HUHN MURDER CASE BEFORE THE JURY

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCRANTON, Dec. 4.-There is much feeling here over a dispute in church circles, which involves four of the principal houses of worship in the city. Rev. D. M. Stearns, paster of Grace Reformed Church, and a religious writer, whose contributions are welcomed by leading religious journals throughout the country, recently astonished and scandalized the other clergymen of the city by deciaring his belief in the second coming of Christ. This announcement created such a flurry in church, and even nonsectarian circles, that it was denounced by Rev. Dr. Logan from the pulpit. Then followed a controversy, which became so animated that it was carried into the columns of the city press. Soon, however, in the press of other events, it passed out of mind and was only revived this week, when a rumor spread that there was another lively time among the ministers, owing to an alleged insult sustained by Rev. Mr. Stearns at the hands of Dr. Logan on Thanksgiving

For years past it has been the custom for four city churches to hold union service on that day, the churches being the First Presbyterian (Dr. Logan's,) the Second Pres-byterian, Penn Avenue Baptist and Grace Reformed. This year, according to custom, it should have been held in Grace Reformed, and it doubtless would have been had not Mr. Stearns announced that he was about to preach a series of tour evening discourses on Christ's second coming. This set the tongues going again, and when Mr. Stearns sent out the invitations to the other minis-ters to meet in his church on Thanksgiving Day, he received in return a polite answer that the three had formed a little league of their own, and were about to meet in the Penn Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Stearns was startled at the announce-ment that he was to be religiously ostracised, and carried the matter to the attention of the trustees of his own congregation. They are now considering what is best to be done, but have already carried the war into the enemy's own country and are seeking to convince the members of Dr. Logan's flock that the action of their pastor is unchristianlike and unworthy a man professing to preach the gospel of Christ. It is reported that several members of Dr. Logan's church have already gone to Mr. Stearns' church, and that more are contemplating such a course unless Dr. Logan makes a public

Dr. Logan has long been a power in the city. His church is the resort of the wealthy society elements, and through this he has been able to make his hand felt in politics, compelling many a political boss to bend the knee. In his sanctuary worship such well-known and influential men as Con-gressman Scranton, and ex-Justice Hand, of the Supreme Court. Dr. Logan was also a near relative of the late lamented General

THE HUHN MURDER TRIAL

Case Before With a Second Degree Verdict Expected by the People. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCIL!

Uniontown, Dec. 4.-The most important testimony in the Huhn murder trial to-day, was the story of the detendant. He swore that Freeman struck him between the eyes with a stone, and when in a dozed condition he drew the revolver and fired two shots in the direction of his assailant. He said he had never soon Freeman before the day of the quarrel. He admitted having called Freeman a vile name when he discovered Freeman had a stone in his pocket. He denied having rushed on, or struck Freeman struck Freeman.

The prosecution submitted medical testimony to show that a man would have been rendered immediately unconscious, by a blow such as it was claimed Huhn received, and could not have done the shooting, and walked 25 steps before falling. The afternoon session was occupied by the addresses of the counsel, and the charge of the court. James Huhn's fate now rests with the jury. It is generally thought that a verdict of murder in the second degree will be rendered.

TARDY JUSTICE SOUGHT.

Search for Murderers Begins a Year After the Crime was Committed.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, Dec. 4.—For a year and a half the murder of old Samuel Cramer, of Salt Lick township. Fayette county, has been a mystery. Steps are now being tardily taken to bring the guilty parties to justice. It is said that within a short time the case will be given into the a short time the case will be given into the hands of a Cincinnati detective agency and a force will be set to work immediately to ferret out and arrest the guilty parties.

The muracer of the old man was one of the most cold blooded affairs that ever occurred on the mountains. Cramer kept a small store midway between Dayiston and Stahls and was thought to have considerable money. He was attacked one night by a gang of desperate men, and, it is supposed, at his refusal to give up his money, his trains were dashed out and the money, his brains were dashed out and the body secreted in a well. It was discovered

PERIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BUAVER, Dec. 4.—Sheriff Welsh left to-day for Scranton, with a process for Jack West, who is serving a term for vagrancy at that place. West is charged with burglarizing the residence of Rev. Mr. Moore, of New Brighton, West's mother wrote him a letter swying she had not heard of him for six long years, and pleading for him to come home and do right, and to take care of her in her old age. West sent her letter to the Chief of Police at Scranton, asking him to write to Rev. Dr. Moore and to ask him to forgive him so that he might come home in safety to take care of his poor sold mother. Rev. Mr. Moore will probably not push the unfortunate man, now that he really push the unfortunate man, now that he really intends to do right.

ARBITRATION KNOCKED OUT.

An Eric Judge Decides That Form of Trial

Unconstitutional. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ERIE, Dec. 4.-Hon. Frank Gunnison, President Judge of the Erie courts, pronounced as unconstitutional the arbitration form of trials of cases, which have been an acknowledged practice in Pennsylvania for over 20 years, It had been the custom under a statute for one side or the other to enter a rule on the opposing litigant to choose an arbitrator, and there had never been any appeal. Coionel J. R. Thompson and J. R. Freeman, lawyers, raised the point that the arbitration act denied litigants the right of trial by judge—a right under the common law which cannot be abridged—and the Court sustained the point. and the Court sustained the point,

First of all, Scrofula is inherited. The large majority of people suffer more or less from im pure blood given them by their parents. Second, Scrotula may be acquired by trying to live on insufficient and poorly-cooked food, which fails to supply the blood with enough of the elements of life and health.

Third, confinement in poorly ventilated rooms, workshops or factories, or living in damp, unhealthy localities, will poison the blood and develop Scrofula.
