

BOTH BACK IN JAIL.

Joe Nicely's Hard Luck Very Similar to That of His Brother.

EACH FUGITIVE BADLY USED UP.

Life Convicts in the West Virginia Penitentiary May Go Free.

CONVICT DOBSON WAS SEEN AT HOME

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

SOMERSET, Dec. 2.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock today the town was thrown into another state of excitement by the sudden and unexpected delivery to Sheriff McMillan of Joe Nicely by John J. Barclay, a farmer living less than a mile north of the town.

Farmer Barclay says: "Early this morning, accompanied by Robert Hostetter, aged 16 years, who lives with me, we made a search for Joe Nicely, but made no discovery. After dinner the boy went toward my barn and heard some one calling. I followed the lad and went into the tower, or stock department of the barn, but did not hear the voice that called to the boy. The lad was much frightened when he saw the man who had him, but at once reported to the warden, who with a man was out in front of the barn who wished to see me at once."

"When I approached him I at once recognized him as Joe Nicely. He limped forward and made himself known, and voluntarily gave himself up, stating that he had been secured under the straw in the east side of the barn ever since coming to Somerset without food or water, and suffered intense cold. The injuries he received from his escape from the barn were so great that he could no longer endure them. His right foot is badly frozen and the leg either broken or badly sprained and discolored. It is much swollen, and is so severely injured that it will take some time to get over it."

When he made himself known to Mr. Barclay, he requested that he be taken to his home. Mr. Barclay, who is a prominent member of the Presbyterian Church, could not see it in that light, and just as he was taking Joe to the penitentiary for a second jail. At 2:30 p. m. today, he was delivered to the authorities in charge of the jail.

CONVICTS WILL PROVE INNOCENCE.

Evidences Tending to Prove an Alibi in Case of Alleged Murderers.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WHEELING, Dec. 2.—It is coming to light which makes it seem probable that Thomas B. Kelly and James Christy, sentenced to the penitentiary for life, in September, 1888, in the Circuit Court of this county for the murder of Police Officer Glenn, are innocent.

Glenn was killed on the night of January 7, 1888, while endeavoring to drive two robbers from the residence of John G. Hoffman. There was no one with a remark dropped in a New York, N. J. jail, which was the residence of Kelly and Christy, who were in that institution for a petty offense. They were charged with murder, and after a notable trial they were acquitted. Kelly insisted that he was in Pennsylvania on the night of the murder, and he has in receipt of letters from Beaver county, making it pretty certain his claim is true. The Governor will be petitioned for a pardon.

CONVICT DOBSON IN HIDING.

He is Reported to Have Been Seen at His Home in Everson.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTTSVILLE, Dec. 2.—It is stated with authority that James Dobson, one of the prisoners who escaped from the Riverside Penitentiary last Friday evening, was seen at his home in Everson the other night. Several parties state that they saw him emerge from his mother's residence there. Officers are said to have been on the trail but they lost sight of him when they reached Everson.

His mother says he has not been at her house. Dobson has many close friends here who would do a good deal for him, and it is believed that he has secreted him in the coal regions at some place where they are not likely to find food. Hundreds of people here believe that Dobson is innocent of the crime for which he was convicted.

BURIED OVER A TRESTLE.

Several Injured in the Derailing of a Caboose of the Train.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

BRADYFORD, Dec. 2.—The caboose on the construction train of the A. & N. R. R. jumped the track in crossing a trestle six miles west of here, last Sunday morning. The caboose plunged down about 15 feet and was completely wrecked. The wreck caught fire from a stove and was consumed, and the flames communicated to the trestle, which was destroyed.

Michael Dill, a surveyor, Ernest Hermann, M. C. Freck and his son, who is in the lumber business, were in the caboose. Hermann was seriously injured; young Freck was cut and bruised badly. M. J. Healey had a bad cut on the head. A young man named Leray had a cut on the hand. Dill and his wife were injured. Two others, names unknown, were also slightly injured.

TERRIBLE BOILER EXPLOSION.

Four Men Instantly Killed—No Trace of Machinery of Mill Left.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

BLOOMSBURG, Dec. 2.—A large boiler exploded today on the Nescopeck Mountain, near Egleston, this county. Frank Greiner, his brother Isaac, and two others whose names could not be learned, were instantly killed. The boiler was being used to furnish steam for a sawmill plant operated by Samuel Adams. Not a splinter of the boiler machinery was left intact. All four men were seriously mangled. What caused the explosion is a mystery, but it is presumed the fireman neglected keeping water in the boiler.

SURPLUS OF POSTMASTERS.

A West Virginia Town Has Three of Them, Each Holding a Commission.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WHEELING, Dec. 2.—The little town of Ellenboro takes the lead with three postmasters, each holding a commission. M. G. Strickler was appointed by Cleveland and is holding over. S. R. Lawson was appointed through the influence of General Gill. Major McKinney and another prominent Republican were appointed. Hon. C. R. Smith somehow had the latter appointed upon a petition filed and had J. W. Bohan appointed.

A BRUTAL BURGULARY.

A Gang Secured a Sum of Money, Shot a Man and Escaped From Arrest.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 2.—A gang of unknown men went to the residence of Mr. Carey, at Sewell, last night, broke in, stole $1,000 and robbed the house of several hundred dollars. Two of the men were arrested afterward, but escaped, after shooting a Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad foreman through the body, perhaps fatally.

Protect Your Horse.

Horses being bred for the most important operation, it is necessary that all shod should use the most perfect shoe and construction and disease of the foot.

The use of knowledge and skill in shoeing is a very delicate matter, and one that requires the attention of a professional shoeing expert.

Such as corns, quarter and other cracks, which are very common, and which, if not given proper attention, will result in the horse being unable to keep his feet in good condition.
