening the Brixtonian soon concluded matters, for, after making the break up to 1,657 (194 and 172 spots), he ran right out with 594, unfinished (228 spots), thus winning by 8,320 points. Dawson only had one innings, and commiled 316 (100 spots). Final score: Peall, 15,600; Dawson, 5,680. Peall won by 8,320 points.

CHICAGO, November 28 .- The departure of General Miles, Commander of the Department of the Missouri, for Washington this morning is more than significant. In short, the General has been summoned to the national capital by General Schofield and the Secretary of War, for the purpose of discussing the details of his plan for at once dismounting and disarming the hostile Indians in the Northwest.

General Miles was seen by a reporter this afternoon just before his departure, and he confirmed all that is stated above. "I go to Washington," he said, "to confer with the General of the Army concerning the Indian situation. Yes, the situation is grave," he continued, "and the necessity for a vigor-ous winter campaign is becoming more and more apparent. We are probably face to face with a winter campaign. The hostile Indians ought to be compelled to surrender, and they ought to be dismounted and disarmed, and they will be. WINTER CAMPAIGN EXPECTED. "Oh, I will add this: They will probably find themselves in a position in the future so that they cannot so easily mount and arm as in the past. You may look for a winter campaign in the Northwest. We have only 2,000 mounted men in the Indian country over a stretch of country 600 miles long. The infantry is doing guard duty only. With this force we hope to keep the peace until we get ready to crush the uprising."

A special from Pine Ridge agency says:
The beel issue passed off yesterday without any exciting features.

It is predicted that within 36 hours the troops will be ordered to disarm or shoot down the marauders, and when the troops do start after them the end will be no Custer affair. The move will undoubtedly be made under cover of darkness, and by a forced march the attack and finish will both occur between the rising and setting of the moon. The scene of action will be some 20 miles northwest of the agency. BREAKING UP THE DANCES. The lower Brule Indian police last night started in to break up the ghost dances which were being carried on at the mouth of the White river, and to-day eight of the leading dancers are in jail. The Indians are reported as organizing for to-night, and the police are ready for it. Affairs were lively for a time, but the police were too much for the new adherents of the Messiah

Being prevented from dancing, many of the Indians want to join their comrades south of the White river, but the Indian police will not let them. No danger of an outbreak here is feared. Both the sgent and Indian police are exercising the utmost vigilance and vigor in the enforcement of the regulations.

FRIGHTENED BOY'S REPORT. Several men came on horseback to give the alarm at Pierpont Langford. One boy said they had burned Pierpont, and when he started to leave on his horse he was shot at No one has come in since the first alarm was given. Guards have been on the ridges to keep watch.

Little Wound is in, and reports his inwere married, and in his embarrassment the young man hadn't sufficient nerve to tell them what had happened.

Finally due explanations were made, and the young couple were made man and wife young couple were made man and wife control with the control his band in the interests of peace. The cavalry expect orders to march to-night on Rosebud camp, on the Porcupine, although General Brooke is reported as being in favor of waiting until the Sixth Cavalry reaches. For Mande and the cavalry reaches and the cava Cavalry reaches Fort Meade, and troops can be placed at Forest City, above Pierre. Word from Sitting Bull's camp says his men are dancing more vigorously than ever. The old chief is still determined to fight. Gall, the leader of the Custer massacre, is the foremost now in his efforts for peace. NEW HAMPSHIRE SITUATION.

The Resignation of the Clerk of the House Simplifies the Matter. CONCORD, N. H., November 28 .- The resignation to-day of George A. Dickey, Clerk of House of Representatives, simplifies the Legislative situation. His successor will be S. J. Jewett. of Laconia, who will receive the full Republican vote at the opening of the special session. The Democrats will be united in opposition to the passage of the bill instructing the clerk as to the method of preparing the roll of the next House, and as there are enough Republicans who take the same position to prevent its passage, the only business that will be transacted will be the

MANY LIVES LOST.

Further Details of the Wreck of a Scandinavian Fishing Fleet. By Associated Press. 1

LONDON, November 28 .- Additional advices have been received of the disaster to the fishing fleet off Ofoten, on the Norwegian coast. Out of 180 smacks, all of which were compelled to cut away their rigging, several were driven ashore and battered to pieces on the rocks. Many smaller boats were also wrecked,

It is feared that hundreds of lives were lost. The bodies of victims are constantly being washed ashore. The coast is intensely bleak and is sparsely settled, and the survivors are suffering greatly from exposure and starvation. Communication with the interior is cut off, the roads being blocked with spow. A steemer has left blocked with snow. A steamer has left Christiania to assist the wrecked fishermen. What Chamberlain Found Here,

LONDON-Mr. Chamberlain has written a letter to his constituents, in which he says

"I have returned from a most interesting and agreeable tour in America, and am gratified to find that the judgment of Lord Salisbury and Lord Hartington regarding the differences between the Radical and Con-servative parties in Birmingham has been loyally accepted. I am confident that it will promote harmony in the future. Russian Frontier Outrage. BERLIN-The Berliner Volks Zeitung reports an outrage by Russian soldiers on the frontier near Alexandrovo. A party of

Russian soldiers raided the house of a land owner and ransacked the house from top to bottom, carrying off everything portable of value. The owner of the house was badly beaten while trying to defend his household. The French Won't Back Down. hospital for English patients have been accepted, and work preparatory to erection of the building has been begun. BUCKET SHOP GAMBLING.

Some Queer Financial Maneuvers Will Come to Light. NASHVILLE, November 28 .- W. W. Moore filed two suits in Chancery Court here to-day, one against the Tennessee Brokerage Association for $4,875, the other against the McCrea Company for $8,050. Defendants conducted bucket shops, and plaintiff claims that he lost the amount sued for in transactions on futures carried on with them last summer. The latter part of August, Moore became deeply involved with the banks in this city, having obtained from them $18,000 by what is known as the "kiting" process; that is, when he became indebted to one bank he would give a check on another for the amount. William Moore, father of W. W. Moore, raised it at the time and met the deficit in the bank.

SPECIAL WEATHER BULLETIN.

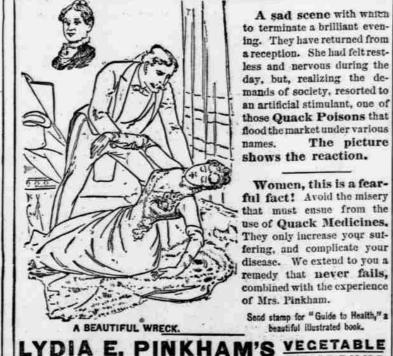

PREPARED FOR THE DISPATCH. A storm of slight intensity was developing yesterday over Lake Superior, moving eastward. The high pressure area, which covered the entire country, had moved eastward considerably. A second high pressure area appeared in the West, with the center of greatest pressure at Salt Lake City. The weather was fair nearly everywhere. There was a small area in the lake region, where it was clouds and threatening, with light snow. Light snow also fell in the New England States. The temperature fell decidedly in New England and New York. Freezing temperature prevailed in all of the States, except those bordering on the
