Local Players' League Stockholders Once More Fail to Dissolve and Adjourn.

THE DIFFICULTIES IN THE WAY.

Board of Appeals Deals With an Important Feature of Guaranteed Stakes at Trotting Meetings.

A DECISION MAY BE GIVEN TO-DAY.

Football Flayers Getting Into Line-General Sporting News of the Day.

The local Players' League club still exests, but this week will see its burial. The adjourned meeting of the stockholders was held last evening at the Hotel Duquesue, and after nearly two hours' discussion another adjournment was had until Friday evening next. The reason for adjournment was to have the opinions of Mesurs, Carroli, Anton and Fields, who have stock in the concern, on one or two impor-

There is a division of oninion among the stockholders as to the plan of winding up affairs. There are two principal propositions for the stockholders. One is for each stockholder to share the indebtedness and be flowed stock in proportion; the other is that the excellers get what moves they can by taking possession of the assets. Last evening the former proposition met with most favorthan one stackholder refuses to either pay any money toward clearing of the debt or to forfeit his stock. For instance, one centleman originally purchased $1,500 worth of stock. There was a subsequent assessment of 100 per cent, er, in other words, the original stock was doubled; but the gentleman in question declimed to pay is a cent more than his original $1,200. Another assessment is now necessary, earth anything at all. In short, some of the kholders desire a few to pay the debts and everybody can reap the benefit. If the latter course is insisted or, nothing will remain to be done but allow the creditors to call a sale of the assets, and then those who vant to continue without paying any more noney will get little or nothing, and will not have any share in the new club. It is to be looped that the matter will be settled as soon as lioped that the matter will be settled as soon as possible, because it is moressary to secure some proof players for next season as soon as possible. If everything is settled speedily there may be one or two good surprises for Pittsburg baseball parrons within a short time.

The principal stockholders of the P. L. club are anxious for a settlement at once, and if this could be accomplished. Manager Hanlon and Director O'Neil are confident that some of the loss tail players in the country will be here. Mr. O'Neil is working like a Trogan, and if ever the services of a man deserved recognition by office of anything else his certainly do. He by office o anything else his certainly do. He and Mr. Haulon have some surprises in store if matters were uply settled here.

THE BOARD OF APPEALS.

Some Important Questions Discussed by the Trotting Track Magnates.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.-The Board of Appeals of semi-annual session at the Auditorium. A number of cases were heard this morning. In the case of Rich versus Smith and Rossell of Minnesota, an attempt was made to show that Smith and Bussell, not being members of the Minnesota State Association of Trotting and Pacing Horse Breeders, and not being resientry at the races of the association. Evidence was heard. The entry was decided to be registered. Mr. Church, of Allegan, Mich., was accused of entering his borse, formerly known as Lee E, under the name of Pete or Petard. It appeared that Mr. Church had only bought the borse a short time before, and that he did not know him by the name of Lee B. The matter was taken upder advisement.

The board overruled the protest against Y. D. Scales' entry of his horse Exeter at the Bloomington Fair this fall. It was claimed that the cutry was made after the date for closing the entries.

In the afternoon a most interesting case came up for bearing, It embodied the question as to whether as soon as given guaranteed stakes, is entitled to amount paid in by subscribers increase of the guaranteed amount or if such excess belongs to the winning horses pre rata.

the case was that of C. F. Emery against the Contral lilinois Trotting and Pacing Horse Breeders' Association, which comprises the dirent of Bioomurgton, Decatur, Springfield and Aurora. All of these trotting events came out with funds in excess of the guaranteed stake. At Springfield the amount in excess was about 500. The board took the case noder advisement ad will hold a consultation in executive ession on it. Adjourned until to-moirow.

The club will engage in friendly combat with the Eighteenth ward team on Saturday, becomber 18. It was also manimously decided to change the name of the club to that of the East End Football Club, by which title it will hereafter be known.

BARNES' SIDE OF IT.

Be Says a Few Words About His Battle With Juck Hayes.

Jim Barnes, who was beaten by Hayes in a fight Sunday morning, called at this office yes torday, and left the following communication: "I am ready to fight J. Haves again if he will come within one pound of my weight. When I fought him Sunday morning he was 25 pounds servier than I was, and I fought him II rounds. In the seventa round I might have won had an outsider not called time just when I dealt Hayes a territic blow. Tune wasn't up, but Hayes gat rested. However, I will fight him if he will come her. I am warn't and have got research. However, I will nght him if he will come near to my weight." In reply to the above a friend of Hayes' states that Barnes was beaten from the start, and the hattle was only proloceed because Barnes fought on the defensive during the entire fight.

Will Match Jack Again.

The owner of the fighting dog, Sailor Jack, put up a forfeit yesterday of $10, to match the dog named to fight Casey's dog, at catch weights, for $100 or $250 a side. Sailor Jack's owner left the following statement at this of owner left the following statement at this of-fice: "The report that my dog quit after fight-ing Casey's dog 16 minutes is entirely false. The battle lasted 55 minutes, and my dog was robbed of the victory. He was in no condition to fight. I will meet the Casey party Friday evening, December 12, and they must either put up or shat up. Neither my dog nor myself is a cur."

A Challenge to McCabe.

A local sporting man is willing to match E C. McClelland against McCabe, of Brownsville in = 25-mile race for a sub-tantial stake. Mo-Cielland's backer desires the race to be run or an inclosed track and to take place within four weeks after signing articles. If Melabe ac-cepts the offer a ferfeit forwarded by him to The Disparcit office will be covered and a date fixed to sign articles. McCabe is a good man and a race between him and McClelland in a rink would certainly be an attractive affair,

Local Football Teams. A football game, under Association rules, will be played at Exposition Park Saturday next between the Homestead and Allegheny Athletic teams. On the Saturday following: the McKecsoort team will tackle the Athlet-ies, and after that date the new league will likely be in operation. A meeting felative to the proposed league will be held at the Hotel Schlosser this evening.

Mr. Gunsberg Arrives. NEW YORK, Dec, I .- Mr. Gunsberg, the English chess champion, arrived here to-day on the steamer Arizona. The object of his visit is to play Mr. Steinitz, of New York, a match under the auspices of the Manhattan Chess Club of this city.

Sporting Notes. THE Futurity Stake of the Coney Island Jockey

An application was filed yesterday for a charter for the Charters Valley Athletic Association. THE fluid for Jack the Ripper has been matched to fight a Southside dog owned by Andy Neyers. The bettle is to be for $100 a side.

A NEW system of speculators on the Jersey races nowadays is to play the second favorite one two three, and if one loses double up the money next investment. A. G. SPALDING will be in the city this week. It is rumored that a conference will then be held setwees the National League and American Assistation, with a view to fixing up the association's descript.

THE big Thanksziving Day games are usually supposed to end the football acason, but this year it will be extended until the Grescent and upcause Athletic Clubs have their final battle, which is sol down to occur at Washington Park next Satur-

A PLAYERS' League official who knows says that Branch's figures, which shows the receipts at home and abroad of each club, that ought to be straight, are not built that way. Brunch's figures include deadlends who passed through the turnstiles, and, consequently, do not represent real cash.

JAKE KILBAIN, Jack Ashton, Ed Smith, Young Brainsh will meet all comers in their respective classes, at the lighth Street Theater, New York, every night this week. Muidoon and Roeber will also "take hold" with any wrestlers who may put in an appearance. There may be some sur-brines.

THE big athletic escrival, which will be held at Madison Square Garden Becember 1, 12 and 12, continues to be the principal topic of conversation in athletic circles. The Boston Athletic Association football team, which is made upentirely of Harvard men, will play against the Grange team and an exciting context is expected.

THERE is a possibility that George Dixon and Cal Metarthy will be matched within a few days. Bixon will spar at a Howery theater this week, and McCarthy, who claims to have found a man whicing to back him for $5.00, says he will "drive the colored man out of the business" if he will not agree to light. Dixon appears to be willing.

PHIL DALY, JR., of Long Branch, and J. W. Flhott, of Westchester, N. Y., will shoot a match at 100 live birds each for $2\structure a side, on Erb's New-ark grounds, on December 12. Daly will shoot from the 20-yard mark with a 13-bore gun, and Elliott from 25 vards with a 12-bore. Should the latter's gun weigh eight pounds or more he will have to shoot even with Daly.

Jours B. Day said yesterday: "I don't know whether the Boston (P. L.) club will be admitted to the American Association or not. The only way that it can be done is for the Boston people to make application for admission to the association. Then the association would, before entering into negotiations, first have to gain consent, under the National agreement, from the National League, as Boston is League territory.

En Reilly and James Connors, the local wres-lers, met at this office last evening, but failed to come to terms relative to a match between them, felliy insisted on wrestling at 135 pounds each and Renty Insisted on wrestling at its pounds each and Commors said if was impossible for him to get to that weight. He offered to bet Reilly $300 to $200 if the latter, would wrestle at each weight. He also offered to bet that he could get three falls before Reilly could get two. Reilly declined, claiming that he was not a middle-weight wrestler.

CLARA CAMPBELL WINS

HER BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT AGAINST CHARLES ARBUCKLE.

The New York State Court of Last Resort Decides That the Pittsburg Merchant Must Pay $45,000 to Heal Her Injured Affections.

ALBANY, Dec. 2 .- In the Court of Appeals this morning, in the case of Campbell versus Arbuckle, for breach of promise, the judgment of the lower court was confirmed, and therefore the complainant recovers $45,000 damages.

This is the famous "Bunnie" and "Baby the American Trotting Association began its Bunting" case which caused so much amusement when it was tried in New York be ore Judge Beach and a jury in December, 1887. At the trial the jury awarded Miss Clara Campbell (Bunnie), a verdict of $45,000 as a substantial solace for the injury done to her affections and worldly prospects by Charles Arbuckle, the "Baby Bunting" of the voluminous correspondence which was submitted. against him, and still less did he relish the idea of handing over to the damsel upon whom he had once lavished so many endearments $45,000 of his profits in the coffee business. So he took an appeal to the general term of the Supreme Court, which sustained the verdict of the jury. Then Mr. Arbuckle carried his appeal to the Court of Appeals, where arguments on both sides were heard on October 21. Ex-Judge Fullecton and Charles E. Rushmore represented Miss Campbell, and John E. Parsons presented Mr. Arbuckle's reasons for seeking to have the verdict set aside. The decision of the Court of Appeals today ends the litigation. Miss Campbell is resident of Ohio and a member of a tamily of high standing. She is on the shady side At 23 years of age she went to Italy for instruction in vocal music, and returned to this country after an absence or eight years. It was then that she met Charles Arbuckle, the coffee merchant, being intro-duced to him by a mutual friend. What followed is narrated above.

MORE LIBERTY WANTED.

World's Fair Congressional Committee Favors the Local Directory.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Congressman Flower to-day said that the World's Fair Congressions Committee would meet soon after Mr. Candler, the Chairman, returned to the city, and decide what, if anything, is necessary to be done as a result of the committee's visit to Chicago. The committee would be governed, he said, largely by the course pursued by the National Commission. The commission had already adopted some of the suggestions of the committee, and might, perhaps, by adopting others, obviate the necessity for any Congressional action.

Mr. Flower said he thought the committee was unanimous in the opinion that the National Commission should give the Chicago local committee more liberty. The commission's duties should be merely supervisory. The Chicago people should control the management of affairs and he made responsible for the results. He was opposed to any divided responsibility. some of the suggestions of the committee, and

A Broadway Speculator Attempts to Profit by a Suicide.

AN INSURANCE FRAUD ALSO TRIED.

A Shrewd Reporter Ferrets Out a Remarkable Conspiracy.

PREVIOUS RASOALITIES BY SUMNER

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 .- Perrin H. Sumner, Broadway real estate speculator who gained considerable notoriety in connection with the mysterious spicide of the man who registered at the Getty House; Yonkers, as George Smith, was arrested to-day by Captain McLaughlin, charged with forgery. The prisoner, it will be remembered, identified the suicide as his friend, James R. Edgar, a wealthy English chemist. There was a suspicion that the identification was not correct, and was made by Sumner for the purpose of defrauding a life insurance company. The sequel tends to show that Sumner, apparently in the hope of realizing by the scheme the sum of $300,000, did not hesitate to commit forgery. The suicide took place October 27, and the man who passed under the name of George Smith had been stopping at the Getty House two days before he swallowed the tatal dose of morphine.

Gets the News From His Nephew. A few days later Sumner visited the Getty House and identified the body. He declared that he did not believe Edgar had taken his own life, and hinted at foul play." Captain Mangin, of the Yonkers police, appealed to Inspector Byrnes, and an investigation was begun.

During the inquiry Sumner had stated that he had learned of the alleged suicide from George H. Edgar, a nephew of the deceased. He had the body buried at his own expense, and the authorities at once began a hunt for George H. Edgar, now supposed to be a myth. Sumner, when closely pressed, showed letters written by James H. Edgar and his nephews, George H. Edgar and Robert Rowe, all of which were declared by an expert to be in the same handwriting. Summer besides had a rather shady reputa-

November 5 he made his reappearance at Youkers, and to allay suspicions, asked for the examination of the body for further identification. He exhibited a picture which resembled the deceased.

A Reporter Tackles the Case. The police, satisfied that they had thwarted a life insurance swindle, dropped the investigation, and up to the present the mysterious "George Smith" has not been disco vered.

George R. Phoebus, a reporter, determined to fathom the mystery, and for the past three weeks has been watching Sumner. He found that he visited a man of shady character. This man was the counterpart of the picture exhibited as that of Edgar, but he was living under another name.

It was also discovered that Sumner had made a proposition to Lawyer Francis H. Turner to have a man personate Edgar in the drawing up of a will, of which Sumner was to be executor. The lawyer, of course, rejected the proposition, but as be thought it would be well to have the mystery cleared, he suggested that he find a man to act the part required. He introduced Phoebus to Sumner, who thereupon fell into the trap.

Bogus Will Executed and Signed. The will was drawn up by Turner and signed by Phoebus and Sumner. It was afterward attested by a notary public. It was in the signing of the will that Sumner committed the forgery.

Edgar owned property worth $300,000, of which Phoebus was to receive 10 per cent for his trouble. The police surmise that Edgar was in the dark concerning the bogus Mr. Arbuckle didn't relish the verdict to forgery, ultimately intended murder. When Phoebus had led Sumner into the trap with Lawyer Turner, he called at police headquarters to-day and placed the details of the plot before Inspector Byrnes. Late this alternoon the speculator was taken into

> Previous Rascalities of Sumner. This is not Sumner's first appearance be-fore the public. November 6, 1884, he was arrested charged with grand larceny, at the instance of a man named David M. Davidson. At that time, it is said, he made a compromise with the complainant and thus escaped a conviction. Sumner's friends say that the speculator is accused of forging James H. Edgar's signature to a power of attorney, making him his executor. They say the signature is genuine, and if the case ever comes to trial they will be able to produce Edgar. Their version of the affair is that Edgar is heir to a fortune of $500,000, which is so held in England that it is liable to fall to the offsuring of his pephew, George H. Ed. the offspring of his nephew, George H. Edgar. This, it is alleged, is stated in the power of attorney, which Sumner is accused of forging.

It is likewise stated that at the time of the Getty House suicide young Edgar drugged his uncle, and he remained ill until long after the publication of the mystery and the identification and burial of Smith's body. Before Edgar recovered his nephew had vanished, and is now supposed to be some-

THE ENEMY'S STRENGTH. GENERAL" MILES SPEAKS OF THE MAGNI-

TUDE OF INDIAN TROUBLES. A Greater Conspiracy Than That of Pontiac or Tecumseh to Contend Against-At Least 4,000 Well-Armed Hostiles May Take the Warpath.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 .- General Miles, who has been in Washington since last Saturday night, in daily consultation with Secretary Proctor, General Schofield and Secretary Noble upon matters relating to the Indian situation in the Northwest, left for Chicago to-day.

The General believes that danger is imminent. The seriousness of the situation, he says, "has not been exaggerated. The dis-affection is more widespread than it has been at any time for years. The conspiracy ex-tends to more different tribes that have heretolore been hostile, but that are now in full sympathy with each other and are scattered over a larger area of country than in the whole history of Indian warfare. It is a more comprehensive plot than anything ever inspired by the prophet Tecumseh or even by Pontiac." "Are the campaign preparations on the part of the Government complete?" was "Not quite," replied the General. "Every thing will be ready in a few days, though. Altogether there are in the Northwest about 30,000 who are affected by the Messiah cruze; that means fully 6,000 fighting men. Of this number at least one-third would not go on the war path, so that leaves us with with about 4,000 adversaries. There are 6,000 other Indians in the Indian Territory who will need to be watched if active operations take place. Four thousand Indians can make an immease amount of trouble. But a tithe of that number were concerned in the Minnesota massacre, yet they killed more than 500 settlers in very brief time. Altogether, we have about 2,000 mounted men. We have #### plenty of infantry, but you cannot catch mounted Indians with white foot soldiers. EXPECTS AN OUTBREAK.

General Miles Says the Indians Have Cause for Dissatisfaction.

General Miles, who has charge of the United States troops in the West, was a passenger on the limited last evening. He had been to Washington to see the President, and he goes back to the Rosebud. Agency authorized to protect life and property from the Indians. This means that the first gun fired by the redskins will be the signal for warfare. The Genskins will be the signal for warfare. The General is a fine looking man of generous proportions. He wears a gray moustache, which adds to the determination plainly marked in his face. Speaking of the threatened outbreak of the savages, he said: "The Government is sending troops to the Rosebud Agency every day. The Indians have good cause for dissatisfaction, but that is no reason why they should rob and kill defenseless settlers. It is the old trouble of former years. The redskins are robbed by the agents, and the rations that the Government sends are plundered before they reach them. The Mormous are responsible for the Messiah craze. These people believe in the coming of a Savior themselves, and the Indians have faithfully imbibed their ideas from their teachings. I will, remain in Chicago several days before going West. I expect an outbreak before spring and we will be prepared for it."

> WINTER WISDOM. [Exchange.]

Don't be airaid of fresh air, but avoid raughts.

Don't go out of doors for a second without open in texture.

Take off your overcoat when you enter a warm place, whether office or private dwelling, even if your visit is to last only three

ing, even if your visit is to last only three minutes.

If you catch cold or develop a cough, get rid of it at once. This is better than feeling "blue" and thinking that pneumonia or consumption has marked you as a victim.

The best remedy for a cough or cold (however stubborn), or a sudden chill, is pure whiskey. A doso of whiskey in water will impart a generous warmth to the whole body and keep off the diseases of the sesson.

Ton't forget that only pure whiskey has the strongest recommendations from the leading doctors as to its efficiency, and from the most prominent scientifics as to its purity. It is the only standard medicinal whiskey. Take no other from your druggist.
