

TRUE BILLS FOUND.

Result of the Charges of Bribery in the Twenty-Fifth District.

WITNESS WHO CHANGED HIS MIND

And Told Judge Hazen What He Had Refused the Grand Jury.

MYSTERIOUS RAPPINGS IN SCRANTON

NEW CASTLE, Dec. 3.—The grand jury just before noon today brought in true bills against John B. Tate, Edwin Shaffer and Thomas Downing, charged with bribery at the late Congressional Convention.

The trial will take place next week. The court has appointed J. A. Gardner to prosecute the cases in place of the District Attorney, who, the prosecution charged, had not brought out the proper evidence at the September term.

Tri-State Brevities.

CITIZENS of Dec. Falls are kicking against the insufficient supply of gas.

NATURAL gas has almost played out in Homestead and the town is in darkness.

The car famine is causing a great deal of disturbance to the coal trade at Scottsdale.

MONTGOMERY county, O., has paid out $2,747.20 for sheep killed by dogs since September.

WHILE blasting at the Bluestone quarry, at Dunbar, James Kelly was killed by a falling rock.

A YOUNG woman named Hilda Aderholt is on trial at Williamsport for murdering her infant last spring.

The strike on the Pittsburgh, Shenango and Lake Erie has been broken and 100 laborers have returned work.

SILAS BENDER, engineer at the Girard Stone Works, Youngstown, was killed yesterday while starting the engine.

The plant being erected at Boston, Pa., known as the Challenge Brick Works, is the largest industry of the kind in this part of the State.

HENRY ZIMMER, formerly of King's glass house, Pittsburgh, has been appointed general manager of the Windsor Glass Works at Homestead.

A DISPATCH was received at West Newton yesterday stating that C. C. Markle, formerly of that place, had dropped dead in Portland, Oregon.

WILSON BERNETT, colored, and a man named Miller were each holding a $500.00 check for port for stealing three turkeys from Mr. Coarsin.

The Presbytery of Washington will hold its winter meeting at the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, on the 9th and 10th of this month.

The body of John Watkins was found on Tuesday near the Nickel Plate Railroad at Harroburg, O., with a bullet hole in his head. Murder is suspected.

NOTICE of election was served yesterday upon Congressman-elect G. W. Work, of Luzerne county, Pa., by Democratic opponent, bribery being charged.

HITTING THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

Express Company Indicted by a West Virginia Grand Jury.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: PARKERSBURG, Dec. 3.—A few days ago, under instructions from the court, the grand jury of West Virginia returned indictments against the United States Express Company for carrying C. O. D. packages of liquors. They also indicted the express agent at West Union for receiving, delivering and collecting money on C. O. D. packages and the merchant in the city who sold and shipped C. O. D. packages. These cases will all be appealed to the Supreme Court of the State.

Another surprise is in store for the liquor traffic. The express company was forced to return all of its agents in the interior not to receive any C. O. D. packages, and not to deliver or collect any money on packages of the same character which they may have on hand. The "big game" which has been going on since the important part of the shipments by express into the interior, seem now to be doomed. The "big game" which has been going on since the important part of the shipments by express into the interior, seem now to be doomed.

The law is severe one to the liquor merchant of this city and Wheeling, and if the Supreme Court affirms the decisions of the lower court it will be a great victory for the anti-liquor and Prohibitionists of the interior.

MYSTERIOUS RAPPINGS.

Two Families in Scranton Who Say They Heard Peculiar Sounds.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: SCRANTON, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Catharine Walsh and family, of the city, were forced to remove from their home on account of the peculiar noises heard in the house. Martin Nolan and family then moved in and were also forced to move out in a short time. Mrs. Nolan states that about four weeks ago, she heard somebody rapping at the door about midnight. The next night, she heard the same rapping. The same noise was repeated and was heard by every member of her family.

Two weeks ago, she asked her neighbor in the same house if he had heard any rappings. He reluctantly said that he had not only heard them on the night she mentioned, but on every night. Both families thereupon left the house and it has stood idle ever since. The rappings were reported to the police and the police sent some people of the suburb of Pine Brook are greatly alarmed.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Three Mine Employees at Snyville Are Badly Hurt.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: GREENSBORO, Dec. 3.—There was a perfect chain of accidents at Snyville yesterday. Philip Murr, a 44-year-old boy, at Scott Mine No. 3 was run down by a loaded trip and his leg crushed from the knee to the foot. His arm was broken in two places, and he was badly injured in other places. At last accounts he was still lying in hospital, but his recovery is doubtful.

Joseph Duffner, a miner in the same shaft, was also badly injured by a heavy fall of coal. He is lying in hospital, but his recovery is doubtful. David Hamilton, a car trimmer at the Scott mine, was badly hurt by the fall of a heavy piece of timber from the roof which struck him on the back. His injuries are painful, but not necessarily fatal.

THE TRIAL OF JAMES HUNN

Faces a Unanimous Jury for the Shooting of William Freeman.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: ENON, Dec. 3.—When the Commonwealth closed their testimony this afternoon, in the trial of James Hunn, for the killing of William Freeman, it was generally admitted that they had made a strong case against the prisoner. A number of witnesses testified that Hunn was the aggressor and called Freeman a "wild man." It was also testified that Hunn struck the first blow, and when struck back by Freeman, immediately fired the fatal shot. The theory of the defense is that Hunn and the chief point which they sought to establish was that Freeman threw the stone that knocked Hunn senseless, and that the latter fired the shot after he was hit.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Temporarily Left Alone Two Youngsters Play With Fire.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: WILLIAMSPORT, Dec. 3.—The terrible death of a little child of Edinboro, Pa., which occurred last Sunday, is reported. Two small children were temporarily left alone in the house, and the older was amusing the younger by putting a stick in the fire and then waving the blazing brand.

THE NANTICOKE DISASTER.

Liability of the Susquehanna Coal Company to be Tested.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: PITTSBURGH, Dec. 3.—The cases to be tried in the Common Pleas Court, which opened today, is one arising out of the great Nanticoke disaster, which occurred about three years since. In that disaster, quicksand, water and refuse broke into the mine, entombing the 27 men who were at work there at that time.

This action against the Susquehanna Coal Company is one of several brought by the relatives of the unfortunate to test the liability of the company.

McKEESPORT BOBBERS.

A Man Knocked Down in the Street and Robbed of $30.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: McKEESPORT, Dec. 3.—Edwin Eckman, a Swede, in the latest victim of a gang of thieves which has so long and openly worked this city. He displayed some money on the street last evening, and almost immediately a young man suddenly invited him out. Fourth avenue to have a drink.

The man assented, and when they were in the backstreet the seeming friend turned and knocked the Swede down. Two companions,

QUEER DUTIES OF A MAYOR. He Will Run to All Fires Down Town in St. Louis, Day or Night.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.—Mayor Noonan has arranged to attend all fires occurring in the downtown section of the city, regardless of what time of day or night they occur. His driver sweeps at the engine house, four blocks from the Mayor's residence, and is prepared to convey Mayor to any part of the city in which his presence may be required, on short notice.

The arrangement is intended as a precaution against loss of life from the electric wires in the event of fire, the Mayor having full power to shut the shutdown of the street railroad power plant, or of the various circuits of the electric lighting plants, until the danger is over.
